An Oculist's Advice.

Keep a shade on your lamp or gasburner.

Never read or sew directly in front of the light, window or door.

It is best to let the light fall from above, obliquely over the left shoulder.

Never sleep so that on first wakening the eyes shall open on the light of a window.

Never begin to read, write or sew for several minutes after coming from darkness to light.

Do not use the eyesight by light so scant that it requires an effort to discriminate whether twilight, moonlight or on cloudy days.

Finally, the moment you are instinctively prompted to rub your eyes, that moment stop using them; and if you think you need spectacles, those sold by C. B. Routley, Peterborough, will be found as good as any. dw

DON'T blunder past The Pantry Store and get disappointed in bargains.

Directors Meeting.

A meeting of the directors of the Peterborough and Ashburnham Horticultural Society was held in the office of the Bank of Toronto on Thursday afternoon. All outstanding accounts and the prize list were authorized to be paid. It is to be hoped that those doing business with the society will be as liberal as possible, as a considerable amount has to be borrowed to enable the society to meet these engagements, owing to the heavy expense of the park. Resolutions were passed by which no recommended prizes will be paid, and all prize winners will be required to sign a declaration to the effect that articles exhibited have not been awarded prizes previously, nor were they purchased for the purpose of exhibition.

Inspecting the Hospital

Yesterday afternoon the members of the Nicholl's hospital Trust, Messrs. D. W. Dumble, R. Hall, R. S. Davidson, A. P. Poussette and Wm. Manson, paid a visit of inspection to the new hospital building in the north ward that is nearing completion. The brick work is nearly finished and the structure is partly roofed. The building presents an imposing appearance, situated as it is on the hill side. Mr. Blackwell, architect, and Mr. A. Rutherford, contractor, were there to conduct the visitors about and give every desired information. Mr. Rutherford says that when completed the building will have used up about 340,000 bricks. This will give an idea of its dimensions. The members of the Trust expressed their satisfaction with the building and the workmanship It will soon be closed in entirely.

A Mysterious Disease.

A mysterious disease which is baffling the experience of the doctors is appearing in town and country. Some interested parties are trying to keep it secret but it is spreading rapidly and may be said to have become epidemic Oddly enough the symptons are first felt in the feet. A prominent doctor said this morning that he had found out the cause, and that it was no more than a devor ing desire to rush to gough bros. to buy the splendid new $6,000 stock of boots and shoes now being sold to the public at prices within reach of the lightest pocket. Mens', womens' and childrens' boots and shoes of all kinds form the attraction. Everybody has the fever and nothing will cure it but a visit to gough bros., 375 George street. Marvellous bargains. High class goods at low cost prices. Stock bought at 40 cents on the dollar, as good as gold, and sold at the same cheap rates. The goods are first-rate quality; nothing is cheap but the prices. Come and see at 375 George street.

Dr. Collins' Serious Illness.

Mr. H. LeBrun returned to town from Cobourg last night and reports that Dr. Collins' marriage was prevented by a most serious attack of illness. He went down to Cobourg on Tuesday morning, but was so ill that he had to take to his bed at the residence of his sister, Mrs. O'Neil. The wedding was to have taken place Wednesday morning at eight o'clock in the chapel of St. Joseph's Convent, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion, and crowded with an expectant company, but the doctor's illness was so severe that the ceremony had to be indefinitely postponed; in fact, at one time his life was thought to be in great danger and the services of three physicians were engaged. Dr. Collins was ill when he went down to Cobourg, having taken cold during a professional visit to Ennismore. On Thursday evening he was better, and it is hoped that under the careful and affectionate nursing he receives, he will soon be recovered, when, it is probable, the marriage will be celebrated quietly.

Obituary.

The Late Mrs. Daniel Hopkins.

The death of Mrs. Daniel Hopkins this morning at eight o'clock, at the homestead residence, Weller street, will be melancholy intelligence to the exceedingly wide circle of friends and acquaintances the deceased lady possessed. For the deceased lady was a venerable member of one of the earliest pioneer families of the township of Smith. Her maiden name was Jane Donelly, and she was born in Ireland in 1817. She came to Canada ten years later with her parents, who settled in the township of Smith. In 1835 she was married to Mr. Hopkins, and they removed to St. Catherines, returning after some years to take up their residence in Peterborough. Mrs. Hopkins became a widow in 1881, her husband dying in September of that year. The children were six in number, three of whom are dead. Those surviving are Mrs. Morrow, widow of the late W. A. Morrow, Mrs. Geo. A. Cox and Daniel C. Hopkins. Mrs. Hopkins was a devoted member of the Methodist denomination, worshipping in later years at the Charlotte street church. Some time since she was severely ill, but became convalescent. A short time ago, however, she suffered a relapse, which ended in her death. Her last illness was borne with the patience and resignation characteristic of her devoted piety. Her character won for her the warm respect and esteem of the community in which she moved for so many years. The funeral will take place from the late residence of deceased on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Personal.

Mr. Jamieson, of the EXAMINER, is doing the Industrial Exhibition and Niagara this week.

Mr. Peter Hamilton is expected home this evening. He has been visiting the Buffalo and Industrial Exhibitions.

Rev. W. K. Anderson of Lindsay, passed through town this morning, on his way home from the Caledonia Springs, somewhat improved in health.

Mr. Wm. O'Brien, Clerk of Douro, returned home on Thursday evening from Sault Ste. Marie. Mr. O'Brien is seriously thinking of removing to the Sault in October.

The friends of Mr. E. B. Edwards will regret to learn of his affliction in the loss of his infant son aged eight months. His little daughter was ill, and her death was feared, but in the meantime the little boy sickened and died.

At the annual meeting of Ontario Undertakers, held at Toronto, Mr. D. Belleghem, of this town, was re-elected a member of the committee. Mr. Belleghem, who has been attending the meeting of the Association, will return to town to-night.

Mr. J. A. Barron, M.P., North Victoria, and Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., will address a picnic in Manafield's Grove, Galway, on Thursday afternoon next. In the evening Mr. Stratton will meet with some of his constituents at Mr. Chas. McMahon's new residence in the northeastern portion of Galway.

UNHAPPY HEATHEN HINDOO

Major Musa Bhai tells of Their Unsatisfied Yearnings.

The First Night's Meeting of the Barracks—Celebrating the Fifth Dominion Anniversary—An Appeal on Behalf of the Benighted Hindoo Heathens—The Native Hindoos in Peterborough.

Yesterday and to-day will be red letter days in the history of the Salvation Army here. The sixth anniversary of the Army's entrance into Canada was celebrated with much eclat by a two days' monster demonstration, attended with all the flourish and excitement usual to Salvation Army jubilees. Great expectations had been reared on the head of this affair, and to say that they were all fully realized and the celebration was a grand success, but draws it mildly. The barracks, large and commodious as it is, at last night's meeting was packed to overflowing. Ten cents admission was charged and twenty-five cents a couple extra for reserved seats.

During the day holiness meetings were held for the officers and soldiers. Officers from all over the district poured into town and helped to swell the gathering.

The parades were quite interesting, the one at night being accompanied by a display of Chinese lanterns and torches.

The "distinguished visitors" were:—Commissioner Coombs, Toronto; Col. and Mrs. Dowdle, of Gen. Booth's headquarters, England; Adjutants Philpott and VanAllen, and the Hindoo contingent, comprising Staff Capt. Leeds, a Scotch lady who has been engaged in Army work in India for twelve months; Major Musa Bhai, Lieut. Horatula, Lieut. Devasepa and Lieut. Mathabaranun (female), all natives of India. These latter appeared on the platform in native dress, ponderous turbans, scarlet jerseys, cream colored skirts and scarfs. They were all barefooted. Lt. Horatula carried a small drum, shaped like a cider keg, that he played with his fingers. Lt. Devasepa had a pair of small cymbals that he pounded together and made a ringing noise. In addition to his native garb, the Major wore a leopard skin on his shoulder, and when the three began prancing about the platform, shouting, gesticulating and jumping about like acrobats, their swarthy faces lit up by the fire of intense zeal, their white teeth glistening and their long curly hair flying about wildly, the scene became at once weird and interesting. And when the vast concourse of Salvationists and others joined in, with tambourine and brass band accompaniment, the noise was deafening. If their zeal is commensurate, the Salvationists must indeed be a consecrated people.

The local corps can boast of an orchestra as well as a brass band. While the audience was gathering and before the entry of the procession, an orchestra comprising an organ, violin, 'cello and concertina played Salvation tunes and entertained the people.

THE MEETING BEGINS.

The building was densely crowded, and as the Hindoos entered the barracks from below a mighty clamor of welcome surged through the building. For several minutes this was kept up until the Commissioner's whistle restored peace. Then singing and prayer followed and Lieut. Horatula sang a Salvation song in his own tongue and spoke a few words in broken English, about as follows: "Jesus very goot—goot Saviour-mugga (Commissioner—"my")yah, my Saviour very goot—mugga, mugga (Com—"My") my hand black, my heart white," etc. He went on to tell of the 250 million heathens—poor heathens—in India, who die at the rate of 650,000 a year. There was no one to tell them of Jesus and he wanted more Christians to go back with him and help the work along. They had a band of twenty who were going back with them, and Lt. Hortula asked the audience for money to help pay their expenses.

Col. Dowdle read a psalm and drew therefrom the subject for a short sermon upon the providence of God, who always provided for his servants. To illustrate this he told how in the course of their travels through Canada, one day on the cars they were holding a prayer meeting when a big drunken fellow staggered in and eyed his praying comrades mischievously. The Col. said he was watching the fellow and inwardly feeling that he was going to cause trouble, when the conductor came along and hustled him out of the car before he could do any mischief. Thus they had been perserved, and after the prayer meeting they had a testimony meeting in which several of the passengers joined. Then Horatula spoke to one of them about India and was handed a $5 bill. The conductor did the same thing, and then the passengers pulled out their lunch baskets and gave the whole party a meal. This, said the Col., was an instance of God's providence.

Lieut. Muthabaranun then sang a hymn in native Hindoo and made an address in very good English. She, like the other natives, seemed to possess an intelligence and capability that ought to forever remove the impression that the Hindoos were ignorant and intractable savages. She made an urgent appeal in behalf of the female portion of the Salvation Army. She herself had been a Zenena woman who had long sought after the true God but had found none until the Salvation Army came and showed her the way to Jesus. She had seen the so-called Christians before, but they never lived up to their professions and so their religion could not satisfy her. The Army people came among them and she had boldly taken up the cross with them. She had to give up much, her standing among her own caste, and her jewels, everything in fact that makes life worth living from a worldly point of view, all for Jesus, whom she had been serving twelve months. She said her sisters in India were crying out for a means of grace, and she pleaded so earnestly that tears came into her eyes and her voice almost broke down. She wanted to see volunteers and money offered for the service among her poor country women.

THE CLAIMS OF INDIA.

Commissioner Coombs, in introducing Major Musa Bhai, said that a band of twenty Canadian officers had volunteered to go to India to engage in this work, and about 125 more had expressed their willingness whenever called upon to devote their lives to the evangelization of the Hindoos. These 20 officers would return to India with the Hindoo contingent, and sail from Canada on the 18th of next month.

Major Musa Bha laid the claims of India before the congregation in a speech, delivered with a polished diction, indicating a cultured mind, and an eloquence which demonstrated that his soul was on fire with devotion to the cause. The Hindoo orator commenced by pointing out the vast heathen population of the world, 856 millions, of which 250 millions were in India. In order to impress it upon the audience, the Major stated that the number of heathens in India numbered fifty times the entire population of Canada. They were all sitting in darkness, darkness of the worst kind. He was surprised to find out the ignorance that prevailed in Canada concerning the religion of the Hindoo heathen. They were not stubborn, unintelligent heathen, but rather educated and always ready to learn. There were men in all classes of life in India, he said, who could hold their own against any European Doctor of Divinity in an argument over their religion. The Hindoo's religion when stripped of superstition and idolatory had much good in it. The Hindoo believed in a God, a heaven and a hell, and they were anxious to gain that heaven, and realized that in order to do so they must experience a change of heart. But the trouble was they did not know the proper way to salvation. They tried to gain the favor of their God by lacerating and scourging their flesh, by wearying pilgrimages and useless sacrifices. They were eager and ready to grasp any new religion that would satisfy their longings, and this the Major held was the religion taught and preached by the Salvation Army. The Army was doing a grand work among his fellow-countrymen, and all they wanted was more men and more money to complete the conversion of the whole country. He defined the reason for the merely partial success of other missionary societies in India. He said a hundred years ago the first missionaries came to India and since that time forty societies had been working there, but out of 250,000,000 only a quarter of a million of proselytes, nominal and real, had been gained. The trouble was that these organizations did not work from a heathen point of view. The missionaries came attired in European clothes, and the natives had learned to abhor foreigners, and for a very good reason. Europeans there lived lives of luxury and licentiousness, and as they were all supposed to be Christians, for they of course attended church regularly and were professing Christians, the natives of course got the idea that their religion was all a sham. The natives understood a Christian to mean a white man who "drinks brandy and eats beef." "Christian" is a nick-name in the eyes of millions of Hindoos for "drunkard." So when the missionaries came among the people they were not listened to, for the Hindoos said, we have watched you and your religion, and we don't want any of it. This was the great barrier in the way of the mission cause. Then for another thing, the missionary societies had not appointed a single convert to a position of responsibility. This apparent want of confidence in their converts hurt the cause, for the natives were ever on the watch. Contrast this with the work of the Salvation Army. Its officers go about like the poor Hindoo, travelling in their bare feet, begging their bread from door to door, having no home to go to, and to sustain them. The Army, early in its history, placed a converted Hindoo second in command, having under his direction 110 European S. A. officers. That was their beloved Commissioner Tucker, who was now engaged in the work. Commissioner Tucker was a Supreme Court Judge in India when he received a copy of the War Cry, he read it, went to London himself to find out the inner workings of the Army to see if their lives compared with their professions, and became converted when he saw what a heartwhole people they were. That was the religion the Hindoos were thirsting for. They wanted something that would change their hearts, that was not all cant and form. With such consecration it was no wonder that the Army missionaries won 3,000 heathens to Christianity during the first six months. The Major detailed his own experience. When the Salvation Army came to Columbo, in Ceylon, he watched them closely for a long time to satisfy himself that they were genuine. When convinced of this, he gave himself up to Jesus, and was now rejoicing in a blessed salvation The reasons why the native dress had to be adopted in India by missionaries were two-fold. It removed prejudice, while the cream coloured sash was the universal sign of priesthood in all oriental religions, and commanded the awe of the natives. Then the begging basket of the priest—a specimen of which curious article was exhibited to the audience—had many uses. It was his headquarters. He carried his ink, papers and Testament in it. When hungry he would stand in front of a house extending the basket until noticed, when a portion of boiled rice would be proffered. The basket would then become a plate, and, being rinsed out in a neighbouring stream, it becomes a goblet. Should water have to be drawn from a well the scarf or the turban would be called into requisition as a rope, and the begging basket becomes a pail; being dried, it again becomes headquarters and library, and since arriving in Canada he had obtained a handkerchief, ringing another change on the begging basket, which became, by this addition to its contents, a valise.

The Major, in conclusion asked the three Canadian volunteers who were present to stand up, and to them he spoke of the trials and vicissitudes of the life they were about to undertake. But thanks be to God they would have the blessed privilege of saving souls, and he said he only hoped there were more of them. He made an urgent appeal in behalf of the claims of heathen India upon the rich and comfortably living people of Canada, who had all the advantages and poor Hindoo none.

Commissioner Coombs supported the appeal by asking for funds to take the Canadian soldiers to their far off field. One of the twenty who had volunteered, he said, was one of the first officers in Peterborough. In response to the appeal a large sum was subscribed. The Hindoos passed among the audience collecting, and Horvtula's excitable gestures and comments, "Goot—very goot—goot lady—goot shentleman—very goot for Peterborough," caused much amusement. It was asked if anybody in the audience would volunteer to pay the expenses of one of the Army missionaries to take him out there. It would be $100, and Mr. John Carlisle responded to the call and was rewarded by a hearty "God bless you," and when Major Musa Bhai brought up the $100 in cash, a rousing "volley" was fired. "It will cost $25 a year to keep a missionary in India, who will volunteer to keep one for a year?" was the next question. A lady in the front seats held up her hand in token that she would undertake that amount. Afterwards smaller amounts were collected, and a silver collection was also taken up.

Lieut. Horatula has a face of black with long, curly, jet black hair hanging down his back. He said he was a villager in the mountains of Ceylon, belonging by religion to the devil-worshippers. He became a drunkard and a thief. Joining a band of robbers, he was appointed their leader. Hearing a Salvation army missionary speak, he became converted and when he in turn became a Salvation preacher, twenty-three of his fellow robbers and his mother were also converted.

Lieut. Devasepa and Staff Capt. Leeds did not speak. The latter is a mild-looking, pale-faced Scotch lady, whose face indicates that she has undergone severe trials.

It was announced that at the meeting to-night the Hindoos would tell more about their personal affairs and the work in India. It will be no doubt very interesting.

To-day councils-of-war and holiness meetings are being held by the officers.

The fruit season has now come and we must prepare to put up our fruit. Now what kind of jars are we to use? Of course, glass jars; but so many of those we had last year cracked in filling that it makes it very expensive. Oh, I remember how Mrs. Goodwife told me last year she bought her jars at "China Hall," and that she did not break a jar in filling or lose a single can of fruit. I shall buy from China Hall this season. As the price is just the same I might as well have the best.

JULY'S INLAND REVENUE

A TOTAL OF $333,146 FOR THE MONTH.

Fruit Growers' Estimate of the Loss Caused by the Early Frosts in Manitoba—Schooner Seized for Smuggling.

OTTAWA, Sept. 15.—J. E. C. Bodley, formerly secretary to Sir James Dilke, is in the city. His visit to Canada is made with the view of studying our constitution in all its bearings. Mr. Bodley lunched with Hon. C. H. Tupper yesterday, and last evening dined with Sir John and Lady Macdonald.

Prof. Saunders of the Experimental Farm has made a careful enquiry into the damage done to the Manitoba wheat crop by the frosts. After a careful estimate made from reliable data he says 50 per cent. of the entire product has been frosted but the greater part of the affected grain will market at from 30 to 40 cents per bushel. It is conceded by prominent grain dealers in the west that the excess of export values this season will be something over $2,000,000, so that at the very worst the Manitoba farmers will have a good year. Experiments with the Ladoga wheat have been successful, and there is every prospect that ere long the farmers of the Northwest will be relieved of a great deal of anxiety now caused by the action of early frosts.

A schooner has been seized off Nova Scotia by Special Officer Bogue for smuggling. The offence seems to have been committed when the vessel was owned in Pictou, the present owners being entirely blameless.

Hon. John Costigan leaves Monday for New Brunswick to participate in the ceremony of turning the first sod of the Tobique Valley Railroad in the County of Victoria.

The Canadian Gazette to-day contains the balance sheet of the Bank of British North America for the year ending June 30, 1888.

The unrevised statement of Inland Revenue accrued during the month of July, 1888 is:

Spirits	$333,421
Malt	32,175
Malt liquor	6,327
Tobacco	152,463

CASUALTY ON THE B. & O.

A PASSENGER TRAIN JUMPS A SWITCH AT ANKNEYTOWN.

And Runs into a Freight, the Engine of Which Explodes, Covering the Passengers with Steam and Hot Water.

MANSFIELD, O., Sept. 14.—The Baltimore and Ohio north-bound passenger train, No. 3, due at 5.55 a.m., jumped the switch this morning at Ankneytown siding, twenty-five miles south of this city, and collided with a freight train on the siding. The mail car, followed by the express car and two day coaches, struck the engine and rolled over on their sides, badly wrecked. Almost immediately the freight engine—a camel-back—exploded, throwing wreckage in all directions. The two coaches contained 110 passengers, nearly all returning from the encampment at Columbus. The hot water and steam from the boiler poured into the coaches and those passengers that had not been hurt by broken timbers were scalded.

The engine of the passenger train, which with two express cars had safely passed the switch, was immediately taken to Independence and Belleville and the doctors in those places were taken to the wreck. All but four or five were out of the broken coaches when the doctors arrived. Mrs. Edward Valentine of Chicago and F. Luckens, the express agent, were firmly pinned under the wreck. Harry Tomlinson, the freight engineer, was standing on the side track next to the passenger train and was found between the engine and boiler of his engine with the front part of his head blown off. He was unmarried and resided with his mother at Newark. David Wilson, the baggage master, was found all doubled up alongside of the freight train with his neck brkoen and skull crushed. He leaves a wife and two children at Sandusky. Mrs. Edward Valentine of Chicago and William Grinsley of Shawnee, a brakeman on the freight train, cannot live. The dead men were laid on cots alongside of the track and the wounded were taken to houses near by.

The wrecked train consisted of engine, two express cars, two day coaches and two sleeping cars. The only persons injured were in the day coaches. The sleepers did not leave the track. The injured number 22, three of whom are likely to die.

The young girl Harriet Arkwright, who about a month ago was found lying unconscious on the lake shore road, near High Park, in convulsions, was picked up on Duke-street at a late hour by P. C. Mills while wandering aimlessly about. Staff Inspector Archabold had her admitted to the Rescue Home, but she refused to stay and escaped. Galt had a complaint to make to His Worship that the liquidators of the Central Bank absolutely declined to allow him to examine the defendant's account with the Bank, notwithstanding his worship's order given a few days ago. Mr. Carson, of the County Crown Attorney's firm, stated that he had given Mr. Galt an order on the liquidators so that no blame rested with his office. The police magistrate advised Mr. Galt to serve a subpœna to produce the account in question on the liquidators. No Chance Against a Circus.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—It was only a little telegram—a very little telegram, in fact—but the frown on Senator Plumb's face darkened repeatedly as he sat in his seat and read and re-read it. It appears that the Senator and Representative Peters had agreed to address a political gathering at Wichita, Kan., on Sept. 17, on the issues of the day. It was their intention to leave today, but the telegram caused them to change their plans. This is what the telegram contained:—

"Don't come, Barnum's circus is billed for same day. You can buck against the Democrats successfully, but our people would rather go to h— than miss a circus. Better fix upon another date."

The C. P. R.'s Detroit Extension.

LONDON, Ont., Sept. 15.—The surveyors commenced staking out the new line for the Canadian Pacific Railway extension to Detroit, through the city yesterday morning. The road will not be let by tenders, but will be built under the supervision of the company's officers.

THE TIMES ON "TRUSTS."

COMBINES AS A FACTOR IN UNITED STATES POLITICS.

The Thunderer Denies Blaine's Statement About Trusts in England—The Cobden Club and the Presidential Election.

LONDON, Sept. 15.—The Times takes "Trusts" as a subject for a leader. It begins: "A question in the presidential campaign, which has started into great importance, is the attitude of the two great parties in the United States toward trusts or combines—those modern forms of commercial monopoly beneath which consumers both in the United States and in Canada are groaning. Mr. Blaine has declared in an off-hand way that combines are largely private affairs with which the public has nothing to do, but in this opinion Mr. Blaine will find few supporters amongst his own party. As for the Democrats their position is well defined in President Cleveland's last manifesto. Both parties are pledged to attempt to break down the great combines.

"The only difference in principle between the Democrats and the Republicans seems to be that the Democrats assert that a high tariff makes trusts possible and resolutely refuse to attack them by special legislation. The Republicans answer that the greatest monopolies in the country are those not affected by the tariff—the Standard Oil, the Western Union telegraph and the anthracite coal combination companies. The whole field of commerce in the States is now honeycombed with these trusts. No industry is too vast and few too humble to repel trusts. There are petroleum, cotton, steel rail, coal, wheat, whisky, lard, milk and salt trusts, and even an ice trust."

The Times then gives an admirable history of trusts with a capital catalogue of them, and thus concludes: "Mr. Blaine informed a Republican audience the other day that England was plastered over with trusts, yet the 'combine' has not yet obtained any appreciable footing in this country."

Nobody here appears to have heard of the existence of such a paper as The English Iron Era, quoted in Republican campaign circulars in the States as saying: "The Cobden Club is trying to raise a large sum of money to be spent in furthering the free trade propaganda in the United States. Lord Brassey has given £1000, others less, and the hat is going round." Certainly it is not mentioned in the latest press directories.

Of course there is no truth in the statement that the Cobden Club is raising money to further free trade in the United States. On the question whether the adoption of free trade by other nations would be beneficial or not to England, the members of the Cobden Club are divided. Many think, and the opinion is shared by that eminent free trader Mongredien, that England will positively be benefited by being the only free trade nation.

The current number of Iron has no reference to the American tariff. Indeed, the English trade papers generally seldom refer to the subject.

In view of the excitement created by the publication of an alleged statement by Michael Davitt, the publication of an explanation of the bogus interview would seem to be in order. When Frank Hugh O'Donnell was preparing his case against The Times his solicitor wrote to Davitt requesting him to write a succinct history of his connection with Fenianism, Parnellism, etc., in order that O'Donnell might judge of the character of the evidence Davitt would give if he should be called as a witness in the plaintiff's behalf. Davitt complied with the request and was not summoned as a witness for obvious reasons. When O'Donnell's case collapsed Davitt's statement was filed away in the solicitor's office with a mass of other unused documents. During the absence of the solicitor on a holiday trip one of the clerks in his office made a copy of Davitt's letter and sold it to a news agency, which published it as an interview. This explanation is authorized by Davitt, who is now in London completely fagged out from his recent labors.

John Morley has gone to Hawarden at Gladstone's request to consult with the ex-premier concerning Davitt's attitude, and an effort will probably be made to induce the latter to specifically define his position to the leaders in order that they may know positively whether he may be regarded as a friend or an enemy.

Scott Act Successes.

Rev. D. V. Lucas Addresses a Very Small Audience in St Paul's Church.

A very small audience assembled in St. Paul's Church on Friday night to listen to Rev. D. V. Lucas, upon the successes of the Scott Act. Rev. Mr. Torrance acted as chairman, and, after prayer by Dr. Fife, introduced Rev. Mr. Lucas.

The speaker, after stating that his subject would treat of the successes of the Scott Act, asserted that there was necessity for educating even Christians up to a proper understanding of the heinousness of the liquor traffic. The Scott Act, while not perfect, was the best prohibitory measure we ever had, and one we should endeavor to keep. The first instance of Scott Act success cited was the county of Halton. The terrible condition of society there under the liquor traffic was depicted, and the assertion made that of the three murders taking place in the county all had been the direct result of the drink traffic. An incident was related of a distinguished and skilful surgeon who killed himself with drink before he was 50 years of age. Statistics were presented to show that there were in the county of Wentworth 1795 convictions for all crimes; in the county of Wellington 573 cases, while in the county of Halton, after the three years Scott Act, there were only 39 convictions, for crimes of general character. As regarded convictions for drunkenness and disorderly conduct; in Wentworth there were 666 convictions, in Wellington 235 convictions, while there were in Halton only three. These counties are contiguous to Halton and the comparison was too eloquent to be ignored. The speaker disparaged the argument that the Scott Act was ineffective because liquor could be sold all around a county, by pointing out the influence of example in causing the adoption of the Act by other counties. The city of Fredericton, N B had been ten years under the Scott Act and in one slum-like street, in that city, property had risen 100 per cent in value under the operation of the Scott Act. There was an intensification of moral tone, and almost complete absence of profanity, and almost complete absence of intoxication, visible on the streets. It was absolutely false that there was more drinking there than under the license act. Apply the test to the counties generally the speaker informed his audience that Sir Charles Tupper, in his budget speech, pointed out that the falling off in revenue from liquors, due to the effect of the Scott Act, had been two millions, and it became necessary to impose additional duties on tobacco and snuff to make up the loss. In Brockville, after six month's experience of the Scott Act, the police had so little occupation that the force was since reduced by one half. The Christian church should arouse to its duty in reference to the triumph of prohibition principles. In Halton crime had decreased sixty per cent. in four years, and there was a marked and general improvement in the moral tone of the community. The Scott Act could not be considered a failure if it accomplished even a little good. The speaker announced that he would speak in the Opera House on Sunday afternoon at 4.30 o'clock and in the evening at 8.15. The benediction, pronounced by Rev. E. F. Torrance, brought the meeting to a close.

The Poor of Peterborough.

To the Editor of the Examiner :—

DEAR SIR,—I hold that our system of taking care of the poor is not a good one. In the first place, here is a widow with three or four children from the age of one to ten; not much in the house to do with. If she is able to go out washing, the children are left all day to take care of themselves the best way they can. Their food is mostly bread and some butter or milk, and more often bread alone. But that is not the worst. These children have no opportunity to learn how to do any kind of house work whatever, for there is really none to do, and they grow up to a spirit of dependence on the charity of the neighbors around them. Take, for instance, a girl brought up in that manner till she is twelve, she really does not have the spirit and ambition of one brought up where there is plenty, as one seven years of age and the result is that this beggarly dependent spirit is propogated and increasing every year. Now, what I would suggest is this: That the corporation of our cities, towns, should take the children and place them where they would be properly fed, clothed and educated in such a way as shall make them useful men and women, be helpful to themselves and to the community. I hope, sir, that our town fathers will take up this important question, "How shall we manage our poor," for their good and our good, especially the latter.

Yours,
HUMANITY.

A RED HOT FIGHT IN PROGRESS.

Montreal East Liberals Choose A. E. Poirier as Their Standard-Bearer.

MONTREAL, Sept. 15.—At a meeting of Liberals and Nationalists last evening to select a party standard-bearer to contest Montreal East, Mr. A. E. Poirier was chosen. It will be remembered that at the last session of Parliament Mr. Poirier was dismissed from the post of Commons translator, largely through the influence of Mr. Chapleau, on the ground that he had insulted the French Ministers in the previous election campaign. Now he thinks he has his chance to get even with the Secretary of State, and believes he will be elected.

Both Mr. Laurier and Mr. Mercier were at the meeting and delivered speeches on topics of the times. The fight is going to be short, but it will be red hot from start to finish.

A MYSTERY SOLVED.

The Hoffman House Suicide Declared to be Seebohm, the London Dramatist.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—The Hoffman House suicide is thought to be Edwin V. Seebohm, the London dramatist. Editor Fynes, of The Clipper, thinks this is so because he knew of the man and heard some months ago that he was going on a tour around the world from London. Mr. Fynes said yesterday: "The tab on the suicide's coat bore that name and one of the satchels bore the letter 'S,' while on a piece of underwear the letter 'E' was embroidered in red silk. I have little doubt but that it was poor Seebohm who killed himself," said Mr. Fynes in conclusion. Mr. Seebohm was a fair dramatist and the author of several plays. He is the author of "Little Lord Fauntleroy," which was produced at the Prince of Wales' Theatre, London, last February.

ORGANS

During Fair Time,

I shall keep in stock at Mr. D. Smart's Old Stand a number of the Best Canadian Pianos and Organs, and will offer them for sale at greatly reduced prices.

Small wares, sheet music and musical instruments of all kinds under the management of Prof. Doucet will be sold at a great discount.

My interest in Peterborough is much greater than that of an ordinary traveller, who drops in for a few days and spends three or four dollars with some hotel, and offers pianos by the catalogue—which no honest local man would represent. My prices are from $50 to $100 less than any traveller will quote you. Kindly inspect my stock and I will prove the above.

The Growth of the Hair

Should always be watched. Inattention to the hair often leads to premature grayness and baldness. When dandruff appears it should be looked after at once. By frequently using a little of Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic, the scalp will be kept in a clean healthy condition and the strength and vigor of the hair greatly promoted. It is the only reliable. Do not be talked into using anything else. For sale by all druggists everywhere. dw

He wandered around until he struck the station.

Attempted Suicide.

The Norwood Register of Thursday says:—"Yesterday about noon Mr. A. Small, of Dummer, while in the village attempted to commit suicide by taking strychnine. A minute or so after taking the dose he went into Rutherford's drug store, and after telling the clerk what he had done, said 'he was sorry,' and asked for an antidote. A doctor was summoned and the man's life saved. An empty package labelled 'strychnine' was found in one of his pockets. He was not arrested."

An Old Campaigner.

On Friday, Sept. 14th, David Malloch, well known as the popular express engineer from Port Hope to Peterborough, Lindsay and Toronto, entered on his thirty-second year's service in the Midland Railway Company, says the Warder. Is there another such instance on the continent? One man continuously in the service of a company for thirty-one full years and never a complaint lodged against him. Surely Mr. Malloch is entitled to a pension.

Mr. J. J. Turner has received an order for and is now making up a large tent for the directors of the Port Perry fall exhibition. This is the largest tent Mr. Turner has ever undertaken, but of course he is quite equal to the task. Besides this the Port Perry directors have engaged two other large tents for use during the exhibition. The Port Perry men are alive and pushing, and they know just where to come for the best value for their money.

New Law Office.

The legal card of Mr. R. M. Dennistoun in another place informs the reader that he has opened, in the building over Hutchinson's stove store, Hunter street, a law office (temporarily, till his chambers in the block next west of the postoffice, are ready for occupation). Mr. Dennistoun is a son of the late J. F. Dennistoun, and studied in Toronto with the law firm of McCarthy, Osler, et al, and will doubtless keep up the legal reputation of the family and be worthy of a fair share of public patronage.

Practical Praise.

Messrs. Porter Bros. have received from Glasgow an order for twelve of their celebrated O. B. & S. road carts. The consignment answering this order will be forwarded so that they can be shipped by the Allan line steamer Polynesian on Sept. 20th. This order is the result of the agency established at Glasgow by Mr. Stewart during his visit to Scotland last spring. Messrs. Porter Bros. expect that they will have before long agencies established in England and Ireland. These unsurpassed carts are gaining a world-wide reputation, and the excellent manner in which they are manufactured reflects the highest credit upon the facilities of the thoroughly well equipped establishment of Porter Bros. d&w

An Oculist's Advice.

Keep a shade on your lamp or gasburner.

Never read or sew directly in front of the light, window or door.

It is best to let the light fall from above, obliquely over the left shoulder.

Never sleep so that on first wakening the eyes shall open on the light of a window.

Never begin to read, write or sew for several minutes after coming from darkness to light.

Do not use the eyesight by light so scant that it requires an effort to discriminate whether twilight, moonlight or on cloudy days.

Finally, the moment you are instinctively prompted to rub your eyes, that moment stop using them; and if you think you need spectacles, those sold by C. B. Routley, Peterborough, will be found as good as any. dw

Fire on Hunter Street.

Fire destroyed the sheds of the old Rowe homestead on Hunter street Friday night and badly damaged the buildings on either side. About half past ten the fire was first observed, and in a few minutes, the sheds being frame, they were all ablaze and the fire was extending to the Rowe homestead on one side and Mrs. Mayhew's residence on the other, both roughcast structures. The fire brigade were soon on hand and quickly extinguished the flames. The sheds were totally destroyed, and the Rowe homestead, which was unoccupied, was damaged to the extent of between $800 and $900. Mrs. Mayhew's household furniture was all removed in a damaged condition, and the building, owned by Mr. H. Grundy, suffered to the extent of probably $500. Both buildings were insured, but Mrs. Mayhew had, unfortunately, allowed the policy on her goods and chattels to expire about a year ago. The cause of the fire, which broke out in the sheds, is unknown.

OUR eggs are fresh. Only one thing beats em—the beater! The Pantry.

An Abundant Bear Crop.

Bears are exceedingly abundant this season. Our country exchanges tell big stories of bears invading the haunts of men and getting shot at and shot for their rashness. But Peterborough has the biggest bear story of all, and the biggest bears in the county are to be seen any day on George street. In stock-broking language "bull" means to raise the market and "bear" to lower it. gough bros., the wonderful cheap men, have "beared" the boot and shoe market down to the lowest ebb, and they are scattering bargains of the biggest kind broad-cast over the county from their six-thousand dollar stock of boots and shoes. Gaze on this and be glad; regard it and rejoice: Three hundred pairs' men's boots at 50c. per pair; 2,000 pairs ladies' boots for 50c. per pair; 1,000 pairs of boys' boots for 40c. per pair; 1,000 pairs of children's boots for 25c per pair. Did you ever see or hear of anything like these prices before? No, you never did, and never would have done so if gough bros., the philanthropists of the age, hadn't taken the boot and shoe "bull" by the horns and decided to "bear" down the prices within reach of the people. It's no wonder that there is a perpetual rush of customers to 375 George street, where gough bros. give the biggest bargains in boots and shoes on this round globe. d

Otonabee Farmers' Outing.

The annual picnic of the Otonabee farmers was held to Jubilee Point Thursday, and it was a pronounced success. The attendance was large and the proceedings thoroughly enjoyable. The principal attractions were the competitions for the prizes. The hundred yard's race for a rubber rug presented by J. Hackett was won by W. J. Waite, with E. F. Grieves second; hop, step and jump for $2 whip presented by Fortye & Phelan, first W. J. Waite, second Wm. Guy; standing long jump, $3 box of cigars presented by Elliott & Tierney, John Clancey first, W. J. Waite second. A couple of boys races were gotten up and the money for prizes subscribed on the grounds, resulting as follows:—Junior boys race, 1st Willie Quinn; 2nd Frank Buck; senior boys race, 1st Wm. Lapp; 2nd F. Erskine. The ladies prizes were won as follows:—Step dancing, for pair of ladies slippers presented by Gough Bros., Mrs. Wm. Clancey; best looking lady, dress presented by H. LeBrun, Miss Kate Corey (Mr. James Fanning, judge); the other prizes were not awarded. The drawing for the $14 plough, presented by Mr. P. Hamilton, was very interesting, Mr. Harry Morgan, of Ashburnham, being the lucky winner. The day passed off pleasantly enough, barring a slight accident at Hale's bridge, where, in passing through the swing, the boat was blown by the strong wind against the bridge and a part of the upper deck of the scow was torn off. Dancing was kept up on the scow both ways. The committee in charge were Messrs. Wm. Buck (chairman), Graham Weir, J. Duffus and R. Mitchell. Mr. T. Dolan also helped to run off the sports.

India's Urgent Claims.

The Second Day's Proceedings of the Salvation Army Celebration—A Forcible Appeal for Help—How the Heathen Hindoos are Being Left to Die Unsaved.

The second day's proceedings of the Salvation Army demonstration were as great a success as those on Thursday. After the parade at night the meeting was began in the barracks, which, as before, was crowded to the doors. On the streets while the parade was passing along, the sidewalks were densely lined and the corners overflowing with people, who crowded out into the street to catch a glimpse of the Hindoos. Horatula was as active in the chariot as he is on the stage; he jumped up and down and pounded his drum and shouted fiercely all the time. His throat must be made of something more durable than the ordinary material to stand the continual strain.

At the barracks the usual services were conducted. Mrs. Dowdle and Staff-Capt. Leeds uttered prayers, hymns were sung, rousing hallelujahs sounded and Capt. Grant rendered a solo. When the Hindoos, the Commissioner and Col. Dowdle appeared in the barracks, the same scene of boisterous welcome was enacted that occurred the night before. In addition, a display of "washin'" was made, the effect being very pretty.

Adjutant Van Allen, one of the Canadian contingent about to go to India, was the first speaker. He was dressed in the native garb, like the Hindoos, and briefly testified to his salvation and his willingness to do the Lord's bidding.

Horatula sang a native song, if song it could be called, the other Hindoos joining in. It was a droning chant, something like aforce between an Irish "croon" and the wail of the bagpipes.

Lieut. Devasepa was next introduced as an ex-leader of the Bhuddist Salvation Army. Major Muss Bhai stated that the Salvation Army had been so successful that the other religions, Bhuddists, Mahommedans and Hindoos, started opposition or imitation, but not having the real God with them they of course soon went out of existence. Lieut. Devasepa told in his native tongue, with much fierce gesture and in rapid guttural tones, how, when he first saw the Salvation Army he hated them because they took his followers from him. So he started an opposition Army and drew large crowds, but he did'nt know how to manage them. So he went to one of the real Salvation Army meetings to learn how they conducted them, and while there he became deeply impressed with the services and the truth of their religion. He went away, but the feeling of conviction overpowered him and after struggling against the feeling for a while he gave up and took Jesus into his heart. This was about two years ago, and he had ever since been rejoicing in the love of a Saviour.

Staff Capt. Leeds was introduced by the Commissioner as a Scotch-Hindoo from Caithness, but recently from Madras. She is the Sooth lady who has laboring in India for a couple of years. After singing a song in Hindoo, in which she was joined by the other natives, she dwelt upon the work of the Army in India. She told of the crowded houses, the numerous converts and their eager search after truth. The work among Zenana women was progressing also. Formerly the Zenana women were shut off from the rest of the world and permitted to see no man. Now, since the Salvation Army came in and she (the speaker) went about in her bare feet and in the native costume, the Army missionaries had secured entrance to these women and they were being converted in large numbers. The Zenana women were crying out for the true salvation, and how were they to get it unless Christian men and women went among them and showed them the way. That was why she was there to-night, to speak in their behalf. The speaker urged the people to remember their obligations to God and open out their hearts to generous impulses on this occasion.

Capt. Mary Langtry, who had volunteered for the Indian service, and was also attired in the native costume like the others, was the next speaker. Her first experience with the Army, she said, was right here in Peterborough, where she had been stationed as cadet. She felt very glad to be back again in Peterborough and once more tell the people that she was fully consecrated to Christ. She asked the prayers of the Christian people in her behalf.

Major Musa Bhai again delivered an impassioned address on the claims of India upon the civilized Christians of this community. He enunciated the needs of the heathen Hindoos and their thirst for a knowledge of the true God. The Major grew intensely excited as he proceeded. He threw all his powers, vocal, physical and mental, into the address, his eyes flashed, the perspiration rolled down his face. His very soul seemed to be on fire, and the earnestness of his appeal visibly touched the audience. His voice grew hoarse with pleading, and as he told of the thousands of poor heathens dying every year in sin, of their ruthless massacre and rumation to gratify the bloodthirsty desires and lusts of the British soldiers, he appealed to the audience, as they loved their God, if they had a particle of manhood in them, to come forward in behalf of the cause. He said "I want this last cry of mine to ring in your ears. Oh, poor India! Think of the perishing millions, the wronged heathens. Are there any loyal hearts here to-night? Gird on the armor and rush to the field to fight for God and the salvation of men." In conclusion he asked any who were willing to go out to India to rise up, and six soldiers and one lassie stood up.

The Commissioner then appealed for funds as he had done on the previous night. No $100 offerings were forthcoming, but three $25 dollar contributions were made by the following:—Mr. D. W. Dumble, Mrs. Nathan Taylor and Mrs. S.A. Davis. Besides a large sum was gathered in smaller amounts amongst the audience, Horatula again acting as collector to the evident amusement of the audience.

Lieut. Muthabaranun, of Southern India, the converted high caste Hindoo lady, executed a native song and dance that was of a quiet undemonstrative order, and afterwards briefly related her experience as on the previous night. She appealed to her white sisters for money to help the cause and chided them for their devotion to the fashions and wordly pleasures, on which they would spend $100 and not give one dollar for the conversion of the poor heathen.

A "devil" dance was then preformed by the Hindoos. It consisted of a hip-ity-hop jumping motion in a circle about the platform, to the thumming of Horatula's drum, who beat faster and faster, the dancers keeping step, until they were bobbing up and down with the rapidity of a jig-saw gone crazy. All the time they were shouting frantically and gesticulating wildly. When they got tired they quit, much to the relief of the audience.

Lieut. Horatula then took the floor and spoke in his native tongue, the Major interpreting. His was also a fiery appeal for men and money to help the cause, and if the previous speakers had been demonstrative, Horatula was doubly so. He grew fairly frantic. He flourished his fists, doubled himself up like a jack-knife, performed all sorts of contortions imaginable, and frequently jumped high in the air, coming down with a force that threatened to break through the platform. His little black body kept constantly bounding about like a rubber ball, his tongue meanwhile keeping up a terrific fusilade in the Cingalese dialect.

After announcing that they would be in Toronto next week and inviting visitors to the city to call on them at the temple, the Commissioner brought the meeting to a close.

Janauschek.

All lovers of the drama will hail with delight the advent in our city such an attraction as Madame Janauschek. She stands at the head of her profession, and among men is the equal of Booth. Her greatest characterization is "Meg Merrilies," from the powerfull novel of Sir Walter Scott entitled "Guy Mannering." In this role she will make her appearance at Bradburn's Opera House Friday evening, Sept. 21st. The Philadelphia Press says:—Madame Janauschek's farewell entertainment in this city began last evening at the Opera House under circumstances which were proof of the high esteem in which that distinguished actress is held. It is thirteen years since "Meg Merrilies" has attracted an audience of equal numbers or brilliancy in this city and quite as long a time is likely to elapse before the play again receives the interest it derived last night from Mme. Janauschek's acting. The power which this actress wields over an audience comes from a rare and highly cultivated intelligence and thorough training. She has attained a recognition greater in degree and higher in quality, than has fallen to the lot of any but a few of the most celebrated tragic actresses. This has been accomplished, not by genius, but by mental superiority and study. She has in greater degree than any actress since Charlotte Chushman that first qualification and absolute condition of a great success in anything—a clear and fixed perception of what she meant to do; a strong and often grand conception of the character which she attempted to portray, and an intellectual power capable of impressing with extraordinary force that conception upon her audience. A more purely intellectual success than hers has rarely been achieved. Her impersonation of "Meg Merrilies" last night showed remarkable physical vigor, great concentration and energy of mind and rare powers of dramatic expression. It was an achievement worthy of her, and it was followed with interest by a large audience whose admiration found expression in earnest and at times enthusiastic applause. The weird picturesque character of "Meg Merrilies," as might be expected, affords full scope for the rugged qualities of Madame Janauschek's art, and her impersonation will surely linger in the memories of those who see her during this farewell engagement.

Provincial Prize Takers.

A Small List of Big Prizes.

The list of prize takers from Peterborough county at the Provincial Exhibition is not large, but the prizes won are of a character to reflect the highest credit on the winners.

Mr. Joseph Redmond, of "Elm Grove" Stock Farm Otonabee, took first prize in the agricultural class on mare and foal, and first prize on the thoroughbred two-year-old Durham bull "Oliver Mowat." This beautiful animal secured his prize in competition with the celebrated bull imported by Bow Park, which was supposed previously to meeting Mr. Redmond's bull to be the best in the Dominion. Mr. Redmond sold Oliver Mowat for a big price to Russel Bros., Richmond Hill. This is the same animal that Mr. Redmond offered to the Dummer and Douro Agricultural Society for $125, but whatever may be the feelings of the society Mr. Redmond is pleased at the refusal of his offer for he has realized a much higher price. Mr. Redmond also got first prize on Durham calves, competing against twelve of the best herds in the Dominion.

Dundas Bros., of Springville, received three first prizes on their noted Clydesdale stock.

Mr. Timothy Walsh, of Dummer, took first prize on crock butter and first prize on table butter. Pleased with his success, he returned home on Friday to manufacture a new lot of butter for exhibition at the Toronto Industrial.

The Peterborough exhibitors at the Provincial Exhibition are to be congratulated on their success. At the same time there are others who could have taken prizes in other departments if they had taken the trouble to exhibit.

THE FISHERIES QUESTION

AN ALLEGED INTERVIEW WITH THE DOMINION PREMIER.

The Canadian Authorities Will Do Nothing, but Await Developments—Canadians Becoming More Self-Reliant.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—The Sun to-day prints a column and a half special from Blakeley Hall, dated Ottawa, purporting to be an interview with Sir John Macdonald touching the fisheries question. The Premier is represented as talking in the line of the Kingston speech already published in The World, saying that the Dominion authorities will do nothing but await developments, and that Canadians are becoming more self-reliant. Mr. Hall also states that Sir John said the Canadians desired Cleveland's election and feared Blaine.

A Breach of Treaty Stipulation.

OTTAWA, Sept. 16.—At the request of Sir John Macdonald a number of Ottawa gentlemen who are in the forwarding business have submitted to the Dominion Government for transmission to the Imperial authorities information as to the manner in which they have been treated in their business with the New York State canals. It is stated that forwarders in other parts of the Dominion have been requested to state their experience also. One Ottawa forwarder, in his letter to the Government, says that the Erie canal has been closed against his vessels, despite the stipulation in the Treaty of Washington, by which the United States Government undertook to urge upon the State authorities the advisability of making the State canals free to canal vessels.

It is True.

ALBANY, Sept. 16.—Regarding the dispatch that the State canals have been closed against Canadian vessels despite the Treaty of Washington, Deputy-State-Engineer Wurtelle says that it is true that no Canadian bottom can come through the State canals. The reason of this is because the State of New York has never been urged to comply with the Treaty of Washington. The canals have always been closed against Canadian vessels.

Beginning to Use our Own Ports.

OTTAWA, Sept. 16.—The possible enforcement of the retaliation bill by the United States Government is having the effect of inducing all local importers here to boycost Boston and New York ports in shipment of goods from England. Until this season nearly all winter shipments for merchants here came via Portland and a large percentage of summer shipments via Boston and New York. With one or two exceptions the wholesale houses here have instructed their shippers in England to ship all orders in future via Halifax and Montreal.

The Writ For Cardwell Issued.

OTTAWA, Sept. 17.—The writ for Cardwell has been issued. Nomination takes place Sept. 26; polling Oct. 3.

LONDON POLITICAL NEWS

BOTH SIDES GETTING READY FOR THE HUSTINGS.

Talk about a Conservative Change of Leadership—The Parnell Enquiry Begun—No Clue to the Recent Murders.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—London after being emptier than usual during the past three weeks, begins to fill again. Political gossip is again rife, the autumn campaign on both sides being organized. Nobody has made speeches on the Unionist side since Parliament rose, save the Duke of Rutland. Mr Gladstone has been almost alone on the Home Rule side. This week all this will be changed. Lord Hartington's party have organized a great agitation and everybody in the party who can speak has been pressed into service, the leaders for great political demonstrations, the minor men for clubs and rural meetings.

The Gladstonian agitation begins after the meeting of the Birmingham Liberal Federation, a few weeks later. The arrangements respecting it have been somewhat disturbed by Mr. Davitt's unexpected appeal. It was originally intended, with Mr. Parnell's consent, that the agitations in England and Ireland should be conducted on separate lines, incidents of coercion being used in Ireland as well as evictions. Mr. Davitt and Mr. O'Brien, joined, I am told, by the Sullivans, agreed that the movement must show greater solidity, and that resistance to evictions must be approved and aided by English oratory. The temporary reluctance on the Gladstonian side is likely to be overcome, and, in consequence, the case of the Irish tenants will again be taken up by the Gladstonians. Much personal feeling has been caused by the incident, the Gladstonian land-owners being still reluctant to accept the Plan of Campaign. But the irritation will wear off, and Mr. Davitt will practically have his own way. Mr. Davitt feared that the Gladstonian line would discourage resistance to evictions. His protest will, using his own language, "remove the handcuffs and substitute the shield for them."

Mr. Smith, returning to town, was not found very eager for Parliamentary duty, but ready to go on, no successor to him being discoverable, unless Lord Hartington agrees to resign his independence. The Tories will not have Mr. Goschen and at present prefer Mr. Balfour, who swears he will not leave Ireland until his task is accomplished or his failure clear. Lord Hartington is sagely silent and is likely to remain so until the crisis actually occurs. There is no truth in the rumors that Mr. Smith is to go to the Upper House and that Mr. Goschen is to take his place, nor is there any ground for saying that Sir Michael Hicks Beach is to become a peer. He is too poor for a peerage.

It will be an odd result of all this talk and trouble, if Lord Randolph Churchill comes back. He and Lord Hartington have had some communings together lately. Lord Hartington once did not trust him politically, but is now said to be almost an admirer of Lord Randolph's audacity and pluck, and may even recommend him to Lord Salisbury for re-entrance into the Cabinet.

The preliminary meeting of the Parnell Commission was held on Monday in a most inconvenient court, too small even for the press. A decision is to be taken as to the order of proceedings. Sir Henry James is not, I hear, to appear actively in the case, being the Attorney-General at the time of the Kilmainham Treaty and the Phœnix Park murder. He knows officially too much, and is responsible for advice as to many things denounced by The Times as improper. The inquiry will take at least three months. Mr. Parnell himself demands a Commission of Inquiry to go to America, and taking evidence abroad will greatly delay the result.

There is not the slightest clue to the Whitechapel murders, and the new Chief of Detectives is attacked as unfit for his post. Dr. Anderson is full of apocalyptic sentiments, a very good, tender-hearted mystic, but not the man to discover or inspire Lecocq. Sir Charles Warren is also attacked, but he says he means to hold on, even if a colonial appointment is offered to him. Mr. Matthews' resignation is demanded very vigorously, but there is not the slightest idea of getting it. The town meanwhile is settling down to regard Whitechapel as too distant greatly to disturb it. In the East End, however, the panic is producing a crop of extraordinary stories—men with repulsive aspects who peer at children and show the gleam of knives from their pockets. There is great relief at the discovery to-day that no new crime has been committed. It was half expected the murderer would choose last night for a new piece of fiendish cruelty.

TO RESCUE STANLEY.

Various Plans Discussed in London—News of Disaster Expected Daily.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—The Ministers within reach are likely to meet in informal cabinet almost immediately to consider the Congo expedition. Major Barttelot was a young man, not so well known in society as either his elder brother or his father. But Sir Walter is known to everybody, and the fate of his gallant son moved society to the core. There is a great unofficial discussion as to the amount of assistance England lends to the expedition. The initiative is with King Leopold in the Congo business; it is his experiment. There is no news of measures likely to be taken by him. The English endowment for Mr. Stanley comes from a private association of wealthy people, known as the Emin Bey Relief Committee, the largest subscriber to which is Lady Burdett Coutts. It is probable that a new expedition will be organized, in part by this committee, with the assistance but without the formal responsibility of the War Office in London. Mr. Stanley's fate is regarded, outside a very small circle of optimistic experts, as certain. The news of a disaster is expected daily. Few African experts still hold the belief that he is the white man in Bahr-el-Gazelle.

I talked to an experienced African traveler this week. He assured me that no single man of an expedition like Mr. Stanley's would have failed to attempt to get round Khartoum by the back door, if he was in possession of Mr. Stanley's opportunities. Nevertheless, the public believes Mr. Stanley to be lost. Ways and means of reaching him are greatly discussed. The Spectator proposes a balloon, laughs at the danger, and declares that if a balloonist fell amid savages he would be regarded as a god, and would receive information and aid on all hands. This rather wild suggestion is not generally accepted. Mr. Baldwin has not yet been communicated with, but the fact that such a scheme is discussed shows how greatly the public mind is moved by the assassination of Major Barttelot.

More Explorers For The Congo State.

BRUSSELS, Sept. 16.—Capt. Becker starts to-day for the Congo. He proposes with 200 men, to explore the northern and eastern regions of the Congo State. It is hoped that he will hear something of Stanley.

Mrs. George Offspring's Triplets.

A CLOSE CALL.

Fifty Workmen in a Tunnel Partially Asphyxiated by Gas.

NORTH ADAMS, Sept. 17.—A terrible disaster was narrowly averted in the Hoosac tunnel Saturday afternoon when sixty-nine laborers employed in the tunnel were overcome by coal gas from a passing locomotive. The men were divided into three gangs, thirty-nine being masons employed in repairing the brick arch, twenty two in the electric light and thirteen in the track gang.

Extra freight 31 went east shortly after 9 o'clock, followed soon after by No. 49 west, filling the tunnel with smoke. When second extra 31 came up the grade with a heavy freight, the engine had lost steam, so that when the train went into the tunnel the fire box was filled with new coal. The masons working about 1000 feet from the west portal were affected but little by gas after the train passed. In a short time the flagman toward the west shaft reported to Overseer McGrath that the trackmen in the 3000 feet section and the electric light men in the 6000 feet section were overcome by gas. Express No. 33 had just entered the tunnel from the west and McGrath ordered it flagged, which proved a wise precaution. He then ordered all men from their work to rescue the track and electric light men. Push cars were forced into the tunnel, the rescuers finding the men lying all along the track, some partially and some wholly overcome All were placed in the cars and brought out into the open air.

Eighteen men were rescued who were unconscious when reached, nearly all of them being on the east-bound track. Had the east-bound express passed the masons' flagman the slaughter would have been terrible. When the tunnel was finally cleared of workmen, rescuers and rescued were all prostrated, some remaining in that condition all the afternoon. It is thought that two of the cases will prove fatal.

TORONTO TOPICS.

Judgment in a Test Case—A Central Bank Matter—Corner Stone Laying.

TORONTO, Sept. 17.—The Common Pleas Divisional Court on Saturday delivered judgment in the test case of Temperance Colonization Company v. Fairfield. The defendant was a scriptholder in the plaintiff company, and the action was brought to compel him to pay an assessment. The Chief Justice stated he had no doubt that the contract was induced by misrepresentation and deceit, and that the company's statements were positively untrue. Judgment was entered for defendant.

The Master-in-Ordinary at Osgoode Hall on Saturday heard an application to amend the list settled in the Central Bank smash by removing from liability E. S. Cox and Cox & Co. Mr. Cox came into possession of 115 shares of the bank within the month preceding the suspension which he succeeded in unloading. The matter went over until to-day.

Bishop O'Mahoney laid the corner stone of St. Helen's Roman Catholic Church at Brockton yesterday.

The total receipts for the first week of the exhibition are $13,760.95, an increase of $4148 over the first week last year.

The corner stone of Immanuel Baptist Church was laid on Saturday. The edifice will cost $40,000.

The annual convention of Secularists of Canada was held in Science hall on Saturday and yesterday.

EMIGRATION OF CROFTERS.

Business on The London Stock Markets" "Saturday Review" on the Fisheries.

LONDON, Sept. 17.—Mr. Graham, agent of the Canadian Government in Scotland, is visiting Stornoway and neighboring islands, under Sir Charles Tupper's directions, to approve on behalf of the Government, a number of Crofter families who will emigrate to Manitoba next spring. The emigrants will receive money grants from the Imperial Government, and be placed on free grant lands, similar to the Crofters who settled last May. Great care will be taken to select only suitable families.

The stock markets were good on the whole throughout the week. Grand Trunk fluctuated a good deal. Part of the rapid rise was lost but they still show a slight advance on the week. Pacifics were steady and land shares unchanged.

The Saturday Review commenting on the fisheries question says that Canada in future negotiations can take Mr. Chamberlain's drafts of the treaty as a model. If retaliation is persisted in, Canada can trust her own resources.

THE FASTER'S FAD.

Dr. Tanner Promulgates a Startling Theory —Can Man Hibernate?

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—Dr. H. S. Tanner, who became famous eight years ago by fasting for 40 days, arrived here yesterday from New Mexico. He is apparently in perfect health at present, he eats two meals a day in summer and one meal a day in winter. In an interview he said he had been in New Mexico for four years, pursuing investigations into the subject of suspended animation or counterfeit death. He is convinced that large numbers of people are annually buried alive all over the world, and from his study of various cases and the records of societies on the subject in Holland and elsewhere he is convinced that so subtle is the principle of life that no one can undertake to say that it is extinct until decomposition, the only sure sign, has set in. He declares that the dead in this country are buried with indecent, with criminal haste, and that burials of persons who are not absolutely dead are murders.

The doctor is also pursuing another branch of semi-suspended animation, viz.: hibernation. He declares that bears and other hibernating animals do not use their lungs during the hibernating season, and he is convinced that man can hibernate. He refers to the long trances of the Hindoo adepts, accomplished through long seasons of wasting, and declares it to be his belief that these trances are merely seasons of hibernation. The doctor says he is studying with a view to making some experiments in this line, and that the time may come when he may permit himself to be sealed up in an air-tight coffin and laid away until such time as he shall designate for it to be opened.

The mill took fire and was destroyed, entailing a loss of $125,000, on which there was an insurance of $75,000. There were eighteen men in the mill at the time of the explosion. One, Peter Geirman, perished in the flames. Four others, Joe Vanniel, Wm. Straw, Sterling Barber and John Blake, were seriously burned and injured. Six men escaped without injury. Seven others are unaccounted for, and it is thought at least three of them are dead in the ruins.

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 17.—A disastrous fire occurred at Spokane Falls, Wash. T., Saturday night. The flames were first discovered in a small chop house and despite the most strenuous efforts of the fire department, the fire spread with great rapidity. Over a block was destroyed. The loss is about $100,000, with an insurance of $25,000. No one was injured.

HELENA, Mont., Sept. 15.—Fire last night at Spokane Falls, W. T., destroyed fourteen frame business houses and dwellings. Large brick business blocks and hotels in the vicinity were slightly damaged.

Two Women Wedded.

DES MOINES, Ia., Sept. 15.—A supposed man named Miller, who with his alleged wife and child had lived near Sioux City, Ia., several years, was convicted last May of horse stealing and sent to Fort Madison. In the hospital there it was discovered that Miller was in fact a woman and she was sent to the Anamosa Prison. Miller's reputed wife was hunted up and the child supposed to be hers was found to be the child of people named Moe. It was taken from her and restored to its parents. The woman claims to have married the Miller woman, supposing she was a man, and to have lived with her as a wife to cover up the Miller woman's deception.

He Was Buried Like Other Men.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Sept. 15.—Word has been received here by cable that Bishop David D. Patterson, head of the religious sect known as the Children of Zion and founder and pastor of the church in this city, died in Southern France Thursday morning, while on his way from Palestine to Glasgow. The church called Bishop Patterson the "Eye of Jehovah" and one of the sect's strong beliefs was that he would never die. He leaves a widow and four children in this city.

A Very Pious Ruffian.

QUINCY, Ill., Sept. 16.—Peter Rodenhauer, who barricaded himself in his house Friday night and, with a Winchester rifle and two shot guns, defied arrest for violation of the fishing laws, has been captured. He is a devout churchman and started yesterday morning to say his prayers at St. Francis church. He was armed with his double barreled shotgun, but at an unguarded moment he was seized and disarmed. At a preliminary examination he was sent to jail in default of $3000 bonds.

Colored Ravisher Lynched.

RALEIGH, N.C., Sept. 17.—A mob composed of 100 negroes entered the jail at Whiteville, Columbia county, last night, having the jailer at the muzzles of their revolvers to give up the keys, and took out Sherman Farrier, colored, and hanged him. He was accused of outraging Mrs. Sasser, an aged white woman, on Aug. 26. On his breast a card was pinned with the words: "We will protect our women. Beware!"

A Brutal Crime.

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 17.—J. C. Parrish of this county was brought here to-day very quietly in order to prevent his being lynched and was tried before a magistrate upon the charge of outraging his own daughter, aged 12 years. The girl, her mother, and brother were witnesses and the evidence was direct and positive. Parrish was held for trial. His crime is a capital one in this state.

CANADA'S FINANCES.

The Montreal Herald thus crisply condenses the financial situation in Canada. Its words, though brief, suggest an endless theme of serious study. No true citizen can afford to be indifferent to the momentous importance of the facts presented below:—

"No denunciatory language was too strong to be used by the Tories on the question of deficits when the Liberals were in power. All sorts of offensive epithets were flung at Sir Richard Cartwright in this connection. The birds are coming home to roost, and Tory financiers find that they are living in an era of deficits. The deficit for the last fiscal year has been reduced, by dint of vigorous cooking—by charging to capital account items that should be charged to income—to $833,411. Sir Charles Tupper estimated it at about $1,000,000. The following is a list of Tory deficits which may prove interesting reading to people who took stock in their denunciations when Sir Richard Cartwright was Minister of Finance:

1879-80	1,643,326
18[illegible]-[illegible]5	2,340,059
18[illegible]-[illegible]6	[illegible],572
1886-87	833,411

This is all the more serious when it is remembered that the taxation has been increased about 30 per cent., though the imports are less than they were in 1873, 1874 and 1875, and only slightly in excess of what they were in 1878. If our Tory financiers are to be estimated according to their denunciation of deficits when the Liberals were in power, they must be regarded, according to their own showing, as financial "mixers and muddlers," Knights of Deficits, &c. Perhaps they will congratulate the people of Canada that they are living in an era of deficits.

The expenditure, it will be noted, is steadily increasing—from $35,754,993 in 1886-87 to $36,697,905 in 1887-88—an increase of $942,912 — dangerously near a million.

The gross debt, too, has increased from $273,187,626 in 1887 to $284,554,072 in 1888—an increase of $11,366,446 in one year. The net debt has increased from $227,313,911 in 1887 to $234,540,700 in 1888—an increase of $7,226,789. Perhaps this is what a Toronto Tory paper refers to as "Canada's mysterious progress." There can be no doubt that so far as debt, taxation and expenditure are concerned, the motto of our rulers is "onward and upward."

After all their palaver about the necessity of having workingmen represented in parliament, and their professed love for the labor organizations, the Tories are, says the Ottawa Free Press, about to withdraw their support from Mr. Lepine, the labor candidate in Montreal East, and put a straight Government candidate in the field. Last week Mr. Chapleau and all his henchmen were praising Mr. Lepine, but they evidently fear a division in the party if his candidature is endorsed. It is also feared that Mr. Lepine would be a very troublesome man to have in the House of Commons, as he would have either to vote with the Opposition frequently or sacrifice the principles of those he claims to represent.

Literary Notes.

Dominion Illustrated.—It is no wonder that this superb publication should be growing rapidly and steadily in public estimation, as its increasing subscription lists in this town prove. The last number is largely devoted to Toronto, and is of unusual interest, the illustrations deserving the name of high art specimens. The letter-press is up to the mark, indeed, it is constantly improving. Montreal: Desbarats & Son, publishers—$4 per year, 10 cents per number.

The copy of the "Aims and Objects of the Toronto Humane Society," kindly forwarded the Examiner by the Editor, is a handsome pamphlet of over two hundred pages with over a hundred striking illustrations. This volume, if widely circulated, will have, from its character, a great effect in educating the public upon a subject of the first importance. The objects of the Toronto Humane Society, as summarized by the editor, are as follows:—"The prevention of cruelty to animals, protection of insectivorous birds, the protection of children from cruelty and neglect, the establishment of Children's Bands of Mercy, and the erection of drinking fountains." These objects are worthy of every sympathy. The scenes of cruelty witnessed in the most common course of every day life, are painful to every humane heart, though the mass of the people, by constant contact with them, become hardened and by familiarity are led to ignore them. In every department of human action these scenes occur, and it is the object of the Toronto Humane Society to rouse public feeling, and such is the aim of the little book mentioned above, whose price is only 25 cents, to be had of the publisher, Wm. Briggs, 70 and 80 King street, East Toronto.

are often inherited, but the disease itself may gain a foothold through impure blood, bad diet, unventilated rooms, etc., keep the blood pure and the circulation perfect by means of Burdock Blood Bitters, and thus ward off consumption, which is simply scrofula of the lungs. 6dw36

More Temperance Talk.

Rev. D. V. Lucas Addresses Sunday Meetings in the Opera House.

Rev. D. V. Lucas preached in the George Street Methodist and St. Paul's churches Sunday morning and evening, and at 4 o'clock in the afternoon and 8.15 at night addressed meetings in the Opera House.

The attendance in the afternoon was not large, probably 200. Dr. Fife occupied the chair and explained the great moral difference there was between licensing a man to sell liquor and making him pay penalties for infractions of the law. Rev. Mr. Lucas' address was an emphatic denial of the statements made that intoxicants were necessary or helpful to a man's health. He described the action of alcohol on the system and its baneful effects. He said that the people would have to be educated up to this belief, because there were many wrong impressions abroad regarding it. He further stated that the present meetings being held were only preliminary; that they were merely sharpening their swords, as it were, for the great fight that was going to be waged over the temperance question.

In the evening the attendance was much better, the hall being nearly filled. Rev. Mr. Lucas first referred to the responsibility of the liquor dealers for the deaths of the 4,000 persons who die annually in Canada through drink. The hotelkeepers and liquor sellers, he said, were pre-eminently the law breakers of Canada. If they had a high license law they would sell out of hours, to minors, to men already drunk. The speaker impressed the advantages to be gained by the Scott Act, and again made the statement that from 1881 to 1882 there had been an increase of two million gallons on the amount of liquor consumed in Canada the year before; from 1882 to 1883 a further increase of about 750,000 gallons on 81-82; from 1883 to 1884 an increase of about 200,000 gallons on 82-83. Then the Scott Act was adopted largely throughout the country, with the result, as Sir Charles Tupper had stated in the House of Commons in his budget speech, that the amount of liquor entered for consumption in Canada has fallen off two million gallons during the year. The speaker urged the people to cling to the Scott Act, and when the question came up to vote be guided by their consciences.

A General Tie-up.

of all the means of public conveyance in a large city, even for a few hours, during a strike of the employes, means a general paralyzing of trade and industry for the time being, and is attended with an enormous aggregate loss to the community. How much more serious to the individual is the general tie-up of his system, known as constipation, and to the strike of the most important organs for more prudent treatment and better care. If too long neglected, a torpid or sluggish liver will produce serious forms of kidney and liver diseases, malarial trouble and chronic dyspepsia. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets are a preventive and cure of these disorders. They are prompt, sure and effective, pleasant to take, and positively harmless. a

One of the reasons why Scott's Emulsion has such a large sale is because it is the best. Dr. W. H. Cameron, Halifax, N.S., says: "I have prescribed Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites for the last two years, and found it more agreeable to the stomach and have better results from its use than any other preparation of the kind I have ever used." WAR IN SAMOA.

Tamasese, Germany's Protege, in Danger of Losing His Throne.

LONDON, Sept. 17.—A despatch from Aukland says: Advices from Samoa say that the natives have rebelled on account of an attempt made by Herr Branders, a German official, to induce them to confer the name of Malietoa upon Tamasese and also because the taxation imposed upon them was excessive. Herr Branders, at the head of a force of Samoans, who favor the pretensions of Tamasese, has had an encounter in the bush with the rebels and seven of his force were killed, the rebels losing but three men. Many of the combatants were wounded. Herr Brander's force numbers 1400 men, while that of the rebels is 3000 strong. The deposition of Tamasese is inevitable unless Germans lend him active support.

The man who did the stabbing has not yet been arrested. It was done so quickly Moylan was unable to recognize his assailant.

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. A Good Showing.

By mistake it was reported that Mr. J. H. Sanderson, of the Peterborough Collegiate Institute, had failed in Latin at the Queen's University Matriculation. There have been no failure in classics so far this year. Mr. Sanderson is to be congratulated upon the stand he has taken.

A Fortunate Choice.

The Brockville Times says:—Bishop Dowling's church, Peterborough, has been fortunate in securing the services of Miss Emma Ealand, of Paris, as organist. Miss Ealand was one of the six young ladies who composed the Lauder Sextette of the hilly town. The six were highly accomplished musicians and in the few years of the club's existence they did much to raise the musical tone of the town, by the giving of recitals. A member of the Times staff has had the pleasure of being present at a couple of their entertainments, and one of these, "An evening with Chopin," will long be remembered. Miss Ealand's influence in the musical community of Peterborough will doubtless be strongly felt. Sympathy for Paris and congratulations for Peterborough are in order.

A Card.

The Star Theatre Company closed a week's engagement here last Saturday night. This is undoubtedly the best company that has appeared here for some time. Their plays gave the best of satisfaction, the costumes, scenery and stage-setting grand. I can recommend them as a first-class company; nothing to offend the most fastidious.

R. J. MENKIN,
Manager, Lindsay.

A Staple Article in Horseflesh.

At the Provincial Exhibition, Mr. Samuel Staples, of Ida, carried off first prize for his splendid coach horse "Lord Sudley." This is the last of the many triumphs of "Lord Sudley" in the prize ring. In 1886 he captured first prize at the Western Fair at London and in 1887 1st prize at the Toronto Industrial. This fine record is crowned by his success in Kingston, and entitles "Lord Sudley" to rank at the top of the list in his class. Mr. Staples is to be congratulated upon being the owner of so superb an animal and the people of this district on having so excellent an opportunity of breeding first-class road horses.

The Collegiate Institute Literary Society

The first regular meeting of the Society was held on Friday afternoon. H. Fife acted as chairman, and the programme was as follows:—Essay, Miss O'Brien; reading, Miss Blanche Brown; Essay, Roland McWilliams; Debate, "Resolved that novel reading is productive of more harm than good." Affirmative; F. Elmhirst, A. Carveth; negative, Miss Fife and Miss Dover; reading from Shakespere's Merchant of Venice (The Trial Scene) by Sergeant-Major Rondle, who kindly volunteered his services. The judges decided the debate in favor of the negative. The exercises were very successful, and will be followed by similar exercises on Thursday next.

Piscortorial Photograms.

Mr. D. H. Burritt this morning received three photograms of the scenes of his late trout fishing expedition on Lake Wind-two-ways, near Pembroke, where his brother and some other parties have a preserve of five lakes. They show the camp, the cookery and the wharf, where a morning's catch of about eighty speckled beauties from three to one pound—the smallest were caught by the camera in company with their captor is shown During a few days the party caught between seven and eight hundred splendid trout. The gastronomical editor of the EXAMINER is indebted to Mr. Burritt for a pair of fine specimens, luscious enough to make the mouth of a lime-kiln water.

Central Exhibition Notes.

A meeting of the directors of the Central Exhibition was held Saturday afternoon to further arrangements for the show next week. Permission to run refreshment booths was granted to Chas. Guy, Harry Crocker and R. R. Hamilton. Mr. J. R. Stratton, M. P. P., was requested to prepare and read an address to Hon. C. A. Drury on the occasion of the opening of the Exhibition. Other minor matters were also disposed of.

Entries for the exhibition are coming in rapidly and prospects are most encouraging for a successful show. The other day 183 entries in the different departments were made by one man.

The baseball tournament will be an attractive feature. Already half a dozen clubs have signified their intention of entering the contest. It will be a gala time for baseball "cranks."

To-Night in the Opera House.

The Star Theatre Company opens a three nights season in the Opera House to-night with the "Galley Slave." The Lindsay Post thus refers to their appearance of that fine dramatic organization in that place:—On Monday night the Star Theatre Company opened a week's engagement in the Opera House with the "Galley Slave," being greeted with a large and representative audience. The good impression made by this company is evidenced by the fact that each succeeding performance was if possible better attened and more favorably commented upon. This was especially so Wednesday evening, when the "Silver King" was presented. Mr. T. J. Quinn, manager, as Wilfrid Denver, provided himself to be an actor of brilliant conception and great adaptability, his emotional passages being superb. Miss Florence Lytelle as Nellie Denver evinced the well trained actress, investing her parts with a reality as striking as it is rare. The general support was excellent throughout. Thursday evening the "Two Orphans" was presented to a full house.

Court House Park Improvements.

The directors of the Horticultural Society have decided to sell by public auction the plants in the Court House Park when the season of flowering is over, so that all may have a chance at purchasing. This is the correct way, and is only what is now being pursued at the wonderful boot and shoe sale now going on daily at gough bros., 375 george street. Only in the latter case there is no auction—no increase on the first price. The first price is placed so close to the bottom that there is no room for falling. There is not a case on record where even the closest buyer has asked a reduction in the price of the boots and shoes at gough's. Nobody has the cheek to do so, and their goods are going like hot cakes. There was a tremendous rush on Saturday and the rate at which the goods are going indicate that the people appreciate the goods and the prices; the best of goods and the lowest prices. A six thousand dollar stock being slaughted at astonishing prices. Men's women's boys', children's boots. A choice new stock of fine goods. The greatest chance for bargains in boots and shoes ever presented in Peterborough. Note the place, 375 george street.

The Burns Club.

The second weekly meeting of the Peterborough Burns Club was held in the Grand Central Hotel on Saturday last. Mr. James Hendry occupied the chair. After reading and confirming the minutes of the previous meeting, the chairman stated that the first business of the evening was the election of officers, and urged upon the meeting to select for the positions of honor those of their number whom they felt would fulfil the duties of their respective offices with credit to the club. The following officers were then unanimously elected:

PRESIDENT—Mr. James Hendry.
VICE-PRESIDENT—Mr. J. Mathieson.
SECRETARY—Mr. Wm. Menzies.
TREASURER—Mr. James McKim, jr.

The following committee was appointed to prepare rules and regulations for the club:—Messrs. John Peace, James McKim, sr., J. J Munro and W. Menzies. After the transaction of some minor business, the meeting adjourned for a week. The Club was afterwards favored with solos from the following gentlemen:—Messrs. Peace, Hendry and Munro. "The Scotch Greys," by Mr. Peace, was admirably rendered. The meeting broke up at 10 o'clock.

Sporting Notes.

A Blairton correspondent writes:—Mr. H. T. Strickland, of Peterborough, was here the other day paying a visit to the ducks. Although not meeting with as good success as his lot usually is he carried off quite a number.

The Lindsay Post says:—Mr. James Daly, of the Grand Central hotel, Peterborough, and owner of the "side-wheeler," Willie W., was in town on Monday spending a few hours with old friends. He announces that the "pacer" is going fast, and as he has got on to combination the boys will see some fun before the snow flies yet. He adds that his fine two-year-old Phil Rysdyk colt is enjoying the pleasures of a complete "let up" from work since the departure of "dusky friend."

Baseball.

A meeting of the "Peterborough baseball club" is called for this evening at the Commercial House (Ned Brown's.) A request is made that all baseball players attend. It seems there has been a "spilt" in the old Peterborough's, and the new faction are organizing another club.

Baseball tournaments are all the rage just now. The Secretary of the Peterborough club, Mr. G. C. Clark, on Saturday received invitations to participate in tournaments at Hastings and Whitby. The one in Whitby is to be held on Sept. 20th and 21st. Both these invitations are being considered.

Police Court.

John Fry and Patrick Ryan were charged with being drunk. The former was fined $5, and handed over the amount. Ryan was fined $2, which was also paid.

W. H. Chamberlain was fined $50 for a first offence against the Scott Act.

Chas. Bremer was charged with having used abusive language to Chas. Chambeau. The defendant pleaded guilty and was fined $2.

Old Mrs. Johnston, who said she was in her 81st year and had no home, applied to be sent up to the goal for the winter. The magistrate wanted her to return to the House of Providence in Toronto, where she had been before, but the old lady declared she did'nt like the place and would'nt go back. The magistrate said he could'nt send her up to goal when such a good place was offered her, so it is possible Mrs. Johnston will have to return after all.

Personal.

Mr. E. W. Cox returned to Toronto this morning.

Mr. F G. Cox went east to Ottawa on the C.P.R. express to-day.

Mr. Harry Alford, of Toronto, typographical artist, is in town for a few days visit.

Mr. H. A. Hammond and family leave to-morrow morning for a voyage to England.

Mr. Thos. Donnelly, of Belleville, was in town attending the funeral of the late Mrs. Hopkins.

Rev. W. C. Bradshaw goes to Campbellford to-morrow to conduct mission service in the Anglican church at that place.

Mr. Bruce Patterson, of the state of Iowa, is revisiting his parents here. He has been absent from town a number of years.

Mr. Geo. Davideon, of the Post, Lindsay, is in town on a visit, en route to the Industrial, Toronto.

Judge Clark, of Cobourg, solicitor of the C.P.R. Company, and Mr. Biggar, of Belleville, solicitor, of the G.T.R. Company, are in town to-day.

Mr. W. R. Watson, an old Peterborough boy, who was formerly employed with Mr. John Erskine, but has lately been living at Cobourg, has accepted a good situation at Port Arthur, Ont., where he is now residing.

Mr. Wm. Robinson, connected with the William Hamilton Manufactory, leaves to-night for a trip to the old country taking the Dominion line steamer Montreal, at Montreal for Liverpool.

The many friends in Peterborough of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Goodwin will regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Goodwin, which took place at Ottawa Saturday evening. During her short residence in Peterborough, Mrs. Goodwin made many warm friends.

Mr. John O'Meara, who has been attending the supreme convention of the Catholic Mutual Benefit Association, in Cleveland, returned home on Saturday. He was elected to the chairmanship of the committee on laws and supervision for United States and Canada, a flattering concession to Mr. O'Meara's legal abilities, and he deserves congratulation for the recognition received in such a large and representative gathering.

News Nuggets.

—Victoria county rifle association matches will be held Sept. 20.

—The Star Theatre Company are registered at the Grand Central.

—The Peterborough Amateur orchestra will to-night resume practice for the winter.

—Norwood defeated Lang (Otonabee) at the latter place at baseball by a score of 20 to 19.

Harry Lindley's company passed through town to day en route to Campbellford. They stopped for dinner at the Grand Central.

—Rev. S. J. Shorey preached an excellent sermon to young people Sunday night, from the text, "Lord, what will thou have me to do?"

—Tenders are being asked for grading lot, digging and laying a tile drain to the river and gas piping in building, for the new Nicholls Hospital.

—The Omemee Herald says that an attempt was recently made to poison the cattle of Mr. H. Nugent, a farmer living in Emily, east of the village, by placing Paris green on the fields.

—The Millbrook Messenger wants the citizens to help improve the village band—and "the proper caper" it would be, too. They owe more to the band than they can repay by mere applause.

—Bear stories begin, and the bears are very immoral—they were seen on the railway track near Norwood the other day gambling on the track. The hunters "saw" them and are "going it blind" in pursuit of them.

Stealing a Ride.

Sunday night eight or ten young men belonging to town undertook to steal a ride on a C.P.R. freight train to Toronto. They entered a bonded car and, it is said, got as far as Pontypool, where they were discovered and bounced by the conductor. It was reported that a couple of them had been carried on to Toronto and arrested, but this is not believed to be true.

Service of Praise.

The annual harvest festival services in connection with St. Luke's Church, Ashburnham, will be held on Thursday, Sept. 27th. The evening service at 8 o'clock will be followed by a service of praise, consisting of vocal and instrumental solos, and a short organ recital by Mr. Jaques. Are are invited.

A Quick Job.

The plate glass was placed in the front of the new Harper block, Charlotte street, on Saturday morning, Mr. Geo. Elliott and his two assistants putting in the six plates in one hour and a half, a time which is considered very quick.

P. D. DORAN.

The fruit season has now come and we must prepare to put up our fruit. Now what kind of jars are we to use? Of course, glass jars; but so many of those we had last year cracked in filling that it makes it very expensive. Oh, I remember how Mrs. Goodwife told me last year she bought her jars at "China Hall," and that she did not break a jar in filling or lose a single can of fruit. I shall buy from China Hall this season. As the price is just the same I might as well have the best.

The body has not been identified.

THE PARNELL COMMISSION

PROCEEDINGS AT ITS FIRST SESSION YESTERDAY.

The Scope and Principle on Which the Court Propose to Conduct the Inquiry Outlined by Judge Hannen.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—The Parnell Commission opened its first session at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. Judge Hannen said the commission held that the inquiry should be restricted to the charges that were made the cause of the O'Donnell Times action in Parliament also gave them, in addition to their special powers, all the powers vested in judges of the High Court of Justice. They proposed in the first instance to make the inquiry as though it were an issue between Mr. O'Donnell and The Times, reserving to themselves the power to call anybody who might be able to throw light on the issue therein involved. The inquiry would be carried on in accordance with the rules of the ordinary courts.

Sir Charles Russell demanded that he be allowed to inspect the letters and photographs bearing on the case and that the commission issue an order for the discovery of the documents upon the authority of which some of The Times' charges were made. He asked that a commission be appointed to take evidence in the United States, and that an order be issued releasing Mr. Dillon from jail so he may give testimony before the commission. He wanted especially to see the Egan-Harris letter, which he claimed was a forgery.

Council for The Times agreed to produce certain letters but objected to the commission's issuing an order for the discovery of documents.

Mr. Parnell here entered the courtroom.

Sir Charles Russell said he did not confine his application to two letters. He wanted to inspect all the letters and documents referred to in the articles on "Parnellism and Crime."

Judge Hannen stated that he had not read them, and said that counsel must inform the court what were necessary, so as to guide them.

Sir Charles Russell stated that one of the many charges published in The Times was that certain Parnellite members of the House of Commons were connected with an illegal association, and were sharers in the crime of murder. One alleged proof of this charge was a letter in which Mr. Parnell approved of a fund—meaning an assassination fund.

Judge Hannen said he understood that The Times would produce all the letters and documents affecting Mr. Parnell and the others against whom it brought charges. If the parties could not agree as to the production of the papers the commission would deal with the disputed points in chambers afterwards.

Mr. Graham then opened the case for The Times. After a review of the history of the "Parnellism and Crime" articles, he said it was now asked that The Times state whence it had derived its information, but if it divulged its source of information the object of the commission might be defeated and its inquisitorial character lost.

Sir Charles Russell insisted that the case should not proceed until the commission decided the question as to the production of all the documents in possession of The Times.

The judges adjourned to chambers to consider the question. In a short time the commission returned, and Judge Hannen asked, assuming the commission thought they had jurisdiction to order the discovery of the documents, what restrictions Sir Charles Russell would claim?

Sir Charles stated that he wanted to know in plain language if The Times charged Mr. Parnell or his associates with complicity in the Phœnix Park murders?

Mr. Graham replied that The Times would produce evidence to substantiate all the charges it had made in its articles on "Parnellism and Crime."

The commission again retired to deliberate. Upon resuming the sitting, Judge Hannen said that the commission having considered the question as to whether it was empowered to order the discovery of the documents, it was of the opinion that it had the power to direct such discovery. The commission would take upon itself the right to consider what documents it would be right for Sir Charles Russell's clients to inspect. The court thought that the details against the persons The Times accused ought to be given. The court had determined to enter thoroughly into the inquiry and follow it out to the end.

Sandbagged and Robbed.

DETROIT, Sept. 18.—An extensive robbery was committed in this city between 1 and 2 a.m. yesterday by two burglars, W. H. Traves, builder and contractor, being the victim. Mr. Traves had drawn money from the bank and made collections the day previous and when he retired for the night he had over $2000 in cash in his pocket book. The coat containing the pocket book hung over a chair and at the hour named Mr. Traves was awakened by his daughter talking in her sleep and looking up saw a man walking off with his coat. Mr. Traves grappled with the burglar and together they rolled down stairs, where the second burglar, who was engaged in ransacking the drawer of a secretary, sandbagged Mr. Traves and thus secured the safe retreat of the burglars with their booty. Although he received serious injury the victim of the assault and robbery is now pronounced out of danger.

Over Dorothy's Suicide.

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 18.—From a letter written on the day of his death by Oers Barothy, who committed suicide at Chicago last week, it appears that his crime was not caused by unrequited love, but was in recognition of a pledge given to kill himself. Three years ago he had a quarrel with a Hungarian army officer, challenged him to fight a duel and the challange was accepted, the conditions being that each party was to draw one of two balls, the person to whose lot the black ball fell to kill himself on the third anniversary of the quarrel.

Charged With Fraud.

HAMILTON, Sept. 18.—Emanuel Wolfe, a traveller, living at 91 Jackson-street east, was up at the Police Court yesterday on a charge of fraud preferred by W. V. Todd of Toronto. It is claimed Wolfe sold non-union cigars to a saloon-keeper named Brush representing to him that they were union-made, and the cigar boxes bore the trade mark of the International Union. The case was adjourned.

A Trip Through Europe.

THIRD PAPER.

Doing Dublin.

Approaching Dublin, castles and mansions, with their lovely grounds and flowers boom up on every side, making a fitting environment for the grand old city. The train stopped in a fine large station. We passed out to the cab-stand and took a seat on a jaunting car, a two-wheeled vehicle with the seats over the wheels and facing outwards. Our driver was a perfect Jehu, and the dangers of an up-tip so imminent, we vowed that if we got off safely it would be our last ride of the kind, and we kept our pledge. Under favorable circumstances it ought to be quite a comfortable conveyance.

A word here about the "tipping system." If men carry your satchel or do anything for you—they look for a "tip" of a penny, sixpence or according to service rendered. It is an intolerable nuisance and confronts you everywhere. We have not the space in this paper to describe the city, so will notice the people as they appear in their different callings. The description will apply to British cities in general. Your readers can note the points in and out of harmony with the "goings on" round home. The laboring classes are industrious and employed in the usual way. They say it is hard to get a job without "a friend at court." The

MERCANTILE INTERESTS ARE VERY IMPORTANT.

The immense shops were well filled and business fairly brisk. The drug stores have more of a professional style, for a customer is rather expected to ask for something that requires skill and preparation, than simply to buy a common-place article. The drug clerks, and we may add, the bank ones too, are quite sedate in their manner. The nice young man who tries to balance his brain by parting his hair in the middle—who tenderly nurtures the downy moustache, and uses the "mashing arts" on susceptible young maidens, appears to be relegated to the concert hall.

The doctors hurry forth through streets and hospitals to relieve suffering and ward off death. This active band are pressing every instrument and useful drug into the conflict against the hydra-headed monster, disease. They are working day and night building up a great sanitary altar on which to immolate themselves, for, the less sickness the less fees. The sister callings are wiser in this generation. Editors, in addition to the ecstacy of enjoyment felt in being leaders of public opinion, are deriving larger returns from their labors (?).

The clergy are not only graciously accepting larger stipends, but assuming more regal authority, for we have the supreme pontiff asserting infallibility, and the unwary, Canadian-country parson insisting on the "right of way," and saying, "I won't!" when

OFFICIALLY REQUESTED TO "MOVE ON."

Judges and lawyers arrayed in flowing robes and inspired by princely fees dispense or plead the sacred cause of justice. And lastly the grand army of teachers, with duties so adjusted that they, in order to be consistent, are almost forced to spend from two to six months in genteel leisure—presumably on the same principle that induces Chinese Mandarins to allow their nails to grow.

A word to the ladies. An accomplished Boston lady gave the palm to the rosy cheeks and ruby lips of the Dublin ladies. We promptly invited her to our fair country, feeling assured that an acquaintance with our wives and sweet-hearts would produce an equally favorable impression.

Dublin can justly claim a high antiquity. Could we look back through the dim vista of twenty centuries, we might see the little trading-post or fort of Eblana; it spread along either bank of the Liffey, and in due time became the capital of a brave and generous nation. There is a charm about Dublin that makes the tourist feel quite at home. A walk round the harbor gives an idea of the nature and variety of the shipping interests. The river has been deepened, so that many of the vessels come up as far as the middle of the city. A ride on the top of a street car—nearly all the cars have seats on top—enables one to see the size and general appearance of the Irish metropolis. The larger shops, and many of the private residences, are attractive and substantial; most of the public buildings are

COSTLY AND ELEGANT STRUCTURES.

We will briefly notice a few of them. On College Green is the Bank of Ireland. It is quite venerable looking, but still beautiful with its semi-circular porch and artistic Ionic Colonade; it was once used as a house of parliament, and the chamber of lords is still preserved. Opposite, the famous Trinity College presents its Corinthian front to view. It possesses a fair museum and a very extensive library. The Customs House, with its high cupola, stands like a sentinel by the river. The Four Courts are a massive pile of Corinthian architecture. The National Gallery of Paintings, Sculpture, and the Fine Arts faces Merrion Square. The College of Physicians and Surgeons, the interior decorations, especially the ceilings, of which will repay a visit. St. Patrick's Cathedral, restored by a munificent gift of £150,000 from Sir B. L. Guinness. The Castle, the abode of vice-royalty, and the palatial hotels, where rich Americans make a rather "loud" display of their wealth.

There are many fine streets. Sackville street is the best known; it is wide, well paved, and lined by handsome shops. Other attractive ones are Dame, Grafton and Merrion streets.

As the Irish people like to keep the memories of their illustrious sons "fresh and green" they have a profusion of statues and pillars. On Sackville street the bronze figure on top faces the wild winds as boldly as the great admiral did the deadlier roar of the cannon. Away out in Phœnix Park is a granite obelisk of Wellington, whose keen grey eyes, long face and equiline nose were conspicuous at the head of many a conquering host. A little way from Nelson's column is a large statue of O'Connel, the great statesman and orator, whose speeches on behalf of his country will ever grace English literature. The silvery tones of Grattan, Sheridan, Addison, Steel and Swift did not fall on unsympathetic ears, if we are to judge by the number of statues erected in their honor. Irish poets are fittingly remembered by statues to those "sweet singers," Moore and Goldsmith.

Dublin, in common with old country cities, is well provided with parks and public squares; Phœnix Park includes some 1,700 acres. In addition to ornamental columns there are lovely flower beds, elegant drives, and abundance of room and fresh air for everybody. There is one dark stain, the site of the foul assassination of Cavendish and Burke. St. Stephens Green and Merrion Square are tastefully planted with pretty trees and shrubs.

A visit to Glasnevin Cemetery is interesting. Standing on a beautiful granite base is the imposing circular tower, under which the remains of O'Connel quietly rest. Attached to many of the monuments are glass cases containing artificial flowers. Leaving the "silent city of the dead" with its wealth of marble and those purer tokens of love, the flowers, we pass through many fine streets on our way to the station.

The Nicholls Hospital Drain.

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

DEAR SIR,—I find in a late issue of your daily paper an advertisement for tenders for certain work in connection with the Nicholls Hospital, now in course of erection in the North Ward. I gather from this advertisement that it is proposed to lead, by a tile drain, all the sewerage from the hospital directly to the river. It seems to me that if this be done the hospital will in a short time become one of the most popular and thriving institutions of our town, and as a summer resort will draw better than all the hotels of the surrounding district. When the tiny typhoid germs dance merrily down the sparkling Otonabee and nestle underneath the sawdust, and creep into the factories, summer boarders will flock to the Nicholls Hospital. The Hospital Board and the Town Council, and all who have interested themselves in this concern, are to be congratulated on the certain success that awaits their efforts, for the proposed tile drain is enough to make a hospital flourish in the most healthy community.

Yours hopefully,

TORONTO TOPICS.

Rev. Mr. Wilson's Move-on Appeal—Opening of Moulton Ladies' College.

TORONTO, Sept. 18.—Yesterday morning Judge McDougall non-suited Jos. H. Ahlers, of bucket shop fame, who sued Judge Sinclair for $150 worth of margin.

The criminal docket of the General Sessions Court was begun yesterday morning by Judge Morgan. There are six cases of assaults on Toronto policemen to be tried, and nine appeals from the Police Magistrate's decision in assault cases.

The city public offices, wholesale houses, etc., were closed yesterday afternoon and the streets deserted for the fair ground.

The move-on appeal case of Rev. W. F. Wilson will go forward another stage to-day, when Judge Morgan will give judgment on the technical points raised by Mr. Bigelow, counsel for Mr. Wilson.

At the police court yesterday the cases of the six milk-dealers summoned for adulterating their milk with water were adjourned for a week. Six cases of selling liquor at the Exhibition grounds were remanded till to-day.

Moulton Ladies' College in connection with McMaster University will open for its first session to-day. Moulton College perpetuates the family name of Mrs. McMaster, its generous founder.

The exhibition receipts yesterday were $13,270.55.

Yesterday afternoon a dead man was found in Royce's grove, Davenport Village. The deceased was apparently about 26 years of age, stout, short, clean shaven, with hair cut close. It was apparently a case of suicide, as a five-chambered double action revolver was found close to the body. One chamber of the weapon was empty, the contents of it having been discharged into the head close to the right temple. The body was quite stiff and had evidently been dead some days.

AN 1812 VETERAN GONE.

Col. Adam Hemkie Passes Quietly Away at the Age of 96 Years.

BRAMSVILLE, Sept. 18.—Colonel Adam Konkle, aged 96, died on Sunday morning. He is about the last of the Canadian heroes who fought in the war of 1812 and '15. The gallant Colonel was on the Niagara frontier, and took part in the battles of Lundy's Lane and Queenston. For three or four years past the aged man has driven himself less and less frequently up to Beamsville from his fine farm on the banks of Lake Ontario, but continued to the last his control and personal supervision of his place.

Death of An Octogenarian.

LEFROY, Sept. 18.—Mr. Henry Gross, better known as "The Squire" died here on Saturday night, aged 80 years and 10 months. He was a pioneer and a prominent Freemason.

The Soldiery Dissatisfied and Ready to Rebel.

MADRID, Sept. 18.—The people of Madrid are just recovering from a bad scare. Three nights ago the Governor, expecting a military revolt in favor of a republic, kept the imperial troops under arms all night and extreme vigilance was exercised at the barracks. There was no trouble, however, and if there was any plot brewing it has proved a fizzle. There has been more or less uneasiness, however, for some time past, and it is undeniable that dissatisfaction exists among the soldiery. To what extent the revolutionary spirits prevail cannot be determined, at least by the outside public, and it is only from the anxious attitude of the Government that it is inferred that the army is seriously honeycombed with disloyalty to the present form of administration. Disbelievers in the stability of any kind of government in Spain are quickly pointing out that a revolution is about due, if the country is to keep up its record in throne-changing.

Ill Temper

is more rapidly improved by relief from physical suffering than in any other way. Step on your friend's corn, and the impulse to strike is strongest. Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor, by quickly and painlessly removing them, insures good nature. Fifty imitations prove its value. Beware of substitutes. "Putnam's," sure, safe, and painless. 6dw38

A Dozen Years.

Dear Sirs,—For twelve years I suffered from dyspepsia and liver complaint and was so weak I could not leave my bed for eight months, and had little hope of ever being cured. Three years ago I tried Burdock Blood Bitters, and am thankful to say I now enjoy good health, and I advise all who are afflicted to try B.B.B." Mrs. Harriet Hobbs, Muir Avenue, Brooktos, Ont. 6dw36

of the beneficial qualities of Burdock Blood Bitters is found in the thousands of authentic testimonials published by the proprietors. The original letters being in their possession, they can furnish proof positive as to their genuineness at any time. 6dw36

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. A Sad Bereavement.

Mr. James Best and family have the cordial sympathy of the entire community in their heavy bereavement in the death by consumption of their only daughter. The young lady, who was only 18 years of age, was a most estimable character, and on the threshold of life was cut down by consumption. The funeral takes place from the family residence, 501 George street, on Wednesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.

Notice of Funeral.

Mrs. Nicholas Walton, formerly of the township of Smith, passed away at the residence of her son, Mr. N. Walton, county of Grey, this morning, and the funeral will take place from the residence of Mr. Walton's brother-in-law, Mr. D. Bellegham, at 2 o'clock p. m. on Thursday. The deceased lady was 86 years of age, and has a large circle of friends and acquaintances in this section who will regret to learn of her death.

The other factories were given permission to sell off the board, between now and the next meeting, Oct. 2nd. Liverpool quotations at 11·30, 45s., and 44s. for colored and white.

Matrimonial.

The EXAMINER records with pleasure a pleasant matrimonial event in St. Luke's Church—the union in marriage of Mr. Henry R. Stewart, son of Mr. Richard Stewart, of Otonabee, to Miss Estella M., daughter of Mr. Henry Bennett, Ashburnham. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock Monday evening by Rev. W. C. Bradshaw in St. Luke's Church. Mr. Robert Leary was groomsman on the occasion, and the bridesmaids were Ella, elder sister of the bride, and the bride's two little sisters aged respectively about five and seven years. The dresses of the bride and her assistants were beautiful and rich, while the large number of elegant wedding presents testified to the high esteem in which the bride was held. After the ceremony, the bridal party and invited guests sat down to a sumptuous supper at the residence of the bride's father. The newly wedded pair repaired to the home prepared for them in Otonabee, the wedding tour to New York having been postponed on account of the illness of Mr. Stewart, the elder. The EXAMINER extends its cordial congratulations and its best wishes for many years of happy wedded life.

The Star Theatre Company.

This excellent theatrical organization opened its three nights' season in the Opera House last night with the "Galley Slave." There was a fairly good house, which retired at the close of the performance well pleased with the entertainment which had been provided for them. Miss Florence Lytelle, the star of the company, was exceedingly pleasing, while Mr. Quinn, as "Sidney Norcott," and Miss Berkeley and Mr. Whitlock, as "Cicely Blaine" and "Fitts," respectively, together with the rest of the company, provided an excellent support. The play ran very smoothly throughout, some of the situations rising above mediocrity. The mounting of the play was first-class, and the dresses rich and elaborate. The entr' acte music—piano—was above the ordinary, the performance of one selection being accorded the unusual compliment for such music of enthusiastic applause. The company altogether made a very pleasing impression, and no doubt to-night a crowded house will greet the presentation of "The Silver King"—a specialty of this company.

Pullman (Ill.) Pickings.

(From the Chicago British American.)

Mr. Robert Walton, an old and respected resident of Peterborough, is visiting his sons in Pullman.

Miss Kennedy, sister of our old friend, Tom Kennedy, from Peterborough, and Harry Phillips, of Toronto, are among recent arrivals.

The Misses Fanny, Eliza and Emma Morrow, sisters of Mr. George Morrow, are over from Lindsay, Ont., stopping with their brother.

David Gladman, a native of Lindsay, Ont., is superintendent of the coating department in the works. Mr. Gladman has been a resident of Pullman for five years, and through his own industry has succeeded to the position he now occupies.

John Kennedy is captain of the Pullman Lacrosse Club. His native place is Lindsay, Ont., and over home he played in the Peterborough, Beaverton and Lindsay clubs. He has a good record as a player and promises to bring the club up to a proper standard of efficiency. He has been a resident here for a year and a half and has lots of friends.

Wedding Bells.

At nine o'clock this morning Mr. Harry Phelan, of the hardware firm of Fortye & Phelan, was united in marriage in the city of Ottawa to Miss Nagle of that place. The ceremony was performed at nine o'clock in St. Patrick's church. Mr. Fred G. Cox filled the duties of "best man" assisted by the bridegroom's business partner, Mr. R. H. Fortye. Mr. and Mrs. E. Phelan also went down to the capital to be present on the auspicious occasion. The happy pair go to Montreal to-night on their bridal tour through Eastern Canada, whence they will return to town to take up residence on Rubidge street, in the Cox block. Mr. Phelan is a splendid young man with hosts of friends both in business and social circles, and is deserving of the great happiness which his many friends, as well as the EXAMINER, heartily wish may result from his union with a most estimable young lady, who it is hoped will prove to be a capital wife as she is a Capital girl. She may expect a warm reception in Peterborough, where her husband's good qualities have already won her many warm friends, as was shown by the large number of handsome presents sent down to Ottawa from town.

A Supremely Sad Death.

The public generally, as well as the more intimate friends and acquaintances of Dr. Collins, were shocked to hear that he died at his sister's residence, Cobourg, at 8 o'clock this morning. It will be recollected that only a week ago he left town to be married in Cobourg, the ceremony having to be postponed on account of his illness, which has had so sad a termination. Dr. Collins was suffering at the time of his going to Cobourg from the effects of a carbuncle on the back of his neck. He had taken cold while attending a country patient, and it is supposed blood poisoning set in. Dr. Collins has been practising his profession here a little over two years. He was an energetic and pushing practitioner and had acquired a good practice. He was a graduate of Queen's College, Kingston, and his former home was at Hastings, where his family resides. The circumstances of his death are particularly sad. Just in the prime of life, aged about 28 or 30 years; just on the eve of marriage with an estimable young lady; stricken down with deadly illness on his wedding day, and the house purchased and furnished, ready for a happy home—his untimely end shows the uncertainty of life and the unstability of hopes founded on human conditions. Dr. Collins will be much missed in Peterborough, where he filled many useful positions outside of his profession, especially in connection with the interests of the congregation of St. Peter's Cathedral. The funeral takes place at Hastings at 10 o'clock to-morrow.

Personal.

Mrs. J. H. Cavanah, of Lethbridge, N.W. T., leaves for home this evening, via C.P.R.

Mr. A. St. A. Smith and bride arrived home to-day on the late C.P.R. express from Montreal.

Mrs. John Moffat left by C.P.R. train last evening for Winnipeg, for a month's visit in that city and other portions of the province.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rossel, of Smithville, Ont., (near St. Catherines) are in town on a visit to their nephew, Chief of Police Rossel.

Police Constable McGinty went on duty on Monday. His recent illness has made him somewhat weak, but he feels better in harness than idling.

Mr. Charles Peplow, of Port Hope, well known in Peterborough, has gone to Rat Portage to take a position in the Keewatin Roller Mills.

Mrs. Annie Bryce Proudfoot Campbell, an old Auckland colonist, died on August 5th, at the ripe age of 83 years. Mrs. Campbell arrived in New Zealand with her husband and family in the year 1865 from Port Hope.

The Montreal Witness thus refers to Hon. Edward Blake:—Canada has cause for rejoicing if it be true that Mr. Blake is in excellent health. His perfect recovery would be a national blessing. Mr. Blake is a statesman far above the ordinary type of the successful politician. His speeches were never in the best of a campaign mere partisan appeals. They were an educating force and many portions of them are of permanent value. Mr. Blake is a comparatively young man, and if his recovery is perfect, many years of usefulness to Canada are before him.

Dr. Robert Campbell, of Buffalo, brother of Mr. J. H. Campbell, of Douro, and son of the late George Campbell, North Monaghan, who has been absent on the continent of Europe some time for the benefit of his health, paid a visit last week to some of his friends in North Monaghan and for part of the time was a guest of Mr. John Dobbin. His many friends were pleased to see him looking so well, knowing of his long illness. It is some years since he visited his native township, and he was much impressed with the great improvement in both town and township. North Monaghan has turned out some good men.

The workmen in the G.T.R. shops at Lindsay presented Mech. Supt. J. D. Barnett well known in Peterborough, with a highly complimentary and finely illuminated address, Tuesday evening on the occasion of his removal from the division to Stratford. Mr. Barnett's relations with the men have always been most pleasant and satisfactory. Mr. Barnett is promoted to a most responsible position, probably the second in the mechanical service of the company, a position for which his fine scientific attainments as well as practical skill render him admirably fitted. Mr. Storer presided on the occasion of the presentation. The address was read by Mr. McAdam. A few neat speeches were made.

—A telegram from Madoc says that the saw mill at Glen Lewis, owned by W. A. Hungerford, was destroyed by fire on Saturday night. No insurance. Cost $2,700.

—Malarial and typhoid fever are prevalent in all parts of the Province to an unusual extent at present, probably because of the dry season and consequent low water exposing decaying vegetable matter.

—The Belleville Finance Committee recommends the purchase of hose couplings, only, there being no funds for any further expenditure. Poor Belleville. Peterborough might lend the "Bay City" a few thousands of her surplus of this year—that is, if satisfactory security could be given.

Booming the Babies.

The Wonderful Goughs Invade the Domestic Hearth.

True to their character of springing surprises on the people, the wonderful Gough Bros. have a new surprise on hand. They work not only for the profitable present but are looking to the future. These wide-awake workers of wonders propose to graft the most startling of all attractions upon the Central Exhibition. Here it is. They will offer the following prizes for the best baby at the Central baby show; A five-dollar gold piece to the baby taking first prize, a ten-dollar suit to the happy father and a cashmere dress to the proud mother. In case of twins the prize will be doubled, and triplets will draw the triple prize and a government situation when they come of age. You can't get ahead of Gough Bros., the wonderful cheap men. They are the benefactors of the age, and posterity will rise up and call them blessed. The cheapest clothiers on earth, the uncrowned kings of the clothing trade.

A Magnificent Event in Prospect.

The public will learn with great interest that the entertainment of the pupils of the Collegiate Institute in the Charlotte street skating rink on Wednesday evening, Sept. 26th, will be a most interesting exhibition of calisthenics, gymnastics and military drill. The work of rehearsal is going on bravely and the pupils will be in the pink of preparation by the 26th. The uniformed company of young ladies in their tasty and striking uniforms, and armed with rifles with their brilliant military evolutions will be a feature at once unique and beautiful. The other events of the programme will be of proportional interest—the calisthenic, gymnastic and other performances, with the accompaniment of vocal music, glees, choruses, etc., and the music of the band, will be additional features of great attractiveness. The whole entertainment will be something to surpass in brilliancy and completeness anything ever presented in the Midland district, and doubtless, the immense capacity of the skating rink will be taxed to the utmost to accommodate the spectators. The programme will be arranged and put in print within a few days. Don't neglect to arrange for visiting the rink on Wednesday evening, Sept. 26th. Admission 25 cents. Tickets can be procured from Sergt.-Major Randle or the pupils

Central Exhibition Trains.

On Wednesday and Thursday of next week (exhibition days) the Grand Trunk will run a special train from Peterborough to Belleville, leaving Peterborough each evening at 6 p. m. This will give eastern people a fine opportunity to visit the exhibition and return home the same evening.

Stewart found him in Snowden's yard with two of the print dresses he had stolen on his person underneath his pantaloons and a basque over his shirt—all as wet as water could make them. Of course, glass jars; but so many of those we had last year cracked in filling that it makes it very expensive. Oh, I remember how Mrs. Goodwife told me last year she bought her jars at "China Hall," and that she did not break a jar in filling or lose a single can of fruit. I shall buy from China Hall this season. As the price is just the same I might as well have the best.

SUN
LIFE ASSURANCE COMP'Y OF CANADA.

HEAD OFFICE, MONTREAL.

Both in Magnitude and Profitableness, the Business for 1887 has been almost everything that could be desired.

The life policies now in force are 7,128 for $10,873,777.69, on 6741 lives. We have moreover $3,207,600 00 insured under 1,840 accident policies, so that the total current contracts of the Company are 8,969 for $14,081,377.69.

The income for the year shows the very large increase of $122,331.23 over the figures of 1886, the total being $495,831.54. The revenue is now half a million dollars per annum, or as mentioned in the report, over $1,600 for every working day in the year, and even this he believed was but a mere introduction to what it will be in a few years hence. The gains from time to time are well illustrated by the following table:—

Period	Gain in income.	Gain in assets.	Gain in assurances.
1872 to 1876, four years	$ 54,611 21	$169,482 69	$1,149,743 00
1876 to 1880, four years	38,580 67	195,188 29	1,167,336 14
1880 to 1884, four years	126,976 84	363,264 31	2,992,934 90
1884 to 1887, three years	217,451 89	475,077 24	4,029,373 65
Total in 1887	$495,831 54	$1,750,004 45	$10,873,777 69

It is very pleasing to notice that the gains for the last three years only are 60 per cent. more than those of the preceding four years.

ICELANDIC IMMIGRATION.

ELEVEN HUNDRED SETTLE IN CANADA THIS SEASON.

Making a Total of 6000 Now in the Dominion—Mr. Justice Wurtele Transferred to the Court of Queen's Bench.

OTTAWA, Sept. 18.—The defalcations of Customs Officer Leslie, who was stationed at Leslie, Man., aggregate $1100, and the Customs Department has made a demand upon his sureties for a refund of the amount.

The Customs Department has granted the Red River Valley Railway all necessary facilities for the operation of the road across the boundary.

The Customs Department contemplate sending Customs Inspector Young of Winnipeg on a tour of inspection along the Northwest frontier with a view of introducing measures for preventing smuggling.

The reported removal of the Chinese interpreter at Victoria, B.C., is unfounded. Last month $3000 was collected at Victoria from Chinese alone.

Mr. Joseph Pope, secretary to Sir John, has returned here from Prince Edward Island.

It is understood that Justice Wurtele has been transferred from the Superior Court to the Court of Queen's Bench. His salary will be increased from $4000 to $5000.

Col. Irvin, Inspector of Artillery, has returned to the city from Quebec. He attended the artillery competition at the Island of Orleans. Ontario was the only province not represented.

Sir Hector Langevin and Sir A. P. Caron leave to-morrow for Quebec.

Hon. Mr. Tupper has returned to the city.

The Department of Agriculture has been informed of the arrival of 96 Icelandic immigrants, making a total of 1100 for the season. There are now settled in the Dominion over 6000 of these hardy sons of the soil.

Mr. Shutt, chemist at the Experimental Farm, has returned to the city. He has been visiting England and Germany during the last two months for the purpose of gaining information respecting experimental work in agriculture in these countries, and also with the object of purchasing apparatus for the new laboratories. Mr. Shutt visited several universities in England and Germany. He says he has completed the purchase of chemical apparatus.

United Typothetae of America.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—The second annual session of the United Typothetae of America, the employing printers of the United States and Canada, was begun yesterday. The attendance was about 100, considerably less than was anticipated, though in all probability this number will be largely increased to-day.

A Man Unfit to Live.

LONG ISLAND, Sept. 19.—William Bohan, who is charged with having gouged out both eyes of his wife about a week ago, was tried before a jury and promptly convicted of mayhem. His wife was the chief witness against him, and although an unwilling one her testimony was sufficient to ensure his conviction.

Jacksonville's Death Roll.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Sept. 18.—The official bulletin for the 24 hours ending at 6 p.m. to-day shows 156 new cases of yellow fever with twenty deaths.

THE TALK OF LONDON.

A MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT'S CABLE LETTER.

The Parnell Commission Begins Like a Play—But it is not to be a Comedy—Unlimited Powers of the Court.

LONDON, Sept. 19.—It began like a play, this Parnell commission. Admission was only by ticket—one color for the first floor, so to speak, set apart for journalists, solicitors, barristers and Queen's counsels; another color for two semi-proscenium boxes, where ladies sat, and blue tickets for the gallery.

The accommodation for this great play were as if the boodle trials were to be held in the chambers of a New York police judge. When Judges Hannen, Smith and Day entered, just as the big clock was striking 11, the audience was fairly massed together, and oxygen was in great request. Only one man seemed cool. He was Geoge Lewis, who was there as a Parnellite solicitor. He was the stage manager of the cause celebre, and looked as though he regarded the sitting as the preliminary to a fizzle. The three judges, however, looked as if they meant serious business, and when President Commissioner Hannen finished reading the program governing the inquiry the audience saw that what at first looked like a comedy was not to be one in the hands of these judges. Yet it might turn out to be a burlesque collaborated by the government and the Times.

An evening paper foolishly asserts that the commissioners have no power to release Dillon on bail. There is no limit to the power of a royal commission. It may send to The New York Herald office in London and search every bureau or box and carry off letters or other documents, together with the staff, and this without a word of forewarning or explanation. It may compel a business man to produce his most private accounts, and send him to jail if he refuses. There is nothing which a royal commission cannot do, for it is armed with all the powers of Parliament and they are practically unlimited. If, then, it thinks proper to set Dillon free it can do so. It can also arrest and throw into prison any, high or low, who may rashly question or defy its power.

But the Parnellites are not disposed to incur this penalty. Following Sir Charles Russell's advice they will boldly face the inquiry and see everything out, come what may.

I can only say that at this moment both sides profess to be perfectly confident of victory. The Times, in spite of many contradictory accounts from time to time, is said to be all right by those who ought to know. In that case somebody must be all wrong. It will be quite useless to look for even the slightest clue as yet to the enigma.

A MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT.

Dillon's Release.

LONDON, Sept. 19.—The statement that John Dillon had been released on bail is incorrect. His release had no connection with the action of the Parnell Commission. The Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, on account of the medical report on the state of Mr. Dillon's health, granted him an unconditional release. The full term of his imprisonment would not have expired until the end of the year. On his arrival in Dublin he was met by a host of friends. Mr. Dillon is much thinner and paler than when he was sent to prison and is obviously ill.

SHOT HIS WIFE.

Angry Because She Refused Him Ten Cents With Which to Buy Liquor.

PERTH AMBOY, Sept. 19.—Mrs. Bridget Patten was shot by her husband, Thomas Patten, because she refused to give him ten cents with which to buy liquor. Patten, who is employed on the Lehigh Valley Railroad, had been on a spree for several days, and awoke only half sober. By threatening his wife he induced her to let him have 25 cents, and he left the house. He returned about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, drunk and very ugly. He demanded ten cents, but his wife refused to give him any more money. She was lying on a bed nursing her three-months-old infant. With an oath, her husband dragged her from the bed and began to kick her. As she was regaining her feet he drew a revolver and fired at her, the shot taking effect in her neck. She seized her infant and ran from the house, closely followed by her husband, who kept firing shot after shot at her, none of which, however, took effect.

She finally reached the home of a neighbor, and fell to the floor with her infant in her arms. Patten, with his revolver still in his hand, tried to gain an entrance to the house in which his wife had taken refuge, but he was kept out, and was finally arrested by Chief-of-Police Jackson. The bullet first fired entered Mrs. Patten's neck on the right side and grazed the jugular vein. Dr. Wilson, who is attending the woman, has not deemed it advisable to probe for the ball. Her condition is critical.

The Baltic Still Aground.

COLLINGWOOD, Sept. 19.—The two sister ships, Atlantic and Pacific, have failed to pull the Baltic off the island on which she is ashore near Kagawong. Another attempt will be made to accomplish this with the assistance of the Northern Belle. The water which had been let in the hold to prevent the Baltic from pounding was pumped out, and as she made no water it is believed that the vessel has sustained no injury. The hold has again been filled to keep her resting easily.

Seriously Injured by a Playmate.

WINDSOR, Sept. 18.—Fred Townsend, aged 16, wrestled and threw a colored youth of the name of Lyons, whereupon the latter got angry and threw a stone which struck Townsend's head, fracturing his skull. The doctor has slight hope of his recovery. Both lads live near Kingsville.

A Big Judgment Against Pontiac County.

OTTAWA, Sept. 19.—At Aylmer yesterday afternoon Judge Wurtele gave judgment in the case of the Pontiac and Pacific Railway Company v. the County of Pontiac for $100,000 and costs in favor of the railway company. The case was brought by the railway company to recover the amount of the judgment in bonds, being a subsidy promised by the county towards the construction of the line. The county resisted payment on the ground that the bonus was voted by an illegally constructed council.

Murderer Jacobs' Trial.

MONTREAL, Sept. 19.—No judgment was rendered in the Pitcher case yesterday.

The Caughnawaga murder case was continued at the Court of Queen's Bench yesterday. Agathe Moineau a neighbor of Jacobs; Madame Moineau, mother of the murdered woman; Moise Leport, a constable, and Dr. Patton gave evidence.

Ingersoll Cheese Market.

INGERSOLL, Sept. 19.—This week 13 factories offered 4750 boxes, principally August make, sales, 280 August, at 8¾c. There was a large attendance of salesmen who refused to board cheese on account of the dullness of the market. Twenty-six factories were represented and 9 buyers present.

The Crouch Murder Case.

JACKSON, Mich., Sept. 19.—Detective Ballard has returned from Lexington, Mich. It is stated that he has secured the missing link in the great Crouch murder case. He has possession of a photograph of the alleged murderer and claims to possess evidence that will surely bring to the surface the details of the horrible slaughter of nine persons.

TORONTO TOPICS.

Exhibition Receipts—Death of a Centenarian—The Wandering Jew Nabbed.

TORONTO, Sept. 19.—Mr. William Brown, who formerly resided with his son at 412 Queen-street west, has died at Bolton village at the great age of 105 years.

Hon. Thomas Greenway, Premier of Manitoba, is in the city looking after that province's exhibit at the fair. He says that the damage done by the frost has been greatly exaggerated. Despite the losses there will be as much—if not more—realized from the crops this year than last. He was not prepared to say anything definite about the Hudson Bay railway scheme, for the reason that matters in connection with it have not yet taken a definite shape.

The total receipts at the exhibition so far this year are $34,746; last year for the same days, $27,632.

Yesterday Chief of Police Grasett received a dispatch from Scotland Yard, London, Eng., notifying him that the officers of that department had succeeded in securing the person of Barnett. No further particulars were contained in the cable, except that Barnett was being held to await the pleasure of the Toronto authorities. A reply was promptly dispatched to the effect that an officer would be sent after the prisoner as soon as possible,, accompanied with the request to hold Barnett until called for. The warrant on which Barnett was arrested was issued on Sept. 6, and sworn to by Detective-Inspector Stark. It charges Barnett with the fraudulent appropriation of the proceeds of two deposit receipts, the property of the Central Bank, on Sept. 7, 1887, the amount of each being $5250.

Yesterday morning in the Court of General Sessions, Judge Morgan delivered judgment in the appeal case of Rev. W. F. Wilson against the conviction by the Police Magistrate for disorderly conduct. He held that the conviction, notwithstanding the technical points raised by Mr. Bigelow, was perfectly legal so far as form went. It now remains for the merits of the case to be gone into, which will probably be some day next week. The plumbers' appeal case will be taken up about the same time.

CHARGE AGAINST A DOCTOR.

Trying to Put His Daughter-in-Law in an Insane Asylum.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—Dr. Benjamin Andrews, a wealthy physician of Brooklyn, is charged with endeavoring to have his son's wife Jennie Andrews placed in an insane asylum. The doctor was opposed to his son's marriage, and the daughter in-law claims that all the family trouble is due to his opposition. She says that her husband is a drunkard and that he once went to bed with his clothes on and set the bedclothes on fire with a cigar, and that he would have been burned to death but for her exertions. Dr. Stone, who called to see Mrs. Andrews, says she is not insane, but was suffering from an assault made by her husband.

She Married the Coachman.

PROVIDENCE, R.I., Sept. 19.—Miss Annie Rider, daughter of a leading bookseller here, has caused a profound sensation in society circles by her clandestine marriage to a coachman. She is a highly cultured and extremely attractive young woman. She was the inventor of the "blue flame" kindling wood, which had been patented and the manufacture of which had become a lucrative business. The coachman's name is Morgan, and he is a very intelligent man. It has just come out that they were married last April, though they have lived apart, and by no outward manifestations have they betrayed their relations. Morgan a short time ago resigned his coachmanship and began studying telegraphy. By some means the young couple became alarmed lest their secret should come out, and have at last publicly announced their marriage and will hereafter live together. The young lady is 22 and her husband 24.

Shot a Cuban Bank Officer.

HAVANA, Sept. 19.—Senor Manuel Romero, one of the head officers of the Spanish Bank of the Island of Cuba, was murdered while sitting in his office at the bank. A young man named Victor Manuel Garcia, who had been lately employed in the bank, was discharged by Senor Romero for bad conduct two days ago. Manual Garcia, sr., father of this young man, appeared in the office of Senor Romero to inquire the cause of his son's discharge. Words ensued which were followed by blows, in which Garcia drew a revolver, but was disarmed by employes of the bank. At this moment Garcia, junior, appeared and fired two shots at Senor Romero, killing him instantly. The murderer is only 21 years old and of good family. Senor Romero was of excellent reputation. Both father and son are now in jail.

A Train Stopped for a Duel.

CATTLETTSBURG, Ky., Sept. 19.—Two men, Steele and Mockabee, both drunk, boarded the eastbound Chesapeake and Ohio train at Mount Stirling and fought all the way to Stepstone, where the conductor put the men off and told them to fight it out. They drew their pistols and exchanged five shots each. The fifth shot from Steele's pistol passed through Mockabee's brain, killing him instantly. They were cousins. After the killing Steele boarded the train and went home, the train having waited until the duel was over.

MR. SHERMAN'S SCHEME.

THE ANNEXATION BEE BUZZING IN HIS BONNET.

Ohio's Senator Thinks the Dominion can be Drawn Into the Union by a Policy of Friendliness.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—In the Senate Mr. Sherman's resolution offered on Monday instructing the Committee on Foreign Relations to enquire into the state of the relations of the United States with Great Britain and the Dominion of Canada and to report at the next session such measures as are expedient to promote friendly commercial and political intercourse between those countries and the United States, was taken up, and Mr. Sherman proceeded to address the Senate, delivering his remarks from manuscript. After an allusion to the President's retaliation message, and a justification of the rejection of the fisheries treaty he asked, why should Canada refuse to allow American fishing vessels to enter her ports and to ship their fish to their American markets? A denial of that privilege appeared so unchristian and selfish that he wondered it had not long since led to violent retaliation. If the President had by proclamation withheld the like privileges from Canadian fishing vessels, the evil, he believed, would have been quickly corrected, but the President instead of exercising the powers which he had under the Act of March 3, 1887, had asked Congress in his retaliation message for the power to suspend a commerce which had amounted for the last six years to $270,000,000. No wonder the sudden change of base excited surprise in both countries and was regarded as a mere political movement. The President's proposition was, in other words, to suspend and embarrass the commerce of exports and imports amounting to nearly a hundred millions a year. Such a proposition, made without warning in the midst of a popular election had been the President's response to the earnest demand made by the American fishermen that they should be secured in the enjoyment of what they believed to be their unquestionable rights.

Why had the President, he asked, blended the dispute about the transhipment of fish with the vast interior commerce of the country? Why connect the controversy in the waters about the mouth of the St. Lawrence with commercial relations along a boundary line of 4000 miles? No good could come of such a movement unless it was desired to establish non-intercourse between the two countries. The measure of retaliation requested by the President was far beyond the range of and out of all proportion to the complaint.

He denied the position taken by the President, that Article XXIX of the treaty of 1871 had been terminated on July 1, 1885. A constructive repeal, he argued, was not favored by law. Besides, all the contracting parties treated that article as being in full force.

The retaliation proposed by the President was retaliation against the United States. When President Grant had asked Congress for powers like these, they had been refused him, and was Congress now going to give to President Cleveland the power which it had refused to President Grant? Even if Great Britain had violated a treaty, Congress alone could prescribe the proper remedy, either by abrogation of the whole treaty or a portion of it, or by retaliation in kind. In that case Congress had furnished a remedy simple, ample and complete in the Act of Congress, March 3, 1887. Congress had not undertaken to abrogate Article XXIX of the treaty of 1871, and according to his construction that article was now in full force and effect. Neither the interests of the American people nor public policy demanded its abrogation, but rather that it should be maintained in force.

The discrimination against American vessels in Canadian canals, although unjust, had been seized upon as a pretence for this bill. He concluded, therefore, it was not wise to give the President the additional powers of retaliation which he asked.

The time had come when the people of the United States and the people of Canada should take a broader view of their relations towards each other. The whole history of the two countries had been a continuous warning that they could not remain at peace except by political as well as commercial union. It would be better for all if the whole continent north of Mexico shared in the prosperity and blessings of the American Union. But the way to union with Canada was not by unfriendly legislation but by friendly overtures. The true policy of the Government of the United States was to tender to Canada freedom of trade and intercourse and make that tender in such a fraternal way that it should be an overture to the Canadian people to become a part of the American Government. He saw in the success of that policy much that was good, nothing that was harmful to any part of the country. He was not wishing to vote for any measure that was not demanded by national honor.

Mr. Morgan (Dem., Ala.) replied to Mr. Sherman, describing a portion of his speech as a "post mortem on the fisheries treaty," and said Mr. Sherman's zollverein idea had seemed to be a plan for the annexation of Canada. He admired that senator for thus grasping Canada around the waist and holding her up to a close embrace with the people of the U.S. He looked forward, perhaps at the end of the next century, to something like a realization of this dream, unless in the meantime the Federal party of the United States, which was so much in love with the ancient traditions of centralized power, might think it better for Canada to embrace the United States within her union and draw them back within the Imperial power of Great Britain. He was a little at a loss to know, in view of recent presidential elections, whether the United States were not after all drifting to imperialism. He had been surprised at the breadth of Mr. Sherman's treatment of the question and preferred to read that senator's speech before commenting upon it. The Committee on Foreign Relations would meet to-morrow. It had had before it since Sept. 10 the Retaliation Bill passed by the House, and it was with astonishment that he had heard the senator from Ohio condemn the bill before it had been considered by that committee. After it had been considered to-morrow he would bring the subject to the attention of the country.

Mr. Sherman's resolution went over without action.

A Trip Through Europe.

FOURTH PAPER.

The City of Glasgow.

We bid a kindly adieu to Dublin and start for Belfast. The railway is not far from the shore, so on one side there are the well cultivated fields and on the other the foam-capped waves. There is a marked contrast between the South and North of Ireland. The former seems almost lifeless, the latter is humming with industry. The ride to Belfast is altogether too short, one should walk so as to get the full benefit of the scenery. Belfast is in the front rank as a bustling, busy city. It, and the country around, is fairly studded with the "tall chimneys" of linen and other factories. We got an invitation to go through one of these, but when we saw the immensity of the establishment we declined with thanks. The ship building is on a large scale. New and handsome houses are going up everywhere, the population is rapidly increasing, and altogether Belfast is a first-class city.

The run out to Larne, the point of embarkation, is short. They say the saddest of all reflections are the thoughts of "what might have been," so we think of the favorable location, the salubrious climate and fertile soil of Ireland, it is sad indeed to think "what might have been." However, there is no use regretting what we cannot change, so we turn round and find our hearts begin to throb as we catch a glimpse of Scotland's rugged shore,

THE LAND O' THE HEATHER.

The passage across the North Channel was very rough; however, we reached Stranraer and introduced ourselves to Scotland. This is the land of romance. On her rugged hills, deep down in her rocky glens and by her lonely lochs one almost instinctively stands, looks and listens for the weird spirits whose deeds give a lurid coloring to the tales told by her inimitable novelist.

And not only is the eye satiated with the charms nature has so lavishly bestowed, but our manhood is ennobled by witnessing the thrift, industry and intelligence, the well cultivated fields present. "Aye mon Sandy can plo' weel." No where else did we see farming pursued with so much skill, but unfortunately, from the mountainous character of the country, there is but a small portion arable.

A quick run through quite a variety of scenery and past the sprightly towns of Ayr, Kilmarnock and Paisley, BROUGHT US TO GLASGOW.

This city is almost as well known throughout the world as London. Her mighty war ships —admired and dreaded by other nations— form a strong wall of defence about the "sea girt isles," whilst her iron-clad steamers transport by far the largest portion of the world's merchandise, and tens of thousands of people tread their decks as they glide o'er trackless seas.

Glasgow is situated on the Clyde. The city made the river and the river made the city—"No where as at Glasgow is there revealed in such luminous traits, all that can be done by the efforts of man, combined with patience, energy, courage, and perseverance, to assist nature, and, if necessary, correct her. To widen and deepen a river, previously rebellious against carrying boats; to turn it into a great maritime canal, to bring the largest ships, and finally to gather a population of 750,000 inhabitants, all devoted to commerce and industry, upon a spot where only yesterday there was but a modest little town, almost destitute of every species of traffic, such is the miracle which in less than a century, men have performed at Glasgow."

Alighting at St. Enoch's station—in connection with which is the great St. Enoch's Hotel, where you can feast on porridge and kindred Scottish dainties —we pass out and begin to look around. Its appearance of solidity is the most striking feature of the city. Massive buildings and strong bridges everywhere attract attention.

If we go a little northward we reach that great business thoroughfare Argyle street—the goods so temptingly displayed behind the plate-glass tell of the love the Scottish lassies have for fine dresses, and also that all the laddies do not go with undraped shanks, for the ordinary masculine raiment hung about in great profusion—kilts, later. Directing our course eastward we can enter the Argyle Arcade and view the flashy wares of "Sunny lands," or northward to Buchanan street—now so fashionable, but once a country road, and the western boundary of the city, on the west side of which we see that monument of wealth, the offices of the Glasgow Herald and Evening Times, and as we gaze at them we take out our handkerchief and wipe away a solitary tear shed over which prevented us from being an editor. Further along is the great warehouse of Wylie and Lochhead. Turning to the right into St. Vincent Place we admire the imposing banks of Scotland and Clydesdale and the fine edifice of the Evening Citizen. We pass out into the famous St. George's Square, in the centre of which Sir Walter Scott's colossal statute stands, eighty feet above ordinary mortals, and on either side an equestrian statute of the Queen and Prince Consort, Peel, Livingston, Watt, Moore, Clyde, Burns and Campbell are proudly remembered. The whole eastern side is occupied by the stately municipal buildings. Cupolas, turrets, Corinthian columns, and Venetian windows are the adornments. The Bank of Scotland, where Mossman's pair of herculean Atlantes have a big job holding up the ponderous entablature over the front door, is on the west side. The commodious post office on the south. Near St. Enoch's station is St. Andrew's Catholic Church, with its fine window and turrets. Passing down to the river and turning eastward we reach Salt Market, one of the oldest streets in the city, and along it we see the ancient cross steeple, an old square tower. Near by is the old Tron Gate and the old Tron Church hallowed by the labors of Dr. Chalmers. The Royal Exchange, facing Ingram street is an ornament to the city; its massive porch is supported by Corinthian columns and in front there is a grand equestrian statute of Wellington. on entering it we were surprised to see how few old men there were in that busy mart. Is it because they have made enough to retire on or has death shattered their ranks?

The Glasgow cathedral is one of the old land marks, the venerable building has 147 pillars and 156 windows.

THESE GRAND OLD CHURCHES,

that have braved both physical and religious storms for centuries, and likely to do so for ages yet to come, must be great eye-sores to those sceptics who long for the demise of Christianity. On the east side of Cathedral square stands the old Barony church revered for its association with the late Dr. Norman McLeod. Near by is the Necropolis where the colossal monument of John Knox is as conspicuous amidst its fellows as the great reformer was amongst his. Alexandra and Queen's Parks and Glasgow Green with their pretty flowers, shrubs, grass and trees are congenial spots for all manner of men to hold animated if not very dignified discussions on knotty points in theology.

In Glasgow Green Nelson's monument commemorates his great victories and near Queen's Park was fought in 1568 the battle of Langside, where Regent Murray's troops defeated Queen Mary's and she was imprisoned and executed. The ill-starred Queen watched the battle from near Cathcart Castle and saw the defeat of her army.

We return to St. George square and begin at the western part of the city.

Our British Columbia Fisheries

A correspondent of the Belleville Intelligencer writes:—I have just returned from New Westminster, where I witnessed the salmon fishery and the salmon canning industry, and had I not visited this place I never would have had the remotest conception of its greatness. You can fancy the beautiful appearance of from 10,000 to 30,000 salmon, weighing from 6 to 30 pounds each, spread out as a catch of one day and night. It made me feel proud of my country, and I do not wonder that the Yankees would like to steal our fish; but I hope our government will stand firm in this matter, let the consequence be what it may. And this country produces more than fish. I am told here that Mr. John Vermilyea, formerly from the county of Hastings, sold last year $700 worth of hay from a farm near New Westminster, and several other farmers sold from $2,000 to $3,000 worth of oats last year from farms in the same neighborhood, and Wm. McBride, the warden of the penitentiary at New Westminster told me that 18 tons of potatoes and 20 tons of carrots, beets and onions was only an ordinary yield. He also said he saw two crops of hay cut from a field this year, and the two crops together gave 7 tons to the acre. And yet we are told by some people that British Columbia is only a sea of mountains. I only wish we had more of the same sea.

The Coming Comet.

It is fancied by a grateful patron that the next comet will appear in the form of a huge bottle, having "Golden Medical Discovery" inscribed upon it in bold characters. Whether this conceit and high compliment will be verified remains to be seen, but Dr. Pierce will continue to send forth that wonderful vegetable compound, and potent eradicator of disease. It has no equal in medicinal and health-giving properties, for imparting vigor and tone to the liver and kidneys, in purifying the blood, and through it cleansing and renewing the whole system. For scrofulous humors, and consumption, or lung scrofula, in its early stages, it is a positive, specific. Druggists sell it. o

The Hudson Bay Railway Company Sends Out an Exploring Expedition.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 18.—Although there is no definite announcement, the belief prevails that the Government accepts the Hudson Bay Railway's alternative offer to build sixty miles, but the acceptance is so carefully guarded that it is doubtful if the company will agree to it. Narrow Escape from Death of a Stationer —Two Painful Accidents.

LONDON, Ont., Sept. 19.—E. A. Taylor, the well-known stationer, had a very narrow escape from being killed. He was standing on a small step ladder assisting in removing some of the fixtures from his old store, when he suddenly lost his balance and struck his head just below his temple with great force against the fixtures. He fell to the floor and was picked up insensible. Medical aid was summoned and he was removed to his home. His leg was also injured.

A young man named Sutherland, a brakeman on a G. T. R. freight train, had one of his feet cut off while coupling cars at Woodstock. He had only been out from England three weeks, and it is doubtful if he will survive the shock.

Contractor William H. Harwood while engaged in plastering the ceiling of the new church of St. John the Evangelist, on St. James-street, had the misfortune to break both his wrists. The fall was occasioned by the giving way of the scaffolding.

Separated by Dime Novels.

MONTREAL, Sept. 19.—Dime novels have just been the means of separating a respectable Montreal citizen from his wife. An artisan, whose evenings are devoted to the cultivation of good literature, had occasion to complain of his wife's inveterate habit of reading trashy stories. The latter resented and disregarded all attempted interference with her predilections. The husband insisted that she should break off a habit which he regarded with extreme disfavor. The wife continued to buy the trash from small book dealers. There was a good deal of bickering which last evening had a sudden and unexpected ending. In her husband's absence the wife packed up all valuables she could lay her hands on and disappeared. When the husband returned and saw his house in confusion he guessed what had occurred. He found his wife about to board a train for the west. She boarded the train all right, but the goods did not, for the husband fiercely took them from her.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. Arrested at Buffalo.

The Suspected Burglar of Gough Bros.' Store Held at Buffalo—Pretty Certain that He is the Man.

The Buffalo police have arrested a man known as Greenfield on suspicion of being the one who burglarized Gough Bros.' store. He is now held in the city awaiting the action of the Peterborough authorities. The story of his capture is as follows:

After the fugitive's escape, Chief Rozsel had post cards, containing a description of the man, sent to the different towns and cities on the lake shore, and among them the Buffalo police received one. It has been the general impression that the man Greenfield, who, it will be remembered, escaped not long ago from the Central Prison, is none other than Ferguson, a crook well known to the Peterborough police, and one who has made a good local record for himself. He gets credit for most of the burglaries that have been committed in town. After Greenfield got out of the Central Prison, he made his way to Buffalo, where he was arrested for receiving goods stolen from Barrie. He was held for a time, but the Barrie people took no action, and so justice miscarried and he was ordered out of the city on August 24th, after having served a short term in the workhouse as a vagrant, the only charge upon which he could be prosecuted. Chief Koezel heard that Greenfield had been arrested at Buffalo, and in view of the above facts, or rather rumours concerning the identity of Greenfield and Ferguson, wrote to the Buffalo police and received reply that they had let the fellow go, but if he again came to the city he would be arrested. Last night a telegram came that Greenfield had been captured, and Chief Rozsel sent a message enquiring if he had any wounds on his person. Reply came that the arrested suspect had cuts on his wrist, legs, arms and head. This forenoon the Chief wired the Buffalo authorities to hold the man, and in the meantime an effort will be made to have him extradited. Police Magistrate Dumble will lay the case before the Ontario Government and ask them to undertake the extradition proceedings.

There is scarcely a doubt that this is the man who committed the burglary in question, and it is hoped that he will meet his deserts.

Wedding at St. Patrick's.

Marriage of Miss Nagle to Mr. Harry Phelan of Peterborough.

The Ottawa Free Press has the following in reference to the wedding of Mr. Harry Phelan and Miss Nagle. "At St. Patrick's church this morning Miss Maggie N. Nagle, second daughter of Mr. Richard Nagle of Ottawa, was married to Mr. Harry Phelan, of the firm of Fortye & Phelan, hardware merchants, Peterborough. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Whalen, Mr. Fred G. Cox, son of Mr. George A. Cox, of Peterborough, acting as groomsman and Miss Aggie Nagle as bridesmaid. The bride was attired in a suit of white corded silk, with orange blossoms, the bridesmaid's costume being cream colored. The church was filled with spectators, including many of the old schoolmates of the bride. The wedding march was played by Miss Smith. After the ceremony the wedding party drove to the residence of the bride's father, on Gloucester street, where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was partaken of. Mr. and Mrs. Phelan leave this evening on their wedding tour, carrying with them the best wishes of their Ottawa friends for their future prosperity and happiness. The presents received by Miss Nagle on the occasion of her marriage, were numerous and costly. They included a magnificent silver tea set, from Mr. and Mrs. Edward Phelan, father and mother of the groom; handsome piano lamp from Mr. R. H. Fortye, the groom's business partner; hand-painted silver fruit dish from Mr. Alex. Elliott, of Peterborough; silver pudding dish from Mr. and Mrs. Gladman, of Peterborough; silver tray, Mr. LeBrun, Peterborough; magnificent lamp from Mr. Richard Nagle; vases, Mr. T. Raphael; salad dish, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Brophy; case of knives, Mr. Macpherson, Montreal; silver tea set, Mr. F. G. Cox; locket and chain, from the groom; silver ice-pail, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Brophy; pair of vases, Mr. and Mrs. Rubidge; desk, Mr. and Mrs. John Heney, Ottawa; besides many neat gifts from former school-mates of the bride and other friends."

Obituary.

The Late Mrs. Pierce Powers.

This lady, whose death was recorded on Monday, was born Elizabeth Daly in the county of Limerick, Ireland, in the year 1814. She came to Canada in 1837, and settled in Peterborough. In 1840 she was united in marriage to Mr. Pierce Powers. The issue of this marriage was three boys and three girls. Two of the latter are living, Mrs. M. Giroux, town, and Mrs. Martin, Guelph, and of the former, Mr. John Powers, of Parry Sound. In the death of Mrs. Powers, one of the oldest and most respected residents of this vicinity passes away.

Janauschek.

At Bradburn's Opera House, Friday evening, Sept. 21st, in her great Union Square success "Meg Merrilies." The Philadelphia North American says:—The appearance of Janauschek at the Chestnut street Opera House this week in the character of "Meg Merrilies" is a dramatic event of more than ordinary interest and significance. No one has played the part in Philadelphia since Charlotte Cushman's time, and except Janauschek, there is no one on the English-speaking stage to-day who could appear in it with any chance of success. Janauschek is the last of the great actresses of the old heroic school—of the school of which Edmund Kean and Edwin Forrest, Sarah Siddons and Charlotte Cushman, are illustrious representatives. We have commediennes nowadays, women like Modjeska and Ellen Terry and Sarah Bernhardt, whose art seems to exhaust the possibilities of refinement, and whose work within its proper sphere is altogether charming, but where have we a tragedienne in the sense that Janauschek is such? She alone embodies in her performance the traditions of the classical stage. She alone has the grand manner of tragedy, and when she leaves the theatre there will be none to take her place. Janauschek as "Meg Merrilies!" It will be many a day before there is another such combination. This distinguished actress appears in the Grand Opera House, Toronto, next week. 1d

Post Office Reform.

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

I do not wish to unduly complain, nor to assume too much knowledge, but I believe the post office is supposed to be conducted in the public interest, but I submit that the irregular manner of distributing the mail matter is not in the public interest. For instance when I visit my post office box at one o'clock and find nothing in it, I think I have reason to be surprised if I visit it at two o'clock to find sometimes considerable mail matter for me, especially when no mails have arrived in the meantime. I don't want to be too particular, but I, and scores of others, have time for only one visit to the post office during the day and we should like to have our mail matter distributed as soon after it arrives as possible. Others may have time to run to the post office half a dozen times a day but this is not the case with

Yours truly,
MECHANIC.

Sept. 19th.

A Chance for a Test.

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

DEAR SIR,—I would thank you for space to show the folly of people despising their neighbours' goods, and running away with the idea that nothing good, especially in the way of stock, can be got at home. Last spring the Dummer and Douro Agriculture Society appointed two men to purchase a stock bull for the Society. These two gentlemen called upon me (as a matter of form, I suppose, for their visit was fruitless), to look at my thoroughbred Durham bull "Oliver Mowat." I offered him to them for the low price of $125. All at once the bull seemed to be full of faults in their eyes. He would not suit their critical judgment at all. This shows what ignorant persons the judges at the Provincial Exhibition were, for they awarded first prize, over nine good animals, to this bull which the Dummer and Douro critics did not think good enough for them. These men then advertised for a bull and a man from Port Perry sold them a bull, which cost them a larger sum than I asked them for a far better animal, which I sold at Kingston to one of the best stock-breeders in Canada, for a far higher price than I asked the agents of the Society in Dummer and Douro. Now, to prove to the Society that their ambassadors went further and fared worse in rejecting my bull and going to Port Perry, I hereby challenge the Society to send their bull to the Central Exhibition next week, and I will show against him, not the Kingston prize-winner, but an animal not so good, and I will leave the decision to the judges, and we shall see if the ambassadors extraordinary of the Dummer and Douro Agricultural Society know a good bull when they see him. Come, gentlemen, "take the bull by the horns" and lead him into the judging ring at the Central next week. Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for space, I remain,

Yours truly,
JOSEPH REDMOND.

Peterborough Cheese.

A Large Board—Abundance of Buyers—Low Prices—Light Transactions—8¼c. the Top Figure.

PETERBOROUGH, Tuesday, Sept. 18th.

There was a good attendance of salesmen at the cheese board to-day, and no fewer than nine buyers put in an appearance—Messrs. Dundas, Clarton, Wrighton, Cook, Bird, Stewart, Fitzgerald, Hodgson and Carton. There were boarded 2,377 boxes last half of August—1,948 Peterborough section and 429 Victoria section. The bidding started at 8c. Considerable fruitless bidding followed, till Cook's offer of 8¼c. for selections led to a deal. Of the factories selected the following accepted 8¼c.:—Cherry Grove, Centre Smith, Shearer, North Smith, Warsaw, Westwood, Norwood, Melrose Abbey and South Dummer. The Victoria section refused Fitzgerald's bid of 8¾c. The balance of the factories were given permission to sell off the board between the present and the next meeting of the board on Oct. 2nd. Cable quotations on Tuesday at 11.30 were 44s. for white and 45s. for coloured. The following is a list of the factories represented with the boxes boarded:—

Mr. Brown, of Belmont, Vindicated.

BLAIRTON, Sept. 17, 1888.

Editor Examiner:—

MY DEAR SIR,—Would you be kind enough to publish the enclosed in the WEEKLY EXAMINER under the head of communications, and oblige, yours truly,

PORTER PRESTON,
Tp. Clerk Belmont and Methuen.

Moved by Mr. Bawsickle, seconded by Mr. Coon,—That, whereas, a letter appeared in the Norwood Register of the date of the 30th August, 1888, over the signature of "Belmonter," charging John Brown, Esq., Reeve, with selling timber on road allowances in Belmont and Methuen to Gilmour & Co. at a loss of several hundred dollars to the municipality; and, whereas, John Brown, Esq., Reeve, handed in a letter from Frank Golden, clerk for Gilmour & Co., denying in the strongest manner that John Brown, Esq., Reeve, had ever sold any timber on road allowances in Belmont or Methuen to Gilmour & Co., and that this council have no hesitation in saying that the above communication over the signature of "Belmonter," charging John Brown, Esq., Reeve, with selling timber on road allowances to Gilmour & Co. to be utterly false, there not being a word of truth in it; and that the Clerk sign the above and send copies to Peterborough EXAMINER, Review and Norwood Register.—Carried.

The above resolution was put by James Wilde, Esq., Deputy Reeve, who was in the chair.

I certify the above to be a true copy of resolution of the municipal council of the united townships of Belmont and Methuen on the 10th September, 1888.

Local Sports and Pastimes.

Willow and Wicket.

A team of the Peterborough cricket club played East Toronto on the latter's grounds on Tuesday, and won on the first innings, time being called before the match was completed. The scoring was very small on both sides. It was in fact a bowler's game, neither side seeming able to do much in the way of batting. The ground was heavy with the recent rains and the wicket played pretty fast. The Peterborough team was largely a "scratch" one and comprised only about half of the first eleven, a number of other members of the club who happened to be going to the city being taken on to fill out the team. Their defeat was only averted by the superior bowling of Day and Rutherford. Ray, Rutherford and Parker got the best scores. The score is:—

The fruit season has now come and we must prepare to put up our fruit. Now what kind of jars are we to use? Of course, glass jars; but so many of those we had last year cracked in filling that it makes it very expensive. Oh, I remember how Mrs. Goodwife told me last year she bought her jars at "China Hall," and that she did not break a jar in filling or lose a single can of fruit. I shall buy from China Hall this season. As the price is just the same I might as well have the best.

That gentleman told him to go home and remain till he called to discuss the matter. Mr. Gurd called at Thompson's house shortly after with his attorney and told him to make a clean breast of it. Mrs. Thompson was thunderstruck when she heard of it and immediately offered Gurd her gold watch, worth some $175, some very valuable pictures and a gold watch of her husband's, worth about $300, which was held by her husband's mother for safekeeping, as part payment of the money taken. The latter, however, refused to give them up, claiming that they were hers. A SQUAW BURNED AT THE STAKE.

Human Sacrifice to Avert the Machinations of Witchcraft.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 20.—News comes from the camp of the Mojave Indians that a young squaw, 18 years of age, was burned at the stake recently in San Bernardino County. There has been a strange and mysterious disease prevailing among the tribe, the victims usually dying within forty-eight hours after being attacked. Twenty of the most popular men of the tribe have died of the attack. The medicine men of the tribe resorted to all their peculiar devices to drive out the evil spirits. The patients were belabored with sticks, and, in the case of Stone Head, a sub-chief, his body was dragged through the Colorado to cleanse him of the spirit. The alarm was so great among the tribe that it became necessary to offer a sacrifice to appease the Great Father. Animals were killed for propitiation, but this proving vain a great council was held.

The medicine men assembled around a huge pot filled with herbs, while the bucks were squatted in a semicircle beyond them. When the decoction had simmered down to a teacupful a white male and white female pigeon were taken from a basket and the liquid poured down their throats. The male bird flew away but the female fluttered and died. This proved to the medicine men that there was a female witch in the tribe.

The bucks then rushed to their tents, and with yells and imprecations drove their women to the place where the council had been held. The squaws were driven past the bird in single file. Nearly all went by without noticing the bird, but one, a handsome squaw of 18, the daughter of Creso, a sub-chief, stooped and was about to pick up the bird.

The bucks immediately seized her, as she, the first squaw to touch the bird, was adjudged the witch who brought the disease on the tribe. She pleaded piteously for her life, but her cries were in vain. She was denuded of her clothing and carried to a pyre, where she was pinioned to a stake. A slow fire was kindled and the young girl tortured to death while the bucks danced about it, filling the air with their incantations.

Among the dead at La Isabella was a mother with two children still firmly clasped in her arms. In this situation the bodies were buried.

THE TALK OF LONDON.

MARRIAGE OF MISS HAMILTON, THE SCOTCH HEIRESS.

Emperor William's Sedan Order—Some Lost Tapestry Discovered—A Doleful Story from Lake Como.

LONDON, Sept. 20.—Miss Nisbet Hamilton, the great heiress, who during the last 25 years has refused offers of suitors from princes and sovereignties downwards, married, last Tuesday, Henry Ogilvy, younger son of Sir John Ogilvy. Miss Hamilton is a representative, through her mother, of two of the oldest and most popular families in Scotland.

I am glad to hear that Emperor William has given orders that the public celebrations of the victory of Sedan shall cease. It is high time this annual jubilation over France's defeat was brought to an end. The Emperor acted very wisely, and his decision meets with the hearty approval of all sensible Germans.

The Empress Victoria lately paid visits to several country houses in Germany and, on the foundation of this fact a vast superstructure of fiction has been created by some imaginative journals. The Empress, in reality, was seeking a suitable residence for her second daughter, the Princess Victoria, who will be married shortly to Prince Alexander of Battenberg.

When Marguerite of France was married to Victor Amadeus, of Savoy, she took with her to Italy twenty pieces of the very finest Gobelin tapestry, illustrating classical legends. This unique tapestry, which was of immense value, disappeared mysteriously when Napoleon invaded Italy. It had been hidden away lest the French should think proper to carry it off, which they would certainly have done. It was so carefully concealed that after some years, when calm was restored, it was found impossible to discover it, and the two officials who put it away were both dead. The tapestry had been almost forgotten till about a month ago, when the Marquis of Villamorin, master of the royal household, was making a thorough investigation in the palace at Turin, from roof to cellar, and behind some huge chests, in a store room on the highest story, found a secret chamber which concealed the long lost tapestry. It has been very little injured by its hundred years of hiding. King Humbert has ordered that the tapestry be carefully repaired and cleaned, after which it will be sent to Rome and hung in the quirinal, in the apartments which the Emperor William will occupy during his visit next month.

From Como comes the following doleful story: The floods have proved disastrous to travellers who have come down to Lake Como in order to prolong the summer. Como itself is a sort of Venice. At Cadenabbia all the visitors have been driven from the Hotel Bellevue, for the waters have invaded the ground floor. At Ballaggio the hotels are above the flood, but all the quays are under water. Passengers from the steamboats have to land in boats everywhere along the lake, for the landing places have disappeared. At St. Moritz the floods have been even worse. The road along the Engadin valley and from thence to Chiavenna has been washed away in many places, and the railroad from Chiavenna to Colico has ceased running. Families have been four or five days on the way from St. Moritz to Lake Como, and so crowded have been the inns along the route that a family has deemed itself fortunate in being able to hire a whole billiard table for the night.

I hear that Miss Braddon is writing her literary reminiscences, which ought to be very interesting. HENRY LABOUCHERE.

A Radical Unionist Conference.

LONDON, Sept. 20.—A conference of radical Unionists was held at Bradford yesterday. Lord Hartington wrote a letter to the conference congratulating the party upon the successes of the Unionists. He said everything that had occurred since the Home Rule bill confirmed the soundness of the judgment which had inspired their actions. The policy of their opponents, he declared, had shown itself to be more and more based on disorder and lawlessness. The events of the last session of Parliament had proved that the Unionist alliance was capable of providing the country with a legislative policy which was of a distinctly popular and practical character, and as long as the Unionists continued their duty of repressing crime, while seeking to satisfy the legislative wants of the people, the party would resist the attacks of the enemies of England and Ireland. The conference adopted resolutions approving the policy of the Government and affirming the necessity of an improved organization of the party.

Mr. Chamberlain, in an address to the conference, said he believed that the healing of the rupture in the Liberal party was improbable and almost impossible. The Gladstonians carefully avoided putting a program before the country because they did not know what the unstable politician who was leading them might next propose. The speaker defended the action of the Irish executive, claiming that the course pursued had been strictly in accordance with parliamentary legislation. He denied that evictions were unfair; they might fall harshly upon the victims of the plan of campaign, but a greater injustice would be done to the cause of social order if people were allowed to defy the law with impunity and evictions were stopped on account of the threats of members of the National League. The Unionists would continue in the exercise of their duty of protecting the minority in Ireland and preserving the faith, honor and integrity of the country.

The North American Indians.

An Interesting Address by Rev. D. V. Lucas—The Customs and Characteristics of the North American Indian.

The lecture room of the George street church was crowded last night, when Rev. Mr. Lucas delivered his address upon the habits and customs of the North American Indians, the result of his several years of personal observation while acting as missionary among them. Mr. D. W. Dumble acted as chairman and opened the proceedings.

After preliminaries had been gone through with, Rev. Mr. Lucas began his address by pointing out and illustrating by anecdote a few of the strange customs existing among the Indians. The prevalence and power of the medicine men and their great hold over the people were first mentioned, and the lecturer explained the course of action necessary for anyone to become a qualified medicine man. When a young man of any of the tribes feels the desire to become a medicine man, he breaks away from his people and hides himself in the depths of the forest and in dark caves, existing as best he can until he has become thoroughly savage. He sees no one, for it is believed if the "student" looks on another man or allows anyone to see him, he cannot gain the mysterious power for which he is seeking. After being away long enough to become a sort of wild beast, the newly fledged medicine man emerges from his gloomy solitude and proceeds to act very much like a mad dog, performing every kind of horrible contortion imaginable, foaming at the mouth, and biting a piece of flesh out of the arm of the first person he meets, afterwards tearing a dog to pieces, limb from limb. Strange to say, the person so bitten feels highly honored, for these Indians believe the medicine man has had communion with the unseen powers of darkness during his retirement, and is able to do almost anything, and the latter is not slow to keep up the deception. The medicine men are regarded as superior beings in a way, and they take advantage of this for their own purposes. This system of medicine men, the speaker said, was detrimental to the cause of Christianity, for, of course, the Indians were controlled by them and were in their power. The missionaries all state this to be the case, he said, but they persevere, and if they happen to have a knowledge of medicine, it helps them a great deal in gaining the confidence of the natives. Another custom, that of wearing shells and bits of gold and silver nuggets and coins, in the ears and nose, was also mentioned. But the strangest habit of all was that of inserting a piece of shell between the lower lip and teeth of a little girl and gradually enlarging the shell as the child grew, until when fully grown, her lip would protrude [illegible] inches, held out by a large shell. [illegible] was useful as well as ornamental. For instance, in case a hot potato or piece of meat was being eaten, it would be laid on this shelf at the most convenient place for blowing on and cooling it, and after it had become cool a peculiar flip of the lip tossed it into the mouth and so it was eaten. This, the speaker said, might appear an extravagant statement, but it was the truth. The natives north of Vancouver, too, had the habit of lashing their children's heads between boards, keeping them drawn tight all the time, with the result that their heads with the result that their heads were all more or less elongated in shape. He had been told of one little girl, indeed he had her picture, whose head it was said measured fully 18 inches from the brow to the crown. He would not, however, vouch for the truth of it; it was no doubt an exaggerated statement.

The annual Give-Away feast of the Indians was described. At this feast the man who gives away the most stuff becomes the great man for the next twelve months. The lecturer said he attended one of them and was amazed at the oratorical powers of one of the native chiefs who harangued the Indians. They seemed to be carried away by his eloquence, so much so that a man jumped out of his boat and waded to the shore to lay a gift at his feet. Some of these children of nature, he said, had faculties bright and quick as white men, and not a few of them possessed rare oratorical talents. The thought that impressed itself upon his mind, said the lecturer, was that nature, simple nature, was the most powerful educator in the world. These Indians did things in a natural way and so did far better than they could have been educated to do. Though the native tongue, a sort of Chinook jargon, had an abbreviated vocabulary, comprising probably less than 300 words, they were able to make known all their thoughts by it. And as it was easily learned it had become the language of the coast, where all sorts of peoples, English, French, Japanese, Chinese and the different tribes of Indians, came together. Anyone understanding this Chinook jargon was able to go all over the country without any trouble. The speaker sang a song in the native tongue, the English to which was, "How happy every child of grace who knows his sins forgiven." The question was often asked, had these people any wit? To answer this the speaker related several amusing stories. One was of an Indian who had been got to join the Roman Catholic faith on the promise of a new shirt from the priest. The Indian was baptised, and amongst the "rules and regulations" laid down to the convert by the priest was a command that he should not eat meat on Friday. One Friday the priest went to the Indian's wigwam and, finding him eating meat, remonstrated with him. The Indian replied, "This no meat—this fish." "But," the priest said, "that is meat, and you should not eat it on Friday." "No," responded the Indian, "this no meat—this fish. Me only poor injun, and you pour water on me and make me Christian. Me had no fish to-day, so me pour water on the meat and make it fish." (Laughter.) Another was of an Indian who went to hear a Mormon missionary talk. After lauding Joe Smith, the great head of the church, and all his teachings, the Mormon invited anyone who wanted to ask questions or make any remarks to stand up and do so. The Indian rose slowly and said:—Me think there is a God, a very good God, and he made man. Man was good for a while, but he sinned, and God was sorry. So he wrote a good book, oh, a very good book, and gave it to man to make him good too. And the devil, he got mad and said, I'll write a book too, and it will be so nice to read that men will do as it says. So the devil wrote a book, but when he looked at it and then at God's book, he got so ashamed that he buried it away down in the ground where he thought no one could get it, but Joe Smith came along and dug it up." The Mormon missionary, the speaker said, was utterly routed, and he never was seen in the neighborhood again. A couple of other incidents were mentioned and the lecturer concluded his address.

The chairman asked a few questions of the lecturer regarding the hosting and fishing habits of the natives, which drew out the statement that there were 40,000 Indians in British Columbia, divided into the fish-eating or coast natives, and the Indians of the interior. The latter were a better class as a rule.

After a vote of thanks to the speaker and a silver collection had been taken up, the meeting was brought to a close.

A General Tie-up.

of all the means of public conveyance in a large city, even for a few hours, during a strike of the employes, means a general paralyzing of trade and industry for the time being, and is attended with an enormous aggregate loss to the community. How much more serious to the individual is the general tie up of his system, known as constipation, and to the strike of the most important organs for more prudent treatment and better care. If too long neglected, a torpid or sluggish liver will produce serious forms of kidney and liver diseases, malarial trouble and chronic dyspepsia. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets are a preventive and cure of these disorders. They are prompt, sure and effective, pleasant to take, and positively harmless. a

The Canadian Football Team Beaten at Glasgow, Four Goals to None.

TORONTO, Sept. 20.—The Canadian played against All Scotland at the Glasgow Exhibition yesterday and were beaten by four goals to none. The substitution of Mustard for Kraus was the only change in the team. There were 10,000 spectators, who saw a very good game. But for one or two unfortunate accidents the Canadians should have had two goals.

TOO REMOTE.

How a London Newspaper Views the Annexation Idea.

LONDON, Sept. 20.—All the morning papers publish long cables about Sherman's speech and resolution. The Daily News gives him pats on the back, praises the Republicans for postponing the anti-Canadian action and scolds President Cleveland. The editorial says: "The retaliation at which the President's loyal but indiscreet friends jumped was the first impulse of men in anger. The Senate will probably treat the question in a cool, cautious spirit of amicable compromise."

The leader next passes to a second discussion of the annexation idea, and, after saying, "It is perhaps true that even a strong and homogeneous Canada, if once severed from the old country, would gravitate toward the larger mass," The Daily News calms the perturbed spirit of its readers by concluding thus: "Although the Quebec agitations and American sensational utterances do play with the annexation idea, the thing itself is too remote for serious discussion."

BURNT TO A CRISP.

A $12,000 Fire at Montreal—Two Persons Perish in the Flames.

MONTREAL, Sept. 20.—A fire broke out in the toy store of W. H. Desparois on Notre Dame-street late yesterday afternoon, caused, it is supposed, by the explosion of some powder used in making firecrackers, and spread to the premises adjoining of A. J. Plamondon and A. Turcotte & Co., clothiers. The loss will be about $15,000. Desparois is insured for $10,000 in the Glasgow and London; Turcotte & Co. for $10,000 in the same company, and Plamondon for $6500 in the Citizens', Glasgow and London and Commercial Union Companies. Mrs. Desparois, an old widow lady, and Desparois' brother were found burnt to a crisp on the third floor.

Curtis Wants to be President.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—James Langdon Curtis, the presidential nominee of the National American party, has issued his letter of acceptance. Mr. Curtis, after reciting the principles of the party, endorses the platform adopted and says that it is important that there should be in the halls of Congress more business men, mechanics and farmers.

Archer the Great Organist.

Mr. Frederick Archer, the great English organist, will appear in Peterborough on Oct. 16th and give one of his incomparable organ recitals in St. Paul's church as a prelude to a series of services of praise to be held in that church during the season. Mr. Archer is noted as one of the greatest of living organists, and those who have heard him will hear with delight of his early re-appearance in town. Remember the date, Tuesday evening, Oct. 16th.

The Opera House.

The Star Theatre Co. presented "A Celebrated Case" to a good house last night. The play was a rather heavy one, but the company was fully equal to it. Mr. T. J. Quinn as John Renaud and the galley slave, Miss Berkeley as Valentine, and Miss Lytelle as Adrienne, were the best representations. The costumes were elegant and rich. The manager announced that the company would remain over and perform here Saturday afternoon and evening, when they hoped to have more large houses. The company is indeed deserving of patronage. Saturday afternoon they play "An English Gentleman," and Saturday night, "The Streets of New York."

The Coming Anniversary of the Y.M.C.A.

The programme of the anniversary meeting of the Y.M.C.A., to be held in St. Paul's church Thursday evening next, promises a very enjoyable entertainment to the public. A choir of sixty or seventy voices, under Prof. Parker, will conduct a service of song from 7.30 to 8 o'clock, and will lead the singing throughout the evening. Rev. Dr. Stafford, of the new Sherbourne street church, Toronto, is to be present and will undoubtedly give a thrilling address. Short speeches about the association work, specially, will be made by Messrs. T. S. Cole, Travelling Secretary, and H. S. Griffin. The Y.M.C.A. are to be congratulated upon the excellent programme prepared, which bespeaks for them a successful meeting.

Marching On.

Last night during drill, while the battalion was marching in line, two deep, two or three men in the front rank became engrossed in conversation and didn't hear the commanding officer's "Right about—turn." These two or three marched on for some distance while the remainder of the battalion went the other way. Suddenly becoming aware that something was wrong, one of them looked around with the remark, "where in thunder have the rest of the boys gone?" They all took in the situation and quickly returned to the ranks, to meet with the laughter of their comrades.

Jananschek.

This inimitable tragedienne will attract a crowded house on Friday evening. The reserved seat plan at Hartley's is filling up rapidly, nearly a hundred seats having been already marked. Those who intend going and wish to secure places should not delay. No such dramatic treat has ever been presented to the people of this town. Mr. J. T. Quinn, manager of the Star Theatre Company, now in town, has seen Jananschek repeatedly; he says she is regarded amongst the theatrical profession generally as the greatest living artist in her line. This is the universal opinion, and the play-goers of the town should take advantage of her appearance as "Meg Merrilies" in the Opera House Friday evening.

An Accident.

S. R. Dancey, employed in the Central Bridge Works, met with an accident yesterday afternoon which might have resulted very seriously. He was at work on the heavy angle bars intended for the new C. P. R. station at Montreal, when a bar which the men were shifting slipped from the trestle, upon which it had not yet been properly placed, knocking Dancey across a pile of bars that were lying on the ground and falling upon his knee. The poor fellow's knee was badly bruised, but, considering the fact that the bar weighed over 800 lbs., his escape from a crushed leg was very fortunate. A few days' rest will probably enable him to resume work.

The Manufacturers Accident Insurance Company, Wilson & Morrison agents, have cheap rates and large indemnities. No one should be without an accident policy.

The Late Mrs. Goodwin.

The Ottawa Citizen says:—The funeral of the late Mrs. Geo. Goodwin took place yesterday morning to the Basilica, and thence to Notre Dame Cemetery. The sacred edifice was crowded with relatives and friends of the deceased lady, anxious to show a mark of respect to her memory. The casket containing the remains was covered with flowers. A solemn High Mass was celebrated by His Grace the Archbishop of Ottawa, assisted by the Very Rev. Vicar-General Routhier, the deacons of honour being Rev. Fathers Sloan and Campeau, and of office, Rev. Fathers McGovern and Holland. Rev. Father Bouillon was master of ceremonies. A full choir rendered Perreault's Grand Mass of Requiem, and the service was very impressive. The chief mourners were, besides the afflicted husband, the brother of the deceased lady, Dr. Lynch, of Almont, and Mr. P. Brophy, her cousin. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Wm. Davis, Wm. H. Davis, D. C. F. Bliss, King, F. Poupore and P. J. Brennan.

Additional Presents.

The Ottawa Free Press publishes the following list of additional presents received by Mrs. Phelan, nee Nagle, on the occasion of her marriage:—Magnificent harp from Mr. R. Nagle; handsome berry dish, Mr. and Mrs. J. Heney; biscuit barrel, Mr. H. F. McNaughton; silver egg set, Mrs. J. Daly, Peterborough; breakfast cruet, Mr. Dan O'Connor; silver fruit knife, Mrs. Waller; set of carvers, Mr. E. A Peterborough Man Swindled.

Hundreds of Peterborough people visited Toronto and the Industrial Exhibition and some of them ran foul of sharks. One man, who thinks himself pretty sharp, was made a victim. He went into a shop to purchase goods and thought he was going to do an immense deal better than he could in Peterborough. He bought a pair of boots and found out after he got home that he paid just twice as much as he could have got the same quality of boots for at the store of gough bros., the wonderful cheap men. Serves him right; no level headed person will go to any other shop than gough bros.' for their boots and shoes, for there will be found an immense stock of fine boots and shoes, bought for 40 cents on the dollar, and sold for less than half price. Men's boots, women's boots, children's boots, all as good as gold and cheap as clay. What a rushing, roaring, rollicking, rough and tumble business gough's are doing! Their store, 375 George street, is the shrine of countless pilgrims, seeking to cover their wearied feet with boots and shoes, bought from those public benefactors in boots, gough bros., the wonderful cheap men. 1d

Police Paragraphs.

Chas. Butler was this morning fined $2 for breach of the cow by-law.

On Saturday morning six more Scott Act cases will be before the court. This makes eighteen cases in a week—eight last Saturday, four on Wednesday and six next Saturday.

The young lad Roach, who has been held here for several weeks, was again remanded this morning. Chief McVeity, of Ottawa, wrote Chief Roszel that the boy had been in Ottawa begging, and when the police found work for him he cleared out. Young Roach admitted to the Chief this morning that he lived in Chicago, though he has hitherto denied it.

The man Greenfield is still held by the Buffalo police, and has been remanded awaiting the action of the Peterborough authorities. The feeling seems to prevail in town that Greenfield ought to be extradited, and if the Ontario Government will not undertake the proceedings it is probable the town authorities will. The Chief received a message last night that Greenfield would be held by the Buffalo police till wanted here.

News Nuggets.

—The funeral of the late Miss Edith Best Wednesday afternoon was very largely attended.

—A fine group photogram of the 57th Batt. Band, taken by Mr. P. H. Green, is shown at Mr. Geo. Ball's clothing store.

—Battalion drill was held Wednesday night. Companies 2 and 5 had the best turnouts. Col. Rogers was in command.

—Two fine combined mail and express cars, built by Crossen, of Cobourg, arrived here yesterday for the C. P. R. service. They went east in the afternoon.

—All the trains, special and regular, were crowded on Tuesday with excursionists to Toronto. Both lines did an enormous business, owing to the cheap rates.

—The Americans who have been camping all summer at Boschink, on Stony Lake, came down yesterday, and were last night tendered a farewell "hop" at the Oriental by Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McIntyre. There were quite a number of guests present. The American contingent, numbering about ten, left this morning for their homes.

School Boys out of School.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

DEAR SIR,—It is a positive fact that there are from twenty to fifty boys between the ages of seven and twelve out of school every day in this corporation. Now, sir, I consider the above to be a great evil in more ways than one, and first the greatest evil to the boys themselves—it never can be repaired. Once a boy is kept out or stops out of school for days and weeks he loses all desire of learning, and becomes indifferent, and finally loses taste for anything that is good and moral. Then the taxpayers sustain a great loss in reference to the amount of public money that we should receive when the boys are at school every day during the school season. The question now with the school authorities, is, "What shall be done about it?" Certainly there ought to be some way to bring these boys into the school, both for their own good and the good of the community.

Yours, etc.,
THE BOYS' FRIEND.

Local Sports and Pastimes.

Lacrosse.

The Lindsay Y.M.C.A. lacrosse club arrived in town on the noon train and are playing the local team this afternoon.

The standing of the clubs in the North-eastern District Championship, C.L.A. series, is published below as announced by the Secretary of the Association. Since the list was made out, however, the Peterboroughs have claimed the game to have been played with Bradford, the latter allowing it to go by default. The Secretary of the Riversides on Wednesday wrote the Secretary of the Association, explaining the case and laying claim to the game. This will place the Riversides in a better position than the published record shows:

	Won.	Lost.	Drawn.	To play
Bradford	5*	1	1	1
Orillia	5	3	0	0
Peterborough	4	3	0	1
Barrie	4	3*	1	0
Meaford	0	8	0	0

*The Bradford Barrie game of July 25th was a draw, and may be played over should it affect the final standing of either club.

The Bradford-Barrie game of September 5th has been protested. From all accounts both clubs have been guilty of playing "ringsters," and it is just possible the judiciary will, at its next meeting, suspend both clubs, in which case Orillia will lead.

Sporting Notes.

The Victoria Rifle Association annual meeting will be held at Lindsay on Friday, Sept. 28th, commencing at 9 o'clock sharp. The EXAMINER has received a prize list from the association. There are five matches in all.

The Colts and Veterans play again to-morrow.

The annual meeting of the curling club is called for Oct. 4.

Personal.

Rev. M. L. Pearson preached in the Emerson, Man., Methodist church last Sunday.

Mrs. Gnaedinger, of Montreal, (nee Miss Lech) is in town visiting friends.

Very Rev. Dean Condon, of Watertown, Wisconsin, U.S., is in town visiting his father.

The Campbellford cricket club will play a match with the Peterborough cricket club here next Tuesday.

Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., addressed the annual picnic gathering in Galway this afternoon. This evening he addresses his Galway and Cavendish constituents in Mr. McMahon's new residence.

We are pleased to note that Mr. P. C. Foy, of Belleville, has removed, with his family, to Peterborough, having purchased the soda water business of Mr. W. Croft, and will continue to supply the trade with his popular beverages. Mr. Foy is well known in Peterborough, having been a member of the well known firm of Foy & Starr, which introduced the latest improvements in the manufacture of carbonated beverages in this town.

Mr. R. H. Henderson, of the C.P.R. freight department, has accepted an engagement as travelling railway representative of the Travellers' Accident and Life Insurance Company. His duties will be to solicit policies from the railway men on the Toronto, Grey and Bruce, Credit Valley, C.P.R. and other lines, his district on the Canada Pacific extending only from Havelock to Toronto. The inducements and prospects held out make the situation a profitable one, and though Mr. Henderson will make Toronto his headquarters, his Peterborough friends will frequently see him again. His many friends will be sorry to part with him, but they can wish him good luck and success in his new business. He leaves town in a couple of weeks.

The fruit season has now come and we must prepare to put up our fruit. Now what kind of jars are we to use? Of course, glass jars; but so many of those we had last year cracked in filling that it makes it very expensive. Oh, I remember how Mrs. Goodwife told me last year she bought her jars at "China Hall," and that she did not break a jar in filling or lose a single can of fruit. I shall buy from China Hall this season. As the price is just the same I might as well have the best.

ALL LONDON IS LAUGHING.

PUNCH'S KEEN THRUST AIMED AT SCOTLAND YARD.

Home Secretary Matthews Indignant—The Whitechapel Murderer Evidently a Skilled Anatomist.

LONDON, Sept. 20.—The Daily Telegraph has resumed its onslaught on Home Secretary Mathews and other papers are following its example. All London is roaring with laughter over a cartoon in the last number of Punch representing a blindfolded policeman seeking criminals while unconsciously dodging between their legs. The cartoon is said to have aroused feelings of indignation in the breast of the Home Secretary, but the opinion is now general that the present Scotland Yard system which he inaugurated with a flourish of trumpets upon taking office will not survive the autumn session of Parliament.

The inquest on the body of the woman found murdered in Whitechapel was renewed to-day. The evidence given by the witnesses confirmed the theory that the murderer is a skilled anatomist. It was shown that certain organs of the murdered woman were removed in a way that no one but an expert could have done, and the theory that the murder was committed by an insane surgeon is revived and finding many believers.

Sir Arthur Sullivan's new opera is entitled "The Tower" and will be produced on Oct. 10. The story of the scene being laid in Norway is untrue.

Commander Cameron contributes some interesting facts to the discussion concerning Bartelot's death. He defends the people of Manyuema. When travelling in that country he found that the people, though cannibals, were brave, hospitable and courteous. They have a strong love for freedom, and a reluctance to travel. He thinks that if the Manyuema tribes murdered Bartelot, they must have been with his caravan as slaves, as from his knowledge of their character he believes they would not have been there in any other capacity and they would not hesitate at any means of regaining their freedom.

Gladstone's Birmingham campaign, beginning in November, promises to be of importance. He has accepted an invitation for a public reception by the Mayor.

In response to the demand of the Scotch people for increased attention to their affairs, the Government will take an early opportunity of including the Scotch Secretary, Lord Lothian, in the Cabinet.

There are rumors that the Prince of Wales intends to ask Parliament next November to make provision for his eldest son.

The group of Shakespearian figures presented by Lord Ronald Gower will be unveiled at Stratford next month by the Lord Lieutenant of Warwickshire.

Col. Mapleson publishes two volumes of his operatic reminiscences. They contain many interesting anecdotes.

Drowning Accident at Port Elgin.

PORT ELGIN, Sept. 20.—A drowning accident occurred here yesterday forenoon off the breakwater. Mr. Frederick Thede, a very respectable retired farmer residing here, left his home about 8 o'clock to fish off the breakwater, from which he, in some unknown way, fell in the lake and was drowned. He was not missed until towards evening. His body was found by grappling this morning.

HANGING TO A BALLOON

THE WILD AND HORRIFYING RIDE OF A MICHIGAN MAN.

Old Mark Sanborn Becomes Entangled With a Parachute Rope and is Carried Up 1500 Feet Head Downward.

KALAMAZOO, Sept. 20.—A sensational scene was witnessed at Centreville, St. Joseph county, yesterday on the fair grounds. The crowd had gathered to see Prof. Bartholomew make a balloon ascension. Everything was in readiness for the event, and the word had been given to the men holding the guy ropes to stand firm and let go quickly at a given signal. An old man named Mark Sanborn of Burr Oak was adjusting the ropes of the parachute with which Bartholomew was to descend, when the balloon started off, and one of the parachute ropes became entangled about Sanborn's leg above the knee, carrying him up 1500 feet, head downward. Sanborn struggled hard to free himself as he shot upward through the air, but to no avail. The crowd was horrified, and all expected to see him fall to the earth and be crushed to pieces. After the balloon had reached its highest altitude it descended, landing Sanborn safely astride a rail fence, where he was rescued more scared than hurt. Bartholomew saw that he had a passenger trailing behind him as he went up and told the unlucky man to "hang on" and he would try to bring the balloon to land, which he did. Sanborn then said, "I wouldn't go up in that way again for all Centreville."

Coal Discovered in Parrsboro.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Sept. 21.—Mr. W. J. Jones of Parrsboro and Whitfield McCarthy of Springhill have for some time been prospecting for coal at a point about eight miles due north of the mouth of the Diligent River, where they found distinct indications of coal. Where the logs in stream driving wore away the banks the regular formation was exposed, and it was similar to that about Springhill. Very little work with the pick brought out coal which was covered by a fossil shale and rested on a fire clay. More than a bushel of coal was dug out of the bank with but little labor. This was immediately tested by making a fire with it, which burned beautifully. In the process of combustion the coal seemed to run together, showing it to be highly bituminous, and small jets of flame were emitted from it, a proof that it had much gas in it. The specimens of coal brought into town by Mr. Jones are intensely black, yet clean to the touch, and greatly resembled the famous Albertite of New Brunswick. Some who have seen it pronounce it similar to the coal obtained at the old Pictou mine. Borings to discover the thickness of the seam are to be commenced at once.

A Gigantic Swindle.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—A gigantic swindle has come to light. James Edward Bedill, real estate clerk for the firm of Shipman, Barlow, Larocque & Choate, at 35 William-street, has, by a system of audacious swindling, robbed the clients of his firm of hundreds of thousands of dollars. The precise amount as far as known is placed at $264,500. He was a trusted employe in charge of the firm's large real estate business. He forged bonds and mortgages, registers, seal and all, took the money himself and paid the interest on the false mortgages as they fell due. His swindles cover a period of five years. An accident led to his discovery and he is under arrest. To Inspector Byrnes he said he had spent the money playing policy and at amateur farming.

Mangled by a Saw.

ST. JOHN, N.B., Sept. 21.—A serious accident occurred at Geldard & Wilson's saw mill, at Prosser Brook, near Elgin, on Thursday afternoon. Aaron Hayward, while working in the mill, fell on one of the circular saws and was frightfully mangled. Drs. Robinson and McDonald were called, and amputated the right leg between the knee and ankle. A pound of flesh was torn out of the left thigh and one hand was mangled. As Mr. Hayward is nearly 70 years old his recovery is doubtful.

A Fatal Slip.

ST. JOHN, N.B., Sept. 21.—A little girl named Bedell, while on her way to school in Woodstock the other day, stepped upon a truck wagon loaded with stone for the Woodstock Bridge, which was proceeding in the same direction, and when in the act of getting off the wagon slipped and fell. One of the wheels passed over her body, inflicting injuries from which she has since died.

Fire at Thorold.

THOROLD, Sept. 21.—The old Scotia Hotel, a brick building on Chappel-street, was burned to the ground about 5 o'clock yesterday morning, together with a lot of furniture belonging to Mr. Wm. Fobister, who had partly moved into the place yesterday. The building and furniture were insured. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Found His Aunt's Roll.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Sept. 21.—James Dunlap of Portland, a brakeman on the I. C. R., was looking through the house of the late Mrs. Ferguson, an aunt of Mr. Dunlap's who died recently, when he unexpectedly came across $680 in bills, all carefully rolled up and stowed away.

Burglars at Ripley.

RIPLEY, Sept. 20.—Mr. A. McKay's store was entered by burglars some time last night and an attempt made to blow open the safe. Two holes were drilled and a quantity of powder administered, but the fuse did not reach the powder. It is supposed they were alarmed by somebody at this stage as no further damage was done.

TORONTO TOPICS.

Graham's Second Dose of the Cat—Accident to a C. P. R. Conductor.

TORONTO, Sept. 21.—Not since the fair opened have so many drunken men been seen abroad as yesterday, and street fights are numerous.

Benjamin Graham, the colored ravisher of little children, who was sentenced in May last to 23 months and 20 lashes, received the second instalment of the cat yesterday morning in the yard of the Central Prison. The culprit seemed to remember the first dose, for he squealed before he got a stroke. He hardened, however, early in the punishment, and took the latter part of it fairly well.

On Sept. 12 a number of residences were entered and many valuable articles stolen. The same day a detective arrested two young men named Louis Witkowski and David McKenzie. In their pockets the police found most of the property. The prisoners yesterday morning were convicted of participation in all three robberies. McKenzie made his first bow to the court and was sentenced to 12 months' imprisonment in the Central. Witkowski is a hardened criminal, having served four short terms in the jail and Central, and two years in Kingston. The magistrate committed him to the Kingston penitentiary for 5 years.

William Mason, assistant-conductor on the Grey and Bruce division of the Canadian Pacific Railway, when nearing Parkdale yesterday morning, leaned out from a car platform to examine a defective brake rod when he came in contact with a fence that runs across a cattle guard, was thrown from his position and so badly injured that he has since died.

The Canadian Pacific Railway official reports of the Northwest grain crop received yesterday indicate an excellent and abundant harvest.

A charge of perjury preferred against John Barton McKay by Private Detective Mat. Howie revives a case that agitated merchants in the city and neighborhood a year ago. It may be remembered that McKay & Co., commission merchants, were charged before the Board of Arbitration of the Board of Trade with some tricks of trade which were not in strict conformity with regular shipping business. The Board investigated the complaint under oath, and it is charged that Mr. McKay committed wilful and corrupt perjury in deposing to a certain statement. Mr. Pearson, his counsel, stated that Mr. Mackay was at present in Philadelphia and would not be back in Toronto again until about Christmas. He claimed that the alleged perjured statement was a slip of the tongue, and owing to Mr. Mackay's absence the case stands indefinitely.

Exhibition receipts yesterday were $10,555, an increase compared with the same day last year of $1355. The total receipts to date are $56,928; last year for the same days $49,061.

The plumbers' strike was settled yesterday, the men returning to work on substantially the old terms.

Samuel Eplett and R. Manning of Coldwater turned off the gas in their room at the Simcoe House and then turned it on again. They were discovered unconscious at a late hour yesterday morning and brought round after two hours' assiduous attention. They are now thought to be out of danger:

Because His Wife Wouldn't Ante.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20. Jacob Tenburg, aged 20, has been supported by his 18-year-old wife Sophia since their marriage a month ago. She is a saleswoman in a Grand-street store.

"I've lost $50 playing poker," said the husband, coming home late Monday night, "Let me have $25. I'm going right back to the place."

"If you only knew how hard I must earn it," she pleaded.

"I didn't marry you for your good looks," he said, angrily, "I married to get supported." He then beat her brutally and was arrested by Officer Shields, of the Essex Market Court Squad.

"Six months for you, you scoundrel," said Justice Duffy to the prisoner. "If a politician comes here in your behalf I'll run him out of court."

"I protest against this," exclaimed the husband. "No wife can testify against her husband." But his protest was in vain.

Keely's Motor will not Move.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Sept. 20. The Keely motor case came up again yesterday afternoon in the Court of Common Pleas on a rule to show cause why an attachment for contempt of court should not be issued against Keely for his failure to obey the order of the court, which instructed him to put his machine in order and show it to a number of experts whom the Court had appointed. His counsel contended that Mr. Keely had not obeyed because of a lack of money. The judge said that this was not a sufficient answer. Counsel then stated that it would cost about $100,000 to put the motor in such a condition that it would operate. The courts say the experts were to report simply what they saw, and if they could not so report an individual would be appointed.

Suicide or Foul Play.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Sept. 21.—Ira E. Smith, a young coal oil dealer of this city, was found dead near Haubstadt, a station on the Evansville and Terre Haute railroad; his head having been severed from his shoulders. Some believe he committed suicide by allowing a train to pass over his neck, but others fear he is a victim of foul play. He is a native of Cincinnati, was 30 years old, and had been married six months. He left home to go to an Odd Fellows' meeting and was not seen after that. The police are now at work on the case and promise some developments very soon. The case is still clouded in deep mystery.

Labrador All Right.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Sept. 20.—Captain William Harding of the schooner Flying Scud has arrived from Labrador, where he had been for two months. He says that to his knowledge there is no truth in the published stories that the people on that coast are starving. The fishing has been poor, but in every harbor he visited the people seemed in a very comfortable condition, and vessels from more northern ports brought no stories of destitution.

A Trip Through Europe.

FIFTH PAPER.

Glasgow Continued.

We now turn towards the wealthy and aristocratic West End, so if your clothes and boots are dusty you had better brush up "a wee."

On West St. George street we notice the Parish church. It was built during the babyhood of the present century. Its tall spire, like the Presbyterian creed, points us heavenward for all that is good. If the tourist wishes to get initiated into the ways in which the thrifty Scot gets his bawbees he can study the doings of the Stock Exchange. This large building was erected in 1875, and has a good deal of the Gothic style about it. Another imposing edifice hard by will repay inspection; it is known as the Hall of the Faculty of Procurators—whoever they are. The architect had a taste for the Venetian type of beauty, and he succeeded in getting up for the august Faculty a picturesque structure. The walls are graced by the carved portraits of eminent jurists. Most people would be very glad if all lawyers and doctors could be safely shelved and simply used as ornaments.

As we stroll westward we are reminded by the two theatres on Sauchiehall street, that some canny Scotchman like to while away an hour or two looking at imaginary life as presented behind the foot-lights.

We can drop into the Glasgow institute of Fine Arts and see what our artists are doing in oil and water colors. Much of their work is very pretty, and if your tastes lean towards the beautiful, go through the grand collection of pictures and sculptures in that lofty and elegant pile of buildings known as the Corporation Gallery. Further on, the weary wanderer can find rest in the Grand Hotel, and if his temperance principles are not too pronounced, he can restore his flagging energies by sipping a little "mountain dew." This will brace him up so that he can take a good look at St. Andrew's Halls, which are between Kent Road and Berkeley street. They are of Grecian design and the front makes a big display of piers and pillars. The upper story is adorned with large figures representing music, painting, sculpture, poetry, etc. Its gaily bedecked hall will accommodate

AN AUDIENCE OF 3,000 PERSONS.

Would that all such places were tastily ornamented, for people would then have something to admire and not feel so bored by the small fry, usually trotted out to fill up time until the chief orator takes the rostrum.

Proceeding along Woodside Terrace and up India street, we come upon two noted buildings, viz., Free Church College and Park Church. In the former, many of Scotia's sons have received an orthodox drilling. From its massive square tower a very extensive view can be obtained. The latter is the scene of the labors of that illustrious divine, Dr. Donald McLeod.

The West End Park has a monopoly of attractions. It contains about seventy two acres and consists of the Woodlands and the famous Kelvin Grove. In it is the elegant Stewart Fountain, erected to commemorate the introduction of Loch Katrine water into the city. The fountain is about forty feet high and on the top gracefully poses a bronze figure of the "Lady of the Lake." The sparkling water shoots up from many spouts and falls into a beautiful large granite basin. A little to the north is a bronze group representing a tigress with cubs tearing a peacock. To the south is a museum stocked with objects of natural history, manufactures, statuary, etc. If you wish to see what is going on amongst the stars, just look through the Fulton Orrery, an astronomical instrument. James Watts handicraft can be seen in an old engine close by.

The surrounding hills are terraced and on the beautiful crescents are many elegant freestone mansions. The glory of Gilmore Hill is the university. It overlooks the park and no prettier site could have been chosen.

The University occupies a commanding position not only in regard to the magnificent edifice itself, but also in respect to its influence as an educational centre. The new buildings were begun in 1867, and opened in 1870. The main tower is supported on massive pillars and arches, and one very interesting department is the Hunterian Museum, named after the celebrated donors, Drs. John and William Hunter. It contains a fine

COLLECTION OF ANATOMICAL SPECIMENS

—coins, manuscripts, etc. The walls are graced by the portraits of eminent divines, statesmen, scientists and poets.

On the opposite side of the park are the rather gaudily painted exhibition buildings, and, as the great International Exposition was about ready for opening, we obtained permission to go through and see the exhibits. There were miniature ships, massive machines and fabrics of all kinds. Canada had a room to herself, but her display did not do anything like justice to her resources.

The parks and many of the principal streets were gaily decorated with arches and flags in honor of the Prince and Princess of Wales, who officiated at the opening ceremonies. One of the dining rooms was under the supervision of the Glasgow School of Cookery. The comely maidens, with airy caps, white cuffs and aprons deftly ministered to the wants of hungry men. The viands were very palatable.

The large gathering at the exhibition gave a good opportunity for studying national traits. The Scotch are rather taller and slighter than the English or Irish, and have sharper features. They are a sensible looking lot, and the careful training received in childhood is the great factor in that prestige which the Scottish character has the world over. It is a very cold or a very hot country in which Scotchmen cannot get the lion's share of the good things. Canadian parents ought to take a lesson from Scotch parents and try to train their children better, for the way most of our families are allowed to grow up is simply disreputable.

We cannot spend any more time in the West End, so will go back and notice the

CLYDE AND ITS SURROUNDINGS.

There are fine wide streets on each side of the river, and it is spanned by several substantial stone and suspension bridges. Small boats ply up and down every few minutes. On the deck of one of these we got a good view of the extensive docks and commodious warehouses, and of the bustle incident to the arrival and departure of the ocean steamers.

Outside of the city the banks of the Clyde become a veritable forest of poles. These are used for holding up the great metal ribs of the vessels in course of construction. Thousands of men are hard at work, for Glasgow leads the world in ship building. In this connection we may mention that both the city and surrounding country are studded with tall chimneys. It must puzzle protectionists to understand how so many of these are kept roaring away day and night in a country blasted by that—in their eyes—economic fallacy, free trade.

On our way to the station we met a Highland regiment. Their splendid physique, pretty caps, white jackets trimmed with blue, plaid skirts, well formed sinewy limbs, checkered stockings, and neat shoes made up the beau ideal of soldiers. No wonder the lassies rushed to the windows and threw kisses at "The bonnets of bonny Dundee." When asked by enthusiastic Highland men, "Hoo dee ye like the kilties?" we assured them that in our country they would be very nice in summer, but our frosty winter mornings would catch a fellow "bad."

We arrived at St. Enoch's station, waited for the orders "All aboard," and rode off through the suburbs of the grand old metropolis. The ride from Glasgow to Edinburgh is for the first half over a very fertile and highly cultivated country, in which many thriving towns and villages nestle. The last portion has a great variety of mountains, glens and rocks.

MANY AWAIT THESE AGENTS.

Stage-Struck Maidens Sigh for the Return of Messrs. Gillespie & Hagaman.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—For some time there flourished at No. 2 West Fourteenth-street a so-called dramatic and variety agency, under the management of Messrs. Gillespie & Hagaman. They inserted advertisements in the papers that they could procure excellent engagements for ladies who were desirous of going upon the stage. Their mode of procedure was unique. Mr. Gillespie would receive the aspiring applicant for histrionic fame, compliment her voice, praise her stage appearance and picture to her the glittering triumphs she would make. By a strange coincidence each applicant was exactly suited for a certain part in a company that was being organized to go on the road.

The manager of the company being out of town, a correspondence was always necessary and the lady was requested to deposit a dollar for the same. Having obtained this dollar she was given a book and a part assigned for her to study. She must call again in three days. Having studied the part thoroughly she calls as agreed. This time Mr. Hagaman receives her and declares her to be just the lady for whom he is looking. He will make an engagement with her three weeks hence. Then in stalks Mr. Gillespie with a claim for $10 as agent for the lady. Unless this sum is paid the engagement she has entered into is null and void.

It was in this way that many stage-struck young ladies paid in various sums, but are waiting in vain for the promised engagement. In fact, Messrs. Gillespie & Hagaman have flown, leaving grieved hearts, ruined hopes and empty pockets behind them. It is estimated that the firm cleared several hundred dollars.

COMMENDED AND DENOUNCED.

A Diversity of Opinion Touching Manitoba's Action re the Hudson Bay Scheme.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 20.—While The Sun strongly commends the conduct of the Government towards the Hudson Bay Railway scheme The Free Press bitterly denounces it and charges that when all the facts are explained and the subterfuges of ministers known, the feeling of disappointment now existing will deepen into indignation. It accuses the Government of trying to destroy the scheme from pure malice and having knifed it to the injury of the province.

Attorney-General Martin says he is convinced that the alternative proposal of the company to build to the narrows is merely a trap laid to catch the Government and when the money is exhausted it would be compelled to sink all it had invested or put in more to complete the line to tidewater.

The wheat movement has not yet commenced.

A slight advance in rates has been made from points on and near the boundary.

The early-closing movement has collapsed.

Governor Schultz left for Banff to-day.

The Call charges that the Local Government adjourned the Legislature instead of proroguing to prevent the trial of the Emerson election case, in which damaging disclosures about the ministers would be made.

A Treacherous Official.

BERLIN, Sept. 20.—The Krupp official who was arrested for trying to sell plans is named Hoppe. He offered the plans to the Armstrongs of Newcastle who sent a letter to Krupp without writing to Hoppe.

How Rome Will Entertain the Kaiser.

ROME, Sept. 20.—The German Imperial family being still in mourning the Italian Court on the occasion of Emperor William's visit will give only a grand banquet and a reception and a concert.

Ill Temper

is more rapidly improved by relief from physical suffering than in any other way. Step on your friend's corn, and the impulse to strike is strongest. Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor, by quickly and painlessly removing them, insures good nature. Fifty imitations prove its value. Beware of substitutes. "Putnam's," sure, safe, and painless. 6dw38

A Dozen Years.

Dear Sirs,—For twelve years I suffered from dyspepsia and liver complaint and was so weak I could not leave my bed for eight months, and had little hope of ever being cured. Three years ago I tried Burdock Blood Bitters, and am thankful to say I now enjoy good health, and I advise all who are afflicted to try B.B.B." Mrs. Harriet Hobbs, Muir Avenue, Brockton, Ont. 6dw36

An Old Favorite

that has been popular with the people for 30 years is Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for all varieties of summer complaints of children or adults. It seldom or ever fails to cure cholera morbus, diarrhœa and dysentery. 6dw36

An Undoubted Proof

of the beneficial qualities of Burdock Blood Bitters is found in the thousands of authentic testimonials published by the proprietors. The original letters being in their possession, they can furnish proof positive as to their genuineness at any time. 6dw36

"I was very sick with bowel complaint last summer. I tried other medecines but all were no use until I tried Dr. Fowler's Wild Strawberry. The next day I was like a different man." Geo. H. Peacock, Stroud, Ont.

The Growth of the Hair

Should always be watched. Inattention to the hair often leads to premature grayness and baldness. When dandruff appears it should be looked after at once. By frequently using a little of Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic, the scalp will be kept in a clean healthy condition and the strength and vigor of the hair greatly promoted. It is the only reliable. Do not be talked into using anything else. For sale by all druggists everywhere. dw

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. Lyman, Sons & Co., Montreal, Wholesale Agents. dw

From Manitoba.

"I have been cured of chronic diarrhœa by the use of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. I used about twelve bottles of it and am now entirely free from the disease. William McLaren, Clearwater, Man. 6dw36

Parsonage Purchased.

The board of the Charlotte street Methodist church closed negotiations this morning for the purchase of the residence of Mr. Aaron Cox, Reid street, to be used as a parsonage. The figure agreed upon is $3,500. It is proposed to remove the driving sheds in rear of the Sunday school soon and erect new brick sheds at the rear of the parsonage lot. This will afford the much needed space for the extension of the Sunday school room.

Laying the Foundation Stone.

Contracts for the excavation and the furnishing of stone for the basement of the new St. Joseph's Hospital were let some few weeks ago. Most of the stone is now on the premises, and the work of excavation almost complete. The coping and stones from the wall fronting the old parochial residence are also being removed to Ashburnham, to be utilized for the new building. Yesterday afternoon about 4.30 His Lordship the Bishop of Peterborough, with his own hands, was pleased to lay the first foundation stone of St. Joseph's Hospital in the name of the Holy Trinity. The Bishop declares that the new hospital shall be open to all without distinction to creed or nationality. It is expected that the imposing ceremony of laying the corner stone will take place early in November.

TURNBULL has a pile of German ulsters and mantles, low priced goods, which he will be unable to show for want of room on the opening days, Sept. 26th and 27th, at Turnbull's. Ask to see them. d&w

Crescent Street Cribbing.

The work which the EXAMINER has so repeatedly urged is now about completed. The timber cribbing has been finished as far as George street—all that is intended to be done this season. The filling in has been begun and is well on to completion. The earth for filling in is secured by taking down the higher portions of Crescent street. Thus first-rate soil for the growth of the trees which are to be planted along the lake side of the drive is procured. The roadway has been widened by an average of fifteen feet, and it would not be a bad idea to plant two rows of trees—one on the outside next the cribbing and one on the inside to mark a division between the walk for pedestrians and the carriage drive. The work has been well done under the superintendance of Mr. Angus Williams.

As Others See Us.

The "Field and Factory in Canada," an illustrated supplement to the Ottawa Citizen, dealing with the towns and cities of Canada, contains the following reference to Peterborough:

PETERBOROUGH,—A thriving manufacturing town on the Grand Trunk Railway and Ottawa and Quebec line C.P.R.; incorporated in 1850. It has at present 5 flour, 4 woolen, 4 saw, and 2 planing mills, 4 foundries, 5 furniture factories, 3 agricultural implement works, 1 lock manufacturing establishment, 1 stove works, tanneries, canoe factories, potteries, biscuit, boot and shoe factories, etc., etc., in fact, the Otonabee river supplies such great power, almost every industry is here represented; with every facility of communication; is also supplied with electric light. Population about 9,000. Assessed valuation of real and personal property, $4,000,000.

A Horse Case.

The Port Perry correspondent of the Whitby Chronicle writes:—An interesting case was tried in the division court here on Tuesday, arising out of the summer race meeting on the Central fair grounds. In one of the trotting races Winch, of Peterborough, was awarded first money, Sebert, of Whitby, second, and St. John, of Brock, third. Ray was fourth and sued for third money on the grounds that Winch's horse was disqualified and should be ruled out, thus raising the second and third horses a peg. It appears that the bills of the meeting and the advertisements clashed as to the eligibility of horses, and this, in such a way to shut Winch out, according to the plaintiff's reasoning. Messrs. W. H. Billings, for plaintiff, and Paterson for defendants, fought the question out before Judge Dartnell, in the good old county court style, abusing each other to their heart's content. His Honor, after stating that he believed an old English code would have to govern the case, under £50 was the least that could be legally offered in a horse race, stated he would reserve judgment.

Overcome by Gas.

On Tuesday afternoon Messrs. Thos. Dunford and Arthur Robson, of Lakefield, the Chronicle says, had a narrow escape from death by suffocation in a well. The two men in company with Mr. Geo. Cochrane, on whose premises the well was being made, had been blasting the rock, and Dunford went down to work in the well. He had only been down a short time before he was overcome by the accumulated gas, and when discovered by Mr. Cochrane was lying at the bottom of the well. Mr. Robson went down to Dunford's assistance, when he, too, was overcome in a like manner. Before further attempt at rescue was made, a pail with burning shavings was lowered into the well and the gas consumed. The two men were then brought out and restoratives applied. Medical men were sent for and Drs. D. Fraser and J. R. Fraser soon arrived and after awhile succeeded in bringing the men to consciousness. Both men were removed to their homes, and at latest accounts have about recovered from the effects. The affair caused considerable excitement in the neighbourhood for a time, and had it not been for the prompt action of the neighbours, something more serious would undoubtedly have resulted.

Fashionable Wedding.

Select society is on the tiptoe of expectation over a speedily forthcoming fashionable wedding. The interest is no less because it happens to be a case of May and December, or, at least, October. Fuller particulars will no doubt leak out in a few days. In the meantime it is enough to state that the greatest excitement prevails in all social circles over the fact that gough bros., the wonderful cheap men, have at their shop, 375 george street, the most astounding bargains in all sorts of boots and shoes. A Montreal firm went into business without capital, got credit for a $6,000 stock of boots and shoes and failed at once. gough bros. gobbled this splendid stock at 40 cents on the dollar, and are now rushing it off at less than half cost price. Don't be deceived, gough's is the place to get the cheapest (and best) boots and shoes in the world. gough bros. don't mind throwing a sprat to catch a whale, therefore on Saturday at from 11 to 12 o'clock a line of ladies boots, worth $1.50, will be given away—you can't call it selling—at 29 cents. They want to get the people to their shop, 375 George street, well knowing that once they see their boots and shoes and hear the prices they can't help buying.

The "At Home."

The Young Women's Christian Temperance Union of Peterborough held an "At Home" at their rooms, 425 George street, last night. Quite a number of people met together and enjoyed a pleasant evening. The rooms were nicely decorated with parlor ornaments, and the members of the "Y" are grateful to their friends who kindly loaned them articles of bric-a-brac to make the place attractive. To Mr. A. Clegg they are especially indebted for furniture and pictures. A number of games were provided for the amusement of the guests, and during the evening substantial refreshments were served by the young ladies. The programme was very much cut up owing to the non-appearance of several of the announced "stars" by reason of illness and other causes. Mr. F. Annesley is confined in the hospital from an attack of fever; Mr. W. H. Dingle is indisposed at his home in Oshawa Mrs. Seward and Mr. W. A Dixon were unable to take their parts, both being troubled with sore throats, and of the Y.M.C.A. vocalists only Mr. Stevens was on hand. However, those who did take part acquitted themselves creditably and helped make the evening pass off pleasantly. Solos were given by Mrs. Stapleton, Mr. A. L. Davis and Mr. Stevens; instrumental music by Miss K. B. Annesley and by Misses Wrighton and Errett, and a reading by Mr. Paul Wood, a young Englishman stopping at the Barnardo Home. The entertainment on the whole was an enjoyable one, despite the disappointments.

The Dickson Siding.

The plans for the proposed new C. P. R. siding up the river to the Dickson mill property arrived to-day and were registered at the Registry Office here as plan 75 of the town of Peterborough. The plans were filed by Mr. T. Trudel, Deputy Minister of Railways and Canals, in compliance with sec. 25 of the Railway Act of 1888. The plans are just the same as the ones originally selected. Continuing from the switch line into the bridge works property, the spur will run along the shore of the river to the foot of Sherbrooke street, where it will take a "bee line" across the water to the Hunter street woollen mills, entering on the roadway leading alongside the mills. The branch will touch the western point of the island nearest the Peterborough shore. The track will be laid on an embankment the whole distance, with the exception of 450 feet of trestle work between Sherbrooke street and the islands, including an open passage of 40 feet, and 200 feet of trestle work between the island and Hunter street. Crossing Hunter street, the spur will continue up the private street running in front of the mills as far as the Dickson saw mill. The plans are just the same as those first proposed with the exception of the amendment made in putting in trestle work along the upper embankment. This will leave room for a good current of water at all times, it is claimed.

AMAZON dress and jacket cloths in all the new shades with trimmings to match, will be shown on the opening days, Sept. 26th and 27th, at Turnbull's. d&w

Lameness Cured by Lightning.

An Atlanta special to the St. Louis Republic says. "Jacob Miller who lives in Cobb County, had not walked in seven years on account of the contraction of the muscles of the leg. During a recent storm, while sitting under a tree, a stroke of lightning shattered the top of the trunk of the tree, knocking it into splinters. Miller says he felt the current of electricity pass through his body, and he thought death was upon him. In attempting to get his crutch he found that his lame leg was almost straight, and he has walked without assistance ever since.

TURNBULL'S fall and winter stock is now complete, every department is crowded with beautiful goods, which will be sold cheaper than ever this season. d&w

A Combination Clock.

A curiously considerate invention has been produced by a Frenchman in the shape of a noiseless clock, for use more specially in sick rooms. In place of the usual pendulum the hands are set in motion by the unrolling of a chain, the end of which is fastened to a body floating in a tank of liquid. The fluid escapes at a uniform rate and can be utilized to feed a lamp wick; thus giving the apparatus the double character of clock and lamp. When the lamp is lighted the necessary diminution of liquid takes place by combustion, at other times by carefully regulated dropping.

ABOUT one hundred new styles of hats and bonnets will be exhibited at TURNBULL'S millinery opening, Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 26 and 27. dw

Local Sports and Pastimes.

Lacrosse.

The Peterborough and Lindsay Y.M.C.A. lacrosse clubs played another game here yesterday in the pennant series, the home team winning by four goals to one, and at the same time securing the pennant. Their record is now three straight victories. The game was not a good one from a critical point of view however satisfactory its result. There was very little team play and altogether too much "shinnying." The Peterboroughs seemed to play all round their opponents after the first game.

For Peterborough, special mention might be made of the play of Begley, MacMillan, Davidson and Henderson, though all played so well that individual mention is scarcely necessary or called for. The defence field were not hard pressed except at occasional times when they were fully equal to the task, except in the first game, when Cornell, by a brilliant bit of dodging, scored a goal. For the visitors, Finlay, Cornell and Beeton played a good game, while Pearson in goal worked hard to save defeat. There was some objection on the part of the Lindsay men to Begley, of the Riversides, playing with the Peterboroughs. But as no amount of talk or newspaper bluster could settle the matter, it is better to let it rest.

The game lasted but an hour and a half as per agreement. After 20 minutes play Cornell scored for Lindsay; the next four games went to Peterborough. Begley, Henderson and McMillan scored by neat throws; Stevens scooped the ball through when it was lobbed in front of goal by Davidson.

There were about one hundred spectators in attendance. The game was not a rough one, though several of the players received cuts and bruises. Cornell was hit in the eye with the ball but fortunately not seriously hurt. The team lined up as follows:—

LINDSAY.		PETERBOROUGH.
Pearson	goal	Kincaid
Anderson	point	Metheral
Hughes	cover point	Conral
Finlay	defence field	Pakenham

The games were scored as follows.—

NORTHEASTERN DISTRICT CHAMPIONSHIP.

The Judiciary Committee of the C. L. A. met at the Rossin house, Toronto, yesterday. The following members were present: Dan. A. Rose, president, Toronto: H. O'Laughlin, secretary, St. Catherines; Geo. Phemister, Niagara Falls, and James Vance, Ingersoll. The following cases were decided:

Barrie v. Bradford game, of September 5, won by Bradford; Barrie claimed and Bradford admitted that Dave Clark, Brantford; Robbins, Orillia; Hewitt and Stewart, Bright, had played with Bradford. The Bradford representatives put in a counter protest and proved that Hartley, Shelburne; Birchard, Beaverton; Swinn and Burns, of Brantford, had played in the same match with Barrie against Bradford. The Judiciary suspended all the players above mentioned, suspended the Barrie and Bradford clubs for the balance of the season and awarded all remaining games scheduled with either of the clubs supended, to go to their opponents by default.

The Peterborough-Bradford game of September 18, which was postponed until the 20th, was in consequence of the above decision awarded to Peterborough. Orillia and Peterborough, being tie for the district championship, they were ordered to play the tie off on a date and place to be named by the president of the association. Doughtery's (of Stouffville) certificate, suspended by the president, was made good again, as a member of the Bradfords and Edmonson's case stands.

A sensation was created round the Russell House to-night by the arrival in bond of two Chinese Mandarins, Mr. Y. L. Fe, Senior Secretary of the Board of War, and Mr. H. K. Ku, Secretary of the Chinese Board of Punishments. They are commissioned by the Emperor of China to visit foreign countries and report on the various matters pertaining to their respective positions. They are accompanied by a Japanese gentleman, Mr. H. P. Sawamura, in the capacity of interpreter. The latter speaks English very well, and in conversation to-night said the party left China about a year ago. Six months were spent in Japan, and the last six months have been passed in the United States. From here the party will go on to Toronto and Niagara Falls, and probably afterwards to Petrolia to inquire into the oil industry. It is their intention to visit Cuba, Brazil, Peru and other South American countries before returning to China.

MONTREAL, Sept. 21.—The trial took place to-day in the Court of Queen's Bench of John Humble, on a charge of having attempted to murder Thos. Minera, a colored man. The jury returned a verdict of "guilty of shooting with intent to do grievous bodily harm."

A WINNIPEG DECEIVER.

HOW A MARRIED MAN DELUDED A YOUNG GIRL.

A Terrible Poisoning Tragedy Reported from the Shores of Lake Temiscamingue —Killed at a Railway Crossing.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 21.—Additional interest is created in the case of McKay, who is implicated in the embezzlement at the Canadian Pacific Railway ticket office, by another charge made against him, Strachan, who is apparently the chief offender, being discharged. It appears that McKay, who is a married man, became acquainted with a young girl named Eliza Botsford and falsely procuring a marriage license induced a friend to pretend to be a magistrate and go through the form of a ceremony. The girl was completely humbugged, but finding out her error told all to her mother. McKay had used a fictitious name and the affair was kept secret for several days, but the mother finally visited McKay and upbraided him with his conduct. He at once skipped to the States. Strachan and Deegan, who officiated as the magistrate, have been arrested.

Manitoba exhibits were sent to Hamilton and Ottawa this evening.

Sir Lester Kaye has purchased the Canadian Pacific Railway experimental farm.

At Oak Lake 96 cents has been paid for wheat.

A TERRIBLE CRIME.

How Mrs. Boivin Fell a Victim to Her Own Murderous Act.

OTTAWA, Sept. 21.—A case of poisoning is reported to have occurred on the of shores Lake Temiscamingue, north of Mattawa, on Sunday afternoon last which resulted in the death of a man named Boivin and his wife, aged 40 and 36 years respectively. For some time past Mrs. Boivin has been anxious to get rid of her husband. The opportunity occurred on Sunday when the man complained of feeling unwell. His wife suggested a dose of epsom salts, but instead of that prepared a dose of strychnine. He was suspicious of the mixture and refused to take it when, to satisfy him, the woman took a spoonful herself which induced him to take the full dose. The woman made the mistake in her own case of miscalculating the strength of the poison. When a man named Grenier called in shortly afterwards the poison had affected her, as was indicated by the twitching of her face. Calling her husband to her assistance Grenier found that Boivin, who was in another part of the house, was much worse than his wife, and was unable to assist her. Becoming alarmed Grenier started for assistance. On his return they were both dead.

Dr. Dennis O'Connor.

WINDSOR, Sept. 22.—There assembled yesterday at Assumption college, Sandwich, Bishop Walsh, of London, Bishop Borgess, of Detroit, and about 40 of the clergy, who came to witness the conferring of a doctor's cap, cloak and ring on Very Rev. Dennis O'Connor, for eighteen years superior of the college. The bishop read the official documents, and Bishop Borgess, on behalf of the American clergy, who are the alumni of the college, presented Dr. O'Connor with a valuable emerald ring and a cap and cloak, which are the insignia of his office. Father McManus, of Battle Creek, Mich., brought forward a handsome gold chalice, and Rev. Dean O'Brien, of Kalamazoo, a purse. The recipient acknowledged both favors in a graceful speech.

One Year for Burglary.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Sept. 21.—On the night of Sept. 19, a couple of burglars effected an entrance to the Wesley Park Hotel, which had been closed for the season. Night Watchman Randall, of the M. C. R., who had seen them enter, obtained assistance and entered the hotel where he found the burglars in bed with their booty on the floor. He arrested them and handed them over to the Ontario police. They gave their names as Frank Jones of Michigan and George Allan of South Carolina. They had in their possession three watches which had not been taken from the hotel. The prisoners were sentenced by Police Magistrate Hill to-day to a year in the Central.

MONTREAL, Sept. 21.—In consequence of Dufresne's assignment yesterday John Jamieson & Co., oil merchants, and Brodie Jamieson, oil merchant, suspended payment to-day. The liabilities of the former will amount to about $25,000 and the liabilities of the other firm are put down as probably amounting to about $40,000.

THE SCOURGE OF THE SOUTH.

Yellow Jack's Terrible March Through Sunny Cities.

JACKSON, Miss., Sept. 21.—The excitement of yesterday continues and is greatly increased by three new cases of yellow fever this morning. No deaths have yet occurred. It is generally conceded that all the cases originated here and were caused by excavations and disturbing filthy sewers on the depot grounds during the past two months. Three-fourths of the white population have fled, the stores are nearly all closed and there is but little food in the city for the "can't-get-aways." No trains stop here. A special train will be furnished to-night for such as wish to go through to the north.

Cairo Quarantined.

CAIRO, Ill., Sept. 22.—This city yesterday established quarantine against all trains from the south on the Illinois Central and Mobile and Ohio railroads. All passengers for the north will be compelled to have health certificates.

Not Permitted to Discharge Mails.

HELENA, Sept. 22.—Strict quarantine has been declared against trains from the south. They are not even permitted to discharge mails.

Jacksonville's Bulletin.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Sept. 22.—The official report yesterday shows 118 new cases of yellow fever and 14 deaths. A large majority of the new cases are among colored people in the suburbs. The comparatively few deaths are among the negroes who usually recover rapidly.

An Incident of the Plague.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Sept. 22.—One of the most pathetic incidents of the pestilence occurred yesterday. A little 9-year-old boy named Storck was brought in from the Sand Hills where he had recovered from yellow fever. Making his way to his home he was was told that his father, mother and sisters had all fallen victims to the disease. He will be cared for by a gentleman who was a patient in the hospital.

Cholera in Portuguese India.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—The Foreign Office announces that all the ports in Portuguese India are infested with cholera.

A Chicago Good Samaritan.

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—"Don't use my name; I wouldn't have it in the paper for $100," said a gentleman yesterday afternoon at the Armory Police Court. He had just given Matron Litell $10 to buy a ticket for Mrs. Annie Douglas to enable her to join her husband in Kingston, Ont.

Until three months ago Mrs. Douglas, with her husband James, lived at No. 48 East Twelfth-street. Mr. Douglas could not find work and went to Kingston, Ont., where he found employment in the locomotive works.

His wife toiled away in an effort to save money to pay her expenses to join him, and by hard labor she managed to save $25. Just as she was about to start she was told by her husband to buy the return coupon on an excursion ticket which a lady was using from Kingston to Chicago, and which she would sell for $6.50. Mrs. Douglas bought this ticket and going to the depot had her trunks checked and examined by the customs officer. Then she boarded the train and missed her purse containing her ticket, checks, and her little fortune of $17, all she had in the world.

It was a terrible loss to her, and almost stupefied, she left the train and sat in the depot until long after midnight, when she was ejected by a watchman. On the street she met Officer Stewart, who took her to the Armory, where Matron Litell cared for her until yesterday, when the Good Samaritan sent her on her way to join her husband.

THE PULSE OF TRADE.

Generally Favorable Conditions Reported —The Wheat Output.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—General favorable trade conditions, with improvements in certain sections of the west and south, are reported. Better corn prospects in the west, increased receipts of wheat and more favorable weather have improved trade at Omaha, Burlington and Detroit and carried a full average distribution at St. Louis, Kansas City and Louisville. Progress in harvesting in the lower Mississippi has involved a larger movement of merchandise at New Orleans. Texas cotton crop is reported fair and receipts at Galveston are increasing. The fall dry goods trade at New York and Boston is quieter. The corn crop is about saved and the rice crop on the South Atlantic coast has been damaged by overflows.

Money is slightly easier at several western points. New Orleans and San Francisco are stringent and at Kansas City it is in active demand. The New York stock market is feverish and unsettled. Money at New York is fairly easy; call loans at 2 to 2½ per cent. Foreign exchanges easier; demand sterling $4.87½ to $4.88. Bradstreet's report of 97 railroads show that the aggregate mileage earnings from Jan. 1 to July 31 are 7·6 per cent. less than in 1887, but are 3·9 per cent. and ¾ per cent. larger than in 1886 and 1885 respectively.

Wheat is steady but higher than two days ago on account of reported damage in Minnesota and Dakota. Corn and oats are each 1c lower. Lard, 8 to 16 points dearer. Pork steady. Ocean freights firmer. Lake and canal freights firm; rates per 2000 lbs. Chicago to New York on grain $2.54.

Total export of wheat and flour this week 2,831,276 bushels, against 2,939,424 bushels last week. Total exported July 1 to Sept. 21 is 28,828,995 bushels against 45,187,679 bushels last year.

Iron in lighter demand at the west; orders already booked will about provide for full output for remainder of year. Old rails strong. Manufactured iron and steel in moderate demand; prices unchanged.

Wool in good tone; large mills fairly well stocked; orders for woollen goods of fair volume. Distribution of dress goods of fair proportions; spot cotton firmly held at former prices; print cloths are 1-16c lower; staple cottons of leading grades fairly well controlled; low grade colored goods note a tendency in buyers' favor.

THE UNSPEAKABLE TURK.

HIS EMPTY PURSE ENDANGERS THE GRAND VIZIER'S HEAD.

Italy Preparing for a New Expedition Against Abyssinia—The Late Emperor Frederick's Part in Founding the Empire

LONDON, Sept. 21.—The unspeakable Turk has had another domestic squabble, which bade fair to result in the Grand Vizier losing his head. As nearly every other monarch on the continent was engaged in putting his army through its annual manœuvres, the Sultan thought Turkey ought to follow suit, and consequently he ordered the second-class reserves out to manœuvre. The Grand Vizier immediately sought his royal master's presence and conveyed the dismal intelligence to him that the treasury was empty, and that it was impossible for the troops to engage in mimic warfare. The Sultan stormed and insisted, but the Grand Vizier protested that there was no money. After a stormy scene the Sultan yielded with bad grace to the inevitable.

There is no longer any doubt that Italy is quietly preparing for a new expedition against Abyssinia, to be ready about the middle of October. Extensive preparations are being made so that it may be more successful than the last.

The missionary societies are clamoring for an inquiry to be made into the charges against Maj. Bartlelot and Henry M. Stanley. The charges are of cruelty to the natives and a readiness to shoot them for disobedience.

The Deutsche Rundschau, a monthly review, publishes an abstract from the diary of the late Emperor Frederick regarding the Franco-German war. The details of the events narrated show that Frederick had the greatest part in founding the empire before others had dreamed it possible. The abstract also proves that some of the Princes, especially the Prince of Bavaria, gave their consent to the formation of the empire grudgingly.

In an interview to-day with the Nizam of Hyderabad's agent, Mr. Gladstone said that he retained very friendly feelings toward Turkey. On the eve of the bombardment of Alexandria he urged that Turkish troops be sent to Egypt. The Sultan, however, refused to do so. Mr. Gladstone said that he was confident that the Government intends to evacuate Egypt at the earliest possible moment.

A party of Maoris have arrived from New Zealand to play football matches against the principal English clubs.

Mr. Savage, the Librarian of Shakespeare's birthplace at Stratford-on-Avon, claims to have discovered fragments of an unknown play of Shakespeare entitled "Irne" in an old manuscript book written by one Edward Pudsey in the time of Elizabeth and James the First. It contains extracts from Shakespeare and Ben Johnson's plays, but differing in some curious respects from the published texts. Pudsey does not allege this play of "Irne" to be Shakespeare's entire work, but includes extracts. The grave objection to Savage's theory is that the other plays are distinctly stated to be those of Shakespeare, whereas respecting this one there is no intimation of the kind. It is probable, therefore, that Pudsey was ignorant of the author's name.

The second volume of the Duke of Cobourg's memoirs to be published soon will cover the years 1851 to 1860.

Certain important correspondence of European monarchs and statesmen, by Sir Bartle Frere, is soon to be published.

Mr. Lawrence Oliphant is seriously ill at Surbiton.

Holland's Budget.

THE HAGUE, Sept. 22.—The Minister of Finance to-day presented the Budget to Parliament. It is estimated that the deficit at the end of 1888 will amount to $3,250,000, and the total deficit at the end of 1889 to $10,417,000. The credits required for the national defences in 1889 exceed those expended for the same purpose in 1888 by $830,000. The Minister of Finance says he will be able to avoid a new loan for a long time in consequence of the abundance of money in the treasury.

Defending Bartelot's Character.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—Belgian officers of the Congo State at Brussels deny the atrocities imputed to Major Bartlelot. The Times on the same subject says that from Captain Van Gile's experience he believes the reports are false and that Tippoo Tib would not permit abuse of his men.

The German expedition for the relief of Emin Bey will reach Wadelai before the English expedition and thus claim the territory governed by Emin.

THE TRAFFIC INVOLVED.

The Hamilton Times discourses thus upon the subject of what is involved in the retaliatory stoppage of the International railway traffic of Canada and the United States:—

"We do not expect the retaliation talk, indulged in on both sides of the international boundary, to end in anything serious. When the politicians are done blustering, the people will laugh at the idea of setting Canadian soldiers to watch and prevent a vessel owned by a citizen of the United States from sailing down the Detroit River through the channel east of Bois Blanc Island, nor will there be any United States soldiers charged with the duty of hindering Canadian vessels from passing to the south of Barnhart's Island on their way down the St. Lawrence. The intruding vessel does not hurt the water in either case, and when temper is not up, the average man is not inclined to be mean for the sake of being mean. So, too, there will be no general desire on either side of the border to cut off access to favorite freight and passenger routes. The Canadians, in the year 1887, sent through the United States for transmission to other countries merchandise valued at $11,504,721, and a great many Canadians, on their way to Europe, travelled by way of New York. In the same year, goods to the value of $22,197,955 were sent from foreign countries through the United States to Canada. It is inconceivable that any large number of persons in the United States should desire to deprive the railways of making profit by doing this business. On the other hand, many goods were shipped through Canada from one point in the United States to another point in the United States. The following is the record for 1887,—

Port of departure.	Number of cars.	Weight of contents. Tons.
Buffalo, N.Y.	51,332	705,316
Detroit, Mich.	*165,417	3,091,785
Ogdensburg, N.Y.	†2,486	350
Plattsburg, N.Y.	224	1,712
Port Huron, Mich.	68,350	990,250
Portland, Me.	‡,106	37,372
St Vincent, Minn.	152	2,080
Suspension B'ge N.Y.	98,308	833,810
Vermont	25,000	250,000
Total	1410,869	4,918,315

*25,968 empty. †Packages. ‡Cars.

The money obtained by the Canadian railways for moving these 5,000,000 tons of goods is estimated from $6,000,000 to $8,000,000. To shut off this business would be a hard blow at the Canadian railways, and it would occasion loss to United States shippers and consumers. Who wants anything of that sort? Nobody, after the election is over."

THE American Banker finds material for complaint out of the title to an article—"More Banking Capital Needed." The Banker can't blame our own Honorable George Eulas Foster, Canadian Minister of Finance, who has made us generous Canucks pay 2½ per cent. on several millions to furnish capital for New York bankers, free of interest.

THE London Times has had a representative visiting Canada, who will publish the the result of his researches in the wilds of Canada to the readers of the Thunderer. The trip of its representative will probably teach the Times a little geography, and it will not be quite so ready to describe Montreal as "a town of Canada, situated at the head of navigation on Lake Superior," or refer to Toronto as "a village on the Welland Canal," with an unconquerable penchant for industrial exhibitions, consisting largely of leg-shows, hippodromes and warmed-over battles of Pekin to represent Sebastopol.

THE Ottawa Free Press gives the following as a brilliant example of Tory statesmanship:—"First the Dominion Government built the Intercolonial Railway at a cost of $45,000,000 to the taxpayers of Canada. Then they granted subsidies sufficient to build the Temiscouata Railway, which is designed to compete with and take traffic from the Intercolonial. Afterwards they voted four or five million dollars to build a railway across Maine to compete with the Temiscouata road and destroy its usefulness. Now the President of the United States threatens to prevent Canadians from using the railway which is being built with their own money. This is a fair example of the Tory party's railway policy." This is only excelled by the brilliant financial coup made by Finance Minister Foster, in borrowing in England several millions of money more than we wanted, paying 3½ per cent. interest for it and lending it to Yankee speculators at 1½ per cent. It is no wonder that Canada is prospering famously—in the matter of plunging deeper into debt.

The Afghan Ameer Dead.

If, as is reported by cable from Tashkend, the Ameer of Afghanistan is dead, there may be lively times on the borders of British India before long. The death, in a sudden manner, of the Ameer at the present time is to say the least suspicious. Only the other day, there was a report from Afghanistan that Ishak Khan, cousin of Abdurrahaim, the Ameer, had revolted, and was engaged in a vigorous warfare with the troops of the Ameer, and at last accounts a battle of a decisive character was expected between the opposing forces at a point between Balkh and Herat. The reason of the insurrection, like the cause of the Ameer's death, is obscure, but it is generally believed that Russian influences are at the bottom of the rising, which has been strongly supported in Northern Afghanistan, of which the chief rebel was governor. The dead Ameer was a nephew of Shere Ali, who was a son of Dost Mohammed, against whom Lord Auckland, Governor-General of India, declared war in 1838, a proceeding followed by the terrible massacre of British troops in the Khyber Pass. Abdurrahaman was selected as ruler after the war with Britain, in 1878, which was declared because of the refusal of Shere Ali to receive a British mission, while at the same time allowing influential Russians to sway his counsels in Cabul. For many years prior to that both Abdurrahman and Ishak had been in exile in Tashkend and elsewhere under the protection of Russia. Since his accession, Abdurrahman has always been regarded as a friend of the British, but he has been extremely well paid, by annual subsidy, for his loyalty. The past history of Afghan duplicity lends color to the suspicion that the dead Ameer may have been gently "removed" by an agent of Ishak, working in the interests of Russia. The average Afghan is always looking for his price.

TORONTO TOPICS.

Ontario's Barley Surplus—Cox Again Remanded—Exhibition Receipts.

TORONTO, Sept. 22.—Yesterday afternoon Gardener Mitchell, aged 18, was at work on a building when he fell from the scaffold, a distance of over 20 feet, dislocating his right shoulder and fracturing the bone.

A little boy, probably 8 years of age, whose limbs are paralyzed, was found straying in the Queen's Park at a late hour last night. He cannot tell his name, nor give any information about himself.

It is estimated here that Ontario's barley surplus for export will reach 12,000,000 bushels.

Chas. Hicks, a G.T.R. switchman, had one of his hands smashed while coupling cars in the yard near the foot of Bathurst-street.

The cigarmakers' dispute, which has lasted between four and five months, is practically settled, but the terms are not made public.

At the Police Court yesterday the cases against E. S. Cox were again adjourned for a week.

The Police Magistrate had 103 cases to dispose of yesterday.

The exhibition receipts this year total $59,534; in 1887 they were $52,069 and in 1886 $40,897.

A large number of people have been swindled by the Mount Khingan Tea Company which professed to give away a ladies' solid silver watch with every twenty pounds of tea sold.

It is said that a mission to Minneapolis to bring back ex-Cashier Allen of the broken Central as a witness in the Cox case proved unsuccessful.

Blyth Votes for a Fire Engine.

BLYTH, Sept. 21.—A bylaw submitted to the ratepayers of this place to raise money for the purchase of a steam fire engine was voted on to-day and carried by a majority of 63.

The Coming Comet.

It is fancied by a grateful patron that the next comet will appear in the form of a huge bottle, having "Golden Medical Discovery" inscribed upon it in bold characters. Whether this conceit and high compliment will be verified remains to be seen, but Dr. Pierce will continue to send forth that wonderful vegetable compound, and potent eradicator of disease. It has no equal in medicinal and health-giving properties, for imparting vigor and tone to the liver and kidneys, in purifying the blood, and through it cleansing and renewing the whole system. For scrofulous humors, and consumption, or lung scrofula, in its early stages, it is a positive specific. Druggists sell it. o

Eczema, Itchy, Scaly Skin Tortures.

The simple application of "Swayne's Ointment," without any internal medicine, will cure any case of Tetter, Salt Rheum, Ringworm, Piles, Itch, Sores, Pimples, Eczema, all Scaly, Itchy Skin Eruptions, no matter how obstinate or long standing. It is potent, effective, and costs but a trifle. Lyman, Sons & Co. Montreal, Wholesale Agents. dw are often inherited, but the decease itself may gain a foothold through impure blood, bad diet, unventilated rooms, etc., keep the blood pure and the circulation perfect by means of Burdock Blood Bitters, and thus ward off consumption, which is simply scrofula of the lungs. 6dw36

Consumptive Tendencies

A SINGLE SCRATCH may cause a festering sore. Victoria Carbolic Salve rapidly heals cuts, wounds, bruises, burns, and all sores. dw

PURITY OF INGREDIENTS and accuracy of compounding, make Milburn's Aromatic Quinine Wine the criterion of excellency. dw

A Decided Improvement.

The removal of the old stone fence, with its formidable iron railing, from the eastern front of St. Peter's Cathedral grounds gives an appearance of park-like expanse to the grounds, especially when approaching them from Hunter street.

An Ennismore Storm.

Our Ennismore correspondent writes:—One of the severest thunderstorms experienced for a long time, passed over here on Wednesday. The wind was blowing a gale, rain falling in torrents, and large hailstones without number, the latter of which were lying thick on the ground a considerable time after the storm had passed over.

County Bridges.

Mr. John Walsh, Warden of the county, is in town to-day. Yesterday Mr. Walsh examined the Pigeon Creek bridge and reports it in a condition dangerous for traffic. The question of closing the bridge will be discussed at a meeting of the Road and Bridge Committee of the County Council to-day, at the Court House. At the same meeting they will open the tenders for the construction of the Sullivan bridge, Douro, and award contract if tenders are satisfactory.

Nothing Like Leather.

Five feet below the surface of Hunter street, opposite Hutchison's stove shop, workmen excavating for a drain to the street sewer came upon a layer of sweepings of a shoe shop, evidently once situated at that point. The leather was in a good state of preservation, notwithstanding its forty years' burial, for Mr. H. Croft, who has been in the town thirty-seven years, has no recollection of a shoe shop at that point. The level of Hunter street at that time was fully five feet lower than it is now.

AMAZON dress and jacket cloths in all the new shades with trimmings to match, will be shown on the opening days, Sept. 26th and 27th, at Turnbull's. d&w

Turner's Big Tent.

The small boys thought a circus had taken up its quarters on the commons alongside the creek on King street, when they saw the big tent built for the Port Perry fair directors by J. J. Turner standing there in all its magnitude. It covered a lot of space, and as soon as the boys found it was empty they speedily turned it into a circus for themselves. It is oblong in shape, 40x62 feet in dimension and 20 feet high, with a wall 7½ feet. It is supported by three large poles. Six hundred and fifty yards of the best canvas were used in its construction. The tent will be shipped to Port Perry to-night in charge of one of Mr. Turner's men, who will put it up for the fair there next week. The directors have also rented several smaller tents from Mr. Turner.

Burns' Club Meet To-Night.

This evening the Burns' Club will meet in the large hall over Welsh's confectionery, entrance next to Clegg's furniture store. More commodious quarters have been found necessary for the purposes of this club, and the above hall being centrally situated and conveniently furnished, has been selected as a very suitable place of meeting. Every member is urgently requested to attend the meeting this evening, as the committe appointed to prepare rules &c., for the new club have finished their work and will report thereon. All Scotchmen, descendents of Scotchmen, Canadians, and persons of other nationalities who are friends and admirers of auld Scotia's immortal poet, Robert Burns, are invited to attend the meeting this evening and enroll their names among the list of members.

A Steamer Burned.

The Cobourg Sentinel-Star gives the following additional particulars of the burning of the "Dora," as already noted in the EXAMINER:—On Tuesday night, of last week, the steamer Dora, owned by Mr. White, Harwood, was burned. She was lying at the dock when she took fire, until the rope by which she was moored parted and allowed her to drift about a mile, when she lodged in a rice bed and sunk. Mr. Dennis' yacht, and new scow, which were moored near the Dora, had a narrow escape, but suffered no damage. The Dora was insured in the Glasgow and London insurance company for $1,400, but as she cost a great deal more than this, and as the busy season for grain is just beginning, the loss to her owner will be heavy. It is not known how the fire occurred.

An Expensive Mistake.

Yesterday a young man from the country came to town, got full, and wishing to get fuller, strayed into the town clerk's office where an important committee were sitting, and demanded whiskey so vigorously that he was arrested and this morning brought before the Cadi. It was a mistake to suppose that he could get "snakes in his boots" in a town council committee, but he could get something better, in boots, that is big bargains, at gough bros., the wonderful cheap men. It couldn't be otherwise with a $6,000 stock of fine boots and shoes going like hot cakes at less than half whole sale cost. Don't let this golden opportunity slide. gough bros. have their big boots on and are wading into the boot and shoe trade in a manner to strike terror to the high price dealers. Tremendous bargains in all kinds of boots and shoes at gough bros.', 375 george street.

At the Opera House.

The Baird dramatic company occupies the boards next week.

This afternoon and evening the last performances of the Star Theatre Company will be given. To-night the sensational melodrama, "The streets of New York," will be presented.

A large audience, that comprised the best people in town, witnessed the presentation of "Meg Merrilies" by Madame Janauschek and her company Friday night. The play is a strong one and it was done full justice to. Madame Janauschek as "Meg," gave a vivid representation of her character as an old gipsy woman reputed to be a witch. Her death scene was a revelation of tragic art. The support was good, as a rule, Mr. Power as "Domine Sampson," and Miss Burrough's as "Lucy Bertram" being perhaps the best. Madame Janauschek and her company play at Lindsay to-night. The large and select audience assembled shows that Mr. Bradburn's enterprise in bringing first class productions before the public is appreciated, and that future efforts in the same direction will be gratefully recognized by the play-going public.

Police Court.

SATURDAY, Sept. 22.

Six more hotelkeepers and liquor dealers were fined $50 and costs each this morning for first violations of the Scott Act. They all pleaded guilty.

A young man from the country was run in while drunk last night. He wandered into the town clerk's office whilst the civic committees were in session, and pounded on the counter and called for a "glass 'er beer." He had evidently got into the wrong pew. He was dismissed this morning, it being his first offence.

Mr. Michael O'Brien charged Wm. Ross, alias General Tighe, with the larceny of a rubber coat. Ross claimed that he had bought the coat, but if O'Brien said it was his was willing to give it up. The court ordered the coat to be returned to the plaintiff, and the defendant was discharged, to appear again when called upon for judgment.

Every preparation is well advanced for the grand entertainment, consisting of calisthenics, gymnastics and military drill, to be presented by the pupils of the Collegiate Institute in the Charlotte street skating rink on Wednesday evening, Sept. 26th. Willow and Wicket.

The Colts and Vets. played again yesterday, the latter winning handily. This makes four games won by each team.

Cannon and Sailsbury proved the "big guns" at bowling for the Vets., while for the Colts Hamilton carried off the honors. The only good scores were made by Cannon, Hamilton and Cameron, all getting double figures. The Vets. only batted nine men, though they played a full field, a couple of the Colts assisting them.

Sporting Notes.

The Orillia News-Letter has conjured up a nice little phantasm that is no doubt very satisfactory to itself, but the illusion must be spoiled. It says that, in case Barrie and Bradford are suspended for playing ringers, "Orillia will be called on to furnish a team to carry the North-eastern district banner through the tournament." Not so; Orillia will first have to play off the tie with Peterborough, and in this it may, and probably will, get left. Then the Riversides will have the honor of "carrying the banner."

The tussle for the intermediate lacrosse championship of the C. L. A. will probably take place in Toronto next week, when the leading clubs of the eight districts will do battle with each other. Either Orillia or Peterborough will represent the North-eastern district. The other contestants will probably be: Brampton, Ingersoll, Stratford, Orangeville, Chatham and Listowel.

The Whitby baseball tournament "to decide the Midland district championship" has fallen through. Port Hope and Lindsay were sending teams there. Why not come to the Peterborough tournament at the exhibition next week?

Personal.

Mr. H. H. Smith, of Winnipeg, is in town visiting friends.

Mr. M. Tierney has returned from his trip to Avon Springs, N.Y., much improved in health.

Mr. C. C. Foster, general manager of the London Fire Assurance Corporation, is registered at the Oriental.

Mr. D. Shanahan and Mr. Jas. Flood, of Ennismore, have been visiting the Industrial and Buffalo exhibitions.

Mr. W. H. Dingle is ill at his home in Oshawa. His place as organist of the George street church will be supplied to-morrow by Mr. J. Crane.

Mr. W. R. Climie, editor of the Bowmanville Sun, beat the chess automaton at the Toronto Industrial Exhibition. It takes more than a mechanical "heathen Chinee" to down a Canadian editor.

Mr. John Collins, Hastings, license inspector for East Northumberland, and Mrs. Collins, brother and mother of the late Dr. Collins, are in town to-day, making arrangements for the winding up of the business affairs of the latter.

Beautiful Girls in Blue.

And they will look beautiful on Wednesday night, Sept. 26th—the Daughters of the Regiment—when they appear in their tasty and attractive uniforms. Misses Kingdon and Menzies have the order for sixty uniforms for the Collegiate Institute girls, and those for the "daughters of the regiment"—about forty—are about completed. The material is navy blue flannel. The blouse has closely set brass buttons, and is trimmed with white military braid. The breast is adorned with three frogs, and there are straps held down by buttons at the shoulder and wrist. The skirt is plain, of the same material, relieved by two rows of white braid at the bottom of the skirt. Every skirt reaches within five inches of the ground, thus uniformity is secured. The costume is completed by a navy blue cap—deer-stalker crown with peak in front only—trimmed with white braid and buttons. The uniforms will be beautiful and the daughters of the regiment will be drilled to perfection. Their performance at the rink on Sept. 26th will be the most delightful effect ever produced in Peterborough. Don't fail to see the "Daughters of the Regiment" and the other attractions of almost equal merit. Band and choruses, etc. d

Church Chimes.

George street Methodist church—The Rev. M. L. Pearson will preach to-morrow, both morning and evening. All are welcome.

Charlotte street Methodist church—Services by the pastor, Rev. S. J. Shorey, 11 a.m. and 7 p.m.

Baptist church, Murray street—Rev P. Clifton Parker, the pastor, will preach morning and evening. Evening subject, "An Unwise Choice." Strangers welcome. Church supported by voluntary offerings.

Brutal Discipline.

An officer of a French regiment condemned several soldiers for breach of discipline to run for three hours, carrying their rifles and full equipments. A corporal named Vallad at the end of two hours fell down exhausted. The sergeant wished to let him rest, but the superior officer insisted that he be made to get up and finish his task saying that he should run until he dropped dead. The corporal got up and shot himself dead with his rifle.

JOT it down and remember that TURNBULL shows 50 different styles of children's and misses' coats and ulsters, all handsome designs, on the opening days, Sept. 26 and 27. These goods were manufacturers' samples, bought at a bargain and will be sold cheap.

Bridge Matters.

The roads and bridges committee of the County Council met this forenoon and decided to close up the Pigeon Creek bridge, so that in future this means of communication will not be open for travel. The tenders for the rebuilding of Sullivan's bridge in Douro were opened, and the contract awarded to Mr. W. H. Law, his being the lowest.

According to the Louisville Courier-Journal, a reliable newspaper, Kentucky has six counties—Harlan, Knott, Perry, Letcher, Bell, and Leslie—that have never had a church within their border during the sixty or seventy years of their existence as counties.

—Mr. T. Kelly has in his possession an old due-bill made out by a Peterborough man, dated 20th June, 1840, for nine shillings currency.

—Mr. Fitzgerald, cheese buyer, has bought a car load of cheese off the board since the last meeting and shipped it yesterday. All the cheese boarded last Monday has been sold, excepting two factories.

MURDER NEAR STRATHROY

JONATHAN ROBINSON FOUND DEAD IN HIS OWN HOUSE.

His Throat Cut from Ear to Ear, His Skull Fractured and Both Arms Broken—Five Persons Drowned at Brockville.

STRATHROY, Sept. 23.—A murder was discovered on the second line, Adelaide, about four miles from here, on Saturday. Jonathan Robinson, an old bachelor English man 73 years old, was found lying on the floor of his house, where he lived alone, with his throat cut from ear to ear, his skull fractured and both arms broken. He had not been seen alive since Sept. 13 and his neighbors thought he went away to Michigan on that date. An inquest was opened at the house this morning by Coroner Lindsay and a jury empanelled when it adjourned until Monday in Strathroy. Robinson lived in Adelaide 35 years. After the postmortem he was buried this afternoon here.

BROCKVILLE, Sept. 23.—A terrible drowning accident occurred this morning five miles west of here. H. A. Field, hardware merchant; H. B. Wright, fruit merchant; Henry Bagg, bookkeeper, and Herbert and Fred. Shepherd, sons of Heman Shepherd, merchant, were drowned by the sinking of a sailing yacht in mid channel. It was blowing a gale, the yacht took in considerable water and being heavily ballasted she sank. The only one who survived was Frank Turner, druggist, who was picked up by a yawl boat from a passing tow.

A SUNDAY STABBING.

The Ambitious City Contributes Its Customary Affray.

HAMILTON, Sept. 23.—During an affray this evening about 7 o'clock Charles Gassett of Barlington-street, was stabbed in the shoulder and dangerously wounded. Several families draw water from the same well and while Gassett was so employed he got into an altercation with a neighbor named Mrs. Taylor, in which John Taylor, a son of the woman, took part. Gassett told Taylor to shut up and was about to strike him with his flat when Taylor drew a knife from his pocket and stabbed Gassett in the shoulder inflicting a dangerous wound about three inches deep. Taylor, who has a bad reputation, is still at large. The wound is an ugly one and may prove fatal.

Missing but Probably not Drowned.

QUEBEC, Sept. 23.—There is said to be reason to believe that the two lads, Pope and Paradis, who are missing, and whose boat was found capsized in the river, have not been drowned but have gone to the United States. It has been ascertained that they laid in quite a stock of clothing and provisions before they disappeared.

Windsor's Gain.

WINDSOR, Sept. 23. Mayor Beattie of this town says that next Saturday's Gazette will announce the annexation to the Town of Windsor of that populous portion of the Township of Sandwich West which is on the western outskirts of Windsor. This annexation will give to Windsor a large increase in its assessment and will bring it near the population required to make of it an incorporated city. The new portion will be known as the sixth ward, and Sandwich is now mourning the loss of the choicest part of herself.

THE PESTILENCE IN DIXIE

NEWS OF GREAT EXCITEMENT FROM ALL POINTS.

The Awful Scourge Grows Worse and Worse—Jacksonville's Fearful Death Roll—A Shot-Gun Quarantine Established.

JACKSONVILLE, Sept. 24.—Eight long weeks have passed since the first case of yellow fever, that of McCormic, was developed at the Grand Union Hotel. Yesterday the official records show a total of 1678 cases and 212 deaths. The daily list of cases and deaths during the past ten days has been fearful in a city the size of Jacksonville with two thirds of its people absent. Yesterday's record of new cases reached 133, of these 90 were colored people. The deaths reported yesterday are only 10 in number.

A special from McClenny reports five new cases and one death, that of Judge M. F. Schrey, a leading Republican politician and lawyer. Miss Mattie McCoy is not expected to live. The town is in great distress. Work of all kinds is suspended; and assistance is urgently needed. Additional aid will be sent from this place at once.

Supplies here are short, though large orders are in transit. Short rations will have to be issued if freights are delayed. Col. J. J. Daniel, president of the Citizens' Sanitary Association, has again been prostrated by over work.

The Shot-Gun Quarantine.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 22.—The Times, Democrat and The Picayune have received specials from almost every village or hamlet in Mississippi where there is a telegraph office, all of which show that a shot-gun quarantine has been established. The following from Columbus is given as a specimen:

The excitement here is intense and growing all the time. The Columbus Riflemen and Brown's Cadets have volunteered for duty, and a guard of four men under military regulations is stationed on each public road and on the railroads leading into the city with orders to let no one pass unless they are known to be from no infected locality. A strict quarantine will be established against the world and will be enforced too. This place has never had the fever and don't intend to if there is any way of keeping it out.

Precautions at Memphis.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 22.—The strict non-intercourse quarantine regulations adopted by the city authorities yesterday against all passenger trains on all the railroads on the east side of the Mississippi River are being rigidly enforced. Gov. Tayler at Nashville was asked this morning to call out the militia and to place it under orders from the city authorities to aid in the enforcement of quarantine.

A special train from New Orleans containing 500 fleeing refugees from that city, Vicksburg and other points along the line of the Louisville, New Orleans and Memphis railroad will arrive at Lake View, Miss., 20 miles south of Memphis, this afternoon. A special detail of police will meet the train, coaches have been provided by the several lines over which they may have tickets, the transfer will be made, then each coach will be locked, the passengers guarded through Memphis and sent on to their destination.

There are now sixty cases of yellow fever at Decatur, Ala. The town is almost depopulated. All the telegraph operators except the train despatchers have fled.

The Situation at Jackson.

JACKSON, Miss., Sept. 22.—One new case of yellow fever was reported up to noon, that of Lewis Livingston, a colored man at the Illinois Central depot. Robt Harris, a colored freight handler at the Illinois Central depot, died to-day of what was probably yellow fever. The Mayor has issued orders for the protection of property and all persons who have not been exposed are urged to leave on a through train to be provided. The fire bells will be rung at 9 p. m, and all persons must then retire. A quarantine station has been established at Asylum City, two miles north of the city, and the Illinois Central Railroad has been requested to deliver freight and express at that point. The weather is very warm and the people are hopeful as could be expected without trains, mails or supplies. The Howard Association is at work but have no means to work with. The telegraph office is overcrowded and many telegrams are unanswered because the parties to whom they are addressed are absent.

SMALLPOX IN BUFFALO.

Thirteen Cases Saturday—Ten of Them in One Building.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 22.—Ten new cases of small-pox were discovered in a tenement on the east side to-day. Some of the ailing had had the disease for a considerable time and the occupants of the building strenuously resisted the attempt of the health physicians to enter, and the doctors were obliged to force an entrance. The men of the families occupying the building had been at work every day, and the stores and saloons on the ground floor were run as usual. Another case was discovered on Lovejoy-street and still another on Ashley-street, and these, with the wife of Deputy Controller Albro, make the roster for the day thirteen cases.

There is an intense excitement growing and gathering in the city, not only in the upper part of the city but all over as the facts are coming to light in connection with the spread of the small-pox. This excitement will grow into a panic unless the Board of Health takes decisive and immediate measures to convince and satisfy the people that all is being done that can be done to prevent the spread of this disease.

DEATH OF BAZAINE.

The Ex-Marshal Passes Away at Madrid—A Veteran of Many Wars.

LONDON, Sept. 23.—A despatch from Madrid announces that ex-Marshal Bazaine died in that city to-day.

[Francois Achille Bazaine was born in Versailles, Feb. 13, 1811, enlisted as a private in 1831, became a lieutenant in Algeria in 1835, lieutenant-colonel in 1848, general in the Crimean war, was wounded in the Italian campaign, bore a conspicuous part in the Mexican war, during which he was made marshal in 1864, commanded the third army corps at the outset of the Franco-Prussian war and assumed command of the main French armies on Aug. 8, was hermetically shut up in Metz by Prince Frederick Charles to whom he surrendered with 173,000 men on Oct. 27.]

Queer-Shavers Arrested at Clinton.

GODERICH, Sept. 22.—Three men named Smith, Johnston and McCabe were arrested at the Clinton fair yesterday and lodged in jail here last night charged with "shoving the queer." They had been placing in circulation bogus quarter-dollars and were caught in the act. George Smith, one of the party, is a resident of this town and some years ago ran a hotel here. The counterfeits were poorly executed.

Mr. Chesney Under a Cloud.

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—J. B. Chesney, manager of the Chicago branch of the cigar manufactory of Head Bros., of Barnesville, O., was arrested this afternoon on a warrant charging him with larceny. Some time ago, it is alleged, the firm began to suspect that there were irregularities in the Chicago office and on checking up the books found a shortage of $2,800. Albert Head, the senior member of the firm, came to Chicago, and it is said found the office closed and Chesney absent. No trace could be found of a miscellaneous lot of stock and property valued at $2,000. A warrant was sworn out and Chesney was put under arrest.

Hog Cholera in Ohio.

WASHINGTON C. H., O., Sept. 23.—Hog cholera has struck this county again. On the farms of Judge Gregg, Adin N. Thompson, George Hays, Harlan Hays, Betty Smith and the Roebuck lands, over 700 hogs have recently died, and sick ones are lying around by the score. Judge Gregg has lost eighty head and thirty more are sick.

A BAREFACED FRAUD.

Floating Clouds Upon Titles by Quit Claim Deeds of no Actual Value.

BISMARCK, D. T., Sept. 23.—George W. Sweet, a lawyer of Minneapolis, has offered for record a quit claim deed from one Oscar Swanson, of Livingstone M. T., to Sweet for a quarter section of the town site of Bismarck, or what may be called the east half of the town, the consideration being only $300. The instrument purports to be a reconfirmation of a sale made by Swanson March 17, 1872, wherein Swanson sold and conveyed to Sweet a certain claim known as a squatter's claim. The Registrar of deeds refuses to record the deed on the ground that it is a bold and inexcusable attempt to cloud the title of five or six hundred thousand dollars' worth of property including half of the Court House. Swanson's claim is absolutely nothing, but once recorded a thousand people will be obliged to commence explaining it or buying quit claims from Sweet.

Race Between Iron Horses.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Sept. 23.—One of the most spirited races ever made between passenger trains on railways centering in Pittsburg was made yesterday. On the Pittsburg & Lake Erie is a train which arrives here at 1 o'clock. On the Erie & Pittsburg is one which arrives twenty-five minutes later. The two arrived at Wampum, Pa., at the same time, and at the same moment left for Beaver Falls, twelve miles. The tracks of the two roads run parallel to each other, on opposite sides of the Beaver River. As soon as the race began, the passengers got excited, and with hats and handkerchiefs waving urged the engineers to greater speed. Mile after mile the trains sped on, almost abreast, until a short distance from Beaver Falls, when the Erie and Pittsburg made a dash and pulled into Beaver Falls a train length ahead of the Lake Erie. The distance of twelve miles was made in ten and one half minutes.

He Voodooed His Wife.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 23.—Louis Hill, a negro, five years ago resolved to get rid of his wife in order to wed a dusky belle who had enslaved him. He consulted a voodoo priestess, who told him to extract the poison from a moccasin snake and administer it to his wife in the seventh hour of the seventh day following.

He succeeded in capturing a moccasin, but the reptile was so vicious that he was afraid to make the extraction of its poison bag. He therefore cut off its head and boiled it into the coffee, which his wife drank at breakfast. She was immediately taken ill and for a week lingered between life and death, but finally recovered. The snake's head was found among the coffee grounds, which Hill had thrown beside his cabin, and he was arrested and indicted for an attempt at murder. He escaped and has only now been captured.

Wholesale Grocers Form a Trust.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—The Wholesale Grocers' Association was formed for the express purpose of fighting the sugar trust, but subsequently it was determined to control the other branches of the grocery trade. The first step was taken at a meeting some weeks ago, and the purpose was by organizing to compel the trust to sell sugar to the members of the association exclusively at a rebate of one-half cent a pound. F. W. Inbusch, of Milwaukee, was elected secretary. The association further proposes to make arrangements looking for rebates of various other large manufacturers of articles largely used in the grocers' trade. Some of the wholesale grocers do not think that this grocer' trust, for that is practically what it is, can succeed. A meeting was held yesterday to decide on a plan of action.

Love and Razors.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Sept. 23.—Daniel Dickerson, a colored man, is a bootblack who has for some time past displayed more than a paternal affection for his step-daughter. He made improper proposals to her and she indignantly rebuked him and complained to her mother and a row followed. The wife had by far the best of the argument when Dickerson sought his apartment and secured a razor. He sharpened the instrument and then informed his wife and step-daughter that he intended to carve them. He chased them from the house and then threw their clothing after them. He was arrested.

Sovereign Grand Lodge I. O. O. F.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 23.—The Sovereign Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., held its final session yesterday. The newly elected officers were installed in the afternoon. Grand Sire Underwood made the following appointments: Grand Marshal, John H. Albin; Grand Guardian, C. C. Pearce; Grand Messenger, W. H. Frazier. After resolutions of thanks to the citizens of Los Angeles for their hospitality the Sovereign Grand Lodge adjourned sine die.

Skipped with Her Brother-in-Law.

LONDON, Ont., Sept. 23.—A young lady of Brooke Township and her brother-in-law have been missing over two weeks. The young lady went to Watford ostensibly to visit a friend and remain a week. The first morning after her arrival she took the train to Sarnia, and her brother-in-law is said to have gone with her. It is supposed they have taken up their abode with Uncle Sam. They did not go empty-handed, as he borrowed over $200 before leaving.

Embezzler Bedell's Examination Postponed.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—James E. Bedell, who embezzled over $250,000 from his employers, Shipman, Barlow, Larocque & Choate, was taken to the Tombs Court Saturday by Police Captain McLaughlin, but his examination was postponed until Thursday. Emerson & Goss, with whom Bedell claims to have lost $127,000 at policy, furnished bail in $5000 each to answer the charges against them.

A Murderer Sentenced to be Hanged.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—Patrick Kelly, the seaman who stabbed to death two of his shipmates—John Chapman and John Parry—on the National Line steamer Erin while on a voyage from London for New York, and who was brought back to England for trial, was to-day convicted. He was sentenced to be hanged.

THE LATE KAISER'S DIARY

GERMANY DEEPLY STIRRED BY ITS REVELATIONS.

Extracts Which Reviews the Greatness and Nobility of Frederick—A Page of History to Unwritten History.

BERLIN, Sept. 24.—The publication of the late Emperor Frederick's diary is everywhere recognized as an event of the greatest national importance. Official and political circles, however, that are intimately versed in the innermost history of the construction of the Empire have been astounded by the publication, whilst the whole German people are stirred to their very depths by revelations which show the real greatness of the deceased Emperor Frederick, his influence in creating the Empire and his noble aims for its future. Baron Roggenbach, it seems, had the assent of the Empress Victoria to the publication of the extracts, but neither Prince Bismarck nor the present Emperor William was consulted. It is, therefore, thought probable that the publication will have some startling results as affecting the personages concerned in the revelations. It is significant that The North German Gazette (Bismarck's organ) has not yet mentioned the diary.

The National Zeitung complains of the indiscretion of the publication as shown in the selection of the passages and says it was obviously not intended by the Emperor Frederick that they should ever be made public. It instances the revelations that at Versailles there was much friction between the Emperor (then Crown Prince) and Prince Bismarck over the declaration of the existence of the German empire, that Bismarck drafted the letter in which the King of Bavaria is made to appear as having reluctantly invited King William, of Prussia, to assume the imperial dignity, and that in October of 1870 Bismarck informed the Grand Duke of Baden of his determination to wage persistent war against the papal doctrine of "infallibility" and to otherwise assail the influence of the Catholic Church in Germany. It is argued that a disclosure of the nature of this vast revelation is alike wanton and imprudent and will tend to revive the slumbering fires of the Kulturkampf again and to direct the rage of the Clericals against Bismarck as the sole origin of the policy of the repression of Catholics.

Another of these indiscreet revelations is pointed out to be the statement of the deceased emperor that during the negotiations at Versailles it was proposed to proclaim as King of France Leopold II., king of the Belgians, M. Thiers said he would favor the scheme if it implied a union of Belgium and France. The diary does not state the reason for the abandonment of the proposal, but the French people will accurately surmise that Prince Bismarck's project to create a Franco-Belgian monarchy implied the disruption of France into several states and the acquisition by Belgium of the northern provinces. The project is certain of revival if France should be crushed in the coming war.

The most touching feature of the diary is the evidence of the unfailing kindliness of Crown Prince Frederick's disposition and his diffidence of character. On July 24, 1870, the eve of the French campaign, he writes: "At the baptism of my last born the king was too much affected to hold the child. Which of us will come back? I am appointed to act on the flanks of the principal army. I shall scarcely be able to carry out the great enterprise." When victory was declared on the side of the Germans he comforts a French colonel, a prisoner, who had said, "We have lost everything," by replying: You are wrong in saying that you have lost everything—having fought like brave soldiers you have "not lost your honor."

Referring to the attitude of England after the German triumph was assured, he writes on Oct. 2: "The Queen who follows our actions with touching sympathy telegraphs to the King, exhorting him to high-souled dealings." Commenting on the fact that each side appealed to heaven in its own behalf, there occurs, on Dec. 25, the following entry: "It is really a piece of irony on the message of good will that each party calls on God to aid its righteous cause. In every success we incline to prove by it the support of heaven against our opponents."

The last entry before the return to Germany displays the nobleness of the man: "March 8. When I see my endeavors to help the oppressed acknowledged by Germany and her neighbors, and that the people are gaining confidence in my future, I feel quite happy. Moral earnestness and political convictions can only be the result of inward maturity, of inward struggles which must be continued daily and for which one's self is responsible."

While the semi-official press condemn the publication the Progressist papers are exultant. The Vossische Zeitung calls the diary a political legacy deserving to be treasured by the German people to be the touchstone for politics in the future. The brief memoranda are worth more to history, it says, than many other sovereigns' entire reign.

"Had nothing become known of these notes," says The Vienna Freie Press, "but Emperor Frederick's simple declaration that his uppermost thought after peace was obtained is how the liberal development of Germany is to be carried out, that alone would stamp the noble character of the prince. A cruel fate prevented the carrying into effect of the enlightened program of the government."

The Czar's unexpected appearance in Poland amid the troops concentrated toward the Galician frontier has caused excitement in Austrian circles. His presence, however, has not been accompanied by any movement of troops. The Moscow press says that the journey to Poland had been long arranged, the Czar desiring to sojourn for some time among the troops on the western frontier before starting for the Caucasus. His presence is a reminder that the war cloud has not dispersed. Another reminder is a German-Russian war dictionary issued from the state printing office at Vienna and distributed among the Austrian and German armies. It gives dialogs in Polish and Russian relating to necessary objects required during a campaign, especially requisitions for provisions, and to all signs used in Russian military maps. The book has created a sensation in Rus

The Chronicles of Chestnut Camp.

The 20th Annual Outing of the Chestnut Camp.

On a certain Friday, a party left for a two weeks outing on the lakes under the chaperonage of Uncle Rastus and his better half. It was composed of the following ladies: Topsy, Meg and two Yanks, who sailed under the cognomens of the Countess and Mehetible, also another young lady who was called Susan Jane for short. They were accompanied by one of the young gentlemen, named Bolivar, to look after the effects, which comprised five hand boxes, twenty-eight valises, seven hand satchels, twelve baskets, nine cases and other articles too numerous to mention. They arrived without mishap, thanks to the all-seeing eye of Bolivar and Uncle Rastus. The next evening the following gentlemen left to join the party: Putty alias McGarigle, Cross Cut, better known as Doc, Balbriggan alias James Mason, and Ferule who sometimes signs himself as C.C.B. They took up four mongrels, seven fowling pieces, and a seven by nine octave basso cow-bell, imported by Cross Cut from New York regardless of expense for the occasion. They arrived at Lakefield via the suburban under the able management of genial Conductor Steen. Here the party were seriously handicapped by the escape of two mongrels and a fowling piece. Embarked safely on steamer Cruiser, had not left Lakefield ten minutes before a happy thought struck Cross Cut, he would invent a camp cry, and invent it he did, "What's the matter with us? Oh, we are all right, which accompanied by frequent bowls from the cow bell made Rome howl. Passing one camp they gave the cry, the family cat ran up a tree and stayed there for three days, and the house dog struck for McCrackes's and has not been seen since. "Chained Lightning" reached camp all O.K. and gave them a salute, where upon Uncle Rastus appeared in dishabille carrying a musket with the safe end towards himself. On making themselves known they were allowed to land in comparative safety. The ladies immediately made themselves popular by giving a hand out. After lunching we retired to rest and slept the sleep of the innocent. Sunday was passed quietly, boating strictly prohibited; we retired early; and Putty enlivened the evening by reading selections from Chained Lightning to a select few. Visited Clegg's on Monday, inspected the paintings which adorn the walls and registered in fourteen languages. 'Cheers from Ferule.' Putty captured a snake on the return trip and brought it back to camp amid loud protests from the Countess. Cross Cat took charge of the great small boy on this expedition. The next excursion was to Eel's Creek; creek very low, hard work getting up. The trip was enlivened by the ladies singing the latest song, entitled, "White wings." In the silence that ensued a wee small voice was heard to ask "Why don't they dam the Mississippi at St. Louis?" It was investigated and found to proceed from Balbriggan. Cross Cat sobbed aloud, Bolivar looked in vain for a club, three of the young ladies fainted and Susan Jane went into hysterics. Balbriggan was found guilty of a misdemeanor but was let off with a solemn warning.

Reached home and were not sorry. Had a dance that evening. Music was provided by Uncle Rastus, who played a classic violin selection entitled "Old Dan Tucker," which was rendered twenty-nine times to the intense satisfaction of the assembled multitude. Cross Cut acted as floor manager, and did it up brown; and we girls enjoyed it immensely. The next place of interest visited was Mr. Church's, at Mount Julian, and we carried off numerous trophies of his skill in inlaid work boxes, carvings in red cedar, and etc. As the lake was very rough this week, canoeing was at a discount. The crew of the "Nellie," under Capt. Cross Cut, did some tall sailing, however, coming from Pompadour to Sharp's Point in twenty-five minutes by Putty's stop watch, which broke the record for the summer. Had a visitor Friday, Miss Birdie McGinnis, of Nogey's Creek, who came via Cruiser, and brought her knitting. Bolivar embarked on the same boat for town; to replenish the larder. In the evening the boys held a camp meeting in the big tent. Smoked a few "Noisy Boys," and, after readering a new song imported by Miss Birdie, called "Sweet Dream Faces," were completely tuckered out and retired to rest. Next day, after muzzling the mongrels and chloroforming the Cow Ball, we left for Barleigh, dropping Miss Birdie, "who did not care to go," at Julian's. Reached Barleigh all right. The boats managed by Balbriggan and Putty fell in the rear, and came out of the small end of the horn with regard to lunch. However, they repaired to Holme's hotel and did ample justice to the sumptuous repast set before them by the hostess. After visiting the locks, docks, rocks, and other points of interest around there, we embarked for home. On the way down visited Fairy Lake, a beautiful sheet of water lying some feet above the level of Stony Lake. A peculiar feature of this lake is that it has no visible outlet or inlet. Ferule got off a few stale puns on the way down, but a delegation composed of Putty, Cross Cut and Balbriggan led him behind a rock and expostulated with him in seventeen languages, threatening that if he did not desist they would have to dip him in the drink. Bolivar returned that night, bringing a large supply of eatables—fourteen cases in all—and a large cake for Miss McGinnis. This cake mysteriously disappeared the same evening; of course "as girls" did not know anything about it. Putty was heard to remark confidentially to Balbriggan that he still wondered at crime. That night there was a great demand in the big tent for Perry Davis' Pain-Exterminator. Sunday passed in peace and quietness; in the evening Putty and Balbriggan, accompanied by Meg and Susan Jane, left to attend camp meeting at Juniper Island. Their intentions were good. But rough was the lake, and the boys were 'wake, so they made their way to the back channel, where a sing song service was ably conducted by Balbriggan. Monday, Miss Birdie McGinnis and the two Yanks, accompanied by Ferule, left for home amid sobs from the entire party. The balance of the crowd hied themselves off to the Blue Mountains. Reached the mouth of Jacks' creek at noon and had lunch, then struck the road which runs to the lake—at this point by more luck than good guidance. The walking was good on the way up, and the scenery was magnificent. In some places the land looked as if under cultivation. The bush fires have swept all through this part of the country, clearing everything before them. Walked until the finger-post was reached; thought they were almost there, but, alas! had only started; travelled on, encouraged by fleeting views of the mountain, but at last began to despair of reaching it that day, and would have turned back had not Balbriggan and Bolivar, who formed the advance guard, returned in haste with the joyful news that the mine had been reached. Making a last grand effort, they arrived. The mine is situated at the foot of the mountains; however, it is not being worked at present, probably on account of the great difficulty of transportation. Meg, Topsy and Pretty were the only ones of the party who ascended the mountain, but they were amply repaid for their trouble by the beautiful view that lay beneath them. Thoroughly satisfied with their trip, the party retraced their steps to the landing and embarked for home, reaching there at 9.30 p.m. The balance of the week passed quietly, the only excitement was the arrival of Miss Emmeralda McGinnis, of St. Kits—no relation of Miss Birdie's, however. She was staying at a neighboring camp and visited quite often. Cross Cut was the life of the party, making himself popular by singing various songs and doing some excellent carving for the young ladies in red cedar. Thursday night had the last call of the season, stayed out till one a.m., and Esmeralda was reproved in fourteen tongues while the crowd stood by and wept. Friday morning everything packed, tents all down, boat arrived at 4 p.m., and after saying good-bye to Sharp's Point Camp, which looked quite desolate, we started for home, amid sobs from Esmeralda, who stood waving her hands till the boat disappeared. Reached home in a drizzling rain, much benefitted by their two weeks' outing. Held a couple of at-homes in town before the party broke up, and Saturday saw the last of our Yankee friends, who left for home. This finishes one of the most enjoyable trips we girls ever had.

PUELLA.

No Such Man in Apsley.

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

DEAR SIR,—Will you kindly allow me a small space in your next weekly issue to make a correction in an item which appeared in your daily paper of the 18th ult., under the head of Police Court News, wherein a young man who gave his name as Robert Young, from Apsley, was sentenced to three months in goal for robbing a clothesline. I wish to say that there is no such a man in or near Apsley of that name. I am perfectly well aware that this back country bears a hard name in town, but in this case the man Young has sadly maligned us. I rather fancy that before any Apsleytonians would be guilty of such an act as robbing a clothesline, that they would pay the Gough Bros., the renowned cheap clothiers, a visit. I am very sorry to trouble you with this communication, but I think that it is absolutely necessary in common justice to ourselves.

Yours truly,
P.S.

Great Little Men.

Some of the greatest men that ever lived were of small stature and insignificant appearance. The reader will readily recall many instances. Very small are Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets, but they are far more effective than the huge, old-fashioned pills which are so difficult to swallow and so harsh in their action. The "Pellets" are gentle and never cause constipation. For liver, stomach and bowel derangements they have no equal. a

ONE of the reasons why Scott's Emulsion has such a large sale is because it is the best. Dr. W. H. Cameron, Halifax, N.S., says: "I have prescribed Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites for the last two years, and found it more agreeable to the stomach and have better results from its use than any other preparation of the kind I have ever used." MAGGIE AND THE PROFESSOR.

A Breach of Promise Suit in Montreal—Baxter v. The Mail.

MONTREAL, Sept. 22.—Miss Maggie McDonald is suing Prof. Hopkins for $5000 damages for breach of promise of marriage. The professor's property in this city has also been seized. Miss McDonald gave birth to a child on Sept. 4.

Three more burglaries during last night are reported.

A fire in Roy's carriage making establishment on St. Antoine-street this morning did $3000 damage, no insurance.

The firm of T. M. Kutner, clothier, etc., has assigned with liabilities of about $1800.

The mysterious disappearance is announced of an old and respected Montrealer, John McKinnon, formerly of the well-known McGill-street tailoring establishment of Leonard & McKinnon. It is now nearly three months since he has been seen or heard from.

Judgment was rendered to-day in the Court of Appeals in the case of James Baxter v. The Mail. The action, which is for alleged criminal libel, arises out of the publication by The Mail of the words "Baxter will be gone to-morrow," said to have been spoken by Liquidator Howland during the Central Bank investigation, and the defendant claims that it had simply reported an occurrence which had taken place in open court. The Court of Appeals decided unanimously in favor of Baxter.

Sir George Stephen and Sir Donald A. Smith have agreed to donate $60,000 for the Molson-Frothingham property immediately adjoining the abandoned site for the erection of the Royal Victoria Hospital.

CANADA AND THE STATES.

Senator Sherman's Annexation Suggestions Discussed By The London Spectator.

LONDON, Sept. 24.—The Spectator discusses Senator Sherman's suggestions regarding annexation, and says: "Canada will dispose of her own destinies. We see no reason to believe that she proposes being absorbed in the Great Republic. It is always a matter of surprise that the attractions of the mighty State by their side have been so small for the Canadians. Were there a union of the Dominion and the United States, no state on earth would have such territory, such position, such potential resources for influencing the history of mankind; but apparently the Canadians would rather remain British than be freed from foreign troubles by becoming citizens of the Union. Moreover we begin to think that they feel they have a third alternative. Why should they not be national, with a history of their own? At present they are a colony, but if a change should appear inevitable—if England should appear effete—Canadians would certainly try to become a nation. For the present they can wait."

MANITOBA MATTERS.

The Accessories in the Winnipeg Mock Marriage Remanded.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 23.—Deegan and Strachan were remanded until Wednesday for aiding in the McKay-Betsworth mock marriage. Strachan says he was innocently drawn into procuring the license and was not a witness to the marriage.

General Sir Fred Middleton arrived with ex-Speaker Kirkpatrick yesterday and inspected the Infantry School.

It is said that F Co., Ninetieth Battalion, will resign owing to the award of the medal in the rifle contest which they won but didn't get.

Make a Note of This.

Pain banished as if by magic. Polson's Nervilline is a positive and almost instantaneous remedy for external, internal, or local pains. The most active remedy hitherto known falls far short of Nervilline for potent power in the relief of nerve pain. Good for external or internal use. Buy a 10 cent trial bottle. Large bottles 25 cents, at all druggists. 6d39

A Double Recommendation.

"We have used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and find that for diarrhœa it cannot be equalled. We cannot speak too highly of it." Ernest Clare Cross and Roy Neil Cross, Jasper, Ont., April 29th, 1888. 6dw39

The Double Liability.

A weak and low constitution, impure blood, etc., causes a double liability to contract disease. Purify the blood and remove all worn out matter and disease-breeding impurities from the body by using Burdock Blood Bitters which thoroughly cleanses, regulates and tones the entire system. 6dw39

Is Cholera Coming?

When symptoms of cholera appear, prompt remedies should be resorted to. Miss Mary E. Davis, of Lakeville, Ont., says—"My brother was bad with cholera morbus and after using one bottle of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, it cured him entirely." 6dw39

A Railway Smash Up

calls vividly to mind the appaling spectre of death, and yet no thought is taken of the thousands annually dying through disease caused by wrong action of the stomach, liver, kidneys or bowels, and which might be remedied by the use of B. The Growth of the Hair

Should always be watched. Inattention to the hair often leads to premature greyness and baldness. When dandruff appears it should be looked after at once. By frequently using a bottle of Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic, the scalp will be kept in a clean healthy condition and the strength and vigor of the hair greatly promoted. It is the only reliable. Do not be talked into using anything else. For sale by all druggists everywhere. dw

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. Lyman, Sons & Co., Montreal, Wholesale Agents. dw

A Helping Hand

is most appreciated when it is most needed, and that it is that Burdock Blood Bitters gains more favor yearly by lending the weakened system valuable assistance in removing all impurities and building up a strong, healthy body. 6dw39

An Unusually Large Funeral.

The funeral procession of the late Mrs. Wm. Forster was one of the most lengthy that ever passed through the town to Little Lake Cemetery, showing in what high estimation the deceased lady and her husband were held. Her last illness, which was heart disease, was long and painful, but her sufferings were borne with exemplary Christian patience. She was a member of the Charlotte Street Methodist Church, and a constant attendant. Her death deprives a husband of a faithful wife; and seven children of a loving mother's care.

Central Exhibition.

A meeting of the directors of the Central Exhibition was held on Saturday afternoon. A communication from the secretary of the Agricultural and Arts Association was received, stating that the term of Mr. Robt. Vance as member of the council for this district would expire with the present year, and suggesting to the board to take steps to appoint a successor. The directors decided to meet during the fair as follows, on the grounds:—On Tuesday at 5 o'clock p.m.; on Wednesday and Thursday at 10 a. m. and 5 p.m. on each day. Other business, involving complete arrangements for the exhibition, was attended to.

An Evangelist Nobleman.

Lord A. Cecil and Mr. McNeish addressed meetings in the old music hall Sunday afternoon and evening. Both gentlemen are earnest, if not eloquent, speakers, and have devoted their lives and fortunes to the cause. Lord Cecil is a son of the Marquis of Exeter, and a cousin of the present prime minister of England, Lord Salisbury. While in town the visitors stopped at Mr. E. Green's on the market square. Mr. McNeish has returned to Toronto, but Lord Cecil may remain in town for a few days. Mr. Hayhoe, the gentleman who was to have accompanied Lord Cecil here, was detained on account of the illness of a relative, and Mr. McNeish came down from Toronto on Saturday night to assist Lord Cecil in his Sunday meetings.

An Excursion from Belleville.

The Carpenters' Brotherhood of Belleville had an excursion to Peterborough to-day. The fifty or more members of the fraternity, with their wives and families, came up on a special train this forenoon and are to-day "doing the city." Their train leaves the station about six o'clock to-night.

A Case of "Condition."

Five hotelkeepers of Peterborough were summoned last Saturday to appear before Mr. Justice Thackeray at Roseneath, to answer to the charge of selling liquor to an Indian. The complaint had been laid by one R. Sherin, and the Indian in the case was Elijah Chubb. Mr. A. P. Poussette, Q.C., conducted the case for the defendants, and though in his evidence the Indian swore he had got liquor of all the defendants, he also admitted that he and Sherin had made it up between them for he (Chubb) to come to Peterborough and buy the liquor, Sherin to lay the complaint, and the two of them would share the half of the fines that would go to the prosecutor. The Justice in his judgment stated that in view of this fact he could only dismiss the case, where there was such an evident attempt at conspiracy.

Condolence.

The following resolution of condolence was passed at the last meeting of the Peterborough Medical Society:

"We, the members of the Peterborough Medical Society, having learned with sincere regret of the death of our late friend and brother practitioner, Dr. Collins, take this opportunity of conveying to his sorrowing family and friends our heartfelt sympathy in their sad bereavement. As a member of our Society he was prominent in promoting its best interests, and, from the diligence with which he applied himself to his professional duties, gave promise of a life of usefulness and success. In his intercourse with his professional brethren he was always kind and courteous and in his untimely death we sustain a severe loss and our town loses a useful citizen." The Society, out of respect to their late confrere, dispensed with the usual business.

The Burns Club.

The adjourned weekly meeting of the Burns Club was held on Saturday evening in the hall over Welsh's fruit store. The President, Mr. James Hendry, occupied the chair, and called the meeting to order at 8.30 o'clock. There were quite a number of new sympathisers present, and as this was an adjourned meeting for completing the organization of the club, all were invited to take part in the proceedings. The report of the Committee on Rules, &c., was read and submitted. A lengthy discussion took place on rule 3, which defined the status of membership. The debate which ensued demonstrated that the members of the club had views to express, and knew how to express them freely. As considerable difference of opinion prevailed on the question, the meeting decided to adjourn until Friday, the 28th instant, in order to give time for fuller consideration. All who feel an interest in the organization of the club on a sound and proper basis should attend the meeting next Friday.

Almost Two Accidents.

On Saturday as Mr Geo. Dawson was driving out of Belleghem's wood yard, corner London and Aylmer streets, facing the track of the Midland railway, the lines became crossed, and at the same time a freight train was passing. Being unable to control the horse or stop him, the driver had to jump off the load and take the animal by the head to prevent his being run over by the train. He barely succeeded, and had so close a call that, as he was standing by the horse's head, holding him back, the wheels of the passing train tore the heels off his boots. No reasonable man could expect a narrower escape from serious injury or a terrible death. About the same time, the same afternoon, Mr. D. Belleghem was delivering a child's burial casket in North Monaghan, and his horse, a young animal, came suddenly upon the dead body of a horse lying alongside the road. The living horse suddenly turned around, tearing the shafts out of the vehicle, but doing no further damage.

A Central Exhibition Sensation.

To-morrow the Central Exhibition opens, and there will be a sensation created not mentioned on the bills. Two rival exhibitors are at dagger's points already, and it is expected there will be fun when they meet at the exhibition. But it will create less sensation than the sensational and stupendous slaughter sale of boots and shoes now going on at gough bros.' store, 375 george street. Here the public are revelling in bargains in boots and shoes, such as a $6,000 stock bought at 40 cents on the dollar and sold at half wholesale cost, and the well-known generosity of gough bros., afford. There is bound to be great competition this week between the town people and the visitors at the exhibition as to which will be first served. The former think that after the country people have their go at gough bros.' big bargains, few will be left for them. There will be plenty left, but, to make sure, come to gough's before the rush begins on Wednesday. First come, first served, is the rule. Don't forget that on Saturday, from 11 to 12 o'clock, gough bros. will sell a certain line of ladies' boots, worth $1.50, for 29 cents. Don't forget that astounding bargains may be had every day of the week at gough bros., 375 george street.

Typhoid Fever at Bridgenorth.

Dr. Clarke, medical health officer, was seen to-day by the EXAMINER with reference to the prevalence of typhoid fever at Bridgenorth. Dr. Clarke stated that he had been asked by the Smith council to investigate the cause and remedy of the disease. He had examined about a dozen samples of water taken from the wells used by afflicted families, and had found all of them impure, some very impure. The water of Fobert's well was, he said, the best of all, though itself not strictly pure. Then he had made a thorough inspection of the village, and found many sanitary defects as regards the disposal of slops, the arrangement and care of premises, etc. He had issued notices to all parties whose premises needed renovation, and as a result of these steps, he believes, there have since been no new cases reported. The Smith council have done all they can in the matter, and it is probable there will be no fresh outbreak of the disease. Dr. Clarke said there were about fifteen cases of typhoid and typho-malarial fever in the village, and as far as he could learn, none outside the village in the immediate vicinity. None of these have, as yet, proved fatal. The doctor says he believes the epidemic is due to the prevalence of malarious winds from the marshes along the shore of the lake at Bridgenorth, which are developed by impure water and other sanitary defects as mentioned above. Now that the disease has been got pretty well under control the people of Bridgenorth should guard against diphtheria, which it seems, is very liable to follow an epidemic of fever. Last summer and fall in Peterborough there was a great deal of fever, and in November an outbreak of diphtheria occurred. For some reason or other, Dr. Clarke says, this very often occurs unless guarded against.

A Bold Thief.

He Enters Several Houses and Steals a Coat on George Street in Broad Day Light.

Saturday night a couple of tough looking characters were arrested on suspicion of having stolen a coat from the front of Sheppard's clothing store. They gave their names as Henry Fabe and John O'Neil. The latter has been about town for some time, and at one time travelled with a circus as a glass-eater and tattooed man. They were remanded till next Saturday.

Saturday evening about half past five a couple of boys standing across the street observed a "tramp take down a coat from the front of Sheppard's store and make off with it. They followed the fellow to the lumber yard below Comstock's, where they saw him deliberately remove his old coat and put the new one on. Then one of them came back and gave the alarm while the other watched, but when Mr. Sheppard arrived the thief had escaped through the other side of the yard. The police were notified and the two men arrested as suspects.

It has since transpired that a little later in the evening a pair of pants belonging to another suit was also stolen from Sheppard's. Mr. J. J. Turner says one of the fellows entered his house, corner of King and George streets, Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Turner happened to go upstairs between four and five o'clock and found a strange man in one of the bedrooms. She asked him what he was doing, and the fellow replied that he was looking for a man who owed him a bill. Mrs. Turner promptly ordered him from the house and he went. About the same time this same man was found in a bedroom in Henry's hotel, further up the street. How the fellow got in both places without being seen is a mystery. He must have gone about it very slily, as his discovery in both cases was accidental. From the description given by the lads who saw the coat thief, it is thought he is the same fellow.

Personal.

Mr. G. A. Milner, of the Lakefield Chronicle, spent Sunday in town.

Mr. G. G. Gladman, of Perry Harbour, is in town for a few days' stay.

It is Mrs. H. Smith who is visiting friends in town, not Mr. H. H. Smith as announced in the EXAMINER by typographical error on Saturday.

The Chicago British-American says:—Mrs. Sanderson and Miss Minnie Sanderson, of Peterborough, Ont., are the guests of Mr. William McCullagh and family.

Mr. John J. Shea, city bill poster and distributor, of Belleville, is in town to-day. He is being chaperoned about by Mr. E. C. Hill, his well-known and popular brother "chip."

Mr. C. D. Barr, of the Lindsay Post, has advertised his newspaper and printing business for sale. It is understood that Mr. Barr has accepted a lucrative position on the London Advertiser.

Mr. James Begg, who, it will be remembered, some time ago fell from the third story window of Clancy's hotel and has since been under medical care at the hospital, is now able to walk about on crutches, and can go a few steps without any assistance at all.

He is the Man.

Chief Rouzel went to Buffalo Sunday morning and to-day wired Mr. E.B. Edwards, town solicitor, that Greenfield was "the right man." The Chief will return to-morrow morning and probably about Tuesday of next week Officer Stewart and the other witnesses will go to Buffalo, where the prisoner will be given a preliminary trial. The extradition papers are waiting the signature of the Minister of Justice here. When Greenfield has had his trial and if the judge considers his case one suitable for extradition, he will make such representations to the U.S. authorities, who will in turn notify the Minister of Justice of Canada, when the necessary steps will be taken for Greenfield's extradition. The prisoner is not, however, permitted to be removed within fifteen days after his preliminary trial; this is to give him a chance to appeal if he wishes it. It will take probably a month to extradite Greenfield, so that it will not be possible to have him over here in time for the fall assizes. The steps now being taken are at the instance of the town authorities.

Peterborough will then have a record of four straight wins—and the pennant.

THE STRICKEN SOUTH.

RELENTLESS PROGRESS OF THE YELLOW PESTILENCE.

Fresh Victims Added to the Death Roll—Railway Trains Abandoned on Account of Quarantine Regulations.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Sept. 25.—Yesterday was one of the most disagreeable days of the season. Sunday's northeaster was succeeded by a cold rain and drizzle. This weather is regarded as exceedingly unfavorable for the sick, but it is encouraging to note that only five deaths have been reported. New cases, however, still continue in abundance. The report shows 113, of which 85 are colored and 28 whites. Four-fifths of the new cases are in the suburbs. It is impossible to approximate the number of cases that have not been reported. One physician has had over 130 cases, few of which have been reported.

At Fernandina.

FERNANDINA, Sept. 25.—Yellow fever was officially declared yesterday. Two deaths.

Through Trains Stopped.

MOBILE, Ala., Sept. 25.—Owing to the restrictions of quarantine regulations in Mississippi, Tennessee and Kentucky, the Mobile and Ohio has stopped all through passenger and freight trains on that road.

Locals Abandoned on the Illinois Central.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 25.—All local trains on the Illinois Central Railway have been abandoned. Gen. Glyn, acting under instructions, has withdrawn all trains on the Northeastern road on account of the action of the quarantine authorities at Meridan, Miss., and York, Ala., in refusing to allow trains to pass those points.

Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. Postponed.

RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 25.—Grand Master Forester of the United Order of Oddfellows of the United States and Canada has postponed the meeting of the Grand Lodge at Nashville, Tenn., from Oct. 2 to Nov. 27, on account of the yellow fever in the south.

The Smallpox Battle.

BUFFALO, Sept. 24.—H. A. Reynolds of Collins Centre and another citizen of that town reported at the Board of Health office to-day that last night three cases of smallpox had been discovered among the Indians on the reservation.

The thirteen new cases of smallpox that came to the knowledge of the Board of Health in this city, Saturday, were followed yesterday by two more. One of these is the wife of a barber whose shop is below his residence rooms and he has constantly attended customers. A large store and meat market in the same building were closed by the authorities to-day.

British Ambassadorial Changes.

LONDON, Sept. 25.—A rumor is current that Sir R. D. Morier, the British Ambassador at St. Petersburg, has been appointed Ambassador to the Austrian Court and he will be succeeded at St. Petersburg by Sir Lionel Sackville-West, now British Minister to Washington.

British Troops Carry Thibetan Outposts.

SIMLA, Sept. 25.—The British troops have made an attack upon the advance posts of the Thibetans, Tukala and Simla. The Thibetans fled. None of the British troops were killed.

A ROCKWOOD SENSATION.

A MOTHER AND HER NEWLY-BORN BABE FOUND DEAD.

An Inquest to be Held—A Woman Assaulted by Two Brutes Near Hamilton—One of the Villains Still at Large.

GUELPH, Sept. 25.—A sad and shocking affair occurred at Rockwood on Saturday evening, which resulted in the death of a mother and a new born babe. Mrs. Lawrence, the woman in question, was a hard working, industrious widow who earned her living by making mits for Mr. Jago, of the Rockwood Glove Factory. She had five little children, her husband having died some years ago. On Saturday night, after working hard all day, she went upstairs in her house and, it is said, sent out all the children but one and to him she gave orders to allow no one in, she having previously locked the door. But a more probable story runs that the second boy went to a neighbor's, Mrs. Hurlburt's, and asked her to come over. She told him if his mother wanted her she would. He then returned home, and in a few moments came back and said he thought his mother was dead. Mrs. Hurlburt called Mrs. Bolton, another neighbor, and together they went in and found that Mrs. Lawrence had given birth to a child and that both were dead. A doctor was at once sent for, who, on his arrival, said neither babe nor mother had been dead fifteen minutes. It is also said that the little one was placed in a washtub under the bed which contained enough water to drown it.

The unfortunate woman became intimate with her alleged seducer last January, during a course of revival meetings, both professing conversion. He left town some weeks ago, and his present whereabouts are unknown.

The report in Guelph this morning was that the mother murdered her infant and then killed herself, so that the Crown authorities sent down Dr. Herod, coroner, to hold an inquest.

THE ADELAIDE MURDER.

No Light Thrown on the Crime at the Coroner's Inquest.

STRATHROY, Sept. 24.—The adjourned inquest on the body of Jonathan Robinson was opened in the Town Hall here before Coroner Lendsay this morning. The witnesses examined were principally those who were first present after the finding of the body and but little light was thrown on the mysterious affair. The doctors who held the post mortem said the injuries inflicted caused the death and that deceased could not have done it himself. One witness said he had heard of the finding of the old man dead on Friday, Sept. 13, but it was thought he had confounded it with the sudden death of another old man. The jury returned this verdict:

That Jonathan Robinson at some date subsequent to Sept. 13, at his house in Adelaide, was feloniously and with malice aforethought killed and murdered by some person or persons unknown.

Two Brutes Assault a Woman.

HAMILTON, Sept. 24.—Margaret Ferguson, a married woman, last Tuesday evening started out with some friends to drive to Greensville. They went as far as Poole's Hotel on the Dundas road, and Mrs. Ferguson remained there for a couple of hours. Then she started to return home. She was overtaken on the road by Frank Osborne and Peter Burns. Osborne made an improper proposal to her, and then struck her fully a dozen times in the face. She was stunned and could scarcely speak. The more she screamed the oftener they struck her. Afterwards the men dragged her down a hill and continued the assault. They also attempted to abuse her, and when she struggled with them one of the men wanted to cut her throat. At last the men desisted and left her lying under a tree. Her clothing was saturated with blood, and she was so weak that she could not go home until the following morning. Screams were heard coming from the ravine Tuesday night by persons living near the toll-gate, but they did not notify the police until the following day. Osborne was caught and appeared at the Police Court this morning, being remanded until Wednesday. Burns is still at large.

A Chapter of Horrors.

HALIFAX, Sept. 25.—J. R. Kennett, formerly a leading china and glassware merchant, jumped from the Dartmouth ferry boat yesterday afternoon and narrowly escaped drowning. He was rescued in an unconscious condition.

Two youths went partridge shooting at Brooklyn, Hants county, on Saturday afternoon. One named Harvey, aged 16 years, was accidentally shot by his companion and his brains were blown out.

An extraordinary story comes from Cow Bay, C. B. Three little boys were playing "pig." One, the 6-year-old son of Mrs. Anderson, who keeps the village hotel, was bound hand and feet by his companions and thrown upon the ground, when his throat was cut with an old, rusty, blunt knife. The little boy has died from the effects of the wound. The tragedy was enacted "in play," and the perpetrators are too young to arrest.

Haldimand Assizes.

CAYUGA, Sept. 24.—The Haldimand assizes opened here to-day. Mr. Justice McMahon presiding. There are three civil actions entered for trial, two of them for seduction. Jones, Grace and Rogers for damages for false arrest. The principal defendant is the Scott Act Magistrate of Brant County, and the chief question raised in the action is the extent of the powers of such. The trial was commenced before a jury and was unfinished.

Fell and Broke His Neck—The Police Magistrate's Big Docket.

TORONTO, Sept. 25.—A young man named Cooper tried to get in through a back window of his residence, on Wellesley-street, Sunday night, his wife having gone out and locked up the house. He procured a step-ladder from an outbuilding, and, having mounted it, was about to try the window, when he fell backwards to the ground and dislocated his neck. He died in a few minutes. The young widow is in a state of wild grief.

A man named Joseph Houghton, who gave his residence as Kingston, was arrested yesterday on a charge of personating a Mr. Beard, of Deseronto, and defrauding citizens out of sums of money.

EMIGRATION OF CROFTERS.

Numbers Anxious to Settle in the Canadian Northwest.

LONDON, Sept. 25.—Messrs. MacNeill and Graham, the emigration commissioners acting in behalf of the Imperial and Canadian Governments respectively, are meeting with success in their mission to the crofter districts of Scotland. Under their present powers the commissioners can only definitely select and assist twenty families from Lewis, and in order to obtain these have already granted interviews to 300 heads of families, 103 of whom formally applied for Government aid. It is evident, therefore, that numbers are anxious to settle in the Northwest. Enquiry also proved that the Lewis crofters are by no means as destitute as alleged. One accepted applicant swore to a personalty of £100; the others are able-bodied males and females, likely to prove excellent settlers. The commission will shortly conclude its enquiry in Lewis and proceed to Harris, North and South Uist and Barra.

The Wrong Man Jailed.

LONDON, Ont., Sept. 25.—Charles Bell, giving his home as New Brunswick, was arrested on Sunday by Detective Phair for stealing some $12 or $13 from a satchel belonging to Mrs. McGill, at McGill's hotel, on Saturday. The lady identified two stamps, a 10-cent piece and a copper found in the prisoner's possession as hers. The rest of the money was not recovered. Now comes the peculiar part of the story. Ten days or so ago two coats were stolen from James McDonald's hotel, Carling-street, and were sold at Sainsbury's second-hand clothing store. Henry Carroll, or Carl, was arrested for the theft and Mr Sainsbury thought he was the right man. Carl was therefore sent for trial and is now in jail. However, Mr. Sainsbury afterwards saw Bell on the street and recognised him as the right man without doubt. One of the girls in the hotel also knew him, as the party she had seen going in there when the coats were taken. He has been at the St. Thomas Fair and just returned. Carl will probably be tried by the judge at once and released. Bell has a lady's narrow gold bracelet in his possession and the police are looking for an owner.

A MOB IN POSSESSION.

Rio Grande City Dominated by a Lawless Body of Armed men.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Acting Secretary Thompson has received the following telegram from the Collector of Customs at Brownsville, Tex., dated Sept. 23: "An armed mob has possession of Rio Grande City on account of the killing of a Mexican by a Customs officer in a personal encounter. The officer went to Fort Ringgold for protection. The civil authorities of Starr County are powerless. Please obtain orders to be telegraphed for the military at Ringgold to protect the Custom House and citizens until danger is over. The necessity is urgent. Fighting is hourly expected. Orders have to be sent by carrier from Fort Brown. The line to Ringgold has been cut by the mob."

Soldiers Ordered Out.

AUSTIN, Tex., Sept. 25.—The Governor has received a despatch from the County Judge of Starr County, saying that there is a bloody riot in Rio Grande City and asking that rangers be sent there immediately, or, if that was impossible, for him to ask the United States troops there to give protection against the mob. No particulars were given. The Governor ordered out Capt. Jones' company of Rangers, but it will be several days before they can reach there.

This Note Excited a Virginia Town.

LIBERTY, Va., Sept. 25.—The following note was picked up on Main-street Saturday morning and is supposed to have been dropped by a balloonist. There were two keys attached to it. It created great excitement and was read by more than a hundred people: "If this should chance to fall into the hands of anyone tell my wife, Mary Brooks, 201 Gram-street, Cleveland, O., that I am high in the skies with my balloon and that it is unmanageable, dashing along at a fearful rate. I think I am moving eastward. The sun has been in view for more than an hour. CHARLES BROOKS."

The Public Works Department will commence dredging Montreal Harbor and the Lake St. Peter Channel next spring. The department and the works at Montreal will be connected by telephone.

Prof. Frears, agricultural correspondent of The London Morning Post, has returned from his trip to the Northwest. He found the settlers in Manitoba contented and pleased with their prospects. Lands along the Manitoba and Northwestern Railway, he thinks, are well adapted to mixed farming. He says more than 4000 cattle will be exported from Calgary to Great Britain this fall.

Dr. Montague was in the city yesterday.

Justice Richardson has left for Regina.

The Central Exhibition committee have issued invitations to Sir John and the Cabinet to meet His Excellency the Governor-General at luncheon to-day on the Exhibition grounds.

A Firebug at Guelph.

GUELPH, Sept. 25.—Fire was discovered in a house on Essex-street, occupied by Martin Murphy, Sunday afternoon about 4.30. The alarm was sounded and a large crowd soon gathered. Before a line of hose could be laid, however, the blaze was extinguished by a couple of buckets of water. Chief Randall and Sergeant Dooley immediately set about investigating the origin of the conflagration. Circumstances pointed very strongly toward Murphy as being the firebug. He was accordingly detained by the sergeant. It is claimed that Murphy sent his wife and children up street, and then placed a pile of light wood in a clothes closet and ignited it. Murphy has an unsavory reputation. He has been in the meshes of the law several times and yesterday made a stout resistance when arrested. Murphy appeared at the Police Court yesterday and was remanded till to-morrow.

Fire at Port Hope.

PORT HOPE, Sept. 25.—Sunday morning about 10 o'clock fire broke out in Spooner's copperine factory. Fortunately water was near and by great exertions the blaze was brought under subjection before the brigade arrived. The loss was not serious.

Wrecked in a Cyclone.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—The steamship Louisiana, which arrived from New Orleans to-day, reports that on Sept. 19, when in the Gulf of Mexico, she sighted a large, newly copper-bottomed ship floating keel upwards. It is supposed that the vessel was overturned in the cyclone.

Wheat at 82c. at Winnipeg.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 24.—Wheat took another rise to-day and is now quoted at 82 cents.

The Hudson Bay promoters left to-day for St. Paul, to consult with Mr. Onderdonk as to their future action.

They Hanged a Boy in Fun.

BALTIMORE, Md., Sept. 25.—Samuel Thomas, colored, aged 15 years, was playing with some companions in the packing-room at the McMurray factory, at Frederick, when Tom Ross, colored, and several others suggested that they hang Thomas. A thin cord was procured and fastened about the boy's neck. Before the workmen in the room realized what was being done the loose end of the rope was thrown around the shafting. The rope caught in the revolving shaft and was rapidly wound up, carrying the struggling and frightened boy with it. He touched the shaft and was swung around it twice, when the cord broke and he fell to the floor. He was removed to his home, and late in the afternoon was attacked with hemorrhages, from which he died. No arrests have been made.

Stanley's Interpreter in London.

LONDON, Sept. 25.—Farran, Henry M. Stanley's Syrian interpreter, has arrived in London. He left Aruwhimi on account of illness three days before Major Bartelot started on his journey. He confirms the reports as to Bartelot's temper, and the brutality shown by him to the natives and says he expected that Bartelot would be killed. Stanley, he says, insisted upon the natives being kindly treated. The acts of brutality began soon after Stanley left. Farran believes Stanley reached Emin Bey but he admits that the anxiety felt concerning the explorer is justified. Tippoo Tib, he says, hated Bartelot and obstructed the progress of the expedition.

Too Bad Even for a Judge to Listen to.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—A divorce case that can disturb a Chicago judge may be supposed to be pretty bad, but that is the kind of a case that came before Judge Horton. Mrs. Louis A. McCarthy was the complainant, and with sobs and tears and fainting turns she explained that the ground for her divorce was her husband's criminal conversation with her own daughter. The daughter corroborated her statement. Judge Horton was so deeply affected by the story that after granting the divorce and ordering the husband to be proceeded against criminally he declined to hear the rest of his cases, closed court and went home.

Boy Bandits and Captive Girl Queens.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—Johnnie Wilson and Charlie Hansen, twelve-year-old boys on the west side, have been reading cheap novels with the usual results. They ran away from home, dug a cave in a vacant lot and lived there as bandits. They plundered hen roosts, clothes' lines and even residences, furnishing their cave with carpet, rugs and chairs and living on stolen food. Their last exploit was to steal two school girls, Jessie Thomas and Edna Holton, and keep them in the cave as captive queens. Two policemen got into the cave and arrested the bandits for stealing valuable game

BRITISH TRADE RETURNS.

The British Trade returns for the month of August have just come to hand. They indicate, says the Globe, a considerable quickening of business, and as usual demonstrate the marvellous commercial advances which Britain is continually making under her present much abused fiscal system. Let anyone think over what the following figures mean :—

FOR THE MONTH ENDED AUGUST 31.

Imports.	Exports.
1887—£30,693,820	1887—£19,738,320
1888—£30,086,140	1888—£21,197,749

For the eight months ended August 31 :—

Imports.	Exports.
1887—£237,300,615	1887—£143,260,464
1888—£236,227,240	1888—£154,677,933

Reducing these figures to dollars and cents, we have the volume of Britain's foreign trade for eight months reaching the enormous amount of $2,024,576,206. And though the imports exceed the exports by about five hundred millions of dollars, yet the stupid, persistent Britishers stand the supposedly adverse "balance of trade" with the greatest equanimity, and make a profit from the "adversity" all the same. They have long since found out that the talk about the awful damage which an excess of imports brings in its train is pure foolishness, without sense, reason or foundation, and that the excess really indicates in most cases not the extent of the loss, but the amount and satisfactoriness of the profits.

The fact is day by day becoming more and more evident that Britain is the great emporium of business for the whole world, and that not in spite of her Free Trade, but because of it she is every year attracting a larger portion of that trade from every country under the sun. Times of depression she has to pass through, and she has also to contend with an ever keener competition, but in spite of all, her markets are always the best and consequently the most largely supplied, while her people are better fed, better clad and better housed, let pessimists say what they please, than ever they have been in any other period of her long past history.

REDUCING DEBTS.

Since 1817, the National debt of Great Britain has been reduced from £840,000,000 to £726,000,000—a reduction in that time of £104,000,000. Next year some £23,000,000 will be paid off, and financial arrangements are being completed by which £70,000,000 will be paid by 1904, without increasing taxation—unless the nation should be involved in some great war. This reduction in the debt of the nation has no parallel in the history of any other power except that of the United States. The reduction which has taken place in the debt of that country since the war of the rebellion has been phenomenal. Of course it involved exceedingly onerous taxation as compared with that in Great Britain. In the case of the latter country the reduction of £35,000,000 that took place since 1830, has been effected despite the expenses of the Crimean, East Indian (mutiny), Abyssinian, Zulu and Egyptian wars. Canada should learn a lesson from this. We are increasing our national indebtedness at an alarming rate, while the United States and the Mother Country are rapidly reducing theirs. This can only be effected by economy in expenditure and efficient financial management, to which Canada has been a stranger since 1878. In fact the whole policy and methods of government in vogue in Canada must be radically reformed ere we can expect a halt in the growth of our debt, much less a tangible reduction; and such radical reform can only be secured by placing in power at Ottawa a Government composed of statesmen who will remember their personal responsibilities to the people of Canada and honestly endeavour to beat back the flood of corruption, log-rolling and vicious class legislation which threaten to engulf our political institutions. The electors in those constituencies where elections for the Dominion Parliament are pending should take a serious view of this matter and cast their votes in such a way as to promote the much-to-be-desired reform. An increase of $100,000,000 in our national debt in a time of peace, in nine years, and no sign of a halt apparent, should set our people meditating very seriously.—Montreal Herald.

The Critics' Views.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

DEAR SIR,—Kindly permit us a small space in your valuable columns to explain ourselves with regard to the "grave and terrible" accusations of the only great wonderful far-famed and world-renowned Joseph Redmond, of the Elm Grove Stock Farm, that great centre of the universe around which (us poor back woods diggers are supposed to believe) all other planets revolve. Well, Mr Redmond we can assure you we were then quite unacquainted with the now apparent facts, that you were so very, very anxious to get your hand on the cash, that little $125, that, when you did not get it, your only consolation was to give vent to your sorrow through the public press. No doubt you will feel blistered for a time, but the worthy ambassadors have no remedy to offer but to sit on the blister. And now, Mr. Redmond, by this you can understand that henceforth, as in the past, the Dummer and Douro Society can and will purchase their stock when and where they please, irrespective of Mr. Redmond or any of his runners, or any ring or combination that may be formed to the contrary. We will not in those columns pretend to confute any of Mr. Redmond's assertions, but will content ourselves with saying that we have as animal better suited for our purposes than "Oliver Mowat." This Society believes more in utility than show. In conclusion, Mr. Redmond, we wish you to understand now for the first time, that we have always enjoyed the free and undisputed privilege of exhibiting at any or every local fair, and we hope to so conduct ourselves as to do so without being debarred by any board of directors.

We regret that circumstances prevent our exhibiting at the Central, but our animal has had a very successful season, as some of Mr. Redmond's patrons can prove. We could not afford to neglect business for the mere sake of preparing an animal for exhibition only, but had we received Mr. Redmond's challenge earlier we should have been glad to enter into competition with him at the Central.

Hoping Mr. Redmond has not got the ball by the wrong horns, and thanking you, Mr. Editor, for space, we remain,

Yours, etc.,

THE DUMMER & DOURO CRITICS.

My prices are from $50 to $100 less than any traveller will quote you. Kindly inspect my stock and I will prove the above.

CHEESE MARKETS.

The offerings of cheese at Buffalo yesterday were 6850 boxes. The market was badly demoralized and there was virtually nothing done. The Franklinville factory sold its August make at 8½c. and that figure was bid for most of the August offerings. Cloverfield offered 2000 boxes at 8½c. and a bid of 8¼c. was made for the lot. Cloverfield offered to sell 1500 boxes at that figure but the buyers refused to take less than the whole offering.

Prices remain about the same at Little Falls with possibly a slight improvement. The transactions yesterday were: One lot at 7¾c.; 95 lots at 8c.; 43 lots at 8¼c., 3 lots at 8½c., 4 lots on private terms and 10 lots on commission. Total 7064 boxes. 788 boxes of farm dairy cheese sold at 8¼c. to 9c., bulk at 8½c. 54 packages of farm dairy butter sold at 20c. to 21c., bulk at 20.

The market at Utica manifested an improvement, an advance of ½c. being recorded. There was considerable competition for the leading factories.

A Double Recommendation.

The Growth of the Hair

Should always be watched. Inattention to the hair often leads to premature grayness and baldness. When dandruff appears it should be looked after at once. By frequently using a little of Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic, the scalp will be kept in a clean healthy condition and the strength and vigor of the hair greatly promoted. It is the only reliable. Do not be talked into using anything else. For sale by all druggists everywhere. dw

Piles! Piles! Blinding Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. It appears like a little pimple, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. Lyman, Sons & Co., Montreal, Wholesale Agents. dw

A Helping Hand

is most appreciated when it is most needed, and thus it is that Burdock Blood Bitters gains more favor yearly by lending the enfeebled system valuable assistance in removing all impurities and building up a strong, healthy body. 6dw39

At the Opera House.

Baird's dramatic company presented "Our Bachelors" to a rather small audience at the Opera House last night. The play was of the comedy order, and Mr. Baird and his support succeeded in creating a hearty laugh. A farce, entitled the "White Elephant," was given in addition. To-night the startling play, "My Partner," will be put on the boards. The performances are given at popular prices, and will, no doubt, draw good houses during exhibition week.

But call and see Kidd's, the boot man, and he will show you why he smiles. Still there is more to follow. dw

A Bear Story.

A couple of young Peterborough gentlemen have just returned from an outing on Stony Lake, and they come back hardened with a bear story. Last Saturday evening there was a call for "the banker with the gun," who was wanted to kill a bear that was in the water at McCracken's Landing. Bruin was kept swimming in the lake by a couple of canoes that were between him and the shore, and when the gun arrived on the scene his bearship was quickly reduced to dead matter. The banker first ploughed up the bear's neck, and afterwards his chum, who holds a commission in the 57th batt., shot the beast through the head. The bear weighed when dressed 120 lbs. There was great excitement on Stony Lake for a while. Bears are reported to be unusually plentiful up north.

Farewell to Canada.

Salvation Army Lieutenant J. E. Stollicker was around town to-day making his farewells previous to his departure for India, for which country the contingent enlisted during the visit of the native Hindoos, sail on the 18th of October. The lieutenant was at one time stationed in Peterborough, and came down to the Hindoo meetings, and here he, together with Capt. (Miss) Crowdine and Capt. Lightower, enlisted for foreign service. These three have passed the necessary medical examinations at Toronto, and have been accepted as missionaries to India. At present Lieut. Stollicker is off duty, and will not be on duty again till he reaches India. He leaves town at 5 15 for Lindsay, where he will remain over night; will spend the next night in Hamilton, the following in Welland. He has been stationed at these places. From Welland he will go to his home in Ridgetown, where he will remain till he leaves for India.

A Pleasant Entertainment.

The Young People's Christian Endeavour Society in connection with the Baptist Church held an entertainment last night that was well attended. Dr. Scott made an affable and capable chairman, and in his opening address announced that this was the first of a series of entertainments that the society intended giving this winter. In opening, Rev. P. C. Parker conducted devotional exercises, when the following admirable programme was rendered:—

Undesirable Enterprise.

The EXAMINER was accosted yesterday by a prominent citizen with the remark: "Say, I wish you would write down a nuisance that I and plenty of others in the town have been subjected to." Then he proceeded to air his grievance. He said that certain firms systematically scan Canadian newspapers for announcements of deaths, and then send to the friends of the deceased samples of memorial cards with the name of the person, age, etc., and a little bit of verse printed on it, which they offer at so much per hundred. The gentleman referred to, whose little child died not long ago, said he had already received sample cards from three or four such firms, and one of them actually had, by mistake no doubt, his own name inscribed as being the "dear departed." He further said that these American cheap John printers flooded Canada with their sample memorial cards, but as they were not the prevailing style in this country it generally amounted to nothing. This shows, however, to what extremes some Americans will go in order to push business. They may be enterprising and all that, but they are an unmitigated nuisance just the same.

As Good as New.

The old Silsby fire engine that has seen seventeen years of service in Peterborough has been regenerated and is now as good as new. It has been at the shops of the Wm. Hamilton Manufacturing Company for some time undergoing repairs, and at the test yesterday afternoon the old engine gave every satisfaction. Under a pressure of 110 pounds of steam and 150 lbs. of cold water, a fine stream was thrown, while the machine scarcely quivered. Mr. Wm. Hickey overhauled the Silsby and made an excellent job of it. The engine was taken completely to pieces and every part cleaned and necessary repairs made. The pumps were refitted so that now there is not the sign of a leak. Engineer Jas English, who was present at the test, says the old Silsby did better work yesterday than she ever did. Several of the firemen and a few others were also present, to whom the test gave every satisfaction. The safety valve has been placed at 110 lbs. pressure, and Mr. Hickey says that the engine is in such good condition that she ought never to be run at a lower pressure than 100.

Sad Case of Destitution.

Last night a ragged, forlorn, starved-looking little boy about ten years old was noticed in a lane picking out the crusts and broken meat thrown there. He was shivering with cold, and his bare feet were chapped till the blood oozed from the large cracks. Its a shame to our boasted Christian civilization that such a scene is possible or allowed, especially when any charitably disposed person can get a pair of children's shoes at gough bros'., 375 george street, for next to nothing. A huge $6,000 stock, bought at 40 cents on the dollar, and sold at half wholesale cost, to select from. Hundreds have come to gough bros'. and bought themselves happy, and the cry is "still they come." Lawyers, doctors, merchants, mechanics, and farmers, their children and their wives are to-day wearing boots and shoes bought at gough's Boots and shoes fit for princes, but cheap enough to permit paupers to buy them are being sold every day at gough bros'., 375 george street. Don't delay; come along at once and buy yourselves wealthy. Thousands of pairs of the best boots going at less than half wholesale cost. Tremendous bargains. Don't miss them. d

An Important Branch Business.

The first instalment of J. Muckleston & Co.'s stock, a large consignment of window glass, arrived here to-day direct from Antwerp. Besides the ordinary sizes, there is a variety of tinted and coloured glass of different shades. This firm, as has already been intimated, open a branch of their Kingston business here in a few weeks, and, we understand, they intend carrying a very large stock of iron, steel, chain, &c.; also full lines of English and American shelf hardware, and a general assortment of stationery and fancy goods for country merchants, which, from their intimate and long experience in the trade, and direct connection with the leading manufacturers of the United States and Europe, warrants us in stating that the opening of such an establishment will be a great benefit to all requiring the class of goods mentioned, not only in Peterborough, but in adjacent counties. It also proves that Peterborough, with its excellent railway system, is becoming a point of distribution, as, we understand, Muckleston & Co. hope, after a time, to job goods from this point. Mr. Muckleston is President of the Kingston Board of Trade, which has done much to advance the interests of Kingston—(is it not time we had a board here?)—and his partner, Mr. Sears, is head of the Hardware Association of Kingston. The business here will be managed by Mr. Jas. Pollis, with Mr. Archie Moffat, who is well known to our citizens, as assistant, and doubtless will not only prove a success, but be a powerful inducement to wholesale houses in other branches to start in our growing town. dw

Central Exhibition.

Promising Features of a Successful Exhibition.

The Central Exhibition grounds present a busy scene this afternoon. On the grounds tents, marquees, platforms, stagings, etc., are going up, and machinery is being placed in position. Within the main building there is a beautiful display of flowers, fruits, grains, vegetables, dairy produce, fine arts, ladies' work, etc., and outside are huge packing cases, whose contents will this afternoon be placed in position. The ubiquitous Gough Bros. are there with a grand display, and other exhibitors are preparing their displays. To-morrow is stock day; all the stock to be exhibited will be on the grounds.

At 1.30, Hon. Charles Drury, Minister of Agriculture, will formally open the Exhibition.

At two o'clock speeding in the ring will begin, and the following events will take place:—Stallion Trot, Farmers' Race, Brewery Race and Hardware Race—Band in attendance. This attractive programme will draw a large crowd, no doubt. The Grand Trunk will run special trains to the exhibition grounds from the town during the day (to-morrow) as follows:

Trains will leave London street at 9 20 a. m., 10 a.m., 1.00 p.m., 1.20 p.m. and 2 p.m. Leaving, will leave the grounds at 5, 5.30, 6, and 7.40 p.m. On Thursday trains will leave London street at 9.30 a.m., 10 a.m.; 1, 1,30, and 2.30 p.m.; leaving grounds at 11 and 11.45 a.m., and at 5, 5.30, 6, and 7.40 p.m. Train will stop at crossings of different streets to take passengers between London street and G.T.R. station. Fare for round trip 10 cents.

A Lindsay Burglary Solved.

The Perpetrators of an Old Robbery at Last Discovered—The Stolen Goods Recovered.

(Special to the Examiner.)

LINDSAY, Sept. 25.—It will be remembered that when Howe's circus was here a month or more ago a triple burglary was committed in one night, the dry goods store of McLean, Smith & Co., the grocery store of Graham & Lee, and the fancy goods store of G. A. Metherell, being entered and robbed of a quantity of goods. The burglarly was credited to the following of Howe's circus, but yesterday's developments have shown otherwise. Yesterday afternoon Chief Bell and assistant Constables Clanan and Short searched the house of one Clove Baldwin, whose wife runs a small knitting factory, and goods taken from each of the stores were found between the floors and stowed away in every conceivable manner, and the police station to-night looks as if the the Chief was going into the fancy goods business on a large scale. The station has been visited by large numbers of people.

This Baldwin is a kind of carpenter and picture framer who does not bear the best of reputations. Baldwin's son Willie has been employed in Metherall's store for some years as junior clerk, and it is supposed he has been systematically pilfering for some time and on the night of the circus made a great haul. The three stores burglarized are side by side, and young Baldwin would of course know the means of fastening the back doors and windows of each place.

Police Court.

TUESDAY, Sept, 25.

Six more Scott Act cases were disposed of, each of the defendants pleading guilty and being fined $50 and costs.

Willie Course and Eddie Waghorn, two youngsters who do not stand much more than "knee high to a grasshopper," were charged with pilfering grapes from Mr. C. H. Sheffield's orchard. The plaintiff said that a number of boys were in the habit of stealing his fruit and he had caught these two at it. The little fellows were given a lecture and allowed to go, "to be called on for sentence" at some future time.

Personal.

Mr. John Lang, M.P., left to-day to attend the Glanmorgan fall show.

Mr. Thos. Hanley, architect and builder, of Belleville, was in town yesterday with the Belleville excursionists.

Mr. E. B. Edwards, County Solicitor, is in Toronto to-day in behalf of the county's interests in the appeal case, Victoria vs. Peterborough.

Mr. John Hyland, of Oshawa, is in town on a visit, the guest of his nephew, Mr. Wilson Henderson, superintendent of the waterworks.

Mr. William Forsythe returned to-day from Stirling, where he has been attending the agricultural exhibition in the interests of his fanning and wind mills.

Mr. Meldrum, of the firm of Meldrum & Davidson, of the Otonabee roller mills, went to Hamilton last night to make arrangements for remodelling their mill and increasing its capacity from 175 barrels to 300 barrels of flour per day.

We had the pleasure of a call yesterday from Mr. Frank Flynn, Secretary, Mr. Samuel Holmes, Vice-President, and Mr. Richard McPherson, Financial Secretary of the Belleville Carpenters and Joiners Local Union No. 161. Mr. McGregor, Secretary of the Peterborough branch, showed the visitors about town.

Porter Bros. and the President and Directors.

The President and Directors of the Central Exhibition wish to state in reference to a misleading circular issued by Messrs. Porter Bros., carriage manufacturers, that the directors, in conformity with a public advertisement, attended at the grounds on the day named to allot space to exhibitors; that one of the firm of Fitzgerald & Stanger was the only representative of the carriage making business present; that Porter Bros. did not appear in person or by proxy; that the directors gave half of the space devoted to carriage work to Fitzgerald & Stanger; that the directors had decided, in case of a dispute between rival exhibitors, to settle it by casting lots; that the directors did not cause to be placed on the minutes any memorandum of agreement with Porter Bros. as to space; that Mr. Porter came to the meeting of the directors on Saturday and refused to take any other space than the one allotted by the directors to Fitzgerald & Stanger; that he was offered all the space he could occupy, that he refused and was given to understand that his subscription was not wanted. The directors claim that in justice to other interests they did all in their power to meet the wishes of Porter Bros., and for any cause of dissatisfaction that firm is alone responsible. 1d

Famous Women.

It is a significant fact that most of the women who have achieved fame in art, literature, or "affairs," have enjoyed vigorous health. This shows that the mind is never capable of the severe and continued application necessary to creative work, unless the body is at its best The woman who aspires to fill an exalted place among her associates, must be free from nervous debility and female weaknesses. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will banish these, and it is warranted to restore those functional harmonies which are indispensible to health. As a specific for all those chronic ailment peculiar to women, it is unequalled. b

Magnificent Millinery.

The display of fashionable and stylish millinery and mantles at Miss Delaney's millinery emporium, 403 George street, eclipses all former displays. Miss Delaney, during her recent visit to the Montreal and Toronto millinery marts, secured a magnificent stock of millinery and millinery goods, the very latest styles and the choicest selections made personally by herself—with her full knowledge of what would meet the wants of her numerous customers. For latest fashion, style and beauty, Miss Delaney's millinery stock can't be surpassed. Her fall opening began to-day and will continue to-morrow and Thursday. 3d71

Pants will be made to order off these goods at $3.50, $4 and $4.50. A saving of from $1 to $2 will be effected to any man by getting these goods. Orders should be left early; a good fit is warranted. This is a rare opportunity. 6dw

Electric Light.

The Electric Light Company have received a supply of incandescent lamps, and they have received orders for several of them. These lamps are considered more suitable for interior lighting. The arc light is better for outside service, as can be seen by observing the street lamps, which give light equal to any on the continent, and cheaper than any established Electric Light Company furnishes.

Queen's Endowment Fund.

Rev. D. J. Macdonnell, of St. Andrew's, Toronto, and Rev. Dr. Smith, secretary of the Queen's University, are in town in the interests of the Endowment fund of the University. —About 35 or 40 young couples drove to Omemee last night and indulged in a "hop." They reached home about seven o'clock this morning, tired, but well pleased with their night's fun.

—A meeting of the Carpenters' Union was held last night to consider some amendments to the constitution; but the business was not finished. They meet again next week.

SHERMAN'S RESOLUTION.

AGAIN TAKEN UP IN THE UNITED STATES SENATE.

More Retaliation and Annexation Talk—The Resolution Referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—Mr. Sherman's resolution for an inquiry into the state of the relations between the United States and Great Britain and Canada was taken up in the Senate yesterday and Mr. Morgan (Dem., Ala.) proceeded to discuss it. He said it was an obvious fact the distinctive policy of the Republican senators was that no other but a Republican administration should have the settlement of the questions now open between the people of the United States and those of Canada. The Senate, he said, was to have a glance at the substitute for the Mills Bill and would then probably adjourn.

Proceeding to discuss the President's retaliation message Mr. Morgan asserted that the safest, cheapest and best form of retaliation was to resume the collection of customs duties on goods imported into and exported from Canada. The most direct effect that would follow it would be the transfer of a large part of the trade which Canada now conducted with Great Britain and other foreign countries to American merchants and manufacturers. Canada could not afford to pay its own tariff duties and American tariff duties in addition on its imported and exported merchandise, nor could Canada afford to import during the summer all its necessary supplies for summer and winter. The President, he said, could not have safely confined himself, as had been demanded by the Gloucester fishermen, to the prohibition of the introduction of fish. It would have been equally his duty to spread his proclamation so as to exclude from the United States lumber, wool, iron ore and such other products as came in competition with American products.

Mr. Morgan proceeded with his argument in favor of the policy suggested by the President. He declared the suggestion to be a masterly stroke of policy. It would have more to do with the coming of Canada within the political affiliations of the United States than any other argument which any human being could name, because it brought before the eyes of Canada the great practical questions that their material interests were so bound up with those of the American people that a common government was necessary for all alike.

Mr. Dolph (Rep., Ore.) replied to Mr. Morgan. He spoke of the inconsistency of Democratic Senators who, from being on the British side when the treaty was pending, were now the most radical advocates of retaliation. The Senator said that the act of March 3, 1887, would have injured Canada. Was that the reason why the President had not executed it? The power asked for would injure American interests. Was that the reason why the President desired it? It would seem to be the President's desire to retaliate on the people of the United States rather than on the people of Canada.

After the close of Mr. Dolph's remarks the resolution was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations. Mr. Sherman stated that it would be considered in committee to-day.

IMPORTANT PATENT CASE.

MR. EDISON ATTACKED BY THE ROYAL COMPANY.

The Case to be Heard on Nov. 12—Large Evidence to be Investigation—Hon. R. Dewdney Sworn in.

OTTAWA, Sept. 26.—An important patent case was heard yesterday before Mr. R. Pope, the Deputy Commissioner of Patents, in which the Royal Electric Company petitioned to have the patent held by the Edison Electric Light Co., dated Nov. 17, 1879, "for improvements on electric lamps," declared null and void, on the ground that the patentees had violated the 37th section of the Patent Act in not having manufactured the invention within two years from the date of the patent, and for having imported after the expiration of one year from the date thereof. By mutual consent Tuesday, Nov. 13, was fixed for the trial and Mr. Pope reserved his decision upon the question of the production of the respondents' books, etc., stating that he would communicate his decision thereon to the parties in ample time before the above mentioned day.

The immigration returns for August show the arrivals for the month to be 12,963, and the total arrivals from Jan. 1, 116,097, or an increase of nearly 14,000 as compared with the same period last year. The settlers in the Dominion during the month were 7046, and for the eight months 62,611, an increase of nearly 10,000 as compared with the same period in 1887. The total number of passengers who have passed through Canada to the United States this year is 53,416, an increase of 4000, indicating the growing popularity of the St. Lawrence route.

CANADA-AUSTRALIAN TRADE.

Interest in the Matter in London—A Zollverein Empire.

LONDON, Sept. 26.—A telegram from Ottawa stating that the Dominion Government had received advices from the Australian Governments urging negotiations for closer trade relations between Australia and Canada is arousing comment here. The Daily Chronicle voices the general sentiment in an editorial when it rejoices at the movement as distinctly tending to imperial unity, and says if both the colonies wish to enter into such negotiations it is quite safe to assume that the Imperial Government will gladly give the required assistance. The Australian invitation is opportune, seeing the possibility of retaliation by the United States. It hopes the various parts of the Empire will ultimately recognize the wisdom of forming themselves into a sort of Zollverein Empire, which could afford to adopt the American free trade policy between the various States, and protection in dealings with other countries.

A Hunting Accident.

PORT ARTHUR, Sept. 26.—Mr. George McDonald of Fort William West was driving along the State river road when he espied a huntsman and a partridge. Pointing out the latter to the former and forgetting to get out of the line of fire, the hunter let bang at the bird, and the charge of shot tore out McDonald's left eye. The wounded man's condition is very precarious.

JEALOUSY AIMED THE BAR.

Narrow Escape of a Lover Whom a Rival, It Seems, Would Slay.

AUGUSTA, Me., Sept. 26.—The crazy motion of a jealous lover and the trials and tribulations of a pretty Augusta maiden were made public in the Municipal Court here yesterday. Miss Nellie L. Clark is a blonde, 22 years of age, with a handsome face, bright eyes and a comely form. Her home is in a rural district four miles above the city. For over a year she kept company with a neighbor's son named Alger Dudley, and became deeply attached to him. They became engaged and at the Christmastide their banns were published. The wedding day was set and the wedding outfit was in preparation, but suddenly, for something he did, the young lady broke off the engagement. Time went on and Nellie consented to overlook Alger's failing, so far as to keep company with him again. Finally, last August, there was another rupture, when she informed him that they must part forever.

Nellie is an attractive girl, and, naturally, other young men in the neighborhood had an eye on her, and last Thursday evening one of them, Wm. E. Gilley, who is rather immature, having seen but eighteen summers, visited Nellie with a team. He is a nice-looking, well-dressed boy. Hardly had they got the curtains drawn, when suddenly there was a crash and there came flying through the window, carrying sash and glass with it, a heavy iron bar three feet long, which just grazed the young man's head. The couple were much frightened. Mrs. Harwood hurried into the front yard, and swears she saw Alger Dudley running away, not ten feet from her.

On examining Gilley's horse it was found that both the breeching straps were unhooked, the evident intent being for the horses to run away and injure the boy. Nellie told the story of her unfortunate love affair in court between her sobs yesterday, and finally broke down altogether. Dudley was held in the sum of $1000.

SURVIVING HYDROPHOBIA.

A Boy Gets Well After Showing All the Symptoms of the Disease.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 26.—The leading physicians are greatly puzzled over the case of Willie Meehl. The lad is 14 years old. On Friday afternoon he developed violent symptoms of hydrophobia. First he lost consciousness, then he revived and began barking like a dog and biting at the furniture. The neighbors came, accompanied by the physicians, and found the boy frothing at the mouth and chewing up the carpets. He snarled and barked and fought desperately when an attempt was made to overpower him. It required four men to bind him, and he was carried to a bed and fastened to the posts with ropes. As the sight of the people seemed to increase the terrible malady the physicians ordered everyone away.

In order to determine if it was hydrophobia a small pan of water was brought in the room, and the patient went frantic at the sight of it. The physicians then agreed that it was hydrophobia. The parents were told that there was no hope for the lad and that his death was liable to occur at any moment. After barking, biting and frothing all night he became unconscious, and remained thus for six hours. Then he woke up, rubbed his eyes and wanted to know what he was tied up for. The physicians were thunderstruck. The boy was released and when interrogated it was discovered that he had no recollection of what had happened during the twenty-four hours. The physicians say the case is without parallel. The boy seems fully recovered. He says he has been bitten by dogs several times this summer.

A Frenzied Worshipper.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The congregation in attendance at the early morning service in St. Patrick's Cathedral, on Fifth-avenue, yesterday were startled in the midst of devotions by a commotion in the body of the church. An unknown woman who had been audibly praying suddenly jumped to her feet and throwing her arms about the neck of a woman beside her cried out:—"Oh! Holy Mother of God, save me!" The woman who found herself so suddenly embraced is Mrs. Mary Slattery, a regular attendant at the church. She quietly disengaged herself and held the stranger down in the pew until the aisle attendant came forward and removed the woman to the street.

The latter's conduct clearly indicated insanity, so an ambulance was sent for to take the woman to Bellevue Hospital. The incident caused no excitement nor interruption of the services, those present believing that someone had fainted. Inside the prayer book dropped by the insane woman was the name of Delia Kehoe. This is all that could be learned of her. She refused to give any information about herself. She appeared to be about 25 years of age, and is probably a servant.

Proposed Coal Combination in Cape Breton

HALIFAX, Sept. 26.—A scheme is on foot for the investment of several millions of dollars of American capital in Cape Breton. Rufus Hatch, the banker, and a Mr. Bothwell of New York city, are now looking into the project and making negotiations. The scheme is to buy up and consolidate all the coal mines in that part of the country. Ten mines, all owned and worked by different companies with English or local capital, have been trying to cut each other's throats. Prices have been ruinously low, and the total output of the ten mines last year was only about 400,000 tons, while from a single mine in another part of the province 600,000 tons were taken and sold. There are three coal mining districts in Nova Scotia—the Cumberland county, Pictou county and Cape Breton areas. The two former are under single management, and would be able to make all reasonable competition against the proposed trust in Cape Breton in case the scheme is affected. It is said that the majority of the mines have made propositions of sale and that Messrs. Hatch and Bothwell will soon return to New York to report.

The Opera House Didn't Burn.

PERTH, Sept. 26.—The report that the Royal Opera House was on fire was untrue.

A RIOT AT SAWYERVILLE.

FLEECED ITALIAN LABORERS TAKE THE VILLAGE.

A Conflict Between the Sisters and Other Workmen—Five Men Killed and Forty Wounded.

MONTREAL, Sept. 26.—News reached the city late last night of a serious riot in the County of Compton in the Eastern Townships. Shirley and Corbet, the contractors on a section of the Hereford branch railway who drew a check for $35,000 from the company on account of construction on Saturday last and left the country with the proceeds, had in their employ over 700 Italian laborers who had not been paid a cent of wages since Aug. 1, and are in a destitute condition. As soon as the duped foreigners learnt of the departure of their employers they became desperate and when yesterday morning the railway company attempted to resume the work of construction they flatly refused to do a stroke and at once destroyed all they could lay their hands on.

They soon took possession of the village of Sawyerville and threaten to destroy it unless they are paid. The people are terror-stricken and have fled leaving their houses and goods behind. At last advices the Italians were pillaging the deserted houses and were in a complete state of riot.

The militia of Sherbrooke have been called out and an urgent request sent to the military authorities for assistance. Two regiments left by special train yesterday morning for the scene of the troubles.

Later news brings the intelligence that the Italians had a conflict with a party of Hungarians and citizens who represented the cause of the railway company, and that in the fight one Italian and four Hungarians were killed and between 30 and 40 injured. The 53th battalion left Sherbrooke last evening by special train for the scene of the trouble and it is hoped their presence will put an end to the disturbance.

THE YELLOW FEVER.

The Panic Said to be Slowly Subsiding—Some Towns Still Excited.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 26.—The President of the State Board of Health says there has not been a case of yellow fever in this city or State during the past three years. Trains are entirely suspended on the Mississippi Valley Railroad. Freight will go out to-day as far as Hattiesburg to carry provisions to points along the railroad this side of Meridan. Despatches from many points in Mississippi indicate that the panic is slowly subsiding. A few places, however, seem to be wild yet. A despatch from Yazoo City says that place is perfectly healthy, that all trains and mails have been stopped yet more than half the people have moved from the town. Similar conditions are reported from other points.

Jacksonville More Hopeful.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Sept. 26.—While new cases are developing rapidly the type of the disease appears to be milder than heretofore and while many people are very sick the death rate continues to improve and a more hopeful feeling prevails.

There have been about a dozen deaths in Fernandina during the past two weeks.

Montgomery Relieved.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Sept. 25.—The favorable reports from Decatur have greatly relieved the situation. Business is going on here as usual. The weather is cool, cotton is rolling in, and the streets are crowded with people coming in to trade.

Matters Getting Serious at Buffalo.

BUFFALO, Sept. 26.—The smallpox epidemic grows apace, and there is getting to be a serious feeling of uneasiness. The pest is attacking all quarters of the town and the best residential portions are not escaping the dread disease. Cases are reported on Niagara-street and Main-street and to-day Swan-street, the Delaware avenue of the east side, sends its contribution in the case of 19-year-old Orlin Kersey, a boarder at 296. A strict isolation of the house was ordered at once, but the children of the family have been attending one of the most popular schools on the east side and people have been passing in and out freely for several days. A case is reported to-day in Tonawanda.

Amateur Burglars Nabbed.

STRATFORD, Sept. 26.—Three stores were burglarized early yesterday morning. Mr. J. H. Dafton's store was entered by a rear door. Pocket books, cigars and various trinkets were taken. The burglars secured an entrance into Messrs. W. & F. Workman's by an upstairs window. Carpenters' tools, dark lanterns, revolvers and $4.15 were stolen. The burglars are two young lads of about 12 and 13 years of age. They were discovered while dividing the plunder. Their names are Thomas Connolly and Mickey Merkina. They had a hearing at the police court yesterday and will be tried by a jury.

Charged With Desertion.

PARIS, Ont., Sept. 26.—One of Mrs. John Campbellford's sons was very sick and not expected to live, in Pennsylvania, but her husband would not give her any money to go to him. Another of her sons in the States, sent her enough and she went, but could not get home for eight months on account of not having any money. However, she got home, and on going to the house of her husband, he caught her by the neck and threw her out, and would not support her, he having another woman keeping house for him. Mrs. Campbellford charges her husband with desertion.

White Women for Chinamen's Wives.

CHICAGO, Sept. 26.—Sam Wall, a Chinaman, and his wife, a white woman, are locked up at the Armory Police Station, charged with bringing white women from Milwaukee and furnishing them for wives to Chinamen here at $25 each. Through their matrimonial agency, it is charged, four or five local Chinamen have been furnished with wives.

The Rockwood Tragedy.

GUELPH, Sept. 26.—The coroner's jury which investigated the death of Mrs. Lawrence and her babe at Rockwood found a verdict to the effect that Mrs. Lawrence came to her death from want of proper attention caused by her own criminal action in not allowing and refusing help, and the child from loss of blood.

Young Men's Christian Association.

Annual Meeting—The Secretary's Report—Gloss of the Finances—The Most Growing Session—Officers Elected.

The annual meeting of the Peterborough Y.M.C.A. was held in the rooms Tuesday evening. The ladies of the Y.W.C.T.U. had prepared a beautiful supper in the reading room, converted for the occasion into a dining room, but they were disappointed in not having as many attend as was expected. Those who partook of the supper, however, have pleasant recollections of its variety and quality.

Shortly after eight o'clock the meeting was begun in the hall, Mr. H. S Griffin, in the absence of President Roger through illness, occupying the chair. After devotional exercises the secretary read his report as follows:—

SECRETARY'S REPORT.

To the officers and members of the Peterborough Young Mens' Christian Association.

DEAR BRETHREN,—The work of the Association during the past year will be entered into more particularly in detail in the reports of Committees that are received at this meeting.

There are some phases of the work however that will not be touched upon in these reviews and I will endeavor to confine myself more especially to these in this report.

At one of the first meetings of the Executive Committee where terms of office expires to-night it was very apparent that if we were to gain the presence of the young men in large numbers at our rooms during the evenings it would be necessary to increase the attractions and to make our rooms more cheerful and entertaining. In the reading room it was decided to make the following additions to our stock of magazines and papers:—Weeklies, Illustrated London News, Harper's Weekly, Scientific American and Supplement, Punch and Pessy Illustrated; magazines—Century, Outing, Youth, Sunday at Home, Boy's Own paper. These with the other periodicals already kept on file were to be neatly covered that they may be kept in good order. Four game tables given by Mr. Dee and the following games were supplied to the parlor:—Crokinole, chess, checkers, par chess and parlor curling. The reception committee issued a neat card calling attention to these additions, which were distributed freely among the young men of the town.

After this the attendance of young men during the evenings continued to increase each month, going from an average of 18 in October to between 40 and 50 in March, showing that the changes made had had the desired effect. Some of the results of this work have been as follows:—(a) Young men, who for the first time have dropped in to enjoy a quiet game, have become members and regular attendants at the rooms, and thus prevented perhaps from frequenting other places where the associations were not as wholesome; (b) Others have accepted invitations to attend our meetings and have thus heard of Christ our Saviour. We have the names of several young men who indirectly, through the social influences, have entered the Christian life and have identified themselves with the Christian church. (c) In number of cases the rooms have proven a boon and a home to young men who have become residents of Peterborough whose relatives live at a distance.

We cannot over-estimate the benefit of such rooms as ours to young men who are strangers and unacquainted in the town. It is to be hoped that ere long the embryo city will have an Association building that will be worthy of its growing prominence; a beacon light and safeguard to all young men strangers who enter its gates.

MEMBERSHIP.—We have added 68 names to our roll of members during the past year and have had to deduct 27, most of whom are accounted for by removals. Our membership now stand 268, or a net gain over last year of 41.

During the year letters of introduction to other Associations have been given to 18 young men as follows:—Toronto, 5; Montreal, 2; Chicago, 2; New York City, 1; Victoria, B.C., 1; Rochester, N.Y., 1; Buffalo, 1; Cobourg, 1; Albany, 1; Ottawa, 1; Los Angeles, Cal., 2. We have endeavored to follow up these introductions, and in many cases we have been gratified to receive answers speaking about the kindly word spoken and the interest taken in them by the friends to whom they have been introduced.

Quite a number of young men have come to us from other towns and cities, bringing letters from kindred Associations, to all of whom we have given a cordial welcome, and have assisted them in securing boarding houses, and in five instances introducing them to five businesses, where they were successful in procuring employment.

ATHLETICS.—Not having any gymnasium, the work in the physical department has been confined to the outdoor sports we have had in connection with our Snowshoe and Lacrosse Clubs. These, however, have been eminently successful, as will be seen by the report of the Committee on Athletics, etc.

LECTURES AND ENTERTAINMENTS.—Under the management of the Lecture and Entertainment Committe a very successful series of concerts, lectures and debates have been held during the year. The debates given by the members of the Lindsay and Peterborough Associations in their respective towns were largely attended, highly pleasing, and served a purpose in showing the bond of union existing between Associations of this character.

RELIGIOUS WORK.—The success of what may be called our secular, as distinguished from the purely religious agencies, has increased our opportunities of reaching and helping young men spiritually. The study of the Word of God was well developed during the year in connection with the young men's meetings, Bible and training classes. The attendance at the Sunday evening meetings has been large, the addresses pungent and practical, and the attention all that could be desired. The results accruing therefrom cannot be other than productive of great good. The special addresses to young men by Rev. A. B. Mackay, of Montreal; Hon. S. H. Blake, Toronto, and Rev. Messrs. Storey and Parker, Peterborough, given at different times during the year in the hall, drew large crowds, and were powerfully impressive. Many conversations have been held with young men by our workers in connection with these and other services, and in some instances the results have been fruitful and encouraging.

COMMITTEES.—The various committees of the Association represent the more active members, and in most instances they have performed their duties with vigor and efficiency. These committees have been as follows:—Executive, Finance, Devotional, (and sub-committees). Reception, Invitation, Lectures and Entertainment, Physical Department, and Boys' Work.

REMOVALS.—We regret and feel the loss of many workers and many friends of our work who have removed to other parts, but trust that men of like spirit may be raised up to that the work may increase in practical usefulness year by year.

ASSOCIATION NOTES.—Seven hundred copies of the Association Notes have been printed and mailed monthly to our members and subscribers. In this way a knowledge of the details of our work has been placed before our friends regularly, creating a more intelligent appreciation and more substantial co-operation with the work. In each number we have given a short, pithy address especially applicable to young men, and there have been many expressions of the benefit derived in the perusal of the same.

PROVINCIAL CONVENTION.—At the Provincial Convention of the Associations of Ontario and Quebec, held in Toronto in February last, the Association was represented by the following delegates:—Messrs. Geo. M. Roger, C. W. Beal, A. Clegg, R. H. Henderson, R. R. Wood and W. H. Stevens, from among whom the second Vice-President and Secretary of the convention were chosen. Two days after the convention we were favored with a visit from Canada's oldest Secretary, Mr. D. A. Budge, of Montreal. About 20 of our committee men met with Mr. Budge in the association parlor for conference. His address dealt chiefly with the methods of carrying on the work, and was practical and clear throughout. We have also had a visit from Mr. T. S. Cole, who has resumed his former position as travelling secretary. He has counselled and rendered assistance to us very materially.

BOYS WORK.—Besides the work for young men we have carried on quite a successful work among the boys of our town. On every Friday evening during the fall, winter and spring months the boys have been admitted to the rooms. From 7 to 7.45 o'clock they have spent in the reading room looking over the illustrated papers and enjoying the games in the parlor. At a quarter to eight they gather in the hall, where three quarters of an hour is spent in Bible exercise and study. Besides the memorizing of portions of Scripture they have been led by the Secretary in the study of some spiritual theme. The attendance has been very large, the largest being 94 and the average between 40 and 50.

A savings bank has been instituted with Mr. A. H. Scott as treasurer. The bank is open for deposits for half an hour before each meeting. Some nineteen accounts have been opened, the money being deposited each week in the Ontario Bank.

Special addresses and entertainments have been given to the boys as follows:—Oct. 7, "Gases," illustrated by experiments, by Mr. Jas. A. Fife, B.A., of the Collegiate Institute; Dec. 16, address, "How to run railroad trains without collision," Mr. Frank Dobbin; Feb. 3, "Chalk talk—art in a school room," Mr. Frank Dobbin. The work has been carefully managed by a committee of the older boys, consisting of Messrs. W. Smart (chairman), Charles Collins (secretary), Jack Fairbairn, Walter Wesley, Fred Radcliffe, Willie Norton and Ed. Mansell.

Towards the furtherance of our work we have raised during the year upwards of $1,500, the great bulk of which has come from subscriptions. To some this may seem a large annual outlay, and this is true. But in view of the needs of the young men of this town and the work that can be done for them by this Association in making them better citizens and more conscientious workers in their various trades and businesses, we have made a very small beginning, both in what we attempt to do for them and in money actually given. As Mr. Moody has said, "We have taken a teaspoonful idea when we should have a scoop shovel."

Great good has, indeed, been accomplished through the Association during the past five years of its existence, and it is hoped that during the years that are to come the work will so grow and commend itself to the public spirited and generous hearted that at least ten fold more will be witnessed during the next five years.

The praise belongs to the Author of every good gift for all that has been done. He has given us strength, means and money, which have sustained the work in the past, and this should encourage us to trust more implicitly in Him for the future, and bend every energy to make every possibility a reality.

Respectfully submitted.
WM. H. STEVENS,
General Secretary.

FINANCIAL.

Mr. J. W. Bennett presented the report of the Finance Committee, stating that the nominal deficit for the fiscal year ending 15th Sept., 1887, was $304, but this deficit, by reason of several liabilities which had been overlooked, was actually a little over $400. As far as could be ascertained, the present liability of the Association unprovided for was $123.46.

This, the committee considered, was, under the circumstances, a favorable showing. After making a couple of suggestions and recommendations, the report closed.

Several members spoke of the report, and it was proposed by the Secretary that an effort be made to relieve this debt at once. Mr. D. J. Bannel Sawyer subscribed $10; Mr. J. W. Bennett $3; Mr. Alfred Johnston offered to give $2 if others would subscribe to make up another $10, and Mr. George Fitzgerald subscribed $2, and six others put their names down for a dollar each. This made a total of $23, leaving a deficit of only $100.

MR. ISAAC RICHARDSON read the report of the Devotional Committee. The young men's Saturday night meetings had an average attendance of 16. The Sunday afternoon bible classes were well attended. The Auburn mission had also been successful. Special mention was made of the weeks service of prayer and the special addresses by the different gentlemen who had spoken in the interests of the Association.

Mr. R. H. Henderson read the report of the Physical Exercises Committee, giving a detailed report of the doings of the Snow shoe and Lacrosse clubs.

Mr. J. A. Fife presented the report of the Lectures and Entertainments Committee. This also briefly outlined the work of the committee in providing lectures and entertainments. The debates were commended as being both instructive and interesting.

Mr. T. A. Tebb read the report of the Reception Committee, showing that during the past year the number of visitors had been very large and constantly increasing.

MOTIONS.

Mr. J. A. Fife moved, seconded by J. W. Bennett, that a hearty vote of thanks be tendered the EXAMINER and *Review*tor their kindness in publishing notices of meetings and reports of proceedings.—Carried.

Mr. J. W. Bennett moved, seconded by Mr. Geo. J. Early, that thanks be extended to the Y. W. C. T. U. for the material entertainment on this and other occasions provided by them.—Carried.

Mr. Johnston moved, seconded by Mr. Cumming, that thanks be tendered to the Charlotte street, George street and St. Paul's churches for collections during week of prayer.—Carried.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

The Executive Committee's report, recommending the following officers for the ensuing year, was read as follows:—

PRESIDENT.—Geo. M. Roger.
1st VICE-PRESIDENT.—H. S. Griffin.
2nd VICE-PRESIDENT.—Dr. Scott.
TREASURER.—Geo. A. Schofield.
SECRETARY.—Mr. Herbison.
EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.—Geo. S. Bean, Alf. J. Johnston, O. C. Bowes, A. Tebb, I. Richardson, J. W. Bennett, W. W. Johnston, Geo. J. Early, J. C. Turnbull and C. W. Beal.

The report of the committees was adopted with the exception of engaging the Secretary, which was left in the hands of the Executive Committee.

FAREWELL WORDS.

The chairman, before closing, spoke a few words of regret at the departure of their faithful and popular Secretary, and hoped and trusted that his future might be as the path of the just that shineth more and more unto the perfect day.

Mr. Stevens said he had not intended coming to Peterborough last fall, as he had intended entering the ministry, but finding that he could not be decided to come up for a year. He had come here with a very unfavorable opinion of the town, but he had met many warm friends with whom he was sorry to part. He knew he would meet with difficulties in the calling he had chosen, but he asked the prayers of his Peterborough friends in his behalf.

The meeting was then brought to a close.

The Black Watch.

The "Black Watch," applied to the 42nd Regiment of Infantry, is an appellation given above a century and a half ago to certain armed companies employed to watch the Highlands of Scotland. The term "black" arose from the dress of this species of militia being composed of tartan of a dark color. In 1730 the companies assumed a regular form. They were six in number, three companies of 100 each, being commanded by a captain and three of 70 each, commanded by captain lieutenants. The body was raised chiefly from the loyal clans—Campbells, Grants, and Munroes. The whole of the companies in 1730 were formed into the 42nd Regiment under the Earl of Crawford.

The Irish Cricketers at New York—Ball games Yesterday.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—The attendance at the International cricket match yesterday was not so large as that of the preceding day, the weather being rather unpleasant. The Irish gentlemen resumed their first innings at the bat, three wickets having fallen for 26 runs. They rapidly run up the score, batting all of the opposing bowlers with ease. Their inning closed for a total of 228. The highest individual scores were J. T. Dunn, 126, J. M. Maiden 49 and D. T. Gillman 48. The second inning of the New Yorkers was commenced, but rain were drawn for the day after two wickets were down for 29 runs. Wilson of the New York eleven strained his back while running and is thought to be badly injured.

EDWARD HUGH M'KENZIE.

He Hasn't Got His Intelligence and It is Said His Parents Are Alive.

NEW BRUNSWICK, Sept. 26.—Edward Hugh McKenzie, a young Scotchman, made his appearance at farmer Johnson's place, near this city, as a tramp last fall and subsequently married his daughter. He also declared he was the heir of property in Scotland. He afterward bought Mrs. Cooper's farm in Plainville, but was ousted from it because he had never paid a cent of the purchase price. In the course of that part of his trouble he had Mrs. Cooper arrested and she had him arrested.

Last week a man appeared in Somerville, where McKenzie and his wife are, who said he was his brother and wanted him to return to Scotland. The man said McKenzie was the son of well-to-do people in Scotland, and that his parents were still living. A few months before he turned up here, he got into a scrape and was sent to an uncle's in the West Indies. After remaining there a short time he came to this country and for a time his uncle sent him small sums of money, but finally he ceased to do so and McKenzie became a tramp. The man said McKenzie must return home and he would compel him to do so, even if he had to have him arrested. He did not say how he would accomplish his purpose.

ONLY SEVENTEEN AND A GIRL.

Yet Her Employers Charge Her with Embezzling Their Funds.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—An alleged female embezzler, only 17 years old at that, smiled at the Tombs yesterday when charged with the larceny of $15 from her employers. It was only a clerical error, she said. She was Mary E. Raven of No. 52 Greenwich-avenue. The complainant, Joseph Schloss, of the firm of Schloss & Stern, bustle manufacturers, of No. 32 Howard-street, claim that the clerical excuse wouldn't do as there were other items which made the total amount appropriated by her $104. The specific amount on which she was required to furnish $1000 bail was for the larceny of $15 by altering an entry in the books. The complainant appeared to be afraid of a tongue-lashing at her hands. "If she comes in here," he said (meaning the examination room), "she'll raise a row." But her lawyer prevailed on her not to do so and James Turner of No. 402 West 29th-street, who has a snow-white beard and is said to be worth $200,000, went bail for her to appear for examination to-day.

Typhoid Fever at Bridgenorth.

PETERBORO, Sept. 26.—There are about fifteen cases of typoid and typhe-malarial fever in Bridgenorth. None of these have, as yet, proved fatal. It is thought that the epidemic is due to the prevalence of malarious winds from the marshes along the shore of the lake at Bridgenorth, which are developed by impure water.

Six more Scott Act cases were up at the Peterboro police court yesterday morning, and all the accused were fined $50 and costs. Three county cases were also tried by the county magistrate and the three hotel men were also fined $50 and costs.

Make a Note of This.

Pain banished as if by magic. Polson's Nerviline is a positive and almost instantaneous remedy for external, internal, or local pains. The most active remedy hitherto known falls far short of Nerviline for potent power in the relief of nerve pain. Good for external or internal use. Buy a 10 cent trial bottle. Large bottles 25 cents, at all druggists. 6d30

A Double Recommendation.

"We have used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and find that for diarrhœa it cannot be equalled. We cannot speak too highly of it." Ernest Clare Cross and Roy Neil Cross, Jasper, Ont., April 29th, 1888. 6dw30

The Source Identified.

A weak and low constitution, impure blood, etc., causes a deadly liability to contract disease. Purify the blood and remove all worn out matter and disease-breeding impurities from the body by using Burdock Blood Bitters which thoroughly cleanses, regulates and tones the entire system. 6dw30

Is Cholera Coming?

When symptoms of cholera appear, prompt remedies should be resorted to. Miss Mary E. Davis, of Lukeville, Ont., says—"My brother was bad with cholera morbus and after using one bottle of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, it cured him entirely." 6dw30 calls vividly to mind the appalling spectre of death, and yet no thought is bestowed thereon, such as annually destroy thousands caused by wrong action of the stomach, liver, kidneys or bowels, and which might be remedied by the use of B. B. B., nature's great restorative tonic and blood purifier. 6dw30

A Railway Smash Up

The Growth of the Hair

should always be watched. Inattention to the hair often leads to premature grayness and baldness. When dandruff appears it should be looked after at once. By its prompt using a bottle of Dr. Dennison's Hazel Steaming Hair Renewer, the scalp will be kept in a clean healthy condition and the strength and vigor of the hair greatly promoted. It is the only reliable. Do not be talked into using anything else. For sale by all druggists everywhere. dw

Pimples! Pimples! Blotchy Pimples.

Symptoms, Moist warm feeling and pimples. Speedy cure by nightly cuticura. It removes to continuous tumors form, which often blood and obstructs, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. Lyman, Sons & Co., Montreal, Wholesale Agents. dw is most appreciated where it is most needed, and there it is that Burdock Blood Bitters gains favor yearly by lending the weakened system valuable assistance in removing all impurities and building up a strong, healthy body. 6dw30

Small wares, sheet music and musical instruments of all kinds under the management of Prof. Doucet will be sold at a great discount.

My interest in Peterborough is much greater than that of an ordinary traveller, who drops in for a few days and spends three or four dollars with some hotel, and offers pianos by the catalogue—which no honest local man would approach. My prices are from $50 to $100 less than any traveller will quote you. Kindly inspect my stock and I will prove the above.

Magnificent Millinery.

The display of fashionable and stylish millinery and mantles at Miss Delaney's millinery emporium, 403 George street, eclipses all former displays. Miss Delaney, during her recent visit to the Montreal and Toronto millinery marts, secured a magnificent stock of millinery and millinery goods, the very latest styles and the choicest selections made personally by herself—with her full knowledge of what would meet the wants of her numerous customers. For latest fashion, style and beauty, Miss Delaney's millinery stock can't be surpassed. Her fall opening began to-day and will continue to-morrow and Thursday. 3d71

TURNBULL'S fall and winter stock is now complete, every department is crowded with beautiful goods, which will be sold cheaper than ever this season. d&w

Street Car Service.

Just now during the exhibition the need of a street car line in Peterborough is felt perhaps more than at any other time, and many people say it could be made a profitable concern at all seasons. However, the Grand Trunk Railway Company are supplying the service as best they can, and after the exhibition has been visited by the people they should not fail to call on gough bros., 375 george street, and inspect their large stock of the cheapest boots and shoes in the market. They purchased $6,000 worth of boots and shoes at 40 cents on the dollar, which are being rushed off at a great sacrifice. Study their advertisement in another column for prices and comparisons. Go early to avoid the rush at gough bros. d

Farewell Supper.

Last night about thirty of the young friends of Mr. Vernon Halliday and Mr. C. Brown met at Mr. Geo. Schofield's rooms and tendered them a farewell complimentary supper. Mr. Halliday goes to McGill College, Montreal, to study medicine, and Mr. Brown to the States to travel for a Canadian firm. The evening was spent pleasantly, music and hilarity being the order of things. The members of the amateur orchestra, to which Mr. Halliday belonged, were present and contributed much to the enjoyment of the occasion. Supper was served by Mr. E. Welsh. Messrs. Halliday and Brown will carry away with them the best wishes and kindest regards of all their associates.

A New Agency.

Mr. J. K. Macdonald, General Manager of the Confederation Life Association, was in town yesterday re-arranging the local agency, which has in the past been conducted by Mr. Harry Rush. Mr. Rush has now associated with him Mr. W. A. Dixon, late of the Canada Life, and the new firm will have the agency for the Confederation of a much larger territory, comprising the counties of Victoria, Durham and Peterborough, and part of Northumberland. They will besides add several fire insurance companies to their list, and will conduct a general insurance, real estate and financial agency. Both men are known to be enterprising and industrious, and the new agency will no doubt be a thriving one. They are now negotiating for suit able offices.

Sovereign Grand Lodge of Oddfellows.

The Los Angeles Daily Herald of the 16 inst. contains a full report of the reception of the Grand Representatives which met in that city on the 15th inst. Ontario was represented by Dr. Campbell, London; Harry Robertson, Collingwood; Dr. F. Rae, Oshawa and Col. Joe. Oliver of Toronto. The delegates were delighted with their overland journey. A reception Committee in charge of General Matthews, U.S.A., met the distinguished visitors who filled four heavily laden trains of the Santa Fe Road, at San Bernardino. Their entry into the City of "The Angels" (Los Angeles) was a brilliant scene. The decorations were magnificent in the extreme. The membership of the order is now about 600,000, but the Dominion of Canada has not yet received the recognition which some of the members think she is entitled to in the distribution of the highest offices.

A Change of Secretarys.

On Friday Mr. W. H. Stevens, who has filled the position of Secretary of the Y.M.C.A. here for several months, leavle for Calumet, Que., where he will fill the circuit of the Methodist minister at that place for the remainder of the year. Mr. Stevens has decided to study for the ministry, and will at once enter upon his duties. The Sherbrooke Examiner says "Mr. Stevens is a Sherbrooke boy, son of Maj. S. A. Stevens, whose course in the ministry, to which he has been looking forward for some time, will be watched with interest by his many friends and well wishers in Sherbrooke and Montreal. He has proved himself an able, efficient Secretary of the Y.M.C.A. in Montreal and Peterborough, and his work in those places has been of great assistance in fitting him for the high calling he has chosen." While in Peterborough Mr. Stevens has certainly given every satisfaction and has besides made many warm friends who while regretting his departure will wish him success in the vocation he has selected. His place here will probably be supplied by Mr. Herbison, a young man who has been assisting in association work in Michigan.

Personal.

Mr. J. K. Macdonald, Managing Director of the Confederation Life Association, Toronto, was in town yesterday.

Mr. Glennie, of the Bank of Ontario, has been removed to Mount Forest. Mr. A. E. Millyard, of the Bank of Commerce, goes to Toronto to receive orders, his place here being taken by Mr. Stewart, of Ottawa.

Mr. A. Dean, of Montreal, inspector of the Fire Insurance Co. Association, is in town to-day in the interest of the Association. The Association is represented in Peterborough by Mr. Cox, and Mr. A. L. Davis is showing the inspector the risks held by the Association.

THE CENTRAL EXHIBITION

Formal Opening by the Minister of Agriculture

The Second Day of the Exhibition a Good Success—Hon. C. A. Drury Formally Opens It—The Displays in all Departments Good—Big Crowds of Visitors to the Fair.

This was actually the opening, though the second day of the exhibition. The Hon. Charles A. Drury, Minister of Agriculture, arrived in town by the noon G.T.R. express, and was met at the station by the directors of the Society and Mr. J. B. Stratton, M.P.P. The party proceeded to the residence of the latter, where the visitor, the directors and other prominent gentlemen of the town were entertained at dinner. The party then proceeded to the exhibition grounds and the ceremony of formally opening the exhibition took place by Mr. Stratton, M.P.P., reading an address, on behalf of the directors, to which Hon. Mr. Drury made a felicitious reply. The text of the address and reply will appear in to-morrow's EXAMINER.

The second day of the Central Exhibition was ushered in with splendid weather and every indication of success. The Exhibition not being formally opened was not very largely attended, but at noon the tide of visitors began to pour in.

On the grounds there was great activity in the stock departments, and the ring was being kept filled with drivers and grooms, giving the horses entered for the speeding tentative spins.

The exhibit of horses was unusually good, and a visit to the stalls at ten o'clock gave one a good idea of the horse flesh department of the Exhibition. At the time of the visit of the representative of the EXAMINER some of the stalls were not filled, and any omission of an exhibitors name in the following list will of course be unavoidable and inadvertent. The heavy class of horses was particularly well represented.

Mr. Henry Hendre, of Yelverton, showed the Imported Clydesdale "Erskine's Pride."

Mr. F. Birdsall's mare and foal, in the roadster class, attracted attention, the colt is a specially fine strong animal.

Mr. James Walton, of Lakefield, was on hand with a saddle horse, and Mr. G. J. Jopling had also a saddle horse.

Mr. Angus Davidson, of North Monaghan, showed yearling colts and a two-year-old stallion.

Mr. R. E. Birdsall, Birdsall's, exhibits a pretty pied, Lapidist Chief, entered for the farmers trot.

Mr. W. J. Westington had a pair of "Paragon" jet carriage horses, which have four first prizes to their credit already, and also a mare and "Paragon" foal.

Samuel Staples' celebrated coach stallion, "Lord Sadley," was greatly admired. This horse has taken first prizes this year at the Western, London, the Toronto Industrial, and the Provincial. He has also a trotting filly entered for the three-year-old trot.

John Elgin, Cavan, shows a team of general purpose horses.

Wm. M. Fair is on hand with his natty roadster stallion, Clarion Chief.

Peter Drummond's mare and foal, the latter the get of Lord Sudley, are entered in the carriage class.

E. Philp, of Port Hope, has two horses for the roadster class—one over 15½ hands and the other under.

Wm. Rutherford shows a two year old general purpose colt.

R. Bowles, Springville, has a heavy draught mare and foal.

L. Bowles, of Springville, shows "Brown Stout," an imported Clydesdale stallion, aged three years.

Messrs. Dundas & Grandy, of Springville, have a splendid stud of Clydesdales on the ground, ten in number—six stallions of varying ages and four fillies.

W. Dickey, of Newtonville, a three year old roadster—"Rothschild."

R. A. Westington, Port Hope, a "Paragon" bred roadster, three years old.

Joseph Harper, Cold Springs, a two year old stallion.

Joseph Redmond shows the mare and foal which took first prize at the Provincial. The mare, a fine brute, weighs 1,700 lbs., while the colt, perfectly built, looks like a microscopic miniature of "John Anderson."

A. Faulkner, of Emily, shows a good two year old "John Anderson" colt.

Wm. Graham, of Smith, another from "John Anderson."

Wm. Martin, of Ida, shows the thoroughbred two year "Prince Welcome" [472] and the two year Clydesdale "John Anderson" filly, Mossouia (376).

T. Pettitt, of Lakefield, will make the pace in the ring with his pair of "pasters."

M. Sullivan, of Otonabee, shows a brood mare with a "John Anderson" foal.

Samuel Wallace, Lakefield, a carriage pair under 15½ hands.

James Trenam, John Anderson mare and foal.

A. Faulkner, Emily, 2 and 3 year fillie of Criffie get.

H. Staples, Cavan, a pair of Chestnut draft horses of Criffie get.

T. and L. Westington of Plainville, show the fine carriage stallion "Dictator."

J. Baptie of Springville, the 2-year old Criffie entire colt "Good Enough" and brood mare, and John Anderson foal.

W. J. Westington, Plainville, brood mare and foal.

Dr. Lane of Roseneath, a blood mare and foal, roadster, class and a carriage horse 15½ hands and over.

Alex. Paterson, handsome three year old stallion (a cousin of "Maud S." Harold Hartwood has a good trotting strain in him.

Mrs. J. H. Dixon, town, pretty team of blacks in carriage, class 15½ hands and under.

John Cochrane, Dosro, 2 year old Eatire roadster.

J. and E. Lucas, Cavan, pair 2 year old general purpose colts.

John Redpath, Cambourn, roadster class horse.

H. W. Kent, has his racer of War Cry and Tippo stock entered for four events, high jump, saddle class, gentleman's race and lady's race.

Dr. Stephenson enters two horses, one for gentlemen's race, and one for hurdle race.

S. G. Ferguson, Cavan, has two year old general purpose horse.

Job Dickinson, Hope, has a horse for the carriage class, and a saddle horse.

T. Welch, Otonabee, has a Criffie mare and "John Anderson" foal.

J. M. Irwin shows a grand pair of draught horses and a carriage team.

CATTLE, SHEEP AND SWINE.

There was a fair representation of thoroughbred stock.

In Holsteins, Stothart Bros. have a large herd, including "Valparaiso II."

Robert Campbell, of Roseneath, shows four animals.

Samuel Curtis, of Harwood, has a herd of Holsteins; eleven head—bulls, cows and calves.

A. Cameron and Geo. Howson are represented by Holsteins.

There were a few Jerseys on exhibition.

In thoroughbred Durhams there was a large display, Joseph Redmond, of Glen Grove stock farm, heading the list with a herd of 16, of which four are grades.

Wm. Miller, of Otonabee, shows the fine bull "Winner."

Sheep are fairly well represented, South and other downs predominating largely over the long wools. J. D. Naylor & Sons, of Fenelon Falls, have a flock of 13 Southdowns, and Brown Bros., Springville, show Shropshire downs and Cotswolds. John Fairbairn, of Smith, shows Lincesters, and Robert Vance, of Ida, Cotswolds. In pigs, especially thoroughbred Berkshires, there is a fair display. In poultry there is a very creditable showing, and altogether the live stock part of the exhibition is fully up to the mark.

THE INSIDE DISPLAY.

Inside the main building the space was largely occupied. In some departments the collection of articles was much superior in quantity and quality to that of previous years; in others there was a comparative falling off. The first floor contained a magnificent display of roots—mammoth turnips as big as a senator's head after a state dinner. Some splendid vegetables were also shown, particularly onions. Grains, especially wheat, were well represented. Messrs. A. R. Kidd and J. H. Dunbar compete with fine collections of potatoes, the former's conspicuous for size; the latter's for variety. The domestic department embraced an unusually good display. Home-made bread was abundant enough to feed a small army, flanked by a sufficient quantity of prime butter. It is worthy of remark that ladies in the country who excel in butter-making also secured prizes for painting on china and terra cotta. An abundant array of preserved and canned fruits adorned the shelves of the domestic department. On the first floor was also the displays of the music dealers. Mr. J. W. Crosby, with the Stevenson and Lansdowne pianos and Uxbridge organs; Mr. R. W. Reade exhibited the Williams' pianos. The Singer sewing machine also did credit to its reputation by a display in the usual section. Messrs. W. H. Mackleston & Co. had a large and tastefully arranged display of hardware, which attracted much attention. The ubiquitous and ever alive and alert Gough Bros., the wonderful cheap men, had a large section devoted to an elaborate display of their ready-made clothing, gents' furnishings, etc.

The second floor was exceedingly attractive, flowers, fruit, feminine finery and fine arts, forming a brilliant display. Messrs. Frank Mason and Geo. M. Rogers, florists, supplied splendid collections of hot-house flowers, while there were also amateur exhibitions. Among these the collection of Master Percy Hamilton, King street, town, (including ferns) was deserving of special mention. His success in floriculture, justifies his fondness for this refining pursuit. There was, considering the season, a fine display of fruit, especially apples, Mr. Joseph Giles, Geo. W. Hatton, Jas. Edwards and ——, were the principal exhibitors.

Mr. R. M. Roy and W. McFadden were the sole representatives of the photographic art, the latter with portraits and the former with a beautiful and extensive display of chiefly landscape and sea scene photograms, the former composed largely of scenes in Peterborough, and their number and variety are a practical testimony to the town's scenic beauty, and the elegance of her public and residence structures. The collection of fine arts works, either in oil or water color, was not large, but some good work was shown. The department of ladies work was well filled, and there were numerous meritorious productions, but an attempt to criticise the articles or even refer to them in detail would plunge the masculine scribe into deeper water than he could hope for rescue from. Hundreds of dainty specimens, representing much artistic taste in design and in execution, thousands of hours of labour and millions of stitches, were spread out for the admiration of those whose æsthetic culture could appreciate their merit—for all must have recognized their beauty. The interior display on the occasion of the visit of the EXAMINER representative was necessarily incomplete, and any omissions will be supplied if possible in the notes in to-morrow's issue. Mrs. S. McKibbon was the lady superintendent, and her attention to her duties must have won her the commendation of the directors and the gratitude of the exhibitors.

Favoritism at the Fair.

Porter Bros.' Vigorous Reply to the Quibbling Statements of the Directors—An Affidavit Ready to be Sworn to—Fair Play and no Favor Demanded.

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

SIR,—We ask your permission to make the following reply to the quibbling statements contained in a paragraph in your paper of the 25th instant, respecting our difficulty with the Directors of the Central Fair:

1st. It is not true that the circulars issued by us are "misleading." On the contrary, every word contained therein is justifiable; and we are distributing these circulars all over the Fair grounds into the hands of honest and intelligent farmers and others of the Midland district, who, we are satisfied, will adjudge us that measure of fair play which we and others have been denied by the Directors of the Peterborough Central Fair.

2nd. We are prepared to make an affidavit to the following effect:—That sometime in the month of July last, three of the Directors, viz:—Messrs. Rutherford, Fair and Vance, called at our office soliciting subscriptions to the Exhibition; that after some talk about our space at the Exhibition this year, their subscription book was handed to us, and we therein entered our subscription for the sum of $5, attaching thereto a memorandum to the effect that our subscription was on condition that we were allowed the space this year that we occupied on the previous three years; that these three directors consented, and took our subscription upon this expressed condition, and did not raise any objections thereto; that as a consequence, it was deemed by us altogether unnecessary to attend any future meetings for the allotment of spaces, seeing that our space had been assigned to us by these three directors.

3rd. Such being the case, we maintain that the action of Directors, in refusing to grant us the space to exhibit our goods, which they had agreed to, and giving it to a competing firm of carriage makers, was unjust and unfair. All we want is fair play and no favor, and if we can't secure this from the directors of the Central Exhibition we are bound to let the public know the reason why. Read our circulars and accept the hearty invitation contained therein to visit our warerooms, where there is at present to be seen as fine an exhibition of buggies, carriages, and other work of o wn manufacture as you can put your eyes on in Ontario.

Yours respectfully,
PORTER BROS.,

Carriage builders, &c., corner of Charlotte and Aylmer streets, opposite the M. & R. station. 1dw

Porter Bros. Own Exhibition.

One of the attractions at the Central Exhibition during the past three years has been the fine display of vehicles made by Porter Bros., carriage manufacturers. Each year they occupied the same space, and each year visitors to the fair admired their exhibit. This year they are not on the ground, and for this reason: When the directors were looking for aid for the fair, Porter Bros. subscribed $5, on the condition that they should again have the same space for their exhibit. This was agreed to by the directors, but since then the space was given to another firm. The consequence of this is that the exhibition lost one of the best displays it would have had, and Porter Bros. are holding an exhibition of their own in their own large show rooms. Visitors to the exhibition should not fail to call at Porter Bros. show rooms, where they will see a fine display of vehicles of all kinds as this firm has made in former years at the fair grounds. The fame of Porter Bros. work is not confined to a local trade, but extends over the Dominion, and to the old country. The firm build everything that moves on wheels in the shape of road vehicles, and have established a reputation that is fast bringing them into notice in the old world. They do the cream of the local trade and manufacture splendid buggies in all styles, phætons of many designs, and particularly cultivate a trade in their famous "O. B. & S. ROAD CARTS." In this they are specialists. Several orders have been received for shipment to the old country so highly are these carts esteemed abroad. In order to clear out the stock of buggies, &c., now on hand, they are selling at cost, those who propose buying should visit the show rooms and look the stock over. Room must be made for the winter stock of cutters and sleighs, which are fast coming forward. In cutters the variety is large, including the well known Peterborough sleigh, Portland and piano box styles of cutters, and all classes of heavy sleighs. Pleasure and family sleighs are an important part of the stock and splendid pieces of work in every respect. Visitors to the Central fair should not neglect to call at the show rooms, corner of Charlotte and Aylmer Sts. near the Midland railway station.

WINSLEY'S AWFUL FALL

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT AT THE CENTRAL EXHIBITION.

Carried Up 1000 Feet into the Air a Young Man Falls to the Earth from that Perilous Height.

OTTAWA, Sept. 27.—At the Exhibition grounds yesterday afternoon a young butcher named Tom Winsley was dashed to pieces by falling from a balloon at a height of over 1000 feet. Before Prof. Williams, the aeronaut, got ready to start, he asked assistance in holding down the impatient monster. Among the volunteers was Winsley, who with others grasped a stout rope running around the base of the balloon. Prof. Williams entered the car and shouted to let go. All released their hold with the exception of Winsley who retaining his hold was swiftly borne upwards. The aeronaut was unable to help the unfortunate, who though called upon to let go, still clung to the ropes. The balloon had now gone 1000 feet upwards, and the spectators stood paralyzed with fear, gazing upwards at the unfortunate man, who, after letting go one hand, desperately clung to the rope with the other, only to fall earthward the next moment. Down he came, executing a series of somersaults in the air. He struck in a field 100 feet from the grounds, and with the exception of his face was terribly smashed. Winsley was aged 20 and was unmarried.

Caught in the Shafting.

LONDON, Ont., Sept. 27.—The first really serious accident to mar the enjoyment of the Western Fair took place yesterday afternoon, about 3.30, in Machinery Hall. Mrs. Annie Towers, a young lady from Hibbert, who came from Exeter with friends to visit the fair, had gone into Machinery Hall and after looking at the exhibits for a while, sat down to eat her lunch. Unfortunately Mrs. Towers did not observe how close she was to the moving machinery, and before she could realize her danger her dress became entangled in the shafting, around which she was rapidly whirled a number of times before she could be released from her terrible situation. When extricated the unfortunate woman was entirely denuded of clothing, with the exception of her shoes and stockings, her injuries being of a serious character. The injured woman was at once removed to the City Hospital. The hospital attendants, at a late hour last night, reported that she was progressing favorably.

MONTREAL EAST ELECTION.

Lepine, the Labor Candidate, Returned by 685 Majority.

MONTREAL, Sept. 27.—In the election in Montreal East yesterday to fill the vacancy in the Dominion House, out of 12,000 names on the lists only 6973 were polled, of which Lepine, the Labor candidate, received 3829, and Poirier (Liberal), 3144, leaving Lepine's majority 685.

Cardwell Nominations.

MONO MILLS, Sept. 27.—R. S. White and Wm. Stubbs, both Conservative, were nominated here yesterday to contest Cardwell for the vacancy in the Dominion House, caused by the death of Hon. Thos. White.

AT THE BRITISH CAPITAL.

MATTERS OF GENERAL INTEREST TO CANADIANS.

Work of the Crofter Emigration Commissioners — Montreal Civic Debt — Sir George Stephen's Generous Act.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—Important official business compelled Sir Charles Tupper to relinquish his intention to address the Associated Chambers of Commerce now assembled at Cardiff. The hope is expressed that Sir Charles will take an early opportunity to re-affirm Canada's pacific but firm attitude in respect to her relations with the United States.

Sir George Stephen announces his intention to build and endow a cottage hospital at a cost of £3000, in Dufftown, Scotland, for the benefit of Mortlach and Glenrinnes parishes. The gift is highly appreciated in Scotland.

The Crofter Emigration Commissioners will complete their enquiry in a fortnight. The accepted families will leave Glasgow for Canada, beginning in March, two months earlier than this year's batch. The commissioners speak highly of the fitness of the selected emigrants.

Steps are being taken to effect the conversion of the Montreal civic debt upon the lines adopted by the council. It is calculated that £860,000 of new stock will now be issued, half the proceeds being applied to the floating debt and loan charges, the remainder to public works. Three per cent. is spoken of as the rate of interest, 3½ being the maximum. The Canadian Gazette, commenting on the subject, remarks that good 3½ per cent. British municipal stock is worth 110, and though Toronto fours are not much above par they are worth much more. Montreal stock should be worth quite as much as Nottingham stock, which, bearing 3 per cent., is quoted at 97. If this unreasonable difference between colonial and British municipal stock is to be maintained the new Montreal stock must be issued by the best medium on the best method.

It is semi-officially denied that the Canadian Pacific Railway Co. are moving towards the acquisition of the Manitoba Northwestern.

MISS WILSON CRUELLY DECEIVED.

The Man She Married Proved to be a Bigamist and Sentenced to Prison.

MIDDLETOWN, Sept. 27.—Miss Lucy Wilson, belonging to a respectable family of the town of Warwick, and who has considerable property in her own right, has been made the victim of a cruel deception and wrong. About two years ago she became acquainted with George H. Bale, a good-looking young man, who hailed from Sussex County, New Jersey. It was known that Bale had been married in June, 1885, to Mrs. Susan Quick, a handsome young widow of Deckertown, but he represented to Miss Wilson and her friends that he had obtained a divorce. He courted Miss Wilson and finally persuaded her to marry him, the event occurring in November last.

No sooner had the marriage taken place than Bale set to work to get possession of his victim's property, it is believed with the purpose of converting it into money and then skipping out. Miss Wilson's brother-in-law and legal guardian, Elihu Lovett, was led to make enquiries about Bale's antecedents, which resulted in the disclosure that his wife, the former widow Quick, was living in Andover, N.S., and had never been divorced. Bale was arrested about ten days ago and lodged in jail at Newton. He was indicted and arraigned on the charge of bigamy at the current term of the Sussex County Court. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to two years in the State Prison at Trenton.

No Mercy For Beer Sellers.

WICHITA, Sept. 27.—The famous Stewart case, in which Stewart, the drug store clerk, pleaded guilty of selling 208 glasses of beer and was sentenced to upward of 17 years in jail and a fine of $20,800, is again brought to notice by the beginning of a suit by Assistant Attorney General Hollowell to recover his fees in the case, amounting to $6200. These, under the Murray amendment, are recoverable from the property in which the liquor was sold, and Colonel Hollowell now proposes to collect the cost by selling the property in which Stewart violated the law. Under the Murray law, should Mr. Hollowell desire to push his claims, he can establish liens on many of the finest properties in the city.

A Peculiar Scoundrel.

PROVIDENCE, R.I., Sept. 27.—Frank Norcross was sentenced in the 8th District Court of Olneyville last night to three years in the State workhouse for lewd and wanton behavior. He had been at work at domestic service in Auburn in feminine apparel and roamed about through the night frightening women and later accosting men in a loose manner. He was captured and pleaded for an immediate trial. He is the same man who created a stir in Boston several years ago when he was married to a man. He said he had always preferred woman's clothes and woman's work, and had worn female garb for several years. When he was 17 he was married to John King and his sex was not known until after the ceremony.

A Fair Drowned Out.

PROVIDENCE, R.I., Sept. 27.—The rain which began at midnight on Tuesday continued throughout the night and was accompanied with wind which increased every hour, culminating between 8 and 9 o'clock yesterday morning. The State fair at Narragansett Park was all but drowned out and many of the large dining tents were blown over. In the city, trees, fences, unfinished buildings, wires and campaign banners all suffered. At the anchorage the steam yacht Stylo had her cabin washed off and upper works stove in, doing about $1000 damage. The sloop Rowena and the Dozell were badly damaged. The sloop Undine struck a rock and sunk and a number of catboats were badly injured.

Chicago's Archimedes.

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 27.—The mammoth McCormick building, at the corner of Jackson and Market-streets, on the river, six stories in height and covering half a block, has been raised six feet, to correspond with the grade of the new viaduct just built on Jackson-street. The huge brick structure weighs many thousand tons, was raised by means of jackscrews and not a piece of mortar was displaced in the operation.

Fire in an Iron Mine.

HUDSON, N.Y., Sept. 27.—At an early hour Tuesday morning fire broke out in the Barden iron mines below this city and still continues. The flames are 300 feet from the opening and are fed by scaffolding, railroad ties and lumber supports. The loss will be large and the damage will cause the suspension of all work at this point for several days. No report of injury to any of the employes has been received.

Earthquakes in Ecuador.

GUAYAQUIL, Sept. 27.—Two severe shocks of earthquake were felt here last night for about two minutes. The shocks were followed by flashes of lightning. At this time of year lightning has been unknown and the people are panic stricken. At Helena, Ecuador, a sharp shock of earthquake was felt last night about the same time as at Guayaquil.

LABBY'S LETTER.

Interesting Gossip about Royalties and Others on This Side.

LONDON, Sept. 2.—The wedding of Princess Sophia of Prussia to the Crown Prince of Greece will take place at the end of next June at Berlin. The Princess is not to enter the Greek Church, but any children of the marriage will be brought up in the orthodox faith of the Greeks. The fact that King George of Greece contemplates abdicating his throne I announced some time ago. I now hear that His Majesty, who is by far the most popular member of his family, has privately intimated to the Emperor William and to the Czar that he intends to take his final departure from Athens early next summer, before the marriage of the Crown Prince and the Princess Sophia. King George recently purchased a chateau in Denmark in the vicinity of the royal schloss of Friedensborg, and proposes to reside there during a portion of the year. At other times he will live in Germany and in Russia.

I hear that Sir Morell Mackenzie's counter-blast to the German medicos is to be published on Monday, Oct. 15. It will appear simultaneously in London, Paris and Berlin. Though Sir Morell has had many restrictions imposed on him, I understand that the book will be interesting not only to doctors, but also to the public, and that the medical details will be made intelligible by illustration. A formidable mass of statistics has been collected, which clearly show how little chance the Emperor Frederick would have had of coming to the throne if he had been left in the hands of the German surgeons.

The relations between Emperor William and the English court are still as bad as possible, and His Majesty's recent hint that he might not be indisposed to visit his grandame her at Windsor next winter met with a frigid response to the effect that the Queen is so much affected by Emperor Frederick's death that she will not be able to receive any state guests until July next.

Mme. Patti has concluded a contract to return to Buenos Ayres next year at a minimum salary, I hear, of $6250 per night and a further share of the receipts after a certain sum has been taken. She expects to sail about March 5, and will give at least 32 performances.

The much bepuffed beauty show held last week at Spa, in Belgium, can only be characterized as a "do do." The so-called "beauties" on view consisted of ten or a dozen girls, and some of them passably old girls, too, the majority of whom had no pretensions whatever to be considered even good-looking. Night after night these ill-assorted girls posed on a platform in gaudy gilt and white fauteuils, while an audience, consisting chiefly of Belgian "chappies" and "Johnnies" (and, ye gods! what "chappies" and "Johnnies" they are!), discussed their personal points with questionable taste, though good-humored toleration. The excitement had wholly died out long before the depressing exhibition had come to an end, and even the Spa master was unable to simulate a languid interest in what—not to put it too strongly—was from beginning to end a melancholy farce, if not a contemptible failure.

With regard to Mr. O'Brien's threatened revelations concerning the rascality in high castle quarters, I will only say that if they prove to be well founded the fact should surprise no one who considers what castle rule has been and what sort of men have been its minions and manipulators during the course of this and the past generation. You cannot employ a man every day from 10 to 4 in works of evil, in cruelty, robbery, tyranny and oppression, and then expect him to be an honest man out of office hours.

It is alleged that John Bunyan was a plagiarist, and that the "Pilgrims' Progress" is a literal translation from the French of the work entitled "Ye Pilgrimage of Ye Soule," by Guillaume de Guileville, a monk of the fifteenth century, a translation of which was printed by Caxton in 1483. It is believed that a copy of the original French manuscript is to be found either in the British Museum or in the Bodelian library at Oxford, and it might be worth while to search for it in order that the question may be decided.

John Morley is writing monographs on Lord Chatham and Mr. Pitt for the "Eminent Statesmen" series.

Two of the principal novels of the autumn publishing season will be "The Legacy of Cain," by Wilkie Collins, and "Through the Long Night," by Mrs. Lynn Linton, both of which appear about the middle of next month. HENRY LABOUCHERE.

THE WHITECHAPEL MYSTERY.

A Strange Statement Made Before the Coroner's Jury.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—The coroner in summing up at the inquest in the case of the last woman found murdered in Whitechapel stated to the jury that shortly after the details of the last sitting of the jury had been published the sub-curator of the English pathological museum had informed him that some months ago an American had visited him and asked him to procure a number of specimens of the uterus. The visitor stated that he would willingly pay £20 each for specimens, his object being to issue an actual specimen with each copy of a book upon which he was engaged. The sub curator promptly informed the applicant that it would be impossible to comply with his request. The American still urged the possibility of procuring the specimens and said he wanted them preserved in glycerine instead of spirits, in order to keep them flaccid. The request had been repeated at another institute. The sub-curator had promptly informed the Scotland Yard authorities of the facts in his possession. The coroner expressed the hope that greater publicity would tend to elucidate the mystery, and that the publication of these facts in the American press would assist in throwing light on the subject.

The Week's Failures.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—The business failures as reported by telegraph to-day to Dun, Wiman & Co., number for United States 200 and for Canada 28, or a total of 228 as compared with 217 last week and 224 the week previous to the last. For the corresponding week of last year the figures were 183, made up of 156 in the United States and 27 in Canada.

THE SAWYERVILLE RIOT.

NO FURTHER TROUBLE REPORTED YESTERDAY.

The Contractors' Deliberately Planned Swindle—The C. P. R. Refuses to Carry Ammunition to the Scene.

MONTREAL, Sept. 27.—Advices from Sawyerville state that the 58th Battalion and Cavalry arrived at the scene of the riots last evening by special train. No further particulars about the laborers' attitude have been received, but it is hoped the worst is over.

The departure of the contractors, Shirley, Corbett & Co., who hailed from Ottawa, seems to have been deliberately planned. They were the lowest tenderers and under their contract they were to be paid 90 % of their estimates of the previous month on the 15th of every month. They deposited $5000 with the company as additional security. They commenced their work in June and were paid for their June, July and August work. Their estimate for August amounted to $30,000, but they represented to the company that it had been a very rainy and hard month for them and that they had a note to pay for money that they had borrowed to put into the work. They therefore asked the company as a favor to return them the deposit of $5000. The company consented and paid them $25,000. This was on Saturday the 15th. There was not at that time the slightest suspicion of their good faith. On Friday last all three absconded and took their bookkeeper with them.

The most of the laborers were Italians. They were badly advised by their interpreters and instead of going to work for the company, which gave notice that it would finish the work, they came down in a body numbering about 400 to the contractors' office at Sawyerville and about 200 to the contractors' office in Hereford, and since every effort has been made by the company to induce them to return to work but without success. The company have furnished them with bread to live on in the meantime. The Italians are armed with revolvers and dirks and threaten to cross the line into the United States, which is quite near.

Col. Houghton, D.A.G., secured 10,000 rounds of ammunition from the St. Helen's Island armory yesterday morning and had it taken to the G.T.R. depot to be forwarded by the 7 a.m. train, but the G.T.R. authorities refused to carry it and it had to be delayed until the 5.15 p.m. train by the C. P. R.

33 MEN'S POCKETS PICKED.

A Thief Robs All But Two Excursionists on the Steamer J. B. Schuyler.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—All records of pocket picking were broken on the last trip of the steamboat J. B. Schuyler to the fishing banks, according to an account given at police headquarters yesterday by an eyewitness. The Schuyler's last trip was on Sunday. The steamer was advertised to start at 7 a.m. from East Twenty-third-street, and from early dawn there was a big rush for seats along the rail. To make sure of being on time, a number, chiefly young men, had gone on board at midnight and selected the best places for themselves and friends. Leaving one of their number in charge, the different groups had retired to the cabin to sleep on the carpeted floor. About 3 o'clock between thirty and forty fishermen were stretched out asleep in the cabin, when one of them was aroused by having a hand thrust into his pocket. He started up with angry exclamations that aroused his neighbor. Both found that their pockets had been cut and their money stolen.

The mysterious hand and its owner had disappeared in the darkness, but the hunt for the thief that ensued awoke the rest of the sleepers. Pretty soon everybody was swearing mad. Of thirty-five sleepers there were only two whose pockets had not been touched. The thirty-three other men had been robbed. In every instance their pockets had been cut and emptied by that deft, unknown visitor. One man lost a gold watch. The losses of the others amount to about $100.

A thorough search was made on the steamer for the thief or thieves, but the night had swallowed them up. Had they been caught there would have been some wild Western justice administered there and then.

A Boy Roasted to Death in a Burning Car.

ERIE, Sept. 27.—Firemen were horrified to find in a half burned car of baled rags the roasted body of a boy. The charred remains were taken to an undertaker's, and the public was allowed to view the body with the hope that someone might furnish a clue to the boy's identity. Among the youngsters who came to see the body was Frank Cuppe, who, when he saw it, shrank back in terror. When called before the coroner's jury Cuppe testified that the boy was Conrad Benghardt, a companion whom he had sympathizingly stowed away in the car of rags after listening to a tale of cruelty and ill-treatment at the hands of an ill-tempered father. Benghardt said that his mother was dead and that his father had driven him out that night. Having no place to go to, he begged Cuppe to gain an entrance to the car, and after he was in young Cuppe closed the door and fastened it. A firebug had applied the torch to the car, first stuffing some oiled waste into a crevice. Benghardt's father refused to identify the body, and there is a great deal of indignation against him.

Fighting About Seakim.

SUAKIM, Sept. 27.—The rebels yesterday made an attack upon the waterfort. They were repulsed with severe loss. One British gunner was killed. The gunboats continue firing into the rebel camp. Deserters report that there is much sickness in the camp. Cholera has broken out in Khartoum.

A Renewal of the Mexican Floods.

CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 27.—Guerrero reports a renewal of the floods. Much damage has been done and many lives lost. Many mines are under water.

The Drama.

It was a good audience that witnessed the presentation of the "Bells of Shandon" at the Opera House last night by Baird's Dramatic Company. It was also a well satisfied audience when the performance was over. To-night the comedy "Joshua Whitcombe" will be played. The low prices and good quality of the entertainment provided are drawing good houses for Mr. Baird.

An Item for Gentlemen.

Seventy-five pieces of new panting goods have just been received at H. LeBrun's, comprising English, Scotch and Canadian tweeds of the best material and most fashionable styles. Pants will be made to order off these goods at $3.50, $4 and $4.50. A saving of from $1 to $2 will be effected to any man by getting these goods. Orders should be left early; a good fit is warranted. A Collision.

On Wednesday, about noon, a collision occured on the corner of Hunter and Stewart streets. Two gentlemen riding in opposite directions allowed their buggies to collide, throwing both out. One of the parties had considerable difficulty in picking himself up, and the other sprained his ankle. The buggies were not badly injured. Be more careful in future, gentlemen. Look straight ahead while driving.

A Question of Time.

A resident on the market square called this morning and requested the EXAMINER to take up arms in behalf of the town clock regeneration movement. He wants to know why the eastern dial of the clock is allowed to remain in a none-active state. The people on the east side of the clock, he says, are crying out for a moving pair of hands that will indicate the time of day for them. It certainly is about time the clock was fixed. Who is responsible, anyway?

Heating the Central.

Mr. F. J. Daly, proprietor of the Grand Central hotel, is continually making improvements in the building, calculated to increase its equipment and popularity. The latest innovation is the introduction of a system of hot air heating throughout the hotel. Mr. J. Moffatt, agent for Clare Bros. & Co., Preston, has just placed in two of their Pleasant Home furnaces, which are all ready for the pipes, and these will be put in before cold weather comes. These furnaces are fitted with all modern improvements and will furnish ample heat for the whole building.

A Painful Accident.

Mrs. Henderson, mother of the wife of of Mr. R.R. Hall, Stewart street, with whom she lived, on Tuesday night, by mistake, entered the open doorway leading to the cellar and fell down the steps to the bottom, breaking her wrist and injuring her back. She had her little grandchild in her arms at the time, but fortunately it was not hurt. Mrs. Henderson is an old lady, and will not readily recover.

The Manufacturers Accident Insurance Company, Wilson & Morrison agents, have cheap rates and large indemnities. No one should be without an accident policy.

That Appeal Case.

The appeal case County of Victoria vs the County of Peterborough was argued in the Court of Appeal at Toronto on Wednesday. Mr. Christopher Robinson, Q.C., and Mr. E. B. Edwards, county solicitor, appeared on behalf of the defendants, and though judgment was reserved Mr. Edwards considers that the prospects of the county in the case are most favorable. The suit is regarding the liability of the county of Peterborough to one-half the expense of maintaining the bridges at Bobcaygeon. These bridges are in that section of land lying west of Pigeon Lake, which at one time belonged to the township of Harvey, when this county stood its share of expense, but when these lots on which the bridges are situated were annexed to the county of Victoria, the county of Peterborough disclaimed all liability as to further maintenance.

Enterprise.

The Endeavor Society of Charlotte street Methodist church, after comparing the merits of different pianos with a view of making a purchase, have decided in favor of the Lansdowne piano. Mr. Crosby, of this town, is the agent. The Society at its last meeting decided to hold their meetings every Monday evening in the future. It is the intention of the Society to furnish a number of choice entertainments during the fall and winter and we believe their efforts will be appreciated by the public. Bengough, Grip's able cartoonist, will be engaged at an early date, and his popularity in Peterborough will ensure him a large audience. To all young people who wish to avail themselves of the advantages of this Society, a favorable opportunity to join would be next Monday evening in the schoolroom of the church.

A Pastor's Welcome.

The following paragraph taken from the Harrisburg, Pa., Call, of Monday, Sept. 24th, will be of interest to the many friends in Peterborough of Rev. Thos. B. Angell, son-in-law of Mr. Wm. Claxton: "St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Front street, never presented a prettier appearance than it did yesterday on the occasion of the reception of the new rector, Rev. Thomas B. Angell, who has now taken his place among the able clergy of our city. The chancel of the church was profusely decorated with flowers, as also the reading desk, pulpit and baptismal font, while the sun, gleaming through the beautiful stained glass windows, shed a soft and mellow light upon the surroundings. The edifice had been recently renovated, a new carpet laid, and every effort made to render effective the interesting occasion, which brought together a large and appreciative body of worshippers." The Call publishes also a synopsis of Rev. Mr. Angell's opening address.

Drill and Calisthenics.

The Pupils of the Collegiate Institute at the Skating Rink—A Large and Admiring Audience in Attendance.

It was advertised to be grand, and grand it was. Several hundred people, probably nearly a thousand, attended the entertainment in the Charlotte street skating rink Wednesday night, given by the pupils of the Collegiate Institute under the supervision of Sergt.-Major Rundle. Every seat was occupied and standing room was at a premium. In the musician's balcony the 57th Batt. band was stationed and at intervals lent the additional charm of music to the proceedings. Shortly after eight o'clock the grand entrance was made. The Daughters of the Regiment, about fifty strong, attired in their natty blue uniforms, were the chief attraction. They looked charming under the bright electric light, and the grace and precision with which they performed the exercises and evolutions they undertook spoke much for their diligent application and attention to the instructions of their teacher. Sergt.-Major Rundle was present in full military uniform and conducted all the movements, and as his intelligent eye rested proudly upon the handsome figures of "his girls" and took in the accuracy of the drill, he appeared to be about a foot taller than usual. The boys too, though they were rather eclipsed by the brilliant appearance of the girls showed that they were not one whit behind in their drill. Their every motion was full of vim and well regulated activity. The Sergt.-Major has every reason to be proud of both his boys and his girls, and they too may be proud of the way in which they acquitted themselves without being a bit conceited. During the different movements applause was frequent, and from the encomiums passed upon the entertainment it evidently gave very satisfaction to the large audience. On a couple of previous occasions rehearsals on a smaller scale have been held, and as these have been before described there does not remain much to be written about.

After the grand entrance a tableau was shown at the upper end of the rink, the Daughters of the Regiment formed in a square prepared to receive a charge of cavalry. Then came calisthenic exercises by the girls, followed by battalion drill by the boys, marching, counter-marching, etc. Then the Daughters of the Regiment performed some military movements, consisting mainly of rifle exercises. Each of the girls carried a light "dummy" rifle that answered all drill purposes and completed their equipment. The 57th Batt. Band rendered a beautiful selection, after which the chorus, "Let Me Like a Soldier Fall," was sung by the "girls in blue." Skirmishing to the sound of the bugle was next done by a dozen boys, and in this they did themselves great credit. Had the lads been in uniform, their appearance in this, as in all their other exercises, would have been much better. Sergt.-Major Rundle hopes to soon make enough money to provide them with the necessary outfit. Dumb bell exercise by the boys followed, and after it came a motion song and fancy marching by the Daughters of the Regiment. In this the climax of their evening's performance was reached, and they were roundly applauded. The boys were then put through a series of calisthenic exercises, and another tableau was presented with red light effect—a gymnastic charge by the boys. Then the whole juvenile battalion was marched out upon the floor and "Rule Britannia" sung, after which the national anthem, and cheers by the boys for the "Daughters of the Regiment" closed the entertainment and the audience dispersed.

Sergt.-Major Rundle was the recipient of hearty commendations from many of the people who witnessed the entertainment, and for a certainty both he and his pupils are to be congratulated upon the success of their first essay to please the public's taste for amusement.

All recognise in this, besides, an important factor in the proper physical development of our young people, and while making a scene pleasing to the eye, another and far more important object is gained in the way of physical culture. Sergt.-Major Rundle's introduction of drill and calisthenics among the Collegiate Institute pupils has received a practical endorsation by the people of Peterborough, who turned out in such large numbers to applaud and admire Wednesday night's performance.

REPEATED BY REQUEST.

The success of last night's performance was complete. Everyone was more than delighted with it, and at the request of many citizens it will be repeated to night, when the admission fee will be reduced to 15c. Those who were unable to attend last night will have another opportunity to-night of witnessing a novel and interesting entertainment.

Peterborough Defeats Campbellford.

The Peterborough and Campbellford cricket clubs played on the grounds here Tuesday, the home team winning by an innings and 43 runs The Peterborough men did not find it very difficult to punish the bowling of their opponents, while the latter could apparently do very little with the delivery of Day and Strathy. Hamilton was very successful also in the first innings. The score is:—

Great Little Men.

Some of the greatest men that ever lived were of small stature and insignificant appearance. The reader will readily recall many instances. Very small are Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets, but they are far more effective than the huge, old-fashioned pills which are so difficult to swallow and so harsh in their action. The "Pellets" are gentle and never cause constipation. For liver, stomach and bowel derangemnets they have no equal. a

A LETTER FROM BAXTER.

The Broker Explains to Magistrate Denison Why He Doesn't Go to Toronto.

MONTREAL, Sept. 27.—Tuesday morning Mr. James Baxter decided to proceed to Toronto in accordance with the subpœna which had been served upon him in the case of the Central Bank against Barnett. Arriving at Ottawa he left the train to consult his Montreal counsel, Mr. McMaster, Q.C., who had in the meantime received a lengthy communication from Mr. J. J. Maclaren, Q.C., Mr. Baxter's Toronto counsel, telling him that as far as he could discover, Mr. Baxter's presence was not required in Toronto in the Barnett case, but that the subpœna had been served upon him merely as a trap to entice him there, when other proceedings in connection with the Bank case would be taken against him. Mr. Baxter therefore returned to Montreal and addressed a letter to Police Magistrate Denison, stating the above as his reason for not going to Toronto.

Yesterday afternoon Chief Hughes received a telegram from Chief Grasett stating that a detective had left Toronto with a warrant for Baxter's arrest, and requesting the Montreal Chief to have the famous broker arrested. This Chief Hughes refused to do, and says if Baxter is to be arrested here it will have to be by a Toronto officer.

Jacksonville's Death Roll—Disgraceful Conduct of Nurses.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Sept. 27.—The official bulletin for the 24 hours ending at 6 o'clock last evening reports 103 new cases (whites 31, negroes 72), deaths 8. Total cases to date 2237, total deaths 229. Some of the nurses who have come here are causing trouble by their bad character. One female nurse who had been very faithful hitherto was arrested to-day drunk and was placed in jail. One of the patients had a relapse on account of her neglect. The Harry Miner nurses say they have received no remittances from home and are asking who is to pay them. The Board of Health are considering the matter.

Fulljames' Funeral—Dollar Wheat at Portage in Prairie.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 27.—The funeral of Fulljames took place yesterday. The man who struck the fatal blow is Bennon, at one time a resident of Winnipeg. Parties who saw the wound in Fulljames' temple are of opinion that it could not have been caused by a blow with the bare fist.

On the extension of the Brandon-Morris branch tenders have been called for twenty miles by the Northern Pacific.

Wheat is quoted at $1 at Portage in Prairie.

The charge against Strachan and Deegan for complicity in the McKay mock marriage was withdrawn yesterday morning by the Crown and another of forgery laid. As forgery is extraditable an effort will be made to bring McKay back.

THE CENTRAL EXHIBITION

Continues to be a Pronounced Success.

The Minister of Agriculture's Address and Reply—Wednesday's Speeding in the Ring—Continuation of the Report of Exhibition Notices.

Following is the address read on Wednesday afternoon to Hon. Chas. A. Drury, Minister of Agriculture, on the occasion of the formal opening, and the text of the hon. gentleman's reply :—

Hon. Charles Alfred Drury, M. P. P., Minister of Agriculture for the Province of Ontario:

The Directors of the Peterborough Central Exhibition desire, on the occasion of this your first visit to this town and county in an official capacity, to give you a welcome as warm as words can express, and to take this the very first opportunity of thanking you for your attendance to do us the honor of opening this annual exhibition of this society.

We also take this, the first opportunity of heartily congratulating you upon being selected to fill one of the most important and responsible positions in the Provincial Cabinet. We regard the appointment, in the first place, as a graceful recognition of your personal fitness for its occupancy, and a practical recognition of the value of your long, faithful and intelligently directed efforts for the promotion of the interests—in every department—of the farming community of this Province. As a successful, practical agriculturist, you have effected much by the force of example, and if one thing more than another emphasizes the wisdom of your selection as Minister, it is the fact that a practical farmer has been charged with the specific duty of guarding and promoting the interests of his fellow-farmers.

Again we regard your appointment as the tangible expression of the fact that governments are arriving at a proper and practical conception of the important, and, we can truthfully assert, foremost part which Agriculture performs as a factor in the prosperity of this great country. Both the Federal and Provincial Governments have given evidence that an industry, which, in this Province alone, employs in its equipment and operations, a capital of almost a thousand million of dollars, is worthy of special administration and supervision. And we may safely assert that the government of this province never did a more popular and universally commended act than the establishing of a department of agriculture, and never made a more universally popular and wise appointment than the selection of yourself for the incumbency of the office of Minister of Agriculture for the Province of Ontario.

While we have adverted to the assistance you have rendered in a general way to agricultural interests, it is a pleasure to add that your zealous advocacy, your active personal efforts, in the promotion of Agricultural Exhibitions have had a great and lasting influence for good, evidences of which you may see in the magnificent stock and grand agricultural products now upon these grounds.

For the reasons above implied, we give you a cordial welcome in your official capacity, and as a citizen of the great Midland district, we welcome you personally and extend you the freedom and hospitality of this thriving and prosperous town, the centre of an equally thriving and prosperous country.

Wishing you a long course of usefulness in your high position, we ask of you to do us the honor of formally inaugurating this, the annual exhibition of this society.

On behalf of the directors.

WM. RUTHERFORD, President.
WM. COLLINS, Secretary.

The Hon. gentleman thanked the directors for the kind words addressed him. He hardly deserved such warm eulogiums for he was new to his duties, and he was glad of the encouragement the cordial sentiments of the address afforded him. He referred to the long action and deep interest he took in promoting the objects of the Provincial Exhibition. His associations since his childhood years had been intimate and practical in connection with Agricultural Societies. There was an increased interest in Agricultural Societies all over the country, and the speaker pointed out that the farmers owe to the assistance given by the people of the cities and towns in aiding the success of these exhibitions, and the speaker assured his hearers that he would do all in his power to help in Agricultural Exhibitions in his official capacity. They made farmers more enterprising and progressive. The speaker alluded to the terrible effects of drought in some districts of Ontario, and while many farmers, from lack of feed, had to sell their stock at a sacrifice, the progressive farmer, by raising American corn, had abundance of fodder. The Ontario Government was making experiments to show the results of growing American corn for fodder, which he (Mr. Drury) would be happy to place before the farmers. Farmers should be ready to adopt all improved methods which would lighten their calling and give better results. The speaker felt that the directors, in bringing him to Peterborough to open the Exhibition, had done him a great honor. During the past few months he had addressed thousands of farmers; he thought it his duty to meet them and study their wants so as to be better able to work for their interests. The people of Ontario were a grand people, and though he favored close trade relations with the United States, yet, if that country thought fit to employ retaliation Canada was able to hold her own. The speaker closed his address amidst loud applause and declared the exhibition—formally opened.

SPEEDING IN THE RING.

This attracted an immense crowd and the four events contested were not without interest, though the one-sided nature of several of them failed to supply the excitement attending close races.

THE MACHINERY AND IMPLEMENTS.

This department was not very fully represented, the absence of suitable buildings or protection to machinery, etc., no doubt deterring many from exhibiting.

Mr. Peter Hamilton, as usual, has a splendid display of the products of his extensive agricultural implement works. Among them is the Hamilton light steel binder, whose many points of excellence and superiority are familiar to our best farmers. It was first placed on the market last year, and it has been received with the greatest favour. Large numbers have been in use during the past season and it has worked admirably, the repair bill, especially, being almost nothing. The frame, being made of steel tubing, is strong, light, and, at the same time, rigid. Over two hundred were put into use the past season, and, in every case, the most complete satisfaction has been given.

The Hamilton sulky plough is another of the new inventions, first put to use last fall. It has many points of advantage, the raising and lowering of the plough at turning being a very important point. By simply pressing a lever a spring is relieved and the motion of the horses raises the plough automatically. Their other exhibits include the Daisy seeder, Hamilton's new spring tooth harrow, steel frame; the jumbo two-furrow gang plough, with improvements; the "Combination" and "I.X.L." walking ploughs; No. 4 and No. 7, with highly polished mouldboards, such as are put on all their ploughs; an excellent root pulper; a power ensilage and feed cutter; the beautiful "Crown" mower; the "Tiger" hay rake; and an improved spring-tooth cultivator for preparing soil in spring for seeder. The finish of all these implements is very fine, especially the painting, which reflects the highest credit on the artist, Mr. Steve Roadhouse.

Mr. Robert Fife exhibits an excellent collection of agricultural implements—the Toronto light binder, simple, strong, neat, all steel frame, the Toronto Mower, and the Sharp horserake, a sulky plough, and a new design invented by Mr. J. Best, of Mount Pleasant, claiming the advantage of great simplicity of make and working; an iron finishing harrow, and a Best land roller, new design, made of boiler plate, and Mann's spring tooth harrow.

Mr. Charles McDonald exhibits the Frost and Wood binder, a pulverising harrow and a sickle grinder.

Mr. E. E. Bowie, Hunter street, town, had a good collection of farming implements, a Massie seed drill, two or three Cockshutt riding ploughs, the Oshawa mower, cultivator, harrows, and the Shantz grain crusher.

Mr. T. Cochrane, Hunter street, town, shows ploughs, grain crushers, gang ploughs and garden ploughs, made by Fleury's Sons, Aurora.

Mr. Wm. Forsyth shows two of his fanning mills, one ordinary and the other with bagging attachment, the latter a finely finished machine.

Mr. Thos. Crowley exhibits an improved clothes dryer of peculiar construction. Although it occupies on the ground a space of only about eight feet square, it has apparently capacity enough for the washing for the family of a Mormon elder. It will prove a great convenience in town, especially where yard space is limited. These dryers are manufactured by Mr. D. Belleghem.

Mr. A. Johnston has erected and at work one of his pumping windmills. It works automatically, a float operating a check valve, stopping the mill when the tank is full, and the lowering of the water in the tank setting it in motion again.

M. A. H. Kennedy, Aylmer street, shows an improved roaster and baker, and also the "Dandy" bag holder. Both are exceedingly convenient and cheap arrangements, one a great convenience to the house wife and the other a decided boon to the farmers.

Messrs. Fitzgerald & Stanger have a large space well filled with buggies and cutters of their own highly popular make. The buggies are topped, some upholstered in cloth and others in leather. Three handsome cutters are in the collection.

Mr. Henry Owens, the well-known pump manufacturer and implement agent, has a very creditable exhibit on the grounds. He has in operation two of his "New Model" pumps, one force and the other lift; these pumps are specially adapted for deep wells, and are favorites with all who use them. As a manufacturer of pumps he is well-known throughout Eastern Ontario, having been engaged in their manufacture for nearly 25 years. In agricultural implements he has on exhibition a number of implements for which he is local agent, comprising the Brantford Binder, Wisner's Drill, the new Wisner's Cultivator, with iron frame, and the celebrated "Chatham" fanning mill.

Mr. S. Burwash shows mounted the "Sherwin dollar gate," a very light and convenient apparatus.

Mr. J. J. Turner's tent display is a very elaborate one, and tends largely to relieve the bareness of the grounds east of the Exhibition buildings. The display includes a large variety of tents and camping furniture, flags, waterproof clothing of all kinds, and gives a good idea of the resources of his establishment.

Mr. S. J. Patten, Simcoe street, town, shows an assortment of new patent adjustable wire spring mattress, the only kind made with an adjustable head rest—a grand device for giving comfort to invalids.

The Globe is represented by a tent, from which large numbers of current issues of the Globe are distributed. It is in charge of Mr. ——————, who is very energetic and pushing in the business he represents.

The Empire also has a tent, the premier's bust being offered as a make-weight to subscribers.

A Night Patrol Service.

A subscription list is being circulated to provide funds for the engagement of an efficient night watchman to look after the business portion of the town during the night. The list is being largely signed by the merchants, and it is to be hoped they will all enter heartily into the scheme so that no man may be compelled to pay for his neighbor's protection. The petition is in behalf of Mr. James Gordon, who would make a diligent, trustworthy and courageous patrolman. Some such protection against fire and burglars is greatly needed in Peterborough, and as the expense is very light this bit of private enterprise should be carried out. A fee of 15 cents a week for hardware, jewelry and dry goods and clothing stores will be charged, and ten cents a week for all other places of business. This system of night patrol service is in vogue in all large towns and cities, and that it is a useful thing is proven by its existence. Peterborough ought certainly to be provided with it.

THOSE RIOTOUS ITALIANS.

TWO ADDITIONAL MILITIA COMPANIES CALLED OUT.

The 56th Met by an Armed Force—An Engagement Feared To-Day—The Rails Torn Up by the Infuriated Laborers.

MONTREAL, Sept. 28.—The riotous Italian laborers and the militia in Compton County are now face to face and a conflict is expected at any moment. On arrival at Sawyerville, the troops, composing 225 infantry of the 58th Battalion and two troops of cavalry, were met by 200 Italians in a body apparently armed to the teeth. Several times during the journey the train bearing the soldiers was delayed by rails being removed by the rioters, but these gaps were covered by marching.

The situation is so threatening that two additional companies of militia have been called out and about 150 of them will go up the line to-day to guard the international boundary and if possible prevent the rioters crossing into the States.

The rioters appear to be acting upon the presumption that the men working on the railway have the same right of lien as the men have in certain states of the Union. The ringleaders have educated them up to this idea, and have incited them to obstinate resistance. In the pourparlers that the officers of the company have had to try and effect a reconciliation the interpreters are strongly suspected of treachery and bad faith to such an extent as to give an entirely different version from that intended to be conveyed. In talking with the officers, the Italian walking bosses reiterate that they don't want to do any serious damage or commit any depredations.

At Hall's Stream, near the point where the railway passes the line into the States, the Italians tore up a piece of track over a culvert and piled on ties and construction wood to a height of some ten feet above the track, and put three flags up as a warning of danger ahead. A construction train loaded with iron rails was stopped in the vicinity of this work of destruction. At this point an American crew, numbering some forty or fifty men, have been at work laying rails. They were stopped twice by the Italians at the beginning of the week, but yesterday they became determined to continue their work and have procured arms from Stewartston, on the other side of the line, so that if they are molested by the Italians they are resolved to keep on, even if they have to resort to their arms to defend themselves.

The chief contractor for the road is Enoch G. Sweet, of Woonsocket, R.I., and he will suffer most, after the men, by the absconding of the contractors, who leave fully $50,000 indebtedness behind them. Mr. Sweet is prepared to take the men on again and pay them, but they will not hear of it.

An engagement is expected to-day. At any rate to-day will settle the affair. Lieut.-Col. Houghton, the commander of this district, leaves one way or the other for the scene of the trouble this morning.

Of Course He Does.

MONTREAL, Sept. 28.—Henry F. Moore, agricultural editor of The London News, has returned from a trip to the Northwest. He thinks very highly of the country, both for wheat raising and cattle ranching. He will contribute a series of letters to The Times.

TOPICS FROM THE CAPITAL

PORT ARTHUR BREAKWATER APPROACHING COMPLETION.

To be Made One of the Safest Harbors on Lake Superior—County and Township Fairs to be Opened by Ministers.

OTTAWA, Sept. 28.—A deputation from the South Riding of Leeds waited on Hon. C. H. Tupper, Minister of Marine, yesterday and extended an invitation to open the township fair at Lansdown on Friday, Oct. 5. The Minister promised to attend.

Mr. Gisborne, Superintendent of Government Telegraph, is in British Columbia locating the route of the proposed cable between Point Bonilla and Victoria, for which an appropriation of $1500 was made last year. The cable will be laid via Cape Biel.

The work at present under contract on the Port Arthur breakwater is approaching completion and officials of the Public Works Department who have inspected it are perfectly satisfied with the manner in which it has been performed. It is something like 2000 feet long and renders Port Arthur one of the safest harbors on the shore of Lake Superior. Tenders have been invited for a further extension of the work, and will be received up to Oct. 19. Mr. Archie Stewart is the contractor for the work now being finished.

Sir John Thompson has returned to the city.

Mr. Taylor, M. P. for South Leeds, had an interview with the Minister of Customs yesterday.

Messrs. Mason and Mills (Annapolis), M.P.'s. are in the city.

Hon. Edgar Dewdney, Minister of the Interior, will open the Russell County fair at Metcalfe on Oct. 20. Hon. John Costigan will also attend.

The Department of the Interior is still without news concerning Mr. Ogilvy, of the Geological Survey, who left last summer with Dr. Dawson for the Yukon gold country and has not been heard of since February last. His instructions were to explore the Mackenzie river country this summer. Information has been received from Dr. Dawson and Mr. McConnell, who arrived a few days ago at Victoria, B.C. They will return to Ottawa in the course of a month.

The writ for Shelburne has been issued. Nomination takes place on Oct. 8 and polling a week later.

FIRES OF A DAY.

An Early Morning Blaze at Cobourg—The Losses and Insurance.

COBOURG, Sept. 28.—At 2 o'clock yesterday morning a fire broke out in the workshop of Geo. M. Stephens, situated in the rear and adjoining his furniture store. A heavy wind was blowing at the time and the flames soon spread to other storehouses and sheds, but the main building and the greater part of the north side of King-street were saved. These are the losses: Field & Bro., dry goods, on outbuilding $500, insured for $100 in British America; on stock $900, insured in Royal and Guardian; Geo. M. Stephens, on rear buildings $1000, insured in Ætna for $600, contents total loss, insured for $1000 in Liverpool, London and Globe, main building damaged $500, insured in Lancashire, furniture and musical instruments in main building damaged by fire and water to the extent of $500, insured in the Ætna.

Fire at Lindsay.

LINDSAY, Sept. 28.—About 3 o'clock yesterday morning a frame blacksmith's shop owned and occupied by Alex. Cullen was discovered to be on fire. The fire rapidly spread to his frame dwelling adjoining, but through the efforts of the fire brigade was prevented from spreading further. The blacksmith's shop and contents are a total loss, insured for $900, loss about $1200; house insurance $500, loss about $200. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Port Hyerse Mills Burnt.

PORT RYERSE, Sept. 27.—The Port Ryerse mills, belonging to Harris & Co. of London, and run by W. H. Summerfeldt & Son here, together with all the contents, were burned to-day about 1.15 p.m. The fire was first noticed in the office and is supposed to have originated from the stove. The Great Northwestern Telegraph Company's office and the post-office were badly scorched, but were saved after considerable exertion. The loss sustained by Summerfeldt & Son is $2500, with a small insurance on the stock.

SMALLPOX IN BUFFALO.

Fatal Case at the Hospital—Seventeen More Cases Discovered.

BUFFALO, Sept. 28.—Miss Ida Abraham, aged 27, died of smallpox at the quarantine hospital yesterday. Two persons suffering from the disease were found yesterday in a house on the east side occupied by two Polish families. A case developed yesterday morning in the family of Crier Ellithorpe of the Supreme Court. Two more concealed cases were found on Shumway-street yesterday afternoon. The house-to-house inspection has proved a wise measure, but it has revealed the spread of the pest to an extent not anticipated, seventeen cases having been discovered where the existence of the disease was unknown.

Yellow Fever's Victims.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Sept. 27.—The Board of Health to-day reported 131 new cases, 91 negroes and 40 whites, 8 deaths. Total cases, 2368; total deaths, 237.

The Disease Spread by Refugees.

DECATUR, Ala., Sept. 27.—Miss Mamie Jones died to-day. No new cases since noon yesterday. There are suspicious cases at Hanceville, Hartsell and Madison, all Decatur refugees.

Bitten by a Copperhead Snake.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—James Burns, 20 years of age, is a son of a bird fancier of the Fourth Ward. A young lady called at the establishment of Mr. Burns, sr., yesterday to see about having a bird stuffed. As she appeared to be interested in the snakes that were in the place, he proceeded to stir them up. He succeeded admirably. He poked an old copperhead that was in a glass case several times. The snake, emitting a vicious hiss, dug his fangs into Burns' finger. The young lady screamed and he became very pale. He rushed next door and gulped down some whisky and then ran to the hospital where the finger was cut off.

To Test the Veto.

MONTREAL, Sept. 28.—A decisive step was taken yesterday by Burroughs & Burroughs, advocates, to test the competency of Magistrate Barry to decide the questions raised on the pleadings as to his own jurisdiction and the validity of his own nomination, they having in an action pending in the inferior court served a petition of recusation upon the magistrate.

Buried in a Mine.

DANBURY, Conn., Sept. 28.—At the Tilly Foster iron mine at Brewster, N.Y., Andrew Dirkin, while unloading a car of ore, was buried by the debris and so seriously injured that he will probably die. Four laborers who were working with him were slightly injured.

Arrested for Perjury.

BEAVERTON, Sept. 28.—A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Rev. Mr. McKee, of this place, on a charge of perjury, in connection with recent Scott Act trials. The warrant was served, and Mr. McKee has gone to Toronto to get legal advice. The case was called yesterday and adjourned until to-day.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Retaliation Question Dead for the Present Session.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—The question of retaliation against Canada is probably dead for this session so far as the United States Senate is concerned. The Committee on Foreign Affairs met yesterday, but the House bill could not be considered as it is still in the hands of the sub committee, where it is likely to remain. The only action taken by the committee was to send to the Treasury Department for such information as it can furnish relative to the subject of railroad traffic between this country and Canada, and as to what course has heretofore been pursued by the department in the matter, allowing the transhipment of goods in sealed cars free of duty, etc.

There are two investigations of Canadian matters already ordered by the Senate in addition to the one called for by Senator Sherman's resolution. One was authorized by the resolution of Chairman Cullom, of the Inter-state Commerce Committee, in August, and provides for an investigation by his committee of the entire question of railroad traffic across the Canadian domains and why it has been allowed by the administration in view of the fact that Article XXIX of the Treaty of Washington has been abrogated.

About two months ago a resolution introduced by Senator Hoar was adopted by the Senate, providing for a special committee of seven senators to investigate the entire subject of our trade relations with Great Britain and her dependencies. This committee has already done considerable work and has been furnished with a large amount of correspondence from the State Department. Owing to the failure of Congress to adjourn it is likely that Mr. Hoar's committee will be allowed to do the entire work called for by the three Senate resolutions, and the conclusion will be presented to Congress in a single report. Until this work is finished, which will not be until the next session of Congress at least, it is probable that no movement towards retaliation will be recommended by the Republican Senate.

Mr. Sherman's Resolution.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Mr. Sherman from the Committee on Foreign Relations reported back the resolution offered by him for an enquiry as to the state of the relations between the United States and Great Britain and the Dominion of Canada, and it was placed on the calendar. He stated in reply to a question by Mr. Blair that the Committee regarded the matter of such great importance that it did not desire to enter on the consideration without further information.

TORONTO TOPICS.

One Gambler Stabs Another—Rev. Mr. Wilson's Appeal Goes Over.

TORONTO, Sept. 28.—There is trouble just now between two of Toronto's sharpest gamblers. Their names are Fred Haskins and William Welker, known as "Billy Crone." The quarrel took place on Monday night outside the Palmer House. From words the gamblers came to blows, and Crone, finding that he was getting "licked," drew a knife and slashed Haskins across the face with it, inflicting a dangerous wound, the knife blade reaching the tongue and penetrating it badly. Crone walked away while Haskins was conveyed to a physician's office where the wound was stitched up. Haskins last night was able to leave his room for the first time since the stabbing. The police are investigating the affair.

The arrest of Broker James Baxter of Montreal has been entrusted to Sergeant Detective Reburn, who left for that city to execute it by the Grand Trunk train for the east yesterday morning.

At the General Sessions yesterday the Wilson-Jarvis "move-on" case was postponed until next court.

L. O. Ives, the alleged forger who was arrested on Tuesday night on an order from Detroit, returned to that city yesterday with an officer who came for him.

A savage dog attacked a boy named John McTaggart yesterday near the corner of King and Jarvis-streets, lacerating the calf of his right leg fearfully. The wound was cauterized.

In the case of Arthur Lowry, a striking plumber charged with intimidation of one of the imported men, the jury in the Court of General Sessions yesterday failed to agree.

John Charles Dent, the well known journalist, died yesterday in his 47th year. He was a native of Kendal, Westmoreland, Eng.

MRS. HOWES' SLAYERS.

A True Bill For Murder Returned Against Phillipine and Trafton.

ANDOVER, N.B., Sept. 28.—About noon yesterday sixteen of the grand jury came into court with a true bill for manslaughter against Phillipine and Trafton, charged with the killing of Mrs. Howes, seven of the jurymen remaining in their room. The Attorney-General declining to assume the responsibility of accepting such a verdict, the jury retired and after hearing further testimony returned a true bill for murder. The trial was fixed for this morning. No bill was presented against Day, charged with counselling the killing.

Another Mattawa Tragedy.

OTTAWA, Sept. 28.—Another tragedy is reported from Mattawa. It appears that a dispute took place between W. G. Gilmor, proprietor of the Union Hotel there, and his wife concerning a young man, Joseph St. Denis, who Mr. Gilmor averred was too intimate with Mrs. Gilmor. The result of the row was that Mrs. Gilmor threw a ginger ale bottle at her husband's head, cutting him badly. He died shortly afterwards and the doctors testify that the effect of the blow was the cause of death. When Mrs. Gilmor was summoned during the night time to her dying husband's bedside St. Denis was in her room and escaped by the window. He testified at the examination which followed into the sad affair at Pembroke that he had been intimate with Mrs. Gilmor for the past year and had access to her room at any time. Judge Deacon gave him 24 hours to leave the town. Mrs. Gilmor has been arrested for manslaughter and lodged in Pembroke jail.

A SKELETON UNEARTHED.

SUPPOSED TO BE THE REMAINS OF RIEL'S VICTIM, SCOTT.

A Hitch Said to Exist Between the Manitoba Government and the Northern Pacific—Destitute Indians.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 28. — The Sun says that circumstances all point to a hitch between the Government and the Northern Pacific, the latter not having yet spent a dollar in the province. The suggestion is made that the fact that Duncan Macarthur has a bill ready to file against the Government for breach of the contract made with the Norquay Government may have something to do with the disagreement.

Railway men in making the grade on the north bank of the Assiniboine turned up the skeleton of a man, supposed to be that of the martyred Scot, shot by Riel's orders in the first rebellion. Military buttons were found and Scott is said to have worn a similar kind on his clothing when shot. The bones have been carried off by relic hunters. The skeleton was only twenty inches under the surface and was within a short distance from where the tragedy occurred twenty years ago.

A strong appeal for aid to the destitute Indians in the far north of Athabasca is made by resident missionaries. Owing to the failure of large and small game and the fisheries, there are numerous cases of starvation and great lack of clothing. Aid is demanded from the Dominion Government.

FIFTEEN WIVES IN COURT.

The Jury at Once Declares Champion Bigamist Brown Guilty.

DETROIT, Sept. 28.—About fifteen of the thirty-three women who were married to James W. Brown, the champion bigamist, since 1883, confronted him in the Recorder's Court yesterday afternoon. The list of victims included Helen Brownlee and Anna Winters of Chicago, who, with M. Hassl, Mary Benjamin and Nancy Robertson, were the only ones called upon to give evidence against Brown. The Benjamin woman was the prosecuting witness.

It was established that Brown's method was to advertise for a housekeeper, select as a victim the one from among the applicants who pleased him most and marry her as soon as possible. He would desert her after a few days. Five clergymen of the city certified to marrying Brown to as many different women, and the case against him was so clear that the prosecutor left it to the jury without argument. Brown testified in his own behalf and made a sorry mess of it, contradicting himself at every turn. He professed not to remember any of his dupes; asserted that he was only once married, and that his wife was dead, and that he had once been confined as a lunatic at New Orleans. Brown was pallid and looked like a sick man. During the trial Nancy Robertson's indignation could not be repressed, and she denounced Brown as a perfidious wretch. The jury agreed with her evidently, for they took but four minutes to find him guilty. Sentence was deferred so that they could further investigate Brown's doings.

Sold His Wife for $50.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Amos Snyder, a baker, of North Bergen, N.J., suspected his hired man, Wilkins, of paying marked attention to his wife, accused his wife of being unfaithful to him, and a quarrel was the result. While Snyder was away from home in New York his wife drove away from his home in a buggy in the direction of Guttenburg. When Snyder returned home he searched for his wife without success. On going to his bakery he discovered that the safe in his office had been opened, and that $900 in cash had been extracted therefrom. Snyder swore out a warrant for the arrest of the eloping couple. When confronted by them in the court room he offered to withdraw the complaint if his money was returned to him. His wife thereupon handed him over the cash which she had taken from the safe. Snyder then startled the court by offering to sell his wife to Wilkins for $50. Wilkins promptly accepted the offer and counted out $50 in bills to Snyder, which the latter pocketed with a serene smile and left the court room. Wilkins and Mrs. Snyder went away together and were last seen boarding a train for Pennsylvania.

Bunco'ed out of $10,000.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 28.—John K. Lemon, of Allegheny, 65 years of age, was robbed by bunco steerers yesterday. The usual lottery trick was played and he drew $5000, but the sharpers insisted that he must first produce $10,000 before the prize would be paid. The old man went to the bank and drew the money. When he returned he showed the roll of bills. He was immediately knocked down over a chair, and when he got up the bunco men and his money were missing. The sharpers locked the room as they left. The old man was released from the room, but too late to institute an effective chase for the rascals.

Killed by a Train.

JOLIET, Ill., Sept. 28.—James McConnell, living on Desplaines-street, Chicago, was run over by a Santa Fe freight train at this place last evening. Both arms were cut off and all the ribs on the left side were crushed in. He was trying to get on the train to go to Chicago. He lived only long enough to tell his name and residence.

Killed by an Elephant.

BROCKWAYVILLE, Pa., Sept. 28.—As Forepaugh's show was unloading at Dubois John Peggy, an elephant trainer of Salem, N.J., was attacked by an elephant and killed. The other elephants grew excited and tore up another cage and struck two men.

Accidentally Killed Himself.

BELLEVILLE, Sept. 28.—Wm. Vandervoot of this city accidentally shot and killed himself at Sandy Creek, near New York, yesterday.

Found Dead.

HAMILTON, Sept. 27.— There was some excitement in Dundas this morning when the body of Mr. Patrick Traut was found at the foot of the slackway leading to the Grand Trunk Railway station. Deceased was watchman in the employ of the Grand Trunk Railway Company a great number of years, and was a faithful and honest employe. He was about 65 years of age and leaves a wife and three children.

A Complimentary Farewell.

Last night after the anniversary meeting of the Y.M.C.A. a few of the young friends of Mr. W. H. Stevens, retiring Secretary of the Association, assembled at the Y.M.C.A. rooms under the chaperonage of Mrs. Rutherford, Mrs. Fairbain and Mrs. Griffin. Refreshments were provided by the ladies, and a couple of hours were spent in a pleasant manner. The trio, Messrs. Henderson, Stevens and Miller, rendered several selections, Mr. O. C. Rowse gave a recitation and Mr. W. A. Dixon an exhibition of his mimicry and ventriloquism. Mr. A. Clegg on behalf of the young people made a farewell address to Mr. Stevens, and incorporated in it the name of Mr. R. H. Henderson, who also leaves town in a week or so. Both gentlemen made brief and feeling replies, and after Auld Lang Syne the company dispersed.

The following address was read to Rev. W. C. Bradshaw on the close of his mission services at Campbellford, on Tuesday last:—

To the Rev. W. C. Bradshaw, Rector of Saint Luke's Church, Ashburnham.

REV. SIR,—We, the members of the congregation of Christ Church, Campbellford, desire to express our heartfelt thanks for your work and labor amongst us during the past eight days

The earnest addresses with which we have been favoured have been to us the means of bringing new light to our minds as to our religious and moral obligations towards God and our fellow men.

Anniversary Addresses.

The Anniversary Meeting of the Y.M.C.A.—Dr. Stafford, of Toronto, and Others Deliver Addresses.

A rather small audience assembled in St. Paul's Church Thursday evening, on the occasion of the anniversary meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association of Peterborough. The chief attraction was Rev. Dr. Stafford, of Toronto, who delivered an able address. Mr. Geo. M. Roger, President of the Association, presided. There were on the elevated dais beside him Rev. Messrs. Torrance, Pearson, Shorey and Parker, and Messrs. H. S. Griffin and W. H. Stevens (Secretary). The choir of St. Paul's Church, under the leadership of Prof. Parker, rendered musical assistance that was greatly appreciated, and whose success, was a reflection of the careful training given by Mr. Parker.

Printed programmes of the proceedings were distributed about among the audience. After an opening hymn, Rev. F. Clifton Parker read a selection from Scripture and led in prayer.

The chairman, in his opening remarks, announced the inability of the Travelling Secretary of the Y.M.C.A., Mr. T. S. Cole, to attend the meeting, and made an apology for the late commencement of the meeting. He dwelt upon the work and present condition of the Association. He said there was a great deal of misunderstanding regarding the aims and operations of their Association, and this was made apparent when a canvass for subscriptions was being made. The primary object of the Association, he said, was of course the salvation of young men, which it undertook to do in various ways, and as this was the only institution of the kind in town where all young men were welcome to their rooms and the amusements and entertainment there provided, he considered on that score alone it was worthy of every support. The Association endeavored to present attractions that would counteract the tendency of young men, strangers and residents alike, to drift into the saloons and other questionable places. The Association was undenominational and was intended to be supplementary to the churches; it had a field particularly its own. It was often the starting point of a young man's Christian life, and encouraging results had followed from the efforts to bring young men into the Association. Then they had been useful to young men in securing them employment, in caring for them when sick, and in looking after strangers in town. The Association rooms were provided with first-class literature, current magazines, periodicals and newspapers, and were comfortably furnished throughout. But the greatest difficulty in the way was the apathy of Christian people who ought to support the Association. If only these people could be informed as to the real nature of their work and the good results attending it, all objections would be swept away. The chairman advised the people to read the secretary's complete and comprehensive report published in the daily papers. The Association he especially commended to employers of labor in town, as from past experience it had been shown that the effects of the Association's work among young men had been beneficial to both employee and employer from a moral and business point of view.

Mr. W. H. Stevens, the retiring secretary, said a few farewell words, expressing his regret at severing his pleasant connections with the kind people and work here, but he hoped to be successful in his new field of labor. He asked the prayers of the people on his behalf.

THE BIBLE FOR YOUNG MEN.

After a choral selection, Rev. Dr. Stafford began his address. The subject on which he was to speak, "The Bible a good book for young men," was, he said, good enough for anyone, but he would not speak of it as exclusively a book for young men; it was an all comprehensive book for all classes of people. But he supposed it was intended to lay stress upon the value of the book to young men in view of the prevailing idea among the young men of the day that ridicule and rejection of the Bible was a mark of manhood. The young man to-day, he said, was the principal target for the devil's shafts; was the weak point in the portals of Christianity. In view of this he thought it would be well to speak on the subject of why the young men of to-day should build on the Bible as their forefathers did. In the first place there was its antiquity; then its poetry, its history; the ancient character of the Bible as the founder of a religion; it was older than the Koran, the writings of Confucius, the teachings of Zoroaster, the Vedas of India. The law of Moses and the Book of Job were written long before any of these. Then look at the wonderful preservation of the Bible, which had come down through the dark ages in its original state. Consider also, he said, the preservation of its authority in comparison to that of other religious books. The Bible was unchanged and was the constant authority of the Christian world, while the other books had incorporated in them the opinions of great masters who had sprung up as interpreters of their meaning until they were a puzzle to all intelligent readers. The Bible abides in the face of the criticism of an advanced civilization that is the direct result of Christianity. That was saying a good deal. The Bible was the means of elevating mankind, but some men, when they were lifted up to an enormous height by its influences, denied that Christianity had anything to do with it. That was what the Christian people had to fear, and hence it was necessary to uphold the Bible in these days of criticism. The absurdities and contradictions of the Vedas, Koran, and other books were pointed out, while it was remarked that the Bible had nothing in it that clashed with the results of researches in science or history. The Bible had withstood the malignant criticism of infidelity; it had survived while the writings of Voltaire and other great infidels had perished with them. On this point the speaker dwelt at some length. Ingersoll's writings were taken up and the fact of his making his stock-in-trade of the so-called errors of the Bible, dwelt upon. Ingersoll, the speaker said, urged men to be guided by nature and told them they would be elevated and strengthened by it, but advised them not to put their faith in an antiquated book that was full of lies and contradictions. But it was known that nature was, on its face, full of errors; at first appearance it appeared to be a terrible liar. The reverend speaker illustrated this by referring to the illusion that the sun rose and travelled about the earth; the best appearance of a stick that is thrust into water; the reflection of the sky in the depths of a still pond, and many others; nature was full of apparent contradictions, but these, like the so-called errors in the Bible, were fully explained away by intelligent thought and conception. The Bible had further survived the criticism of translation. Some cast contempt on the Bible because, they said, it had been translated years ago, and it had been perverted and disfigured; but all this had been settled by the revision of the New Testament from the manuscripts from which they were originally translated, in which not a single essential syllable had been altered, but many perplexing paragraphs had been elucidated. The criticism of infidelity had picked out inexplicable and apparently contradictory passages and held them up as samples of the statements made in "the old book;" but these were being gradually explained by modern, research and discovery in ancient lands. Nothing was to be feared for the stability of the Bible; he urged the young men to cling to it, and the grand time was coming when it would be the accepted authority on earth.

Mr. H. S. Griffin then placed the financial standing of the Association before the audience, which was published in the EXAMINER'S report of the annual meeting Tuesday night. The Association was encouraged in the work, and they hoped the people would come to the rescue and relieve them of the debt of $123 hanging over them.

The collection was taken up, after which a vote of thanks was moved by Rev. E. F. Torrance and seconded by Rev. S. J. Shorey, and carried with applause.

A final hymn was sung and the benediction pronounced by Rev. Mr. Torrance, after which the meeting dispersed.

Francis Newby, a coachman at the Royal hotel, Attleborough, England, dreamed that he would meet his death near a certain lodge gate. It impressed him so that he took every pains to avoid the place, and even when he had to drive by there, got a lady to hold the reins until the spot was passed. The other day he had to go past the place with a remarkably kind and gentle horse. Just in front of the gate something in the road upset the cart he was driving and he was thrown out and killed.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Heavy forgeries have been discovered on the Produce Exchange. No names are mentioned, but it is said Attorney Foster of the Gratuity Fund has not been seen since Tuesday. The frauds are similar to those practised by Bidell. It is known that the Exchange has been victimized to the extent of $[illegible],000 on thirteen forged mortgages purporting to be a lien on property in this city and the forgery of a much larger amount may yet be discovered. The Gratuity Fund aggregates $1,000,000 and is for the most part invested in bonds and mortgages on real estate.

Last evening Pinkerton's detective agency was employed to arrest William R. Foster, jr., but as yet no report has been received from them. Foster has not been seen since Tuesday morning. Foster's father is a very wealthy man residing at Babylon, Long Island. He attended the meeting of the trustees yesterday afternoon with Thomas R. Wentworth, young Foster's law partner. Besides being counsel Foster is also a prominent member of the Exchange and a subscriber to the Gratuity Fund. At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon it was stated that the losses by forgeries amounted to $300,000, and the investigation was still in progress.

The notary whose signature purports to be attached to the fraudulent mortgages is an attache of Foster & Wentworth's office and he denies having written it. A similarity has been discovered between the writing of Foster and the clerk. Wentworth, Foster's partner, said the latter was the last man he would have suspected of doing such a deed. He was temperate and was never known to speculate. The whole matter is now a muddle as no one seems to know who will be responsible.

DISGRACING INNOCENT GIRLS.

Their Faces Made to Appear in Brown's Vile Photographs.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—The heads, it is said, of some highly respectable young women of Brooklyn appear in the obscene pictures which were found in the possession of Le Grange M. Brown, the amateur photographer and electrician, when he was arrested last week at 100 Hicks-street. Brown, it is said, would cut the head of some innocent Brooklyn girl from a perfectly proper picture and paste it over the head of an obscene photograph, carefully concealing the lines of juncture; thus, by re-photographing, securing a negative from which apparently perfect pictures were produced. For more than two years Brown has been known as a skilful photographer, and very many young women, ignorant of his character, employed him to take their pictures.

FOOLING WITH POWDER.

Three Port Arthur Youths Got Badly Hurt By an Explosion.

PORT ARTHUR, Sept. 27.—Last evening three youths, Fred Adams, Peter and Vincent Bowell, attempted to pound blasting powder into gunpowder. Peter Bowell was doing the work, while the other two were gazing on. The powder exploded, injuring all three, Adams being the worst. His hands are badly burned, and his eyes are very much injured and now sightless, but the doctor hopes they can be saved.

Make a Note of This.

Pain banished as if by magic. Polson's Nervilline is a positive and almost instantaneous remedy for external, internal, or local pains. The most active remedy hitherto known falls far short of Nervilline for potent power in the relief of nerve pain. Good for external or internal use. Buy a 10 cent trial bottle. Large bottles 25 cents, at all druggists. 6d39

A Double Recommendation.

"We have used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and find that for diarrhœa it cannot be equalled. We cannot speak too highly of it." Ernest Clare Cross and Roy Neil Cross, Jasper, Ont., April 29th, 1888. 6dw39

The Double Liability.

A weak and low constitution, impure blood, etc., causes a double liability to contract disease. Purify the blood and remove all worn out matter and disease-breeding impurities from the body by using Burdock Blood Bitters which thoroughly eleanses, regulates and tones the entire system. 6dw39

Is Cholera Coming?

When symptoms of cholera appear, prompt remedies should be resorted to. Miss Mary E. Davis, of Lakeville, Ont., says—"My brother was had with cholera morbus and after using one bottle of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, it cured him entirely." tdw39 calls vividly to mind the appalling spectre of death, and yet no thought is taken of the thousands annually dying through disease caused by wrong action of the stomach, liver, kidneys or bowels, and which might be remedied by the use of B. B. B., nature's great restorative tonic and blood purifier. 6dw39

A Railway Smash Up

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. A Helping Hand is most appreciated when it is most needed, and thus it is that Burdock Blood Bitters gains more favor yearly by lending the weakened system valuable assistance in removing all impurities and building up a strong, healthy body. 6dw39

LIFE ASSURANCE COMP'Y OF CANADA.

HEAD OFFICE, MONTREAL.

Both in Magnitude and Profitableness, the Business for 1887 has been almost everything that could be desired.

The life policies now in force are 7,128 for $10,873,777.69, on 6741 lives. We have moreover $3,207,600 00 insured under 1,840 accident policies, so that the total current contracts of the Company are $ 969 for $14,081,377.69.

The income for the year shows the very large increase of $122,331.23 over the figures of 1886, the total being $496,831.54. The revenue is now half a million dollars per annum, or as mentioned in the report, over $1,600 for every working day in the year, and even this he believed was but a mere introduction to what it will be in a few years hence. The gains from time to time are well illustrated by the following table:—

Period	Gain in income.	Gain in assets.	Gain in assurances.
1872 to 1876, four years	$ 54,611 21	$169,492 69	$1,149,743 00
1876 to 1880, four years	38,580 67	195,186 29	1,167,386 14
1880 to 1884, four years	136,976 84	363,284 31	2,982,924 90
1884 to 1887, three years	217,451 89	475,907 24	4,029,273 66
Total in 1887	$495,831 54	$1,750,994 48	$10,873,777 69

It is very pleasing to notice that the gains for the last three years only are 60 per cent. more than those of the preceding four years.

Blue Nose Salvationists.

The Salvation Army had a jubilee at the barracks last night. The Blue Nose contingent from the maritime provinces were the attraction. They comprised Major Margetts, Adjt. Cooper (Happy Bill) and Staff Capt. Totten, of St. John, N.B.; Adjt. Beatty and wife, of Charlottetown, P.E.I.; Adjt. Southall, of Halifax, and Adjt. McIntyre, of Yarmouth, N.S. The parade in the evening was an attractive one, and at the barracks the usual hallelujah addresses were made. The visitors went away again this morning.

The Ogilvie Expedition Heard From.

The Ottawa despatches of the Toronto dailies, dated Sept. 27, state that the Government is still without news concerning Mr. Ogilvie, of the Geological Survey, who left last summer with Dr. Dawson for the Yukon gold country and has not been heard of since February last. But Mr. Thomas Gladman, of this town, on Saturday received a letter from his son, Charles, who is with the Ogilvie branch of the expedition, dated Fort Norman, July 28th. The letter, which came via Fort Edmonton, states that the party, at that time, was in good condition, and that Mr. Ogilvie was carrying out his instructions.

Explanatory.

The EXAMINER has received a letter from Mr. Alex. Kempt, giving the latter's version of the difficulty between himself and Mr. Robert Fife, and in answer to Mr. Fife's version of the matter, published in the EXAMINER before the case had come before the courts. Mr. Kempt's letter would have been cheerfully published before the magistrates dealt with the matter, but now, that its trial is pending, it would be highly improper, and involve contempt of court to publish an ex parte version of the matter in dispute. For this reason the EXAMINER is compelled to decline the publication of the letter of Mr. Kempt, thus avoiding any imputation of attempting to bias the court or jury in a pending issue, and also saving Mr. Kempt from difficulty on this score.

The Second Attack.

This splendid entertainment given by the pupils of the Collegiate Institute, was repeated last night to a considerably smaller attendance. The same programme was gone through with in a better manner, if possible, than the first night. The boys distinguished themselves last night, especially in the skirmishing drill, which was as good an imitation of actual fighting as a crack regiment could give. Previous to the last number Sergt.-Major Randle announced that he would on Monday evening, at 4 o'clock, meet at the Institute gymnasium, any ladies desiring instructions in calisthenics and drill and physical culture. All those desirous of taking lessons should attend so that the actual class can begin at once and make equal progress. No better means for securing health, vigor, and graceful carriage of body can be employed.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

The Nicholls' Hospital Drain.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

DEAR SIR,—Last week I addressed a few lines to you by way of comment on the proposed system of drainage for the Nicholls' Hospital, but as yet none of the Hospital Board has condescended to take any notice of that letter, or even quiet our uneasy minds by telling us, "don't be afraid we know better than the doctors," or something assuring of that kind.

I dare say the Hospital Board never considered the question of drainage at all until the hospital itself was nearly completed, and when the fact that drainage was necessary dawned upon their minds they came to the conclusion that all that was needed was some sort of a channel that would run down hill and carry the sewerage away from the hospital. A bright idea struck them. The river was the very thing! Once the sewerage from the hospital struck the river it would run down the current like the mischief. Tenders for the construction of this drain to the river were at once asked for, and the board flattered itself that the hospital would be the best drained building in Peterborough.

Do you think, Mr. Editor, that it ever struck these gentlemen that there is a vast difference between originating a system of sewerage and merely connecting a conduit pipe with a trunk sewer? Is it possible that these gentlemen ever for a moment considered what is to become of all this filthy matter that they so recklessly propose to fling into the Otonabee, directly above our populous town? They one and all object to the pollution of our river by sawdust, and, ye powers! what is sawdust compared with hospital sewerage? Our town, gentlemen of the Hospital Board, is better off without a hospital at all than with one such as you propose thrusting upon us. I cheerfully recognize the generosity that prompted the endowment of such an institution, and I almost cheerfully pay my share of taxes for its support, while I consider that the hospital is properly managed. But allow me to add that now, when the hospital is being transferred to permanent quarters and when every precaution should be taken for its proper construction and isolation, I feel constrained to raise my feeble voice in protest against that tile drain.

Yours truly,
UNDERTAKER.

Sept. 27th, 1888.

That Baby Show Judging.

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

DEAR SIR,—Will you give an indignant mother space in your paper to comment on the judging in the baby show at the Central Exhibition grounds yesterday. Before scalping the judges, allow me to say that Gough Bros. fulfilled their part of the contract to the letter, as they do all their promises. When they say that they have a $6,000 stock of boots and shoes selling at less than half wholesale cost, it's the case. The baby's five dollar gold piece is as sure as sunrise. Now for the judges. They looked at babies as so much beef—by weight. Next Saturday at from 11 to 12, gough bros., the wonderful cheap men, will sell women's $1.50 boots for 29 cents. Now, if these baby show judges did their best, I wouldn't trust them to buy me a pair of gough bros.' 29 cents boots, worth $1.50. I find that the goughs keep their word every time, and if I want to get the best value in boots I go and send all my poor relations to goughs' for boots and shoes. They are good and so cheap that the poorest can have dry warm feet. When I think of the shameful prices the high price dealers used to charge till gough bros. broke the combine, I feel as I do about the baby show judges,

Yours truly,
AN INDIGNANT MOTHER.

St. Luke's Harvest Home.

A Successful Thanksgiving Service—A Good Sermon and Good Singing.

The harvest home festival of St. Luke's was held last night. The church was very prettily decorated with sheaves, fruits, a festoon of woven grain, and a profusion of beautiful flowers. After evening service, with special service of prayer, the rector, Rev. W. C. Bradshaw, preached a very appropriate and effective sermon from the text, Amos ix, v. 13:

"Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him that soweth seed, and the mountains shall drop sweet wine, and all the hills shall melt."

Then followed a most enjoyable musical programme of thanksgiving music, the following programme having been carried out with great merit of performance:—

Organ Solo.
(a) Harvest Thanksgiving March.....Calkin
(b) Fantasia on Vesper Hymn.....Whiting
Harvest Hymn—"We Plough the Fields".....Fr. (German
St. Luke's Choir.
Vocal Solo—"My God, my Father".....Marston
Miss Cottingham.
Organ Solo.
(a) "Fanfare".....Lemmens
(b) Swiss Maiden's Evening Prayer.....(Blessner
Vocal Solo—"O for the Wings".....Mendelssohn
Miss Vair.
Overture—"Post and Peasant".....Suppe

Every number on the programme was excellently rendered. The organ numbers were taken by Mr. Jaques, with splendid effect. His playing was greatly admired, especially in Whiting's Fantasia on the Vesper Hymn. Mr. Jaques' abilities as a choir trainer were also shown by the splendid singing of the choir throughout, but especially in the evensong anthem of Barnby, "O Lord How Manifold." The congregation regretfully contemplate Mr. Jaques' early departure for St. Thomas, last night being his last appearance in town at any recital. Misses Cottingham and Vair, in the execution of their respective numbers, fully maintained their position amongst our best local soloists. The harvest home festival of St. Luke's was an entirely edifying and successful entertainment.

Police Court.

FRIDAY, Sept. 28.

There was a great deal of drunkenness in town during the Exhibition, and Mark Potter and John Jones, the only two inebriates captured, were fined $5 and $4 respectively this morning. They were arrested yesterday by P. C. McGinty.

Fred Bates, the boy arrested yesterday for stealing a sheepskin from Stevenson's warehouse, was up this morning. Mr. F. Weir, of Otonabee, with whom the lad was living, appeared and spoke in behalf of the boy's previous honesty and good conduct. The lad stated in self defence that he wanted money to go to the Exhibition, and had picked up the skin, which had been sold to Mr. Stevenson by Mr. Weir a few minutes before, intending to sell it at the tannery for more than Mr. Stevenson had given, return the price of it, 55 cents, to Mr. Stevenson and keep the balance for himself. Officer McGinty saw the boy taking the sheepskin and arrested him. In view of the boy's apparent honest intentions and the good character given him by Mr. Weir, the lad was dismissed with a warning.

The preliminary examination of the witnesses in the Greenfield burglary case was held before P. M. Dumble this morning. Mr. R. E. Wood appeared on behalf of the crown and Mr. K. B. Edwards for the town as private prosecutor. Constable Stewart, Mrs. McNairn (who dressed Greenfield's wounds) and an old man named McCullough, who lives near Mrs. McNairn and saw the fugitive, were examined and their evidence taken down. This is a step forward in the extradition proceedings. It is thought this evidence when forwarded to Buffalo will be sufficient, with Chief Rossel's identification, to extradite Greenfield, so that the witnesses will not have to go there in person.

GOOD, BETTER, BEST; 3 boxes of matches for 10 cents at The Pantry.

THE CENTRAL EXHIBITION

The third day of the Central Exhibition did not present the successful features of the second day. The rain of the previous night, followed by a lower temperature, mud and dull heavy skies, with gusty gales blowing, interfered very largely with the attendance, there being less than half the number of visitors there were on Wednesday. During the morning the grounds presented a rather quiet appearance, very few visitors putting in an appearance, but at noon the scene changed and the people began to arrive. The Baby Show established by the Gough Bros., the wonderful cheap men, and the races were the attractions.

As two o'clock approached the crowd began to converge to the main building and surge around the clothing display of Gough Bros. on the first floor. Amongst the crowd were several ladies with anxious faces and arms filled with pretty babies, with all the pink and pale blue refinement of toggery the fondest maternal pride could suggest. These were the mothers of the competing babies. The bona fide entries for the baby show were three, though two others, with babies older than yearlings, under which the competitors were limited, applied as competitors. The ladies were on the qui vive the entire time. They took sides with the respective babies, confidently decided which was the best baby, and any suggestion of dissent from their decision—especially from a man—was received with a lofty scorn or a pitying contempt that reduced the objector to humiliation or covered him with confusion. The entries were:

May Lockhart, daughter of Roger Lockhart, of Emily, aged 9 months.
Willie Cahill, town, aged 11 months.
Herbert Henry, town, aged 9 months.
Lizzie Davis, aged 14 months.
Celia Beatrice Ferguson, aged 12½ months.

The latter two were over the stipulated age, and consequently disqualified for competition.

The judges were Messrs. Hugh Davidson, Smith, Geo. Pratley, Auburn, and Wm. Carter, Ashburnham, their qualifications presumably consisting in their being the fathers respectively of seven, three and two children. On their arrival, the judges, the proud mothers and the nicely dressed babies, crowing and kicking in their mother's arms, were brought inside the railing of Gough Bros'. exhibition arcade, and, surrounded by the monuments of cheap clothing of the wonderful cheap men, the judging proceeded. The judges were evidently in fear, for each getting one of the three eligible babies in his arms, they retired as far as possible from the mothers and held whispered consultation. Their verdict was not unanimous, two being in favour of the winning girl, but the majority ruled. Before announcing the decision, however, Mr. Davidson took his choice in his arms, and one of the other judges the prize baby and made a short address, and put the question of superiority to popular vote. He announced that the popular vote was in favor of little Herbert Henry, but the decision of the two judges was in favor of May Lockhart, and she was declared the winner of the $5 gold piece of the wonderful Gough's. Willie Cahill, the other unsuccessful claimant for the prize, was as bright as a dollar, or five of them for that matter, and the way he winked at the little girls, and trifled with their little hearts was very amusing. The babies were all blondes. After the decision was announced, the happy father took the prize baby and, holding it aloft in his arms, proudly shouted "There's Emily for you—there's Emily!" amidst the applause of his neighbours. His sisters and his cousins and his aunts thus expressed their sense of the triumph of the family pet. The baby show being over, or, as a facetious granger put, "We've seen the human race, and now we'll go and see the horse race," there followed

THE SPREDING IN THE RING.

These events were very interesting and attracted the attention of the large number of spectators present, especially the struggle for the Hotel-keepers' Prize—a purse of $200. There were only three horses entered, but these made the tightest and gamest race ever, perhaps, contested on this track. During the whole five heats it was a keen struggle for first place. This can be seen by the following summary:—

H. Winch's Sleepy Dan	2	1	3	1	1
A. P. Morgan's Little Ned	1	2	1	2	2
F. J. Daly's Billy W	3	3	2	3	3

The gentlemen's for best horse in saddle, first prize $15, presented by Mr. J. E. McIntyle; second $10, presented by Mr. Ed. own.

okinson's Brown Horse.....1 1
H. W. Kent's Chestnut.....2 2

CHEESE BUYERS' PRIZE.

For the fastest trotting horse owned by a cheese buyer, or cheese maker, best two in three.

Fitzgerald's horse.....3
D. Pilkey's horse.....1 2
Geo. Lipsett's horse.....2 2

[Protest entered, owner of winner not eligible.]

The procession of prize animals was a very large and fine one and a very satisfactory show of the stock capacity of the country.

This closed the fourth Central exhibition, which was, everything considered, an advance in last year. The enters were large and the gate receipts considerably in excess.

The Cup Goes Out of Town.

Campbellford Baseball Club Beats Peterborough—An Exciting Game.

Whatever else may be said of the baseball match on the exhibition grounds Thursday afternoon, it was at least exciting. The Peterboroughs had the game well in hand till the last innings, when Galley seemed to weaken in his delivery and the ball was pounded terrifically all over the field. The Peterboroughs played more sharply than their opponents, but at the bat they were disappointingly weak. Moore and Pearson made some good hits, and the latter in particular played a good all-round game. Galley and Callahan were a good battery, and until the visitors got on to Galley's delivery in the last two innings their scoring was kept down. In Beatty and Ingram Campbellford had a steady battery, but the team as a whole do not play sharply enough. Mr. Thorne, of Toronto, gave every satisfaction as umpire; he is about the best man that has ever appeared on the ball field in Peterborough.

The day was raw, cold and windy, and consequently the playing was not at all brilliant. The shivering crowd of spectators tried to keep themselves warm by shouting, while the men in the field had to let their teeth chatter. Following is the score:—

Mac. was an enthusiastic bicyclist, and he will be specially missed by the wheelmen next season.

News Nuggets.

—The handsome new blinds in Muckleston's hardware store were put in by Mr. E. Green.

—The George street sewer, at the corner of Hunter street, was flushed out to-day by water from the waterworks.

—Henry J. White, a stonemason who lives at Norwood, while working in Toronto on Monday, had his leg broken by a stone falling on it. He was sent to his home by train.

—Port Hope has been making a bid for the establishment of a file and saw factory in their town by Outram & Son, of Montreal, who, not long ago, wanted to locate here. They demand too high a bonus for Port Hope.

—The Port Hope Times wants to see a better class of theatrical and concert companies visit that town than usually do. It is jealous of Peterborough, Belleville and Lindsay, which, it says, are visited by good companies that are well patronized by the people.

TO BE CALLED IN JANUARY

PARLIAMENT TO MEET TOWARD THE CLOSE OF THAT MONTH.

The Ayer Appeal to be Abandoned on the Advice of the Minister of Justice Customs Seizure Notices from the Gazette.

OTTAWA, Sept. 29.—A Cabinet Council meeting was held yesterday. The Supreme Court session opens Oct. 2.

Hon. John Carling, Minister of Agriculture, has returned to the capital.

Col. R. S. Liddell, hon. secretary of the Waterloo memorial fund, has communicated to His Excellency the Governor-General the desire of the committee to make the object a thoroughly national one by soliciting subscriptions from the whole of Great Britain and her colonies.

The annual general meeting of stockholders of the Ottawa, Waddington and New York Railway and Bridge Company has been called for Oct. 18.

The regulations and forms of application for examination of candidates for the civil service of India have been filed with the Secretary of State.

It is said the Department of Customs have decided on the advice of the Minister of Justice not to proceed with the appeal in the Ayer & Co. case to the Supreme Court of Canada. It would seem that the statute under which the seizure was made, and in respect to which a great deal of difference of opinion exists, was amended at the last session of Parliament so that the same difficulty would not arise again. It did not appear worth while prosecuting an appeal in order to obtain from the courts a judicial construction of the repealed statute.

A seizure made by the Customs Department at Montreal, P. Q., is reported. Officials at that port also report that there has been discovered a large number of invoices purporting to be goods purchased for importation to Canada in New York and representing the value of about $1100 on which duty has not been paid.

It is understood that Parliament will be called for despatch of business about the third week of January next.

The difficulties between the Governor-General's Foot Guards and Col. Macpherson have been smoothed over. The officers have withdrawn their resignations.

The next Civil Service examination will commence on Tuesday, Nov. 13, at 9 o'clock a.m., and will be held at Ottawa, Kingston, Toronto, Hamilton, London, Winnipeg, Regina and other usual places. Applications for forms will be received by Secretary Lesueur until Oct. 15, and the forms duly filled up will require to be returned to him not later than Oct. 25, after which date the rolls of candidates will be closed.

Narrowly Missed the Emperor.

VIENNA, Sept. 29.—A committee of the Lower House of the Austrian Diet advises the rejection of the proposition to give an official reception to Emperor William during his visit to this city.

During an artillery practice to-day a shot narrowly missed the head of the Emperor Francis Joseph.

McCarthy Corroborated.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—Mr. Biggar has written a letter corroborating Mr. McCarthy's reply to Mr. Chamberlain's charge that the Nationalist members of Parliament had profited by the Irish agitation. Mr. Biggar says he knows many Parnellites who have been losers.

PRICES AND PROSPECTS.

BRADSTREET'S REVIEW OF THE WEEK'S BUSINESS.

Mercantile Failures for the First Nine Months of the Year—Trade in the World's Wheat Markets Prostrated.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—At cities east, west and northwest the customary reports of a fair or satisfactory volume of general trade continue to be received. Bradstreet's special telegrams from southern cities show that the frigid having subsided, quarantines against points having, or suspected of having, yellow fever are being very generally raised. A week's business has been lost south of Kentucky and east of the Mississippi.

The total number of mercantile failures in the United States reported to Bradstreet's in nine months of 1888 is 7330, against 6958 in nine months of 1887 and as compared with larger totals in the three preceding years, but the total liabilities have declined this year as compared with last over $6,000,000, about one-seventh, while the assets have actually increased slightly. These features raise the proportion of assets to liabilities from 49.1 per cent. in nine months of 1887 to 53.1 per cent. this year. The total numbers of failures in Canada for nine months is 1274, against 946 in 1887. The total liabilities this year are $12,441,839, against $11,083,466 last year. The total assets are $5,617,352, against $4,759,954 in 1887.

Speculation in stocks shows increasing strength and buoyancy. Bonds are in good demand, but the investment inquiry of first-class issues is larger than the supply. Money at New York continues easy, call loans 1½ to 2 per cent. Foreign exchange is easier on increased offerings of commercial and security bills and slack inquiry, demand sterling $4.87½ to $4.87¾.

There is less general demand for crude iron east and west, though leading markets remain fairly active. A significant feature is the offer of a prominent steel firm to sell bridge, structural, plate and tank steel at iron prices. Rails continue quiet with prices low. There is less prospect reported of an advance in iron prices. Anthracite coal is moving actively, largely on old contracts. The extra demand from the west has helped to sustain prices east.

The total exports of wheat (and flour as wheat) from both coasts this week is 2,614,410 bushels against 2,739,424 bushels last week. The aggregate so shipped, July to date, is 31,443,405 bushels against 48,015,859 bushels in a like portion of 1887. An English authority predicts a corner in the world's wheat markets next spring, due to deficient crops and to over-confidence and reduced stocks in the United Kingdom. During the past week cash wheat has advanced at New York about 4c per bushel to $1.02¼, the highest price touched for five years.

Prices of sugar were depressed but the loss in price has been regained. The New York market has been dull owing to short arrivals, stiff views of importers and refiners' unwillingness to meet prices asked for raw. Coffee has been dull with declining speculative prices.

The wool market continues steady with prices firm, dry goods are in fair request, there is some gain in clothing, the cotton movement is slow, the Indian corn crop will be heavy, hops are no higher.

Mercantile Disasters.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—The business failures throughout the country during the last seven days as reported to Dun, Wiman & Co., number for the United States 186 and for Canada 34, or a total of 220 as compared with 228 last week and 217 the week previous to the last. For the corresponding week of 1887 the figures were 165, made up of 171 in the United States and 24 in Canada.

THE WHEAT CORNER.

September Reaches $1.50—Settlements Offered on That Basis.

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—The wheat pit was again the center of attraction. The attendance was not unusually large. The early session was noticeable for activity and a large business was transacted in all of the various futures, with a higher range of prices. But a desperate effort was made to break prices and the raid proved partially successful except for September, which ruled strong, and another 25c per bushel was added to the advance of yesterday, at which figure the future was held. The opening for September was the same as the closing figure of yesterday and with 5c jumps, prices struck $1.50, at which figure the market rested, and at noon the traders who had control of the market offered to effect settlement on that basis.

OLD HUTCH'S "PROFITS."

A Sensational Episode Connected With the Chicago Wheat Corner.

CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—During the day "Old Hutch" drew out of the clearing house a check for $675,000 as his profits on sales made on wheat Thursday.

One of the most sensational features of the day happened after the close of the board when Abel H. Bliss of the firm of A. H. Bliss & Co., one of the substantial commission firms of the city, notified the Corn Exchange Bank that he would withdraw his deposits and patronage. Charles L. Hutchinson, President of the bank, who is also President of the Board of Trade and a son of "Old Hutch," immediately sent for Mr. Bliss and asked what was the matter. Mr. Bliss replied: "Any man who runs a corner on the market and squeezes the life and blood out of the trade is no better than a thief. Your father, who owns fifty-one per cent. of the stock of this bank, built just such a corner and I do not consider my money safe in the hands of a thief, therefore I withdraw my patronage."

The Protocol Abandoned.

ROME, Sept. 29.—The Italian Government recently notified the Porte that Italy would sign the protocol which the Porte desired to append to the Suez Canal convention only on the condition that the Porte specified the territory claimed by Turkey in North Africa and that it also defined the western frontier of Tripoli. The Porte refused to comply with their conditions on the ground that such compliance would compromise Turkish rights in Tunis. The protocol has been abandoned.

Reinforcements Needed.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—An official despatch from Suakim says the rebels are extending their trenches daily, that the fire from the garrison forts fails to dislodge them and they must be driven out by assault. Reinforcements are demanded.

To Help Out the Shorts.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 29.—One hundred thousand bushels of wheat left St. Louis for Chicago by special trains last night. This was all that was available.

CANADIAN CATTLE.

A Further Sale at Aberdeen—Fair Average Prices Obtained.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—A further sale of Canadian store cattle imported by the Canadian Cattle Company at Aberdeen, yielded an average price; 307 were sold. There was a large attendance and brisk buying. The total proceeds were £5647 15s., giving an average of £14 4s. 6d. per head, against £13 10s., the average of the last cargo. An extra cargo of 315 cattle is due by the Europa, and the trade is assuming large proportions.

DR. BRYCE IN BUFFALO.

The Situation There Worse Than He Expected—Radical Measures Advocated.

BUFFALO, Sept. 29.—The Health Board yesterday received information of a new case of smallpox on Michigan street and on Marvin street, down in the thickly populated First Ward, a mother and her two sons are said to be down with the disease.

Dr. J. H. Bryce, Secretary of the Ontario Provincial Board of Health, is now on a visit to the city. In a conference with prominent health officials yesterday, he told them plainly that something would have to be done at once to isolate all cases of smallpox in the city or an epidemic would be the result. With every known case taken to hospital—rich and poor treated alike—the disease could be stamped out in two months, but the thorough isolation and destruction of the disease-spreading clothing, etc., must be insisted on, or Dr. Bryce believes the consequences will be most serious. "Compulsory vaccination, prompt removal to the hospital and a vigilant and prompt search for concealed cases are all that is needed," added the doctor.

MANGLED BY A THRESHING MACHINE

Terrible Death of a Man who Stumbled into the Cylinder.

PORT ROWAN, Sept. 29.—Edward Chambers, living near Walsingham Centre, slipped and fell in a threshing machine, his legs slipping into the cylinder, which broke the machine. His legs were horribly mangled. Chambers died in a few hours after.

Killed by the Cars.

RIVER DE LOUP, Sept. 29.—As the way freight was leaving for Levis yesterday afternoon a man named Frank Forgues, a brakesman, was walking on the track to his van and seeing the train coming towards him went across to the siding to clear the train coming but at the same time the pilot engine was coming in the same direction with some cars ahead of her, which he apparently did not see. The tremen on the way freight signalled him and tried to make him understand his peril but failed and the car backing struck him down across the track and passed over his chest killing him instantly. The deceased is from Radlow Cove where he leaves a wife and five children unprovided for.

A Horrible Death.

INWOOD, Sept. 29.—M. M. Brown, of Paulding, O., head foreman in Holmes, Moore & Courtright's new mill, four miles west of here, was accidentally killed yesterday morning by falling on a large circular saw.

PLAYING AT "MUSEUM."

How Little Harry Bavendam Cut Off His Sister's Fingers.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29. Harry Bavendam, the 11-year-old son of a mounted policeman attached to the Fourteenth precinct, on Ralph-avenue, Brooklyn, undertook to imitate one of the "Gakis" that illuminate a cheap Bowery museum. He called his sister Mary, aged 8 years, and induced her to personate one of the female "Gakis." She readily consented and prevailed upon her brother to "be the man who eats fire" and she would "be the lady with the long hair." While her brother went to an upper apartment Mary began to decorate herself with loose straw, and when he returned both went into the cellar, where Mr. Bavendam was mending some riding straps.

Said Harry to his sister: "Come here, May, and I'll chop your head off. I'm the fellow what does the choppin' and you're the lady, and after your head's off I'll put it on again. Then I'll put your head on a barrel and you can read a book."

Little May did not look with much favor on this proposition, and in her childish manner told her brother that if he chopped her head off she could never talk again. Harry then proposed that his sister put her arm on a chopping block. He had a small axe in his hand, and the moment the little girl laid her arm where her brother directed down came the weapon and two little fingers dropped off.

Young Harry said that when he played with his sister he thought that she would swing her arm one side when he came down with the axe. He maintained that it was purely an accident. When Mrs. Bavendam heard of the matter she fainted. The physician said it would be some time before the girl would be able to be out.

THE WHITECHAPEL MURDERS.

A Crank on a Spree Pretends to be the Criminal.

LONDON, Sept. 29. The phase given to the mystery of the Whitechapel murders in the disclosures to the coroner in regard to the American who desired to purchase from the curator of the Pathological Museum specimens of a female organ has awakened interest in the subject. Although the officials of Scotland Yard affect to sneer at the coroner's story and seem to be apathetic regarding what your own else considers a fresh clue, it is doubtful if the officers have taken the trouble to cable to the New York police department to learn anything about the alleged American. The newspapers are unanimous in the opinion that the coroner's story ought to be thoroughly investigated and the matter given the greatest possible attention.

Fitzgerald, the man who gave himself up to the police officers as the murderer of the Chapman woman, is evidently a crank who was on a spree, and was amusing himself at the expense of Scotland Yard. Through the evidence taken in a case of assault that came before the criminal court it was learned that nearly all the women of the East End of London carry police whistles, with which they can summon assistance in case of trouble. They have adopted this means of protection since these horrible murders came to light.

The legality of the sentence of five weeks' imprisonment which was imposed upon Mr. John Redmond will be one of the first questions discussed in Parliament at the autumn session. The words of Mr. Redmond which were adjudged illegal occurred in a moderate speech to his constituents. Jurists maintain that Mr. Redmond's constitutional rights as a member of Parliament have been infamously infringed.

DOINGS IN THE DOMINION

TWO OF THE CASES AGAINST BROKER COX DISMISSED.

The Other Again Postponed and Bail Reduced—A New Aspect Presented in the Case Murder Trial.

TORONTO, Sept. 29.—Thomas Tracey, who disappeared from Brockton a few months ago, having $1500 in his possession at the time, has been heard from in New Orleans.

John Tedford and Wm. James, employes in Gale, Anderson & Co.'s planing mill, on Soho-street, were struck by a board which flew back suddenly from one of the machines. The former was knocked senseless and the latter severely injured.

A man, recently married, named Reed, at 62, Dufferin street, got somewhat excited last night and jumped out of the two-story window. Chief Quinn was sent for and the jumper picked up a chair and hit the chief over the head, which compelled the close attention of a physician, who had to stitch up an ugly wound. Reed, who had been drinking, is in custody.

The wheat corner in Chicago has caused no end of excitement here, and on the Board of Trade yesterday it rose to fever heat on the jump from $1.25 to $1.40, and subsequently on the receipt of a despatch that Hutchinson & Co. were selling September wheat to the shorts at $1.50 and that the corner was solid. At 1 o'clock there was a drop of one-half, but almost immediately another jump.

Davidson & Co., wholesale saddlery and hardware, 14 Front-street west, suspended yesterday morning with liabilities of $34,000. The assets are estimated at $30,000.

The distribution of the prizes and certificates awarded the pupils of the Toronto Art School for the year 1887-8, was held in the lecture hall of the Education Department yesterday afternoon. The province's gold medal was won by Miss Boron and the school prize by Miss Carrie Marsh.

Mr. Wingfield, J. P., has committed Thomas Maloney and William Greenhill for trial on the charge of having stolen a horse from Hiram Allerton, Trafalgar, Halton County.

Early yesterday morning a thief entered the Bull's Head Hotel, Niagara-street, and stole two silver watches.

In the case of Bell and Smith, the striking plumbers charged with intimidation, Judge Macdougall sustained their appeal and quashed the conviction.

Hon. E. Blake has given $2,500 to the University to found two or more scholarships in political science.

Police Magistrate Denison yesterday afternoon decided that a prima facie case had not been made out against E. S. Cox, in the matter of the $8000 charge. The Anderson case was also dismissed. The $10,000 matter went over a week for further evidence.

The city's total assessment for 1888 is $113,183,828, against $98,257,901 for 1887, and the population 138,150, against 125,169.

WINNIPEG WIRE WHISPERS.

Committed for Trial—The Hitch Denied—Ontario Farmers' Excursion.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 29.—Strachan and Deegan were sent up for trial yesterday afternoon on the charge of forgery in signing petitions names as bondsmen in procuring the license for the recent mock marriage.

The alleged hitch between the Northern Pacific and the local Government is denied semi-officially.

Mulholland Bros., hardware merchants, assigned to-day. It is believed their assets are largely in excess of their liabilities.

The missionaries to China were met at the station yesterday and welcomed by a large number of citizens.

The Ontario farmers' excursion arrived yesterday.

The St. George's Snowshoe Club of Winnipeg is to be invited to spend the Christmas holidays at Banff.

LEPINE'S MAJORITY 683.

The Caza Murder Trial His Case Assumes a New Aspect.

MONTREAL, Sept. 29. The returning officer's official declaration places Mr. Lepine's majority in Montreal East at 683.

The evidence in the Caza murder case was continued in the Court of Queen's Bench yesterday. The case has assumed a slightly different color since High Constable Bissonnette found what is supposed to be Caza's pocket-book under a counter in Pilon's hotel at Coteau Landing last evening. The defence had obtained a search warrant, in consequence of Methot's evidence to the effect that Caza had missed a pocket-book with $1200 on the evening of the fatal shot.

James McKenna and Frank Kirby, two boys who ran away from their homes in Montreal on Aug. 27, have turned up in England. Since their discovery Kirby has again disappeared and is thought to have been kidnapped.

THE TOBIQUE MURDER TRIAL.

Sensational Scenes in Court—Phillipine's Sister Perjures Herself.

ANDOVER, N. B., Sept. 29.—In the Tobique murder trial yesterday, Anna Phillipine, sister of one of the prisoners, took the stand and circumstantially contradicted the testimony given by her before the magistrates. Under cross-examination the poor girl was overcome and had to be assisted from the court house. After she returned she repudiated her story of the morning and re-asserted the evidence given before the magistrates. She explained that a man had persuaded her that the only way her brother's life could be saved was by her contradicting her first criminating evidence. After the excitement had subsided the judge called upon the Attorney-General to take the necessary steps to protect the administration of justice. Most of the day was taken up in hearing Major Howes' evidence of the shooting.

A Citizen Flogged the School Girl.

SALINA, Kan., Sept. 29.—R. T. Crim, a wealthy citizen, went into a ward school yesterday and drawing a rawhide proceeded to administer a severe flogging to a 12-year-old girl, despite the entreaties of the child, the teacher and other pupils. The girl had slapped Crim's daughter in the face for impudent language.

One of the reasons why Scott's Emulsion has such a large sale is because it is the best. Dr. W. H. Cameron, Halifax, N.S., says: "I have prescribed Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites for the last two years, and found it more agreeable to the stomach and have better results from its use than any other preparation of the kind I have ever used." The High Stool Must Go.

A London physician, writing of the peculiar effects of certain professions on the health, advises clerks to discard the high stool so commonly used by bookkeepers and accountants. He regards it as far more healthful in every way to stand when working at a desk. If need be, the clerk may rest a few moments by sitting down in an ordinary chair, but to work all day in a cramped position necessitated by the high stool is ruinous to the health, and must, sooner or later, result in the breaking down of the individual who does it.

The Common Lot.

There is a place no love can reach,
There is a time no voice can teach,
There is a chain no power can break,
There is a sleep no sound can wake.

Sooner or later that time will arrive, that place will wait for your coming, that chain must bind you in helpless death, that sleep must fall on your senses. But thousands every year go untimely to their fate, and thousands more lengthen out their days by heedful, timely care. For the failing strength, the weakening organs, the wasting blood, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a wonderful restorative and a prolonger of strength and life. It purifies the blood and invigorates the system, thereby fortifying it against disease. Of druggists. c

THE DUPED ITALIANS.

A Defiant Attitude Maintained—Efforts to Resume Work.

SHERBROOKE, Que., Sept. 29.—The unfortunate Italians continue very defiant. At Sawyerville Junction they carried their obstruction so far as again to prevent the continuance of track-laying, which was being carried out under the protection of the military, and it had to be suspended for about an hour, Colonel Pope being obliged to order bayonets fixed; but rather than adopt extreme measures he granted them time to re-consider their action, and wiser counsels prevailed. Work was then resumed. A few of the Italians have consented to go to work if permitted by their fellows.

Advices received from the American end of the road say that the Italians, armed with guns, drove off the sub-contractors, who were endeavoring to work on the American section, and chased them into Canaan, Vt.

High Constable Moe, who left here with warrants, returned without having made any arrests. No ringleaders could be pointed out.

Short in Her Count.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—The recent deficiency in the Redemption division of the Treasury Office is a more serious matter than at first supposed. Treasury officials are very reticent and little can be learned except that Mrs. Ernestine Becker, one of the oldest and most trusted counters in the division, was found $944 short in her cash and has been dismissed the service after making good the deficiency. She was appointed in 1864 by President Johnson. Several errors were found in packages which passed through Mrs. Becker's hands, and she was dismissed. She strenuously denies that she has been guilty of any wrong.

Grand Trunk Earnings.

MONTREAL, Sept. 29.—The earnings of the Grand Trunk Railway for the week ending Sept. 22 were:

	1888.	1887.
Passenger train earnings	$191,110	$178,039
Freight train earnings	267,462	269,113

A Fugitive Balloon Captured.

PROVIDENCE, R.I., Sept. 29.—A large silk balloon, its car deserted and drifting, was captured on Cumberland Hill yesterday, where it caught among the trees. The address, "Carl Meyers, Mohawk, N.Y.," was found on it, and a bit of a Buffalo newspaper pinned to the basket on which was pencilled "Met our death in the clouds."

Make a Note of This.

Pain banished as if by magic. Polson's Nerviline is a positive and almost instantaneous remedy for external, internal, or local pains. The most active remedy hitherto known falls far short of Nerviline for potent power in the relief of nerve pain. Good for external or internal use. Buy a 10 cent trial bottle. Large bottles 25 cents, at all druggists. 6d39

A Double Recommendation.

"We have used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and find that for diarrhœa it cannot be equalled. We cannot speak too highly of it." Ernest Clare Cross and Roy Neil Cross, Jasper, Ont., April 29th, 1888. 6dw39

The Double Liability.

A weak and low constitution, impure blood, etc., causes a double liability to contract disease. Purify the blood and remove all worn out matter and disease-breeding impurities from the body by using Burdock Blood Bitters which thoroughly cleanses, regulates and tones the entire system. 6dw39

Is Cholera Coming?

When symptoms of cholera appear, prompt remedies should be resorted to. Miss Mary E. Davis, of Lakeville, Ont., says—"My brother was bad with cholera morbus and after using one bottle of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, it cured him entirely." 6dw39

A Railway Smash Up

calls vividly to mind the appaling spectre of death, and yet no thought is taken of the thousands annually dying through disease caused by wrong action of the stomach, liver, kidneys or bowels, and which might be remedied by the use of B. B. B., nature's great restorative tonic and blood purifier. 6dw39

All druggists sell it. dw

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. Lyman, Sons & Co., Montreal, Wholesale Agents. dw

A Helping Hand

is most appreciated where it is most needed, and thus it is that Burdock Blood Bitters gains more favor yearly by lending the weakened system valuable assistance in removing all impurities and building up a strong, healthy body. 6dw39

ORGANS

During Fair Time,

Small wares, sheet music and musical instruments of all kinds under the management of Prof. Doucet will be sold at a great discount.

My interest in Peterborough is much greater than that of an ordinary traveller, who drops in for a few days and spends three or four dollars with some hotel, and offers pianos by the catalogue—which no honest local man would represent. My prices are from $50 to $100 less than any traveller will quote you. Kindly inspect my stock and I will prove the above.

LIFE ASSURANCE COMP'Y OF CANADA.

HEAD OFFICE, MONTREAL.

Both in Magnitude and Profitableness, the Business for 1887 has been almost everything that could be desired.

The life policies now in force are 7,128 for $10,873,777.69, on 6741 lives. We have moreover $3,207,600 00 insured under 1,840 accident policies, so that the total current contracts of the Company are 8,969 for $14,081,377.69.

The income for the year shows the very large increase of $122,331.23 over the figures of 1886, the total being $495,831.54. The revenue is now half a million dollars per annum, or as mentioned in the report, over $1,600 for every working day in the year, and even this he believed was but a mere introduction to what it will be in a few years hence. The gains from time to time are well illustrated by the following table:—

Period	Gain in income.	Gain in assets.	Gain in assurance.
1872 to 1876, four years	$ 54,611 21	$169,482 69	$1,149,743 00
1876 to 1880, four years	38,580 67	195,158 29	1,167,386 14
1880 to 1884, four years	136,976 84	363,264 31	2,902,924 90
1884 to 1887, three years	217,451 89	475,907 24	4,029,373 65
Total in 1887	$495 831 54	$1,750,004 48	$10,873,777 69

It is very pleasing to notice that the gains for the last three years only are 60 per cent. more than those of the preceding four years.

Woman's Missionary Work.

The semi-annual meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbytery of Peterborough was held in St. Andrew's church, Campbellford, on Thursday afternoon and evening of last week. Among those present were Mrs. Fairbairn, Miss Roger, Mrs. Innes and Mrs. Ferguson, of Peterborough. Miss Roger was acting Vice-President and gave an address. This Society comprises 15 auxiliaries and 5 mission bands with a total membership of 474. The amount raised last year to carry on work among heathen women and children was $1,306,89 An evening meeting was also held to which the public were invited.

Presbytery Meeting.

The Presbytery of Peterborough met in the Presbyterian Church, Cobourg, on Tuesday of this week. The attendance was not large, only about twenty being present. A large amount of important business was transacted. The Rev. Jas. Ross, B. A., of Harwood, was appointed moderator for the next six months. The call to the Rev. Mr. Lord, B. D., from Grafton and Vernonville, was sustained, and arrangements made for his induction at a date to be fixed by the parties concerned. On that occasion, Mr. Duncan is to preside, Mr. Gilchrist is to preach Mr. Mitchell to address the ministers, Mr. McLeod, the people, and Mr. Sutherland to explain Presbyterian polity. Arrangements were made for holding a Sabbath School Institute in Cobourg sometime in the winter, to be conducted by the Rev. John McEwan, one of the most experienced Sunday school workers in Canada. The Rev. Mr. Aylward, of the Congregational Church, was present, and was cordially invited to sit as a corresponding member.—World.

Burns Club Meeting.

Friday evening the Burns Club met in their hall to complete the work of organization. The President, Mr. James Henury, occupied the chair. The principal business was the adoption of the rules, etc., for the government of the Club, which had been submitted at a previous meeting by the committee appointed to draft the same. The whole of the rules were adopted clause by clause, without any amendment, except that the ballot was selected for the election of members instead of open voting. Rule 3, which had provoked considerable discussion at a previous meeting, and which defined the status of membership, was again the subject of much interesting debate, but was finally adopted without amendment. This rule, which is the principal one of interest to all admirers of Burns, reads as follows:—

"All Scotchmen, descendants of Scotchmen, Canadians, and persons of other nationalities, who are known to be friends and admirers of Burns, shall be eligible for membership."

The members are to be commended for the liberal and unselfish spirit which has actuated them in thus throwing open their Club to all admirers of their illustrious poet, irrespective of nationality. The Club adjourned at 10 o'clock. The next meeting will take place on Friday, October 5th, and will be the first regular monthly business meeting of the Club.

Straight to the Point.

We come straight to the point—strike the nail on the head the first blow. Belleghem, the great furniture king, is our theme. For the past year Belleghem has been lying low as far as advertising was concerned, but all the while he has been pegging away making hundreds of homes happy with both useful and artistic furniture of every conceivable kind. He did not need to advertise because he had as much work as he could do. But now he has invested in a liberal supply of printers' ink, because he has largely increased his manufacturing premises, a full description of which will appear in the EXAMINER when the fall fairs are over. The new buildings have added immensely to Belleghem's capacity and he is now ready in every sense for the most exacting demands of his thousands of old customers and for as many new customers as may wish to come along with their orders. Belleghem, as becomes the furniture king, has adopted a coat of arms. His motto is "semper paratus"—"always ready"—and his crest the pinnacle of the furniture trade, which he occupies. He challenges the keenest scrutiny of his goods; they are equal to the best in Canada. He has now one of the best equipped factories in operation in eastern Canada. Every inch of lumber entering into his work is kiln-dried, put together by the best workmen, and finished in a thoroughly artistic manner. The season of matrimony is coming, and Belleghem will be happy to furnish a cosy home with the best of furniture from the parlour to pantry.

Police Court.

Fay Given Six Months in the Central for Stealing a Coat.

SATURDAY, Sept. 29.

H. Fay and J. O'Neil, the two men arrested last Saturday for the larceny of a coat from Sheppard's clothing store, were given their trial to-day.

Three witnesses were called against Fay. Geo. Stenson testified that he saw Fay take down the coat, and Percy Rubidge and Bert Brooks said they saw him carrying it off, when Stenson called their attention to it. They followed him down to the lumber yard, where they lost trace of him. They positively identified the man and the coat in question.

Fay called up some witnesses, but, as the Magistrate remarked, their evidence only confirmed his guilt. Fay was sentenced to six months in the Central Prison at Toronto. He strenuously denied his guilt, and said he was "as innocent as a new born child."

O'Neil could not be implicated in the theft, though he was seen "chumming it" with Fay. A simple charge of vagrancy was preferred against him, of which he was discharged. He was given four hours to get out of town, and he departed joyfully with a light step and smiling visage. The magistrate remarked that he thought O'Neil should also be charged with larceny, as he had no doubt he was also connected with it, but as there was no evidence against him he would let him off.

As O'Neil was leaving the court room Fay shook hands with him and said, "good-bye old man." Fay was then handcuffed and taken away

OTHER CASES.

An abusive language case, L. Laplant vs. X. Legros, was withdrawn, the defendant paying the costs.

John Daly was discharged for drunkenness

Local Sports and Pastimes.

That Lacrosse Game.

The Lindsay papers refer as follows to the Y.M.C.A. lacrosse match between Peterborough and Lindsay on Thursday, 20th inst:—

Post:—The Peterborough team was materially strengthened by the assistance of three Riverside players, two of them not being members of the association. Lindsay challenged the right of Riverside men to play, and it will be a question for the associations interested to decide whether or not Peterborough can claim the pennant having played outside men. The Peterborough team must have been over-anxious for victory when they would resort to such means to obtain it.

Warder:—The game was played on grounds not nearly half regulation size, so was simply "shinny." The Peterboroughs, however, are the better practised team, and won four goals to one. Captain Anderson of the Lindsays entered a protest against the Peterboroughs playing three men not members, but it was of no avail. Some of them were Riverside's and one an Etna. But in any event it is very doubtful if Lindsay could have won.

The Post is misinformed. Only two of the Riversides played, and one of these was a qualified member of the Association team. The one the Warder speaks of as an Etna is also a playing member of the Y.M.C.A. club. There was only one man to whom the Lindsay men could properly object, and, though he was perhaps the best man on the team, as the Warder says, "in any event it is doubtful if Lindsay could have won."

NORTH-EASTERN DISTRICT CHAMPIONSHIP.

The secretary of the Riverside lacrosse club last night received a telegram from the secretary of the C. L. A., calling upon the Peterborough team to play off the tie with Orillia in the North-eastern district championship at Lindsay on Wednesday next, Oct. 3rd, "or toss for choice of grounds." The Riversides are content to accept Lindsay, and will prepare to defend their goal and win the pennant there.

A meeting of the Riversides is called for Monday evening at the Commercial house to select the team to play the final match.

Willow and Wicket.

The match with Lindsay, scheduled for to-day, has been postponed at the request of the Lindsay club.

A team of the Peterborough cricket club will go to Campbellford next Friday or Saturday to play a return match.

Baseball.

A meeting of the Peterborough baseball club will be held this evening in the Commercial house to arrange for a forthcoming match.

Curlana.

Tempus fugit. Don't mention it. House flies are worry enough just now. But there is no getting around the fact that Tempus does fugit, and fugits at a lively rate. Here is a meeting of the curling club to be held at the rink, on Thursday next, the 4th, to elect officers for the ensuing season. Just fancy curling again, and we have scarcely lost the taste of the first dish of strawberries and cream, the first kiss—oh, well never mind that—that is to say, the first kiss of summer—yes, that's it, the first kiss of summer is on our lips, and winter sends his chilly harbinger of frost, ice, skating and curling. Tempus fugit? Well, yes, it just scoots.—[Worked over from the Bobcaygeon Independent.

Range and Rifle.

A meeting of the Rifle Association is called for Monday evening at the orderly room of the drill shed. It has been found that the Association can have the use of their old range for their annual matches, Oct. 9th and 10th, and the meeting Monday night is to prepare for it.

The monthly matches of the Rifle Association will be concluded next Thursday at the old range.

At the Lindsay Rifle matches on Friday Messrs. G. Fitzgerald, J. B. Pentland, A. Blade, W. A. Mason and R. H. Smith represented Peterborough. They all succeeded in carrying off prizes; Geo. Fitzgerald three and the others one each.

Personal.

Dr. Gray, of Baillieboro, was in town to-day.

Mr. J. M. Ferris, of Campbellford, is in town to day.

Mr. W. H. Stevens left town on the 11.30 C.P.R. express, last night.

Mr. W. T. R. Preston stopped off a short time as he was passing through town to-day on his way to Toronto.

The Cobourg Star says that Mr. W. R Riddell has been appointed to take the crown business at the assizes at Peterborough and Lindsay.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Darcy left this morning for their home in Rochester, after spending a few days in town with friends.

Cobourg Sentinel-Star:—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sailsbury, of Peterborough, were in town on Wednesday attending the marriage of Mr. John Gilbard to Miss Lillie Battell,—the bridegroom being a brother of Mrs. Sailsbury.

Hilliard Wasson, who has been a pupil of the Peterborough Collegiate Institute for several terms, has passed the medical matriculation of McGill University, Montreal.

Mr. Nelson Brown has returned from the Pacific slope after a year's absence from his home here. He comes back greatly improved in health, and says he never had a sick day while living in "the glorious climate" of that region. He will remain here through the winter at least.

Mr. J. E. Jaques, organist of St. Luke's church, Ashburnham, closes his engagement on Sunday evening, and on Monday goes to St. Thomas to enter upon his duties as organist of Knox church in that city. Mr. Jaques has been two years in town, and during that time has shown himself an excellent musician, and as a citizen has borne himself without reproach, and has won popularity in social circles. The EXAMINER wishes Mr. Jaques a pleasant and prosperous career in St. Thomas.

Exhibition Notes.

The Singer Manufacturing Company.

Mr. Joseph Stainton, manager for the famous firm at Peterborough, had a splendid display of Sewing machines both for family and manufacturing purposes. One a Drop Cabinet was greatly admired by the ladies, being elaborately finished and beautiful in design and without doubt is the best machine manufactured. The samples of sewing machine work were excellent, both in design and taste, excelling by far any that we have ever seen for many a year and reflect great credit on Miss S. Anderson and Miss M. McCarthey. As Mr. Stainton informs us, they were made by those two ladies in the Peterborough office. As we enter the north entrance, the multitude crowd their way to witness those machines working on different samples, showing clearly that they are capable of doing all that was represented. They were justly awarded a diploma. We congratulate the company on the staff employed by them and feel sure under the management of Mr. Stainton, who comes to this town well recommended, having held elsewhere several positions of trust for the company, that good results will follow. Any person intending to buy a machine will do well to purchase from this firm, who will give thorough instructions in all kind of sewing machine work, besides furnishing the best machine of any class now made or on the market. Office and show rooms, 434 George street Peterborough.

Central Exhibition.

Conclusion of the Prize List—General Remarks—Acknowledgements.

Elsewhere will be found the conclusion of the prize list of this exhibition, which was considered the most successful of the series on the new grounds. In the management of the exhibition the president, the directors and officials exerted themselves to the utmost to bring success. No effort was spared to make the exhibition and its attractions known, Mr. E. C. Hill, the veteran bill poster, having been engaged to give his services. The result was that the exhibition was well advertised, as shown by Tuesday attendance of 5,000, and, doubtless, but for the rain and dirty weather, the third day's attendance would have been close to these figures. The want of larger buildings is greatly felt; there would no doubt be much more extensive exhibits of machinery and implements if manufacturers could be assured of proper protection for their goods. The press is under obligations to Mr. Wm. Collins, secretary, whose courtesy greatly facilitated the labors of the reporters.

Greenfield the Burglar.

There is little doubt that the party arrested in Buffalo is the personwho "went" through" Gough's clothing store a short time since, and there is considerable certainty of his being extradited and brought back to town. And there is no doubt that the cheapest place in the world to buy boots and shoes is the shop of gough bros., the wonderful cheap men, 175 George street. What a rush there was this morning and how the bargains were seized upon. gough bros. magnificently low prices are facts as solid as the goods they apply to; several thousand pairs of mens', boys' and childrens for sale—as cheap as good advice. Boots for the pavement, the plough tail or the trench of the navvy; boots for the kitchen, dairy, drawing room or boudoir, sold at less than half wholesale cost. Immense bargains in every transaction.

Victoria vs. Peterborough.

Summary of the Points in the Case.

The following is a summary of the above well-known case, as published in the Empire's report of the hearing of the appeal before Justices Patterson, Haggarty, Barton and Osler, on Wednesday, Sept. 26th, and in which judgment was reserved :—

Victoria, Corp. of Co. of, v. Peterborough, Corp. of County of.—Appeal by defendants from the judgment of Robertson, J., holding the defendants liable to contribute to the maintenance and repair of the bridges over the Big Bob and Little Bob rivers at the village of Bobcaygeon, in the county of Victoria. Robinson, Q. C., and E. B. Edwards, county solicitor (Peterborough) for appellants. Moss, Q.C., and Hudspeth, Q.C., (Lindsay) for respondents. Judgment reserved. The action was brought to have it declared (1) that the defendants are legally liable to contribute toward the maintenance and repair of said bridges; (2) that said bridges are under the joint control and liability of the two counties, notwithstanding they are upon a deviation of the boundary line, and wholly within the county of Victoria; and (3) for a mandamus compelling the defendants to appoint an arbitrator under the provisions of the Municipal Act, in order that the amount or proportion they are liable to pay or contribute towards the maintenance and repair of said bridges may be ascertained and fixed. Robinson, Q. C., supporting the appeal: The County of Victoria having appointed an arbitrator to decide the question of the proportion to be paid by the two counties in respect of the repair of the Bobcaygeon bridge, the county of Peterborough refused to appoint an arbitrator, and the Lieutenant-Governor, having been appealed to, the matter was by him referred to the courts. To the question raised by Osler, J., as to the power of the court to issue a mandamus, the matter being one for the Lieutenant-Governor, counsel suggested that a declaration of the rights and liabilities of the parties will be accepted and acted on. The facts are correctly stated in the judgment of Robertson, J., with one exception. The Statutes of Ontario, 42 Vic., cap. 47, detached from the township of Harvey and annexed to Verulam, in the county of Victoria, lots 1 to 15 inclusive, in the 19th concession of Harvey, consisting of lying west of Pigeon lake, which more naturally belongs, from its position, to the county of Victoria. The bridges in question were originally built when the counties of Peterborough and Victoria were united; after separation they also contributed jointly down to 1879, the county of Peterborough apparently considering it desirable to keep it up so as to divert traffic to Peterborough. It may be questioned whether Peterborough was liable for the northern bridge after the separation. See R. S. O., cap. 124, sec. 535. The statute, in using the expression "boundary line," evidently means "boundary road," not a boundary line in the middle of the lake. R.S.O., cap. 5, sec. 10, declares that where the river Trent and its lakes form divisions between municipalities, the boundary line shall be the centre line of the main channel of the lake or stream. The islands, if any, go according to the dividing line. Lake Simcoe and Rice Lake were referred to as forming the boundary between several counties. In such case there would be no "boundary road" on either side of the lake. Brant v. Waterloo, 19 U.C.R. 450, decides that where there is a deviation for the purpose of convenience of one municipality and not from necessity, there is no joint liability. The history of section 535, above referred to, was traced out. The deviation at Bobcaygeon was not on account of natural obstacles, and witnesses admitted upon cross-examination that they knew no reason for the bridge being placed where it is. Mr. Edwards pointed out that the expression in the Act of 1879, "as if the same had always formed part of the township of Verulam," refers back to a time prior to the building of the bridges, and really makes their history unnecessary. If the lake had always formed the boundary there never could have been a boundary road between them on either side of the lake. The County of Peterborough would have had as much right to have a road on its own side of the lake as the county of Victoria on the other side. The ratepayers of Harvey might as well be called upon to do statute labor on the eight miles of road, as the county to be asked to contribute to these bridges. The question of user cuts no figure. People living outside of a county, even aliens,

HAVE A RIGHT TO USE THE ROADS

and bridges, and are entitled to damages if they suffer an accident from the default of the county to repair. But if use or convenience is to affect the question, then there is a road within the county of Peterborough as convenient as, and not practically longer than, this road. No admission was made other than those noted verbatim in the evidence. "In some place or places" in sec. 535 indicates a deviation of a road local in its character, and limits the extent of such deviation. Moss, Q.C., for respondents, referred to the question of admission as to natural obstructions. The statute does not throw it upon us to prove the cause of the deviation; it simply says, "if it does deviate." The road commences at the north of the counties coming down the boundary line. The Buckhorn road would not serve the people of Galway. In 1863 the complete separation of the two counties took place. From 1863 to 1880 Peterborough contributed to the maintenance of the two bridges, thereby admitting the propriety of the deviation. While there can be no absolute estoppel to their disputing the liability, their conduct goes to show that this was a proper deviation. The effect of 42 Vic. cap. 47, even if it be to make Pigeon lake the boundary, it is not the boundary for the whole length of the two counties, not sure that the centre of the lake is even for its extent the dividing line. Even if these parts of lots had always been part of Verulam there would have been some natural obstructions, that is, there could be no road along the margin of the lake. The prior cases cannot be of assistance as the statute in question (sec. 535 as amended) is new. Brant v. Waterloo does not apply: the distinction drawn by Robinson, C.J., was that the bridge there in question was two counties. Hudspeth, Q.C., following, showed that the bridge was originally constructed by the counties. The Bobcaygeon river either forms the boundary line or it crosses the boundary line. The Act requires that people using a bridge should contribute to its maintenance; common sense requires this. The evidence is that the people of Galway and North Harvey use the bridge; they have no road or bridge of their own. We have the boundary line to the north, then at Bobcaygeon the deviation occurs. No question of distance can affect it; there might be a deviation of ten miles. There was no dispute as to the facts. The question of how much Peterborough should contribute would be for the arbitrators. See Harold v. Simcoe, 18 U.C.C.P. 10; O'Connor v. Otonabee, 35 U.C.R. 73; McHardy v. Elkes, 1 Ap. Rep. 522; and Cameron v. Waite, 3 Ap. Rep. 174. Robinson, Q.C., in reply, admitted that there is a road partly between the two counties. The road after crossing Pigeon lake continues east into the county of Peterborough and crosses Chemong lake by another bridge. There is no estoppel on a municipal council to build a bridge which they were not liable to build even if the circumstances had not changed. The statute changed the whole position of affairs. The old road was several miles west of the boundary, now several miles east of it. In the case of Brant v. Waterloo the words are practically the same as in sec. 535 here in question. The court will consider the cases of the deviation and also the extent of the deviation. The court will take judicial notice of the geographical fact that this lake is one of the lakes of the river. The boundary is made one by statute, not by survey. The Bobcaygeon river does not form the boundary line, nor does it cross it. Secs. 536 and 537 show that "boundary lines" and "boundary roads" mean the same. Under sec. 554 the county had power to aid a road even though outside of the country.

NOT "WHOLLY OR PARTLY" BETWEEN

A Dream of fair women.

Tennyson in his exquisite poem, dreams of a long procession of lovely women of ages past. This is all very well, but the laureate would have done the world a greater service if he had only told the women of the present how they could improve their health and enhance their charms. This he might easily have done by recommending the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Health is the best friend of beauty, and the innumerable ills to which women are peculiarly subject, its worst enemies. Long experience has proved that the health of womankind and the "Favorite Prescription" walk hand in hand, and are inseparable. It is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrapper, and faithfully carried out for many years. a

Campbell's Cathartic Compound.

Complimentary tribute to the virtues of Campbell's Cathartic Compound by J. W. Browett, the well known and popular druggist, of Ingersoll, Ontario.

Extract from the Ingersoll Chronicle, July 12th, 1888.—I have much pleasure in bearing testimony to the efficiency of Campbell's Cathartic Compound and the speedy relief rendered by it in a case of liver complaint, bilious headache, constipation, loss of appetite, dyspepsia, etc., and in all diseases arising from a disordered state of the stomach. I have used it myself, and know it to have brought permanent relief where pills and similar preparations have failed. I think very highly of it, and all those who have used it are unanimous in the opinion that it has filled a long felt want. It is very agreeable to take, and it is as certain in its effects as it is mild in its action. I have sold large quantities of it, and the demand for it is increasing, and I have yet to hear of one case where it did not give entire satisfaction and produce the result sought for. I am conscientious in recommending it, as I believe it only requires a trial to convince the most sceptical of its efficiency.

(Signed), J. W. BROWETT, druggists, Ingersoll.

ONE of the reasons why Scott's Emulsion has such a large sale is because it is the best. Dr. W. H. Cameron, Halifax, N.S., says: "I have prescribed Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites for the last two years, and found it more agreeable to the stomach and have better results from its use than any other preparation of the kind I have ever used." Sold by all Druggists 50c. and $1.00. 4w36eod

FORGER BEDELL IN COURT.

A Cool Criminal—Said to Have a Pull on His Former Employers.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—Bedell, the alleged forger, came to court yesterday morning as fresh as a June rose. His face was wreathed in smiles and confidence was written all over him. He was dressed in a neat suit, and it was evident that he felt himself master of the situation. Judge White said with gravity to Bedell This matter was adjourned, as you know, to enable you to engage counsel and consult about the case; it was set down for this day at 10 o'clock. What have you to say?"

Bedell replied with a firm, self-possessed voice: "Your Honor, I have not yet procured counsel, but am ready to plead if I may be allowed to read the complaint and know its purport."

The document was accordingly handed him by the judge and perusing it for a moment, as a mere matter of form apparently, the prisoner said quickly: "I cannot plead on the complaint; it is defective. When it is properly drawn I will plead."

"If the complaint is defective," said the Judge, "that is a matter for the court to decide. Of course, you have your rights. What have you to say about it, and when will you be ready to take your objections to the complaint?"

"I shall be ready on Wednesday, at 2.30 o'clock," and before the spectators could recover from their astonishment the proceedings were over. It is rumored that Bedell has a pull on Messrs. Shipman & Choate's establishment that will lift at least one social roof, and disgrace one or two young men supposed to be models of virtue.

FIRE AT GANANOQUE.

The Ontario Wheel Company's Factory Burnt—A Loss of $25,000.

GANANOQUE, Sept. 30.—Fire, supposed to have originated in the engine room, destroyed the factory of the Ontario Wheel Company this morning. Loss, $25,000, insurance, $16,000, divided between the British American, Queen's, Western, Royal, and London and Lancashire.

FRENCH POLITICS.

A Government Bill to Revise the Constitution Determined Upon.

PARIS, Sept. 30.—Another ministerial council was held yesterday. The Cabinet decided to introduce in the Chamber of Deputies during the coming session a bill for a revision of the constitution.

The Italian charge d'affaires in an interview with M. Goblet, Minister of Foreign Affairs, yesterday asked for an explanation of the decree ordering the use of the French language in Tunisian schools and the inspection of the schools by the French authorities. M. Goblet replied that the Government in issuing the decree has acted within the limits of the rights of France and that the Bey of Tunis was under French protection.

The Boulangist agitation has been resumed. A stormy meeting was held last evening at which a vote of confidence in Gen. Boulanger was passed.

Dime Experience

Has convinced many that to use any of the substitutes offered for the only cure-pop and painless corn cure is attended with danger. Get always and use none other than Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor, at druggists. 6dw40

A Double Recommendation.

"We have used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and find that for diarrhœa it cannot be equalled. We cannot speak too highly of it." Ernest Clare Cross and Roy Neil Cross, Jasper, Ont., April 29th, 1888. 6dw39

The Double Liability.

A weak and low constitution, impure blood, etc., causes a double liability to contract disease. Purify the blood and remove all worn out matter and disease-breeding impurities from the body by using Burdock Blood Bitters which thoroughly cleanses, regulates and tones the entire system. 6dw39

Is Cholera Coming?

When symptoms of cholera appear, prompt remedies should be resorted to. Miss Mary E. Davis, of Lakeville, Ont., says—"My brother was tried with cholera morbus and after using one bottle of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, it cured him entirely." 6dw39 calls vividly to mind the appaling spectre of death, and yet so thought is taken of the thousands annually dying through disease caused by wrong action of the stomach, kidneys or bowels, and which might be prevented by the use of B. B. B., nature's great regulator tonic and blood purifier.

TO THE DEAF.—A Person cured of Deafness and noises in the head of 23 years standing by a simple remedy, will send a description of it FREE to any Person who applies to N. CHOLSON, 30 St. John St., Montreal. d

VICTORIA CARBOLIC SALVE is a wonderful healing compound for cuts, wounds, bruises, burns, scalds boils, piles, and pimples. dw

Restoration Means Less.

If your hair is coming out or turning grey, or if you find dandruff in your hair, do not hesitate about looking after it. Get some of Dr. Dennerwend's "Hair Magic," use it as directed and you will find that it will give you the best of satisfaction. Take warning, do not wait till it is too late, but try it at once. All druggists sell it. dw

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging; most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. Lyman, Sons & Co., Montreal, Wholesale Agents. dw

A Helping Hand

is most appreciated where it is most needed, and thus it is that Burdock Blood Bitters gains more favor yearly by lending the weakened system valuable assistance in removing all impurities and building up a strong, healthy body. 6dw39

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

SUN
LIFE ASSURANCE COMP'Y OF CANADA.

HEAD OFFICE, MONTREAL.

Both in Magnitude and Profitableness, the Business for 1887 has been almost everything that could be desired.

The life policies now in force are 7,126 for $10,873,777.69, on 6741 lives. We have moreover $3,207,600 00 insured under 1,840 accident policies, so that the total current contracts of the Company are 8,969 for $14,081,377.69.

The income for the year shows the very large increase of $122,331.23 over the figures of 1886, the total being $495,831.54. The revenue is now half a million dollars per annum, or as mentioned in the report, over $1,600 for every working day in the year, and even this he believed was but a mere introduction to what it will be in a few years hence. The gains from time to time are well illustrated by the following table:—

Period	Gain in income.	Gain in assets.	Gain in assurance.
1872 to 1876, four years	$ 54,611 21	$189,482 69	$1,149,743 69
1876 to 1880, four years	38,580 67	195,188 29	1,167,288 14
1880 to 1884, four years	136,976 84	283,264 31	2,982,924 90
1884 to 1887, three years	217,451 80	475,607 24	4,028,373 86
Total in 1887	$495,831 54	$1,750,004 45	$10,873,777 69

It is very pleasing to notice that the gains for the last three years only are 60 per cent. more than those of the preceding four years.

The Best Bankrupt Stock.

Remember bargains are going at James Best's old stand where $11,000 dollars worth of well assorted dry goods and gents' furnishings, bought at 55 cents on the dollar, are being offered. There is a steady rush every day and the people are delighted with the bargains. This stock must be cleared in the next few weeks. Come and get goods at prices below wholesale cost. The place is 390 George street. dtf

An Item for Gentlemen

Seventy-five pieces of new panting goods have just been received at H. LeBrun's, comprising English, Scotch and Canadian tweeds of the best material and most fashionable styles. Pants will be made to order off these goods at $3.50, $4 and $4.50. A saving of from $1 to $2 will be effected to any man by getting these goods. Orders should be left early; a good fit is warranted. This is a rare opportunity. 6dw

WHISPERING SOFTLY.—Real French kid button boots at $1.75, worth $2.50, at JAMES T. STENSON'S. sodw

A Wide Smile on the Kid

Because he has secured $7,000 worth of first class boots and shoes at a very low rate on the dollar, and to make room he will thrash them out at such low prices that customers can't help buying. Listen to a few of the bargains. Ladies' shoes, 15 cents, sold everywhere for 40 cents. Ladies' laced boots, 90 cents, sold usually at other places for $1.75, and our men's long boots for $1.75, unsurpassed for value in the Dominion, every pair warranted. But call and see Kidd's, the boot man, and he will show you why he smiles. Still there is more to follow. dw

Gymnastic Classes.

The meeting of gentlemen who intend joining Sergt.-Major Randle's gymnastic classes will be held at the drill shed to-night at eight o'clock, and not at the Collegiate Institute gymnasium, as announced in Saturday's issue.

A Chicken Find.

Saturday night Officer Stewart's attention was called to a coop of chickens lying at the market building, where they had evidently been left after the morning's market by some one with a remarkably poor memory. The chickens, half a dozen fine Leghorn pullets, were taken to the police station, where they await an owner.

Young Men's Guild.

The first meeting of St. Luke's Young Men's Guild will be held in the school room of the church on Thursday evening next. Refreshments served from 7.30 to 8.30 p. m. A number of interesting exhibits, games, and a good programme have been provided. All welcome; admission 15 cents. d

TURNBULL'S establishment will be open on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, Sept. 26 and 27, to give everyone a chance to inspect the large display of millinery and mantles. No goods will be sold. dw

The Wind-Up Meeting.

On Monday, 8th October, the final meeting of the directors of the Central Exhibition will be held at the council chamber, when the affairs in connection with the late Exhibition will be wound up. All parties having accounts or any other business dealings with the directors had better be on hand. All accounts should be sent to the Secretary at once.

Grand Requiem Mass at St. Peter's.

The mass commanded by the Pope for the souls in purgatory was celebrated yesterday, throughout the whole Roman Catholic world, the Pope himself being one of the celebrants. In Peterborough grand requiem mass was said at 10.30 a. m. in St. Peter's Cathedral, His Lordship Bishop Dowling officiating, assisted by Rev. Fathers McEvay, Dubie and Rudkins. The altar was draped in black. Early masses were also said at 7 and 8 o'clock, at which many persons received the Holy Communion. The choir rendered exceptionally fine music.

The Dickson Siding.

Messrs. A. L. Hertzberg, engineer, Jas. Wilson, superintendent, and A. McMurchy, solicitor, of the C.P.R. offices, Toronto, were in town Friday and Saturday in the interests of the proposed C.P.R. siding up the river to the Dickson mills. The C.P.R. company intend beginning the work at once, and these gentlemen were here to settle a few final matters. Mayor Stevenson was asked if there would be any objection to the company taking gravel from the river bed (thereby deepening the channel) for embankment purposes. The Mayor gave his permission. The officials told Mr. Stevenson they intended to begin the work very shortly.

Officers Elected.

At the annual meeting of the St. Luke's Church of England Temperance Society Friday evening the following officers were elected:—

PRESIDENT.—Rev. W. C. Bradshaw.
VICE-PRESIDENTS.—Messrs. J. J. Rooney, W. Walbrook and H. Nesbitt.
SECRETARY.—Mr. E. B. Burt.
TREASURER.—Mr. W. Maniece.
ORGANISTS.—Miss Tivey and Mrs. Jackson.
COMMITTEE.—The officers and Mrs. Bradshaw, Mrs. Burt, Miss Smith, Messrs. Everett, A. Gaskins, Jos Chrow, sr., F. Saunders and Geo. Cooke.

Choral Classes.

Mr. J. S. Parker is forming classes in choral music. His terms are exceedingly reasonable—only $1.00 for three months' tuition, music provided. Mr. Parker's great and proved success as a choir instructor and director should attract a large class of lovers of music who desire to gain the advantages of the best musical instruction of a choral character under very favorable conditions. All wishing to join may apply at 502 Water street, or P.O. box 39. In connection with the above choral classes, Mr. Parker will be at the Y.M.C.A. rooms on Tuesday evening from 7.30 till nine o'clock to take the names of those wishing to join. d

A Farewell Present.

The proceedings at the usual weekly meeting of St. Luke's Church choir were very pleasantly varied on Saturday evening last, when the rector, at the close of the practice, in a neat and pithy speech, presented Mr. Jaques, on behalf of himself, the wardens and the choir, with a handsome solid Russian leather dressing and shaving case, as a token of the personal regard in which he was held by each individual member of the choir, and the great interest he had always taken in them both in his official and private relations. During his stay at St. Luke's there has not been a single incident to disturb the harmony which always should, but seldom does, exist between an organist and the members of his choir. While very much regretting his leaving the choir, they are pleased to know Mr. Jaques has obtained an advancement in life and wish him every prosperity in his new position. Mr. Jaques leaves for a similar position in St. Thomas to-day.

Wet Weather and Health.

The continuous wet weather is likely to yield a harvest to the doctors. People generally are so indifferent to taking the most ordinary simple precautions. It is simply criminal to go with wet feet when a magnificent stock of sound, water-tight boots and shoes are on sale at gough bros., the wonderful cheap men, at prices far below wholesale cost. Just think what a bonanza of bargains are to be found in a $6,000 stock of boots and shoes bought at 40 cents on the dollar and sold at the same rate. Don't be fleeced by high price dealers when you can get boots and shoes just as good as they sell at gough bros. for less than half of their prices. Business is business; buy where you can get the best goods for the least money, and that place is the store of goughs', the wonderful cheap men, 375 george street, peterborough.

Dummer Baptist Church.

On Wednesday evening, Sept. 23rd, a tea meeting was held under the auspices of the 9th line Dummer Baptist church in the Rorabeck church. There was a crowded attendance, notwithstanding the fact that the rain poured down in torrents, and evidently the people had come for a good time, for the joy and song rung out away into the woods and fell on the grateful ears of the wet and belated travellers who had journeyed from Norwood to spend the evening with them. The good people of the district had made provision ample and rich enough to satisfy the most fastidious epicure. The pantries and barnyards of the farms had been greatly depleted, so that the gourmand had enough and to spare. After the tea had been partaken of, Rev. Wm. Peer, the pastor of the church, took the chair and called the meeting to order. Several excellent pieces of music were rendered by a choir that any city church would be proud of, and excellent addresses were delivered by the pastor and Rev. Messrs. J. B. Hoff, of Smith, and P. Clifton Parker, of Peterborough. The audience gave excellent attention to these gentlemen, and to judge by the rounds of applause that greeted each speaker they must have enjoyed the addresses. Rev. J. B. Hoff spoke on "Christian growth," and Rev. P. C. Parker on "Modern Baptists." Rev. W. Peer has a very warm place in the hearts of his people, and deservedly so, for he is most untiring in his efforts for their welfare. The Dummer church was organised in May last, and has already 33 communicants and a house crowded to the doors with worshippers every Lord's day.

Local Sports and Pastimes.

Lacrosse.

The date of the final match between the Riversides and Orillias has been changed to to-morrow at Lindsay, as on Wednesday the grounds will be required for exhibition purposes. A strong team of the Riversides will go up on the 8.15 train in the morning to do battle for the championship honors.

Baseball.

A game was played at Campbellford Saturday between Hastings v Campbellford, resulting in favor of the home team. Score—Campbellford 16, Hastings 8. Batteries—Beatty and Ingram; Davy and Billings.

The Peterborough baseball club is anxious to try conclusions once more with Port Hope and Campbellford, and they propose to do both of them up in one day in the near future. When the Port Hope club played here last they were in a boastful vein and boldly challenged the Peterborough men to play a match for money stakes, say $75 a side. They were quite confident they could clean out anything in the baseball line in Peterborough, and now it is probable they will be given a chance. The Peterboroughs are prepared to put up the money, and in a few days the challenge will be issued. A meeting of the club was called for Saturday evening but very few were present and no regular business was done. However, the matter has been well talked up among them, and they are ready to "lay down the dust" on the match. If the Port Hope ball tossers don't wish to have the stigma of funking placed against them, they will answer promptly, accepting the offer. The Peterboroughs want to have the match played at an early date, and propose to present a double bill on the day of meeting. They will ask Campbellford club to put up the cup won by them here against the cup won by the Peterboroughs at the Campbellford tournament, the club winning to take both trophies. Both matches would be played in the afternoon, Port Hope first and then Campbellford. The Peterboroughs are confident of their ability to beat both teams.

Harvey.

An entertainment in aid of the organ fund of the Presbyterian church, Harvey, was held in the church on Friday evening last.

The attendance was large, the church being crowded, and the ladies did full justice by providing ample refreshments for those present. After refreshments, Mr. J. R. Stratton, M. P. P., took the chair and took charge of the programme, which was a good one. The singing by the choir was appreciated and the Misses Read and Rombough, in their duets, acquitted themselves in a manner to win loud applause. Miss Renwick showed considerable elocutionary powers in rendering "Asleep at the Switch." During the evening Miss Read, of "Lark Hall," presented the church with a handsome Bible, and her beautiful and timely gift was duly acknowledged by the pastor, Mr. Oswald. Rev. Mr. Ferguson addressed the gathering in a neat and humorous speech. After this a handsome silk quilt, presented to the congregation by Mrs. McMartin, of "Lark Hall," was introduced, the chairman offering a present to the young lady collecting the most money in the congregation towards the organ fund. Miss Sybilla Chase and Miss Maggie Renwick were selected. In the prescribed ten minutes Miss Chase collected $11.23 and Miss Renwick $9.85, a total of $21.08. Seeing that both had done so well, the chairman announced that he would include both in his offer. The quilt was then auctioned and was knocked down to Mr. Archd. Wilson, of Harvey, for $15, making the total of receipts from the quilt, $36.08. A resolution of thanks to Mrs. McMartin for her generous gift was heartily adopted and duly acknowledged. Rev. P. Clifton Parker, of the Baptist church town, in an admirable address of half an hour, kept the audience highly amused and entertained, for the humourous chaff of his address was liberally impregnated with grains of solid sentiment and moral worth. The pastor, Mr. Oswald, extended congratulations on the success of the entertainment, and spoke of the goodness of the people of Harvey where he had found many warm friends. After the usual votes to the chairman and speakers the meeting closed in the usual manner. It was highly successful in every respect. The total receipts were $72.86—quilt, $36.08; door and other receipts, $36.78.

Obituary.

On Sunday morning Mr. Richard Stewart, of Otonabee, died after a long illness, aged 70 years. The deceased gentleman was a native of Ireland, whence he came to Canada with his parents at the age of eight years, settling at that time in the township of Cavan. He removed to Otonabee shortly after, and was an honoured resident of that township for 50 years. He lost his wife by death eighteen years ago. He leaves behind him four sons and six daughters, all well known in this county, and three brothers and three sisters, also well known. In his earlier days Mr. Stewart was an active, energetic and industrious man, amassing a large amount of property, and placing all his family in good positions in life. In his later years he has enjoyed the leisure which his early years of industry richly entitled him to. In religion he was a Presbyterian and in politics a Liberal. The funeral takes place to-morrow (Tuesday) at 2 o'clock.

Personal.

In the list of provincial appointments published in Saturday's Globe, the following appears:—Robert Maxwell Dennistoun, of Peterborough, county of Peterborough, barrister-at-law, to be a notary public.

Mrs. Dixon, of the Woman's Auxiliary of the George street Methodist church, and Miss Mary Allen, of the Mission Band, are in Toronto attending the annual meeting of the Ontario Branch of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society, which will be held in the Carleton street church to-morrow and Wednesday.

Rev. A. C. Wilson, pastor of the Mark street church, is back from his trip to Reed City, Michigan. He returned full of vigor in body. Yesterday morning he was greeted with a very large congregation to listen to his first sermon after his return and was listened to with deep interest and spiritual profit. The congregation of the Mark street church is steadily improving under his ministry.

A Reported Robbery.

Chief Reazel was to-day investigating the circumstance of a robbery and assault reported to have been committed upon Thos. Baker, a lad employed in the post office. Baker's story is that, while collecting the mails from the street boxes on Saturday afternoon, he found in one of them an anonymous note addressed to himself, requesting him to meet the writer at the agricultural grounds at 11 o'clock that night. Baker lives with his parents near the locks, and would have to pass near there on his way home. He went, he says, and was there assaulted and knocked down by some unknown agency, bound and gagged, and left there unconscious till he regained his senses about four o'clock in the morning, when he managed to get home. Then he discovered that $28 had been taken from his pocket; money that he had drawn from the bank and was taking home to his father with which to meet some important payments. The Chief has, as yet, discovered nothing to verify the story, and considerable doubt is attached to the lad's truthfulness. It is thought by those familiar with the boy that he spent the money in questionable ways, and concocted the story to clear himself.

—The many friends of our popular townsman, Mr. Hugh Quirk, are showering congratulations upon him, on the occasion of the addition of a dozen pounds of vigorous male humanity to his family circle.

Missing Money Letters.

In Saturday's Empire Postmaster Paterson writes a letter to explain away the insinuation that there is a "mysterious thief" in that office who knows something about the non-delivery of money letters. Apropos—a business man in town this morning received a letter asking if he had received a remittance sent a month ago. No such remittance was received.

THE GLORY OF MAN

"Did anyone remark that it was cold"?—Examiner Sept. 29.

Well, yes. Could anyone be found in our entire population who has not made use of the remark during the past few days?

And has there not been uppermost in everyone's mind the imperative necessity for warmer clothing?

Someone has said that the glory of man is in his strength; but if strength is to be maintained at this trying season of the year, warmer and heavier clothing must be worn.

The man who neglects to attend to this duty at once will discover that his glory has departed, as he finds himself ushered into the presence of Dr. Liverpills.

Therefore, before you spend the price of an entire warm winter outfit on medicine, which depletes the strength, obey the voice of common sense—go to T. DOLAN & CO.'S and buy yourself a set of warm flannels, and order a suit of heavy Tweed Clothes.

Better do it at once, too, rather than run the risk of staving it off from day to day, until you get sick.

A WINNIPEG SENSATION.

NEWSPAPER CHARGES AGAINST THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT.

The Free Press Alleges the Existence of a Corrupt Bargain—A Prompt Denial Entered.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 2.—"A Second Pacific Scandal" is the heading of a startling article in yesterday's Free Press, in which grave charges are made against the local Government. The gravamen of it all is that the Manitoba Central Railroad people, represented apparently by T. C. Scoble and Duncan McArthur, entered into an agreement with Premier Greenway, by which the latter, in return for certain legislation which he was to secure for the company was to receive $2500 for the expenses of his own election and $10,000 for the expenses of the general elections. It does not appear that the money was ever paid.

Afterwards the Manitoba Central people, who claim that they represented the Northern Pacific, were thrown overboard and negotiations entered into, it is alleged, on less favorable terms with the Northern Pacific officials direct.

Attorney-General Martin and Treas. Jones specifically deny any knowledge of the matter and say the whole thing is trumped up, that the Government had got rid of one gang of boodlers and now another was after them.

A LATE WAR OFFICE ORDER.

Some Comment Aroused—Canadian Cheese in the Old Land.

LONDON, Oct. 2.—Some comment is aroused by the orders just issued by the Imperial War Office for increased strength to the Eighteenth Company of the Royal Engineers, now serving at Halifax, by a strong draft from the submarine section of the Royal Engineers and the depot companies from Chatham. Some point to the present tension in the relations with the United States as the possible cause, but it is probably only due to departmental changes.

The Agricultural Department of the Privy Council is circulating the report of the Canadian Commissioner of Inland Revenue as regards the alleged adulteration of Canadian cheese. Agricultural journals admit that after seeing 112 samples analyzed without a single example being found of cheese containing extraneous fat, the Canadian Commissioner is justified in asserting that filled cheese may be common in the United States, but is not made in Canada.

THE YELLOW FEVER.

Ten Deaths Yesterday—More Money Than is Needed Sent In.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 2.—The scourge has increased in force again, and the new cases reported for twenty-four hours number 99, of which 23 were whites and 71 blacks. There were ten deaths. Among the deaths was that of Mr. N. Baker, teller of the Bank of Florida. The mercury Sunday night fell to nearly freezing point but a frost before the last of October would break the record for the past sixteen years. The local physicians are of the opinion that the epidemic will gradually die out, fluctuating somewhat as the end approaches.

The Citizens' Association has referred to the Executive Committee the question of asking the people throughout the country to discontinue contributions. There have been received $236,987. The disbursements have been $74,478.

LONDON'S LATEST HORROR

FURTHER PARTICULARS OF THE WHITECHAPEL MURDER.

Description of the Victims—The Butcher's Skill—Awful Degradation of the Slums—Inefficiency of the Police.

LONDON, Oct. 2.—Previous despatches have told of the excitement and alarm caused in London by the sensational murders in Whitechapel. London is dreadfully frightened. Scores of women are hysterical. Tens of thousands could not possibly be induced to step out alone. Everyone, of course, expects fresh atrocities, and that is how things stand at present. It is not flattering to the police nor comforting to Londoners, who imagine themselves well protected. The following tells what is known of the fresh crimes, which, as an evidence of an almost unprecedented condition of the human mind, are more interesting to the philosopher even than to the simple citizen who likes to have his blood curdled:

About 1 o'clock Sunday morning a Russian Jew who sells jewelry from a coster cart was driving his pony home, intending himself to find relaxation with the members of an international socialist club, which is conveniently near his stable yard on Berners-street. At the entrance to his yard the pony shied, and after examination, what looked like a small pile of mud turned out to be a woman.

The police soon came and found nothing to do but turn faint at the sight of the horrible gash in the neck and the brutal blows on the head. The woman's body was still warm. Her blood was only partly congealed. Her throat was deeply cut as those of the former victims. She was lying on her back and her legs were drawn up as though in pain. The examination has caused the conclusion to be arrived at that the murderer stood with his left arm around the woman's neck, probably to stifle her cries, and cut her throat standing.

The woman's clothes had been disarranged, indicating the murderer's intention to practice the same mutilation of her person as on the other victims, but he was probably disturbed by some one going in or coming out of the club. There is no question as to the dead woman's character, but she apparently did not belong to the lowest class of unfortunate women. She was a dark brunette, under 40, with a comely face. Her black hair was neatly arranged. Her underclothing was clean. She wore two petticoats, and her dress was tidy though old. A crape bonnet with an evening paper stowed away in it, was on her head. On her breast was a small bunch of roses and ferns covered with blood.

A short walk of a quarter of a mile took the murderer to the scene of the second crime, also in Whitechapel. He must have shown a butcher's skill in remaining free of blood stains, as he could not have had time to rid himself of them, and with them could not have induced a second victim to go with him. This latest and most terrible butchery took place in a dark corner of Mitre-square, to which the unsuspecting woman doubtless conducted the murderer. The square is reached by a narrow entrance from Mitre-street, within a stonethrow of Leadenhall and Aldgate-streets, two of London's best known and most important thoroughfares. Mitre-square is a large dreary stone-paved yard about 120 feet square. It has three entrances, in one of which there is a street fire station and fire escape, with three men always on duty. Two sides of the square are occupied by warehouses and a private house occupied by Policeman Pearce. The third side is formed by a wholesale drug store, and the fourth by a warehouse, workshop and the backs of two unoccupied private houses, by the back wall of which the body was found. The square, which is a busy thoroughfare during business hours, but almost deserted after 7 or 8 p.m., is fairly well lighted as London streets go. Five lamps throw their light into it.

The murder was discovered by Constable Watkins, a member of the city of London police force organization, distinct from and superior to Warren's metropolitan force. The body was found at 1.45 a.m. in the southwest corner of the square, a spot that Watkins had passed on his beat a quarter of an hour before, which shows with what dispatch the woman-killer must have worked. The body was lying on its back on the footway, with the head toward the wall and the feet toward the carriageway. The head was inclined on the left side and both arms were extended outward. The left leg was straight out, and the right leg bent away from the body. The body was quite warm. Blood was all around, but it had not congealed, proving that the murderer must have gone just as the constable was approaching. Watkins sent for doctors, and while awaiting aroused the policeman Pierce, and the two taking courage together threw the light of their lamps on the corpse, which Watkins had not dared to do. It is not to be wondered at that the policeman has been too ill all day to answer questions. The woman's throat was cut from ear to ear, and half way round the head. Her clothes had been raised up to the chest and the body had been completely cut open from the pelvis to the chest. In addition a portion of the right ear was cut off and the nose was slashed half way through. The face was also slashed and cut in a most brutal fashion, and a portion of the intestines was placed in the gash around the neck. Several doctors arrived and examined the body. They found a prodigious quantity of blood, which had flowed chiefly from the throat, but the murderer had so carefully avoided it that not a single footmark could be traced.

The detailed description of the underclothing, etc., shows that the woman belonged to the lowest class of fallen women. On her left forearm "4" was tattooed in blue ink, which will doubtless cause her to be indentified. Your correspondent has spent from early evening till past midnight wandering through the Whitechapel slums. The best idea of the awful degradation of the men there can be formed from a description of the women, whose ability to keep alive proves the existence of men so low as to consort with them. These wretched women swarm the streets by thousands even now, but keep close together and look sharply around for murderers, even while pretending to laugh and asking each other whose turn to be cut up will come next.

The language in which they speak of the fiend who has made it his business to murder them it is impossible to reproduce. Such profanity and hideously foul language as may be heard coming from the groups of women at any Whitechapel corner can probably not be heard anywhere else. Some of these poor animals have actually grown old in their misery, shrivelled, horrible, gin-soaked hags, who fight and quarrel on the gutter's edge, and to approach within yards of whom is torture. The younger women, the queens of these slums, are even more distressing to look at. Some are mere girls, almost children, but all celebrate any stroke of fortune by getting drunk.

No new theory worth mentioning has been put forward. It is evident that the police are not going to do much. The murderer has promised to murder twenty in all.

ST. THOMAS TIDINGS.

Youthful Thieves—A Traveller Robbed—Pockets Picked at a Fair.

ST. THOMAS, Oct 2.—A number of boys entered a Michigan Central car which was being loaded at the freight house on Saturday afternoon, and broke open a box containing candies, shipped by Patterson Bros., Brantford, to J. A. Hicks, of Essex Centre. Eleven pounds of candy and three pounds of cakes were secured when the freight-house foreman appeared on the scene and captured William Brann and James Taylor, aged 11, and George Elliott and John Morrison, aged 9. The four lads, together with John Moore, were arraigned at the Police Court yesterday morning. The magistrate ordered that the value of the goods be paid by the accused to the M. C. R., and sentenced each to four hours in jail.

Mr. G. Mowat, traveller for Radford Bros. & Co. of Montreal, who was a guest at the Hutchinson House on Friday night, had a quantity of silk handkerchiefs, scarfs, shirts, umbrellas, etc., stolen from his samples. He notified the police and a search was made of trunks of the employes of the hotel. The trunk of Wm. German, who is a runner of the hotel, was searched and a number of the missing handkerchiefs were found in it, together with a large quantity of towels, slipper patterns and gloves that still have the sellers' marks on them. German was arrested yesterday and will be brought before the police magistrate to-day. He claims the handkerchiefs were given to him.

A number of persons were relieved of their money by pick-pockets at Aylmer Fair on Saturday. Amongst those whose pockets were picked was Miss Dunn, who was relieved of her purse and $25; Miss Clunas, whose loss is between $20 and $30; Mrs. Van Patters, $38, and Mrs. W. R. Farthing, whose pocketbook contained a small amount of money and some keys. The thieves are supposed to be two professional pick-pockets, and Detective Clayton has the matter in hand.

SIR ALEX'S BUTLER.

How He Managed to Marry a Society Belle—Arrested at Chicago.

TORONTO, Oct. 2.—A lively story has just come to light here about the doings of Sir Alexander Cambell's butler, Wm. Henry Hitchcock, who came from Ottawa with Sir Alexander and remained in his employ till May last. Hitchcock, it is alleged, while living in Toronto, represented himself as a man of great wealth, telling his new made friends that he was proprietor of lands and mills in Muskoka of immense value. By cheek and indomitable energy he succeeded in getting the entree to the houses of very respectable families who were gulled and even charmed by his easy way of conducting himself. The result was that he managed to marry a society belle in secret. Subsequently he eloped with Alice Bryan, a maid at Government House. They went to Chicago as man and wife and were last week, at the instance of the man's secretly-wedded wife, whose name the paper withholds, arrested on a charge of immorality. Mrs. Hitchcock now sues for divorce from her deceiver.

FINANCE.

Mr. Davidson presented the report of the Finance Committee, recommending payment of the following accounts:—Kingan & Co., $49.21; Review Printing Co., $13.50; Fortye & Phelan, $81.45; Geo. I. Rossel, $3.25; Porter Bros., (when certified) $5.80; Mein & Crocker, (when certified) $4.20; Nicholls Hospital, $175.18; F. H. G. Deane, $3.75; C. Brown, (when orders produced) $3.50; P. Connal & Co., $26.35; Geo. A. Cox, (insurance), $15.00; Mechanics' Institute, $100.00; Ormond & Walsh, $4.45.

The report was adopted.

THE LIGHTING QUESTION.

Mr. A. Hall presented the report of the Fire, Water and Light Committee, recommending that the petition of Meldrum & Davidson, A. W. Brodie, and others, to have three hydrants placed on Race street, be granted; that the petition of James Bogue, Thos. J. Moore and others, asking for the extension of the waterworks on Dublin street, from George to Aylmer, be granted; recommending also the purchase of 300 feet of hose for fire protection. The report further said:—

Your committee have considered the matter of lighting the outlying streets with electric light; and would recommend this Council to take the number required at the reduced rate of $80 per annum, and cancel the gas lamps where not required. And that the committee be authorized to have them put up and ready for lighting by December 1st, 1888. And that the gas lamps not required be removed on the same date.

Your committee consider the following points the most suitable places for the electric lights:—One electric light each at Ambara, corner of Cemetery and Water streets, George and Argyle, Smith and Water, Edinburgh and Rubidge, Reid and London, Brock and Reid, Brock and Stewart, Hunter and Downie, Charlotte and Rubidge, Sherbrooke and Park, Aylmer and Townsend, George and Perry, Crescent and Water, Aylmer and Lake—16 lights in all, and cancel 26 gas lamps.

We have at present 23 electric lights at 75 cents—$1,725.00, and 33 gas lamps at 20 cents—$1,650.00; total, $3,375.00. We recommend 39 electric lights at 60 cents—$2,340.00, and 57 gas lamps at $1,140.00; total, $3480.000—or an increase of $105 per annum.

Mr. Moore thought there were not so many hydrants needed for the race as the report provided for, while Mr. Douglass thought the west end of the town beyond Park street had been neglected as far as lighting went.

The report was amended by recommending the placing of two hydrants on the race and one at the corner of London and Water streets. Mr. Douglass moved another amendment that another electric light be placed on Elm street, between Park street and the boundary.

Mr. E. H. D. Hall was certain the light on Park street would do for Elm street, as the light at the Catholic church showed him his house a quarter of a mile away.

The Mayor also called the attention of the council to the fact that by the contract of the gas company with the town they would have to give the company six months' notice of the discontinuance of any gas lamps. The contract was hunted up and it was found that it had expired, being dated 1st September, 1881, to run five years. In view of this the matter was referred to the solicitor to ascertain if the contract was still binding.

Mr. Cahill pointed out that no provision was made for lighting Rubidge street, south of Charlotte, nor King street, west of Stewart, and he would also like to see, and he moved to that effect, a light placed on Chamberlen street.

Mr. Moore also proposed that the report be amended by providing for the erection of poles as high as those recently put up. This was done.

Mr. Cahill suggested that the electric lights in the business part of the town be kept burning all night.

The Mayor proposed that the Gas Company be asked to put up gas lamps in the centre of the town and keep them burning till morning.

It was finally decided to refer the matter to the committee, together with a motion by Mr. Moore that two gas lamps be placed on Bon Accord street and one on Elm street, and Mr. Cahill's motion for an electric light on Chamberlen street.

MOTIONS.

Mr. Kendry moved, seconded by Mr. Langford,—That the Street Inspector be authorised to put down a sidewalk on Railway street, east of Water street to the bridge. Mr. Kendry said, in support of it, that it was a public thoroughfare and much travelled. The motion was carried.

Mr. Langford moved, seconded by Mr. Kendry,—That the Street Inspector be instructed to place a fence on the side of Water street at the place known as the Goose Pond. This was the outcome of some discussion over an account of Mr. Robt. White for damages to harness and buggy by his horse falling over the embankment. It was unanimously admitted that it was a dangerous locality, and the motion was carried.

Mr. Langford moved, seconded by Mr. Douglass,—That the sewer at the corner of George and Hunter streets be opened up and the cause of stoppage ascertained and remedied. The Street Inspector was asked the probable cost, and he said it might cost between $200 and $300. The motion was passed, it being generally considered that the work had to be done at any cost.

A NEW SEWERAGE SCHEME.

Mr. E. H. D. Hall said that while the council was dealing with sewers he would bring an important matter before them. During the summer when the water was held back at Paterson's dam, the stench at the creek was at places unbearable, caused by the refuse from the factories and hotels along its course. He thought this should be stopped, but he did not think these people should be prevented from draining into the creek without some compensation, and he saw in this a good chance to inaugurate a sewerage system for the locality. He proposed that a sewer be laid down the bed of the creek, which would drain a considerable distance on either side of the creek. He moved that the question be referred to a committee composed of Messrs. Cahill, Moore, Langford and the mover.

This brought up the question of the nuisance created by the dam at the tannery, and on motion an amendment was incorporated authorising the special committee to confer with Mr. Paterson with reference to the removal of the dam.

The motion was then carried.

MORE MARKET ACCOMMODATION.

Mr. Cahill moved, seconded by Mr. Davidson, that a special committee be appointed for the purpose of considering the advisability of providing better market accommodation and providing a suitable place for the horses of the fire department other than where they are now kept; the said committee to consist of Messrs. Davidson, Winch, E. H. D. Hall, Moore, Douglass, Langford and Kendry, and that they report to this council.

Mr. Cahill, in support of the motion, stated that it was generally admitted that the market square was not large enough, nor did the present butter market meet requirements, and besides the building was unsightly and old. Again, the present stables were in a bad place and created a nuisance. His idea was that the old music hall or market building should be removed, and in the rear of the fire hall stables a new brick building suitable for a butter market be built.

The motion was carried and the meeting adjourned to meet at the call of the Mayor.

Leave hope behind,
All ye who enter here!

So ran the dire warning which Dante read on the portals of the Inferno. So runs the cruel verdict of your friends if you are overtaken by the first symptoms of that terrible disease, consumption. "Leave hope behind! Your days are numbered"!! And the struggle against death is given up in despair. But while there is life, there is hope! Dr Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has cured hundreds of cases worse than yours; and it will cure you, if taken in time. But delay is dangerous. No power can restore a wasted lung; the "Golden Medical Discovery," however can and will arrest the disease. b

Of farm dairy cheese, 678 boxes were sold at 9c. to 9¼c.; 3 lots at the latter price and the bulk at 9¼c. Of creamery butter, 21 packages sold at 22c. to 25c. Of farm dairy butter, 110 packages sold at 20c. to 21½c.; bulk, 21c.

The markets at Buffalo and Utica also experienced a decided boom.

CHICAGO WHEAT MARKET.

The wheat market at Chicago yesterday was again very active and greatly unsettled, more so than during the closing days of last week, and a nervous, feverish feeling prevailed. Prices were advanced some 4½c and 4¾c above the closing prices of Saturday, closing about 2c higher for October, 3¾c for December, and 3½c higher for May than the closing figures of Saturday. All the early advance, or when December touched $1.06, there was a halt in the advance and a reaction set in, prices dropping off ½ to ¾ between trades, and in a few seconds dropped from $1.07 to $1.05¾. Later the market ruled more quiet, advancing some and closed steady.

THE WARRANT FOR BAXTER.

It Has Not Yet Been Endorsed but Probably Will Be To-day.

MONTREAL, Oct. 2.—The warrant for the arrest of Mr. James Baxter was received by Detective Reburn through the postoffice yesterday morning. The flaws which had been pointed out in the first warrant are corrected; the warrant states that the action against Barnett has been taken with the authorization of the Attorney-General of the Province of Ontario and James Baxter is ordered to appear in the City of Toronto before Magistrate Denison.

Immediately upon receipt of the warrant Detective Reburn proceeded to Judge Dugas' room and offered the warrant for endorsation. The Judge notified Mr. Baxter and his counsel, Mr. Donald MacMaster, Q.C., to appear before him at 10 o'clock if they had any arguments to offer why the warrant should not be endorsed. The arguments, however, were postponed until 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

The warrant was not endorsed in the afternoon because Judge Dugas said he wanted to give Mr. MacMaster a chance to prepare steps to obtain a habeas corpus if the warrant be endorsed. Personally, he though the warrant was correct and that he had to endorse it, and it would require good arguments to show him the contrary.

The matter was postponed until to-day.

LIFE ASSURANCE COMP'Y OF CANADA.

HEAD OFFICE, MONTREAL.

Both in Magnitude and Profitableness, the Business for 1887 has been almost everything that could be desired.

The life policies now in force are 7,128 for $10,873,777.69, on 6741 lives. We have moreover $3,207,600 00 insured under 1,840 accident policies, so that the total current contracts of the Company are 8,969 for $14,081,377.69.

The income for the year shows the very large increase of $122,231.23 over the figures of 1886, the total being $495,831.54. The revenue is now half a million dollars per annum, or as mentioned in the report, over $1,600 for every working day in the year, and even this he believed was but a mere introduction to what it will be in a few years hence. The gains from time to time are well illustrated by the following table:—

Period	Gain in income.	Gain in assets.	Gain in assurances.
1872 to 1876, four years	$ 54,611 21	$180,422 60	$1,140,743 60
1876 to 1880, four years	38,580 67	195,188 20	1,167,886 14
1880 to 1884, four years	126,976 84	368,224 31	3,962,924 60
1884 to 1887, three years	217,451 80	476,607 24	4,022,373 65
Total in 1887	$495,831 54	$1,750,664 45	$10,873,777 69

It is very pleasing to notice that the gains for the last three years only are 60 per cent. more than those of the preceding four years.

No Meetings

Last night's inclement weather was disastrous to several of the meetings advertised. There was no quorum of the "Y," though a few members were present; while the W. C. T.U. meeting, announced for 4 o'clock, was a dismal failure, only one of the ladies ap ing up. Both these meetings will be held next Monday at the same hours as advertised on the previous occasion. The meeting of the Lead League held last evening, was after routine adjourned for one week.

Howard Athenæum.

The popularity of Mr. J. S. Murphy and "Kerry Gow" were sufficiently attested last night, when, upon the re-opening of the Howard, the actor and the play drew an overflowing house. Mr. Murphy's personation of Dan O'Hara is a clever bit of Irish acting, and he has the support of a very good company. The part of Nora Drew falls to the lot of Miss Lillian DeWolf. Mr. Murphy will appear through the remainder of the week, and to-day there will be a matinee in addition to the evening performance.—Boston Journal, Sept. 23th, 1881. 1d

Lacrosse.

A team of the Riversides went up to Lindsay to-day to play off the tie with Orillia in the north eastern district championship series. A little after their departure Mr. W. A. Sanderson received a postal card from Brigh, stating that the Orillias had taken on some players from that town for to-day's match. Mr. Sanderson at once telephoned the Riversides in Lindsay to that effect, and it is hoped this prompt action will prevent the Orillias from profiting by their mean trick.

A Wide Smile on the Kid

Because he has secured $7,000 worth of first class boots and shoes at a very low rate on the dollar, and to make room he will thrash them out at such low prices that customers can't help buying. Listen to a few of the bargains. Ladies' shoes, 15 cents, sold everywhere for 40 cents. Ladies' laced boots, 90 cents, sold usually at other places for $1.75, and our men's long boots for $1.75, unsurpassed for value in the Dominion, every pair warranted. But call and see Kidd's, the boot man, and he will show you why he smiles. Still there is more to follow. dw

Acknowledgments.

The Lady Superintendent thankfully acknowledges the following donations to the hospital in September:—Mrs. Innes, grapes and flowers weekly; Mrs Thos. Bradburn, flowers, jelly, books and pictures; Mrs. A. Hall, flowers; Miss Stenson, fruit and flowers; Miss Tucker, flowers weekly, jelly; Misses Elsie, Jessie and Jennie Cameron, flowers and fruit weekly; Mrs. Sheffield, basket of grapes; Mrs. G. Hilliard, basket of grapes; Mrs. Morrow, milk; Mrs. G. Rogers, grapes and peaches; Miss Deane, grapes; Miss Becket, tracts and papers; Mrs. Roper, illustrated papers; Mrs. J. R. Stratton, fruit, candy, jelly and cake; Mr. McClelland and Mr. Blade, bouquets of flowers weekly.

From Douro to Colorado.

Mr. J. C. Whatley, formerly of Douro, has returned after two years absence in Colorado, to dispose of his property in Douro and to make arrangements for removing to the former place. His brother, David, went to Colorado four years ago, and two years ago returned home, disposed of his property, and became a permanent resident of that state. Mr. Whatley (J. C.) had his farm (360 acres) advertised in the EXAMINER, and sold it through that advertisement to Mr. Francis Frankish, of Bridgenorth. Mr. Whatley is well pleased with Colorado; the climate is healthy, and the farming is done by irrigation. Mr. Whatley intends remaining in this part of the country about two months. Mr. Richard Dawkins, brother-in-law of Mr. Whatley, also intends removing to Colorado.

Our Local Organ Builders.

Our readers will recollect that a short time ago Messrs. Jackson & Co., pipe organ builders, put in a new organ in the Baptist church, Smith's Falls. A few days ago the organ was formally opened. The Record of that place, in speaking of the occasion, says:—"The organ is of rich and mellow tone, quite powerful enough for the church, and under Prof. Carter's (of St. Andrew's Church) skilful manipulation, pleased everyone. The report adds:—"Miss Lily Jackson (daughter of the organ builder) was a surprise to everyone. Although not more than twelve or thirteen years of age, she has a strong, rich voice, well cultivated and under good control. When she had finished her solo, the audience, forgetful of everything but the sweetness of her singing, gave her hearty and spontaneous applause." The Smith's Falls News, speaking of the same occasion, gives both organ and performers equally warm praise.

The Whitechapel Murder Mystery.

London, the great Babylon, has its impenetrable mystery in the shape of an unknown and undiscoverable fiend who murders and mutilates the bodies of his victims—always women. Peterborough has also its mystery as great, but not as revolting, and that mystery is how gough bros, the wonderful cheap men, can sell at their store, 375 george street, boots and shoes at such wonderfully low prices. This is a mystery to the high price dealers alone; but the public know that a splendid new stock of boots and shoes bought at 40 cents on the dollar and sold at the same liberal reduction, cannot help but be cheap. Never were boots and shoes, of the very best quality, too, sold at such prices till gough bros., the benefactors, entered the field. Don't go with wet feet and run the terrible risk of having to call in a doctor, when you can buy good strong water-tight boots and shoes at gough bros., 375 george street, for less money by far than the high price dealers can buy them for in wholesale markets. Don't be sentimental about this matter, go straight to gough's, where you can get the best boots for the least money.

Voters' List Statistics.

The voters' lists for the town of Peterborough for 1888 has just been issued from the EXAMINER office, and from it an interesting comparative statement of the returns of this year and last is taken, showing a substantial increase all round:

Norwood Safe-Blowing Burglars.

Cummings' Safe Cracked and $285 Stolen.

On Sunday eight burglars raided the office of Cummings' Woolen Mills, and succeeded in securing $285. This sum, about three weeks since, the father of Mr. J. D. Cummings, the proprietor of the mills, placed for safety in the safe at the office of the woolen mills, and it was thought that nobody but the father and the son knew of the presence there of the money, as the son usually kept no money there. Sunday night was the same kind of night—wet and dirty—as that selected for the robbery of the postoffice last spring. The burglars gained admission to the mills without trouble, these being untenanted at night and some two or three hundred yards distant from any dwelling. They drilled five holes in the door of the safe without success, at several different angles, in order to strike the bolts, the holes drilled following the lines of a plan drawn on the outside of the door, supposed to correspond to the position of the bolts. They then drilled a hole in the top of the safe, which they used to produce the explosion that blew open the doors, the inner door being blown off the hinges. The tops of the books were blackened, but not injured. The burglars were very careful to avoid fire, for they saturated the floor in the vicinity of the safe with water, and the blankets, which had been used to muffle the sound of the explosion, having taken fire, were carefully thrown outside in the rain. The burglars escaped with their booty and there is at present no clue, except the three drills they left behind them. The tools were taken from the same shop in which the burglars found tools for the post office robbery, that of John McMullen. It is thought by some that these repeated burglaries—one a year and a half ago, another last spring, and another on Sunday night—are not done without the knowledge and assistance of those well acquainted with the village.

The buyers present were Messrs. Dundas, Flavelle, Wrighton, Cook, Bird, Cluxton, Stewart and Fitzgerald.

Liverpool quotations were 44s.

It was decided to sell the September make first, and Mr. Cluxton started the bidding with an offer of 9c for selections on Peterborough board, Mr. Bird following with 9c for the Peterborough board; Mr. Cook 9⅛c and Bird 9 3/16 for board; Cook 9¼ for same; Cluxton and Cook 9⅜, selections; Bird 9⅜ for board; Cluxton 9½, selections; Cook 9½ for board; Cluxton 9 9/16 for board; Cook 9⅝ for board; Cluxton 9⅝ for selections. There being no further offers, Mr. Cluxton named his selections as follows: Cherry Grove, North Smith, Warminster, Warsaw, Lakefield, Central Smith, Myrtle and Pine Grove. These factories all sold. Mr. Bird offered 9⅜ for further selections, on which Mr. Cluxton advanced to 9½; Cook offered 9 9-16 for the balance of the board, and Mr. Cluxton bid 9⅝ on the same. Mr. Cook then advanced to 9 11-16, at which figure the balance of the Peterborough board sold, except Westwood.

On the Lindsay section Mr. Cluxton offered 9⅜ for selections; Cook 9 9-16 for the board; Cluxton 9⅜ for selections. Bobcaygeon, Starr and Downerville sold at this figure; Cambra and Fenelon Falls were also named, but the factories not being represented, the offer was left open to them.

The October cheese was next boarded. Mr. Cook led off with 9c for the Peterborough board; Mr. Bird 9⅛c for the same. None of the factories accepted, and the board adjourned for two weeks.

—A meeting of the Endeavor Society was held in the Charlotte street church last night. A good programme was presented and some important business transacted.

—A street parade of the 57th Batt. was called for to-night, but unless the roads dry up there will not likely be anything more than the regular weekly drill at the shed.

The Booty Recovered.

Some time ago, it will be remembered, the horse, buggy and harness of Mr. Michael Mansfield, Reeve of Galway, were stolen by one Alex. Ritchie, who had previously served a term in Peterborough gaol. He succeeded in eluding pursuit for some weeks. Going east from here, he worked his way along the front to Toronto, where he has been living a fast life since his arrival there. During the Exhibition several visitors from this county saw and recognized Ritchie in Toronto, and Mr. Wm. Bunton, formerly of Peterborough, undertook to ferret the matter out. He found that the horse had been traded several times and the buggy bartered for a gold watch, which was afterwards pawned. On Saturday Mr. Bunton wired the EXAMINER office that he had located the stolen articles but had not been able to "spot" Ritchie. Mr. Manafield was at once communicated with from this office, and he proceeded to Toronto Monday morning to identify the horse and buggy. It is to be hoped that Ritchie will yet be apprehened and meet with his just deserts. Mr. Mansfield's friends will be glad to learn that he has recovered his property, though he was put to great inconvenience and trouble, which indirectly caused him other serious loss by the necessary neglect of business the pursuit of the rascal involved.

A Couple of Accidents.

Yesterday afternoon the horse drawing Letellier's bread cart bolted at the corner of Hunter and Aylmer streets, and threw out the driver, a young man named Blase, cutting him severely on the head and rendering him unconscious. He was carried in Mr. R. H. Green's grocery store. He soon recovered consciousness, but it was apparent that he had been pretty badly hurt. The horse was stopped before the cart was much damaged.

Yesterday afternoon a horse of Mr. James Kendry's took fright at the Goose Pond on Water street and jumped right over the embankment. The harness and buggy were damaged considerably.

THE GLORY OF MAN

"Did anyone remark that it was cold"?—Examiner Sept. 29.

Well, yes. Could anyone be found in our entire population who has not made use of the remark during the past few days?

And has there not been uppermost in everyone's mind the imperative necessity for warmer clothing?

Someone has said that the glory of man is in his strength; but if strength is to be maintained at this trying season of the year, warmer and heavier clothing must be worn.

The man who neglects to attend to this duty at once will discover that his glory has departed, as he finds himself ushered into the presence of Dr. Liverpilla.

Therefore, before you spend the price of an entire warm winter outfit on medicine, which depletes the strength, obey the voice of common sense—go to T. DOLAN & CO.'S and buy yourself a set of warm flannels, and order a suit of heavy Tweed Clothes.

Better do it at once, too, rather than run the risk of staving it off from day to day, until you get sick.

Yarns and Hosiery
—AT—

YARNS.

There is nothing more essential to the health of the body in this changeable climate of ours than keeping the feet comfortably clad, so, in order to supply the large demand for good Woolen Yarn and Hosiery, we have paid particular attention to this department. Our Baldwin and Wheeling Yarns are imported direct from Scotland. Baldwin's Yarns are so well known we need not say anything about them, and Scotland is noted the world over for wools; so that we can show you all the best makes in any color at the very lowest prices. The Wheeling Yarn is a heavy make intended for children's and boys' wear, very much like our Canadian yarn only much softer and warmer, and it comes at a low price.

HOSIERY.

You should see our Heather Wool Sox for men, knitted by the grandmas of Scotland. They may seem a little high in price, but they are really very cheap as they wear so long. We have Black Cashmere Hose in plain and ribbed in two or three different makes, from the smallest baby's size to the largest ladies, at prices that are right, as we are confident they are not sold cheaper in either city or town in the regular way. We have also a special make of Canadian Hose closely and softly knitted, without a seam. You should ask to be shown these goods when at the Hosiery counter. You will be pleased with them. We need only to speak in a whisper about a bargain we have secured, knowing that it will spread like fire when mentioned. One of our largest hosiery knitting mills, that supplies the wholesale trade only (as they have to sell in large quantities to find market for all they make), after filling all their orders, had a surplus left, which they were anxious to dispose of in order to make room to commence the cotton goods for spring. Our stock not being heavy, we were able to do with them and can now offer you an all wool perfect knitted hose, ladies' size, for 12½ cents a pair. Remember that all through the season we keep our stock well assorted, and no matter what inducements may be offered we never allow ourselves to be undersold.

Canadian and Home-made Yarns always in Stock.

ANOTHER LONDON HORROR

THE TRUNK OF A WOMAN FOUND ON THE THAMES EMBANKMENT.

The Head, Arms and Legs Missing—The Remains in an Advanced Stage of Decomposition.

LONDON, Oct. 2.—The trunk of a woman was found in a recess of the new police offices on the Thames embankment this afternoon. The head, arms and legs were missing. The remains, which were in an advanced state of decomposition, were wrapped in rough cloth and tightly bound with cord. It is believed that the arms recently found at Pimlico and Lambeth were cut from this body.

The Whitechapel Murders.

LONDON, Oct. 2.—The excitement occasioned by the latest Whitechapel murders increased rather than abated yesterday and to-day. The police have made no progress in their efforts to establish a clue to the murderer and have further lost public confidence in their efficiency by the fact that the persons arrested on suspicion of connection with the tragedies were released to-day for want of even a scintilla of evidence upon which to justify their retention in custody. They profess to be hopeful of success, however, and many people are inclined to hope with them in the absence of any suspicion in their own mind, even remotely defined, as to the criminal's motive, calling or identity. The private rewards offered for his arrest added to that of the Lord Mayor bring the total sum up to £1200, and it is likely that it will soon reach £2000.

Dr. Forbes Winslow and Sir Risdon Bennett and other medical experts express themselves as more than ever convinced that the perpetrator of the crimes is a homicidal lunatic. The fact that the latest murders were committed within the jurisdiction of the city police has created a sharp rivalry between that body and Gen. Warren's metropolitan detectives. Many wagers have been laid upon the question of the murderer's capture, with the odds largely in favor of the city police force solving the mystery and landing the Sons in jail. It is now proposed to send a circular to every householder in the East End requesting the details of the movements, habits, etc., of their respective lodgers. The theory has largely obtained support to-day that the murderer has two domiciles, one probably as a shop or surgery, to which he retires for the purpose of removing the traces of his crime, and the other a dwelling house where he is known as a lodger, whose habits and manners make him a desirable tenant in the estimation of his landlady. The police are being urged to station bloodhounds in the Whitechapel district, in the hope that they may be able by their keenness of scent to run the fiend down when he seeks a fresh victim.

An inquest was held to-day on the body of the woman found murdered in a narrow court off Berners-street Monday morning. A sister of the victim was called and deposed that she awoke at 12 o'clock Monday morning and heard kisses and a sound which she thought was made by a person falling to the ground. She was convinced that her sister was dead, and after reading the accounts of the murder in the newspapers, went to the morgue and recognized the body of the murdered woman as that of her sister. The house in which the witness resides is several miles from Berners-street. The murder is believed to have been committed about 12 50 o'clock Sunday morning.

Sitting For His Portrait.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—The Prince of Wales has been giving sittings to Professor Angeli during his stay in Vienna for a portrait which is intended as a present to the Crown Prince of Austria. The Prince of Wales is to be depicted in the uniform of the 12th Austrian Hussars, a blue tunic with gold frogs, red breeches and Hessian boots, and wearing the Hungarian order of St. Stephen and the Garter.

Patrick O'Brien, M. P., Released.

DUBLIN, Oct. 3.—Patrick O'Brien, Nationalist member of Parliament, was released from Kilkenny jail yesterday. He had been in prison for seven months for offences under the Crimes Act. He looks worn and pale. He was given an enthusiastic reception by the priests and people of the place.

Mr. Gladstone Arranging His Letters.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—Mr. Gladstone is occupied at Hawarden with a duty most men leave to executors. He is arranging his correspondence. It is a herculean labor. Not only is he putting into chronological order the letters of a political character, but also all papers on subjects he thought worthy of consideration during his life. We may well marvel at his octogenarian vitality. It is extremely characteristic of Mr. Gladstone to take this labor upon himself. In view of posthumous publications it is these days. Lord Beaconsfield left a wise precaution. Lord Beaconsfield left a considerable confusion. Lord his papers in index. [illegible] able to make a Rowton has never yet [illegible] them. The methodical arrangement [illegible] may be one work of arranging and classifying of years.

Dr. Mackenzie's Book.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—Dr. Morrell Mackenzie is heavily handicapped. He has been absolutely debarred from obtaining any copies of official documents, while free access to them is allowed his adversaries. At the very last moment he was compelled by certian august personages to suppress the reproduction of an autograph statement of Emperor Frederick, which reflected on the conduct of Professor Bergmann in the strongest possible language. The twenty illustrations which appear will, doubtless, excite a great deal of interest. Most important are the carefully prepared diagrams showing that Professor Bergmann made a false passage. The various stages of the growth in the patient's throat are illustrated by woodcuts. The book may be roughly divided into a narrative of the medical controversy and statistics. In the first chapter is a graphic description of the first consultation at Kron Prinz Palais. The historical portion concludes with the deathbed scene. The second part will principally interest the medical profession. In the third, Dr. Mackenzie proves almost inevitably the fatal consequences of thyrotomy. In the ninth chapter is an eloquent sketch of the personal character of the Emperor. Dr. Mackenzie has labored under countless difficulties, but no medical work is ever likely to cause so profound a sensation. He dedicates it to no one, but has chosen the pungent motto from Shakespeare: "What trick, what device, what starting-hole can't thou now find to hide thee from thy open and apparent shame?"

Morton's Letter of Acceptance.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Hon. Levi P. Morton, Republican candidate for Vice-President, has issued his letter accepting the nomination. He deals almost entirely with the trade issue and favors the party policy of protection. It is said that Judge Thurman, the Democratic nominee, will not issue a letter of acceptance, having verbally notified the committee of his acceptance.

THE TOBIQUE MURDER.

The Case in the Hands of the Jury—Little Hope of Agreement.

ANDOVER, N.B., Oct. 4.—Judge Wetmore charged the jury yesterday in the Tobique murder case. He was much affected, and with the jurors and spectators shed tears copiously. He said the deepest sympathy should be felt for prisoners at the bar, but it should not interfere with justice. Neither should sympathy for the murdered lady. He reviewed the evidence, instructing the jury to judge for themselves whether the witnesses were to be believed. The jury were also to decide what the prisoners intended to do. The case went to the jury at 11.30 a.m., and there was no word from them at midnight.

The cases of interference with witnesses were taken up yesterday afternoon. W. H. Ellis, charged with contempt in attempting to induce Anna Phillipine to contradict her first testimony, submitted an affidavit denying all the allegations, and stating that his chief remark was an expression of sympathy for the accused.

Attorney-General Blair followed, criticising the partial denial. He declared that he had never seen such determined efforts to interfere with the administration of justice as in this trial. Ellis, a constable, and Lovely, a grand juror, had been specially conspicuous in this instance. He hoped the lesson would be sufficient without further pressing the charge. The health of Anna Phillipine forbade a full investigation.

Another man named Craig was brought before the judge charged with circulating printed dodgers bearing the legend, "The Prisoners Will Not Be Found Guilty." He explained that he was only advertising his eating saloon and did not know he was doing wrong.

There is little hope of the jury agreeing.

Didn't Know It Was Loaded.

MONTREAL, Oct. 3.—A grave shooting affray has just taken place at Point St. Charles. A little boy named James Brown had in his possession a small four-chamber revolver, with which his parents insisted upon him parting, as he had only recently shot himself through the hand whilst playing with it. He accordingly gave it to Walter Webb, son of Francis Webb, grocer, of 443 Wellington-street. This boy ran straight home with it in high spirits, and meeting his smaller brother Edward at the door, the boy pointed the revolver at his brother's head, saying "Now I'll shoot you," and pulled the trigger. The weapon went off and the bullet entered the boy's temple and lodged in the left eyebone. Drs. Hutchinson and England attended the little sufferer, but have been unable to attempt the extraction of the deadly missile for fear of its penetrating the brain. The little sufferer is only 11 years of age and his recovery is very doubtful.

TORONTO TOPICS.

An Intoxicated Woman's Attempted Suicide—The Parkdale Annexation Scheme.

TORONTO, Oct. 3.—Mr. Charles Bateman of this city has been appointed city architect of Boston.

Gus Burns and Tom Jones were fined $30 or 30 days on the charge of attempting to bribe whisky detectives.

Max Goldstein and Sarah Cohen, arrested on a charge of bringing a quantity of stolen clothing and $100 in cash into Canada, property belonging to Maurice Lockschitski of Newark, N.J., were yesterday remanded for a week.

It is calculated that the vote on the question of the annexation of Parkdale to Toronto will favor the scheme by two to one. The union will add 6000 to Toronto's population.

About a quarter to 9 o'clock yesterday forenoon a middle-aged woman named Mrs. Robinson, who says she resides at No. 67 Allan-avenue, made a desperate attempt to commit suicide. She walked down to the water's edge of the Don River, on the west side of King-street bridge, and deliberately flung herself into the river. Some workmen employed on the Don improvements, having been previously attracted by the woman's peculiar actions, she being apparently the worse of liquor, rushed to where she was floundering in the water and pulled her out.

Frank Smith, who assaulted Policeman Ross while the latter was on duty, was yesterday sent to the Central for three months.

Hon. C. H. Tupper, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, is in the city.

The Women's Medical College was reopened yesterday morning.

It is said that the bride of William Henry Hitchcock, Sir Alexander Campbell's butler was not after all a society belle, but the sister-in-law of Steward Barnett, of the National Club.

Judge Macdougall made an order yesterday morning appointing the Master-in-Ordinary special examiner on the application of the Herr Piano Co. to examine ex-President David Blain of the defunct Central Bank. The Master will proceed to New York city on Friday next to conduct the examination of Mr. Blain, in respect of Hugo Block's claim and his examination in the matter of the Herr Co. will follow immediately on that.

Two of the students concerned in the disgraceful rowdyism at Trinity Medical Convocation have been dropped.

Dr. T. D. Crothers of Hartford, Conn. delivered an address last night in Association Hall on the subject of establishing an inebriate asylum in Toronto.

The Provincial Board of Health yesterday passed a resolution favoring the stationing of a representative in Buffalo during the continuance of the small-pox epidemic there.

MERCIER'S PROGRAMME.

Magistrates' Court to Be Established A Magistrate under the Act of 1869.

QUEBEC, Oct. 3. [illegible] L'Electeur's statements this morning leave no doubt that the Mercier Government has decided to issue the disallowance proclamation in the case of the Magistrate's Bill and to establish a Magistrates' Court in Montreal under the Act of 1869, which was never and cannot now be disallowed. It claims this line of conduct to be the duty of the hour, as it repeats its assertion that there was a regular plot concerted by the representatives of this Province in the Federal Government to force a conflict between the Lieutenant-Governor and his advisers and precipitate a Ministerial crisis.

The paper says that Mr. Mercier will not lend himself to the enemy's game, and will submit for the time being to the requirements of the constitution, reserving his right to afterwards fight the disallowance by all the constitutional means at his disposal, but as it is also his duty to restore order in the Montreal Courts he will at once exercise the power conferred upon him by the law of 1869 and name a Magistrates' Court at Montreal, which the Federal Government cannot veto. This court will be presided over by Messrs. Barry and Champagne, who will be re-appointed.

HOT TIMES EXPECTED.

The Free Press' Charges Against the Manitoba Government Creating Excitement.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 2.—Premier Greenway is credited with the intention of suing Laxton, of The Free Press, for criminal libel in connection with the serious charges recently made.

The Legislature meets on Oct. 16, when, it is expected, there will be a hot time, as some Liberals believe the accusations of The Free Press.

Col. Scoble, of the Manitoba Central, writes to The Sun this evening denying that the company furnished The Free Press with information regarding the deal with the Government.

DETECTIVE REBURN LEAVES MONTREAL WITHOUT BAXTER.

A Writ of Prohibition Issued on the Ground That an Important Question of Law is Involved.

MONTREAL, Oct. 2.—The Baxter warrant is not signed yet. Mr. Donald McMaster, Q. C., this morning made a motion before Judge Mathieu for a writ of prohibition against Judge Dugas restraining him from signing the warrant on the ground that the case against Barnett, in which Mr. Baxter is alleged to be an important witness, is not a case de facto before the court as Barnett is in England, is not a prisoner, is not actually in court and on his defence against an indictment. No witness can under such circumstances, Mr. McMaster contended, be forced to appear in a court.

Sergeant Detective Reburn arrived at Judge Dugas' room at 11 o'clock sharp this morning, waiting patiently for the appearance of Mr. Baxter and his counsel. As the latter gentlemen had not arrived at 10.30 the rumor was spread that Mr. Baxter had of his own accord left for Toronto. This, rumor, however, was quickly dispelled when the gentleman in question appeared on the scene at 10.35 o'clock, and was looking for his counsel.

At 12 o'clock, Mr. Justice Mathieu granted the writ of prohibition and had it served upon Judge Dugas immediately with the order to return all the proceedings to the Superior Court. Judge Dugas immediately complied and sent the papers up stairs.

The writ of prohibition is returnable on Oct. 23, and in the event of its being dissolved an appeal can be taken which may go even as far as the Privy Council. Thus it may be years before the case is finally decided.

When Mr. Baxter was seen after the proceedings in Court he appeared perfectly at his ease, remarking that the law point raised by his counsel was a good one and that all the judges of the Superior Court concurred in this view. "It's a bigger contract than they calculated upon, taking me against my will to Toronto," he said, with a merry sparkle in his eye. Mr. Justice Mathieu granted the writ of prohibition on the ground that an important question of law is raised by Mr. Baxter's petition.

Disasters in the Upper Lakes—The Cube Two Days Late.

CHICAGO, Oct. 2.—Despatches from points on Lakes Michigan and Superior yesterday announced that a fearful gale was blowing, and that vessels unsheltered would have a hard time last night. No arrivals from across the lake have been noted since Sunday morning. The passenger steamer Cuba from Montreal, due Sunday morning, has not yet arrived, but it is thought that she is in shelter somewhere this side of the Manitous. The severest part of the storm was felt in Chicago this morning at 6 o'clock, the temperature being almost at freezing.

A Duluth special says that the schooner Brandon has been lost that the schooner Jennie is adrift, that the Regina is water-logged and that the lake tug Walker was badly battered in last night's storm.

KILLED BY A BLOW.

Corporal Clancy's Mysterious Death at Halifax—Suicide of Lieut. Edwards.

HALIFAX, Oct. 2.—Lance Corporal J. Clancey of the West Riding Regiment died this morning in the Military Hospital from the effects of the blow on the head received on the night of Sept. 29 while on duty. Although quite sensible up to the time of his death he could not tell how or by whom he was struck.

The startling report was received to-day that Lieut. Edwards of the Royal Artillery had committed suicide at Plymouth, Eng., where he has been stationed lately, by shooting himself with a revolver. Lieut. Edwards was stationed in Halifax for some time and left here a year or so ago.

Chinese Exclusion.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—In the Senate today Mr. Jones of Nevada offered a resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations, requesting the President to negotiate treaties with the Government of Her Britannic Majesty, and with the Republic of Mexico, respectively, for the exclusion of Chinese laborers from the North American continent, and for the prevention of their entrance into the United States from the territory of either of such Governments or from dependencies thereof.

Forger Foster.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—A special meeting of the Board of Managers of the Produce Exchange was held yesterday and by an unanimous vote William Foster, jr., late Counsel to the Exchange and the mortgage forger, was expelled from membership. It is understood that the detectives instead of working about Canada, as has been represented, are looking for Foster around Spanish ports and the Gulf of Mexico.

The Yellow Fever.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—There are 21 cases of fever under treatment at Fernandina, Fla. No deaths are reported since Sept. 26.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 3.—The prospect is a bright one. For the 24 hours ending at 6 p. m. yesterday not one death from yellow fever has been reported. This is the first instance of a like record in many weeks. Aside from this hopeful outlook the situation presents no new features. The number of new cases was 98, of which 32 were colored.

Beer v. Whisky.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—The excise commissioners appointed by Governor Hill at the last session of the Legislature, met for the first time to-day, and on motion of Dr. Howard Crosby passed a resolution that the Legislature be requested to adopt the principles of reasonable restriction in regard to [illegible] licenses, making a broad distinction between the treatment of distilled liquors and that of fermented brewing.

Unsuccessful Highwaymen.

KINGSVILLE, Oct. 2.—Highwaymen [illegible] fest the lonesome roads lying north of here. The other night two young men, in a buggy, having considerable money with them were accosted by three rough-looking men, one of whom attempted to stop the horse while the remaining two attacked the occupants of the vehicle. A crack of the whip made the horse jump from the grasp of the robber, and the frightened young men were soon conveyed beyond danger.

One Body Recovered.

BROCKVILLE, Oct. 3.—The body of Hugh Bagg, one of the unfortunate young men who went down with the Sunbeam, was recovered at 9 o'clock yesterday morning at Oak Point on the American side. The body was terribly disfigured. He had thrown off his coat and vest and, being found close to shore, it is supposed the poor fellow swam a considerable distance before he became utterly exhausted that he sank to rise no more. The search for the other bodies is being kept up with unabated vigor.

Burglaries at Orangeville.

ORANGEVILLE, Oct. 2.—A series of burglaries was committed here last night. J. W. Johnston's hardware store was broken into, the safe blown open and $20 in money taken; also some razors, knives, etc. Geier & Fleming's store was entered, but the safe was not opened. Some jewelry was taken. Gilchrist & Kent's store was also entered and some clothes taken. There is no clue to the burglars, who were evidently professionals.

A Prisoner's Escape.

MONTREAL, Oct. 2.—Another prisoner escaped from the Court House to-day. After Edward Broderick, the smart New York thief, had pleaded guilty to stealing a watch from a farmer in Bonsecours market he was led out of the dock by Sergeant Arms Kyle, and as he was not handcuffed was lost in the dense crowd that filled the passages. He has not yet been found.

Blaine, of Maine, at St. Thomas.

ST. THOMAS, Oct. 2.—James G. Blaine passed through the city to-day and a considerable number assembled at the depot to have a look at the Republican leader. Up Goes Flour in England.

The State of the Schools

The Board of Education Discuss the Necessary and Called for Improvements—The Collegiate Institute Matter Up Again.

At the regular meeting of the School Board Tuesday evening there were present: Mr. Jas. Stevenson (chairman), Messrs. Dumble, Dunne, McWilliams, Wrighton, Weir, Hughes, English, Burnham and A. Rutherford.

Mr. DENYS enquired if the town council had allowed the $600 called for by the Board for gymnasium purposes. The chairman replied that they had not.

Mr. WRIGHTON enquired if the half-yearly government grant had yet been received. The chairman replied that the secretary had a communication on the subject that would answer the question.

THE INSTITUTE BUILDING.

A communication was read from the Department of Education, through the secretary Mr. Alex. Marling, enquiring what the Board intended doing with regard to the demands of the inspector for the improvement of the Collegiate Institute building, the Department withholding the government grant until they were satisfied on this point.

This communication caused some discussion.

Mr. Dumble proposed that the Secretary send another copy of the letter forwarded by him some time ago, stating that the Board was unable to make the improvements this year, but would fully comply with the demands next year.

Mr. Wrighton pointed out that the defects complained of by Inspector Hodgson three years ago had been entirely remedied, and he did not see that the school was in such a bad condition.

Mr. Dumble maintained that the school building was defective, principally in the matter of ventilation. He thought if the letter was answered in the way proposed it would satisfy them.

Mr. A. Rutherford didn't see that there were such grounds for complaint as Mr. Dumble made out. Mr. Tilley, Mr. Wrighton had stated, gives his opinion that the school was not so bad after all. Mr. Rutherford thought it would be better to get along without the grant at all if they were going to put the Board to such a continual expense making improvements.

COMMUNICATIONS AND ACCOUNTS.

Miss Emma Aldridge applied to have her salary paid for the month of August, as there were a number of teaching days in the month. —Received.

Mr. J. H. Long, Principal of the Collegiate Institute, asked the Board to bear the expense of the wooden rifles and dumb bells for Sergt.-Major Randle's gymnastic and drill classes. The communication was referred to the Property Committee.

The statement of fees for September was as follows:—Collegiate Institute, $134.00; public schools, $6.50.

The statement of attendance at the schools during September was read as follows:—

	No. on Roll.	Aver. Att.
Collegiate Institute	120	112
Central School	715	626
West Ward School	262	233
South Ward School	160	137

Both these statements were received.

An account of A. L. Davis & Co., stationery, etc., of $6.21, was referred to the School Supervision Committee.

SCHOOL IMPROVEMENTS.

Mr. Wrighton presented the report of the Property Committee as follows:—

Your Property Committee beg leave to report having made the following improvements during vacation:

A building has been erected north of the Central School for a gymnasium, 60 feet in length by 28 feet wide, with a ceiling inside 15 feet high. This building is covered inside with felt under the sheeting, so that it will be warm and can be used in winter. A plank platform has been built of proper length in front and to one side of the building. A new urinal has replaced the old one. The picket and board fence and gates in front of school have been repaired and painted. A boulevard 200 feet in length has been made in front of the school. The yard has, to a great extent, been filled up, the dirt from the hill where the gymnasium has been built being used for that purpose. The building of the gymnasium was let by contract to Charles Lyle, the excavating was let to Edward Thompson at 15 cents per cubic yard. This included the levelling the dirt in the yard and filling in the boulevard. Other minor improvements and repairs have been made not enumerated in this report.

The following is a near estimate of the expenditure:—

Building for gymnasium	$453
Edward Thompson, excavating	32
Lumber account, say	94
Work on boulevard	9
Painting	5
Other expenditure, say	25
Charles Lyle	13
	$673

Your committee believe the work has been done cheaply from the fact that the second lowest tender for the building of the gymnasium alone was $580.

The report was adopted.

THE PAY OF TEACHERS.

Mr. Dumble, in presenting the following motion, said he believed it would do away with a great deal of trouble in paying teachers, who frequently made demands upon the Board for extra services during the vacation, while they were frequently given holidays during the teaching months.

He moved, seconded by Dr. Burnham,—That the salaries of teachers shall be paid in each year in reference to that year, counting from January to January; that all teachers entitled to be paid for vacation shall be paid for such proportion of the vacation as the number of d. ys they have taught in that year bears to the entire teaching days in the year.

The motion was carried.

SOUTH WARD SCHOOL.

Mr. Hughes complained of the dilapidated state of the South Ward school building and grounds, which, he said, were in a disgraceful and dangerous condition.

Mr. Rutherford further stated that many of the rooms were overcrowded.

Dr. Burnham said that the central school was also over-crowded by pupils sent from the South Ward. This should be stopped, he thought.

A desultory discussion followed upon the inadequacy of the present school accommodation.

Mr. Hughes moved, seconded by Mr. English,—That some necessary repairs be made to the South Ward school, the cost not to exceed $25.—Carried.

The Board then adjourned.

A Wide Smile on the Kid

Because he has secured $7,000 worth of first class boots and shoes at a very low rate on the dollar, and to make room he will thrash them out at such low prices that customers can't help buying. Listen to a few of the bargains. Ladies' shoes, 15 cents, sold everywhere for 40 cents. Ladies' laced boots, 90 cents, sold usually at other places for $1.75, and our men's long boots for $1.75, unsurpassed for value in the Dominion, every pair warranted. Just call and see Kidd's, the boot man, and he will show you why he smiles. Still there is more to follow. dw

SCRATCHED 28 YEARS

A Scaly, Itching Skin Disease with Endless Suffering Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

If I had known of the CUTICURA REMEDIES twenty-eight years ago it would have saved me $200.00 (two hundred dollars) and an immense amount of suffering. My disease (Psoriasis) commenced on my head in a spot not larger than a cent. It spread rapidly all over my body and got under my nails. The scales would drop off of me all the time, and my suffering was endless and without relief. One thousand dollars would not tempt me to have this disease over again. I am a poor man, but feel rich to be relieved of what some of the doctors said was leprosy, some ring worm, psoriasis, etc. I took . . . and . . . Sarsaparillas over one year and a half, but no cure. I went to two or three doctors and no cure. I cannot praise the CUTICURA REMEDIES too much. They have made my skin as clear and free from scales as a baby's. All I used of them was three boxes of CUTICURA, and three bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and two cakes of CUTICURA SOAP. If you had been here and said you would have cured me for $2,000 you would have had the money. I looked like the picture in your book of Psoriasis (picture number two. How to Cure Skin Diseases"), but now I am as clear as any person ever was. Through force of habit I rub my hands over my arms and legs to scratch once in a while, but to no purpose. I am well. I scratched twenty-eight years, and it got to be a kind of second nature to me. I thank you a thousand times. Anything more that you want to know write to me, or any one who reads this may write to me and I will answer it.

ELGIN FALL ASSIZES.

A Verdict of Entered to Heartsorry for Murder—The Verdict Given.

St. Thomas, Oct. 3.—The time of the Elgin Assize Court was taken up nearly all yesterday in the hearing of the action, Wells against The Independent Order of Foresters, brought by Minnie Wells, of Aylmer to recover an insurance of $1000 on the life of her father, an Aylmer dentist, who died about four years ago. The claim was contested on the ground that the local lodge at Aylmer had acted contrary to the constitution of the Order in reinstating Wells as a member within a certain time after he had been suspended. The plaintiff took the ground that it was a case of master and servant, and the action of the local lodge was binding upon the higher courts, in which view his lordship concurred, and entered a verdict for $1000.

The Yarwood cases have been removed to the March assizes.

YOU'RE STABBED, DON'T YOU KNOW.

Murdering a Man While Settling at Him—The Crime Without Known Cause.

Binghamton, N. Y., Oct. 3.—Brundage H. Welton, who is one of the best-known insurance men in Central New York, was standing in the cigar store of Wilcox Brothers, in Bainbridge, when William Gilbert, a cigar maker, walked in and, stepping up to him, punched him in the side, as was supposed with his fist. Welton said "Don't punch a fellow that way, you hurt."

"But you're stabbed, don't you know," grinned Gilbert, punching him again. "Look and see." Welton unbuttoned his coat and the bystanders were horrified to see a great quantity of blood.

"Didn't know it, eh?" chuckled Gilbert, as he drove his blade, a long jack-knife, into his victim a third time. The murderer was at once secured and taken from the populace, who would have lynched him. Welton will die and his wife, who is in delicate health, can hardly survive the shock. There is no cause for the murder, and it is generally supposed that Gilbert is crazy.

Wild Fluctuations in Wheat.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—Fluctuations in wheat were again wild and rapid yesterday and the feeling unsettled and nervous, but aggregate trading fell far short of the previous day, and the most of that in the way of evening up and settling up trades. There is no doubt a general disposition on the part of operators to close up trades, and commission houses unquestionably are advising their customers to do so, and hold off until the market becomes more settled, though the last half of the session developed more active trading. The opening was very unsettled and prices varied widely in different parts of the crowd. There was a good many buying orders at the start and but little wheat to be had at the first prices mentioned. The advance in consequence was sharp and rapid and prices were soon up 3 and 3½c. above inside figures, later dropped back 1½c. and fluctuated within this range, became firm and advanced ¾ and ¼ above previous outside figures and closed strong and 2c. higher for October, 2 7-8 for December, and 3 1-8c. higher for May than closing figures of Monday.

New York, Oct. 3.—The trading in wheat here yesterday afternoon was marked by great excitement. The transactions were enormous and fluctuations very wild.

Cupid's Flame Lighted Arson's Torch.

Lynn, Mass., Oct. 3.—Delia A. Ruggles, a dressmaker, 23 years old, who arrested yesterday forenoon, charged with setting fire to the house in which she lived, Saturday evening. She says she was about to be married and had a considerable insurance on articles of wearing apparel. She set fire to the house with a view to raising the money. She will be held on a charge of arson. The house was fired in five different places.

SUN LIFE ASSURANCE COMPY OF CANADA.

HEAD OFFICE, MONTREAL.

Both in Magnitude and Profitableness, the Business for 1887 has been almost everything that could be desired.

The life policies now in force are 7,128 for $16,673,777.00, or 6741 less. We have moreover $3,207,000 00 insured under 1,540 accident policies, so that the total current contracts of the Company are 8,269 for $19,081,377.00.

The income for the year shows the very large increase of $120,531.85 over the figures of 1886, the total being $695,531.54. The revenue in any half a million dollars per annum, or as mentioned in the report over $1,000 for every working day in the year, and more this be believed was but a mere introduction to what it will be in a few years hence. The gains from time to time are well illustrated by the following table:—

Period	Gain in Income.	Gain in Assets.	Gain in Assurances.
1872 to 1876, four years	$ 54,611 21	$107,662 60	$1,167,743 00
1876 to 1880, four years	39,599 67	196,169 00	1,707,288 14
1880 to 1884, four years	128,978 24	695,484 21	3,997,264 00
1884 to 1887, three years	217,461 29	477,977 24	6,001,373 00
Total in 1887	$440,651 54	$1,477,293 05	$12,873,777 00

It is very pleasing to notice that the gains for the last three years only are 60 per cent. more than those of the preceding four years.

The Mansfield Horse and Buggy.

Mr. Mansfield, Reeve of Galway, is in the way to recover the whole of his property—horse, buggy and harness—stolen by Ritchie. When Mr. Mansfield arrived in Toronto his horse was not in the city. The m[illegible], has been in the hands of one Christie, [illegible]are had had had a suspicion that Mr. [illegible] who, if he coming to claim her, would h[illegible]ansfield was of the way. Mr. Mansfield [illegible]ave put her out of Mr. W. Banton, well [illegible]d got the services the two looked up (P[illegible]uristie, who, after an interview with the [illegible]detectives, told them the mare was at [illegible] pasture in the country, where the party went, and Mr. Mansfield at once identified and got possession of the horse, which he chiefly owes to the shrewdness and wide-awake conduct of Mr. Banton, whom the detectives warmly congratulate on the way he worked up the case and kept sight of the mare, for she passed through the hands of some of the sharpest gypsy horse dealers in the country. Mr. Mansfield went to Fleeherton station to identify his buggy and harness which the rascal Ritchie had traded to a hotel keeper there for a gold watch. Ritchie is still in Toronto and the detectives expect to lay hands on him any day.

An Important Piano Recital.

Mr. Hoover's Pupils Give an Interesting Entertainment.

On Tuesday evening a few of the pupils of Mr. Hoover, pianist, gave a recital at his residence, Dublin street, to a select audience, composed almost exclusively of the parents of the pupils. The recital was given for the purpose of showing to the parents the progress the pupils were making under Mr. Hoover's instruction, and the test was in every way satisfactory. Not only was the mere exhibition of the pupils' skill of the greatest interest, but the programme rendered, the latter part especially, was a fine musical treat. It consisted of two parts, the first by the junior pupils and the second by more advanced performers. The following copy of the programme, which was, with a single exception, faithfully out, will carried give an idea of the scope of the recital:

It will be noticed that the programme advanced from the simple study to the brilliant and difficult caprice of Mendelssohn. The manner in which the youngsters, (some of them not large enough to cover more than a fifth on the key-board,acquitted themselves reflected very great credit upon the completeness and thoroughness of their instruction. The youngest pupil showed the same correctness of manipulation and excellence of touch, though with a lesser degree of facility, as the more advanced pupils, showing that at the very beginning the pupils are placed on a good foundation upon which to build the edifice of finished musical skill. From the opening the pupils showed evidence of being well trained in grace of expression and delicacy of shading, which particularly distinguish the highest forms of musical execution, and without which the most brilliant mechanical performance is mere "sounding brass and tinkling cymbal." This was shown in the "Jupiter" Symphony of Mozart, which demands, not so much facility of manipulation, as of expression and strict regard to time. From the very start the pupils are familiarized with the highest forms of music, and the second part of the programme by the more advanced pupils, entirely classical, gave an entertainment not one whit behind that of many a pretentious public concert programme. Some of the best players in this part have had the advantage of only a year and a half, or at the most two years of instruction from Mr. Hoover, and the progress they have made must be most gratifying to both parents and teacher. Mr. Hoover is characterized by an unusual degree of modesty and retirement, such as usually accompany merit. He has made no loud claims to attention, but has taken, perhaps, the wisest and most conducive means of building up a permanent reputation, by letting his work speak for itself as it did in an unmistakable manner at the recital given by his pupils on Tuesday evening. He regrets that the size of his rooms debarred him from the pleasure of inviting a larger number of guests, but he intends giving similar recitals—reports of progress—every six months and these will be presented in larger rooms. Variety was given to the above programme by the instrumental performances of Messrs. W. E. and K. G. Loch. The latter took the number (?) assigned to Miss Owens detained at home by illness, and gave a finely rendered violin solo. The two brothers and Mr. Hoover acquitted themselves very creditably in the instrumental trio of Herrman, and contributed largely to the enjoyment of the occasion. Mr. K. G. Loch also kindly gave a vocal solo, "Alone in the Desert." At the conclusion of the programme, Mr. J. C. Brown moved a vote of thanks, seconded and supported by Mr. D. W. Dumble and Mr. A. Rutherford, who expressed their sense of the great pleasure the evening had afforded them and bore testimony to the excellent results attending Mr. Hoover's instructions on the pianoforte, sentiments, which all the parents present endorsed by hearty applause. Mr. Hoover has reason to feel highly gratified with the complete success of the first piano recital by his pupils and those immediately interested, as well as the general public will await with impatience the date of the next recital.

Played Under Protest.

The Riversides Defeated by a Team of Orillia Lacrosse Players, Assisted By Some "Ringers."

The tie in the North Eastern District championship lacrosse series was played off at Lindsay yesterday, Orillia defeating Peterborough by three goals to one. The game was played under protest, the Orillias playing one Robbins, of Bright, under the name of M. D. Kean. Before the match was begun the secretary of the C.L.A., Mr. Dan Rose, of Toronto, was telegraphed, notifying him of the fact and entering an immediate protest. The Orillias entered a counter protest against Begley, Pakenham and Duncan, of the Riversides, on the ground that they had played with the Y.M.C.A. club here and were therefore disqualified from playing in an Association game. The objection is an absurd one, and was entered simply as an offset to the one put in by the Riversides, which the Orillias [illegible] is only too liable to be sustained [illegible]ow Judiciary Committee, in which case [illegible]y the will be given to the Riversides [illegible] the game

This practice of playing "[illegible]ringers," or professionals, has been much [illegible]oo frequent in the Association this sum[illegible]mer, and tends more than anything else [illegible]o destroy interest in the game. The Riv[illegible]rsides are the only team in this district [illegible]who have not tried to gain an advantage [illegible] over their opponents by this unfair means. [illegible]and the Orillias should be taught, as [illegible] Barrie and Bradford, that trickery and deception are not allowed to go unpunished. Before the match they denied that "Kean" was Robbins, but afterwards their captain admitted it and entered the protest above mentioned.

The game was not a brilliant one, the day being very cold and unpleasant. The Orillias out-played their opponents as a rule, but the Riversides played a plucky game. First goal was scored for Orillia after 12 minutes play, the ball being tipped through during a scuffle in front of the Peterborough goal. After 27 minutes hard play J. Isbister scored for Peterborough. The two following games went to Orillia in 20 and 5 minutes respectively, Frost putting the rubber through both times. The game was not a rough one, but Rose was pretty severely hurt, time being called for a few minutes.

It is probable the protest of the Riversides will be sustained, and a decision given by the Judiciary Committee reversing the result of the match.

The teams were:—

One From the Shoulder.

There's no use beating about the bush. Everybody is interested, and everybody will read with personal interest that the cheapest place to buy boots or shoes in town, or in Canada for the matter of it, is at the store of gough bros., the wonderful cheap men, number 375 george street. The stock is extensive, the assortment complete, the prices the lowest ever before presented in town. Boots for men and women; boots and shoes for boys and children, at about what other dealers make a long suffering public pay for the leather itself. It was a big deal in boots when gough bros. scooped in a $6000 stock of boots and shoes at 40 cents on the dollar. It meant a big rush of trade for them and a big bonanza in bargains to the public. gough bros. don't run a charitable institution exactly, but the low prices they sell first class boots and shoes at make their store very like one.

THE GLORY OF MAN

"Did anyone remark that it was cold"?—Examiner Sept. 29.

Well, yes. Could anyone be found in our entire population who has not made use of the remark during the past few days?

And has there not been uppermost in everyone's mind the imperative necessity for warmer clothing?

Someone has said that the glory of man is in his strength; but if strength is to be maintained at this trying season of the year, warmer and heavier clothing must be worn.

The man who neglects to attend to this duty at once will discover that his glory has departed, as he finds himself ushered into the presence of Dr. Liverpills.

Therefore, before you spend the price of an entire warm winter outfit on medicine, which depletes the strength, obey the voice of common sense—go to T. DOLAN & CO.'S and buy yourself a set of warm flannels, and order a suit of heavy Tweed Clothes.

Better do it at once, too, rather than run the risk of staving it off from day to day, until you get sick.

—AT—

YARNS.

There is nothing more essential to the health of the body in this changeable climate of ours than keeping the feet comfortably clad, so, in order to supply the large demand for good Woolen Yarn and Hosiery, we have paid particular attention to this department. Our Baldwin and Wheeling Yarns are imported direct from Scotland. Baldwin's Yarns are so well known we need not say anything about them, and Scotland is noted the world over for wools; so that we can show you all the best makes in any color at the very lowest prices. The Wheeling Yarn is a heavy make intended for children's and boys' wear very much like our Canadian yarn only much softer and warmer, and it comes at a low price.

HOSIERY.

You should see our Heather Wool Sox for men, knitted by the grandmas of Scotland. They may seem a little high in price, but they are really very cheap as they wear so long. We have Black Cashmere Hose in plain and ribbed in two or three different makes, from the smallest baby's size to the largest ladies, at prices that are right, as we are confident they are not sold cheaper in either city or town in the regular way. We have also a special make of Canadian Hose closely and softly knitted, without a seam. You should ask to be shown these goods when at the Hosiery counter. You will be pleased with them. We need only to speak in a whisper about a bargain we have secured, knowing that it will spread like fire when mentioned. One of our largest hosiery knitting mills, that supplies the wholesale trade only (as they have to sell in large quantities to find market for all they make), after filling all their orders, had a surplus left, which they were anxious to dispose of in order to make room to commence the cotton goods for spring. Our stock not being heavy, we were able to do with them and can now offer you an all wool perfect knitted hose, ladies' size, for 12½ cents a pair. Remember that all through the season we keep our stock well assorted, and no matter what inducements may be offered we never allow ourselves to be undersold.

Canadian and Home-made Yarns always in Stock.

A COMMUNICATION TO THE CANADIAN PRESS.

More About Annexation and Commercial Union—Two Interesting Letters—What Senator John Sherman Thinks.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.

To the Canadian Press:

Information reached me last week, of such a character that I could not refrain from believing it, to the effect that the Committee of Foreign Relations of the Senate of the United States was about to report a resolution to the Senate, making it the duty of the President to open a negotiation with Great Britain inviting Canada into the Union on the basis of the assumption by the United States of the national debt of Canada. The information was so important that I deemed it my duty on Saturday evening to send a dispatch to this effect in my own name to the Canadian papers. After having done so, reflection convinced me that an effort might be successful to convince members of the committee that they were mistaken in the belief that any very general sentiment existed in Canada in favor of annexation, and that an invitation to a political union might seriously interfere with negotiations for a close commercial connection, which it seemed under the strained relations of the two countries most desirable should be consummated.

I had prepared a few days before, at the request of my friend, Blakeley Hall, who had recently returned from a trip through Canada, an interview which, fortunately for my purpose, came out in The New York Sun of Sunday morning, and was simultaneously transmitted to a syndicate of forty-two different influential journals throughout the country. I was persuaded that the arguments and conclusions of this article, if properly presented to the members of the committee, would have great weight, backed as it would probably be by influential editorial comment in numerous leading journals. I accordingly wrote a letter, as per the copy below, to Hon. John Sherman, Chairman of the Senate Committee of Foreign Relations, and also to other members of the committee.

After having done so it seemed wise that the dispatch which I had sent on Saturday night if, owing to Sunday intervening it had not been delivered to the newspapers, should not be transmitted, because if the committee had really reached such a decision it would make the task an easier one to retrace its steps if no publicity had been given to its intention. Accordingly I telegraphed to the Associated Press agent at Toronto, if the despatch had not been delivered to withhold it. Unfortunately he exceeded my instructions, for having had it delivered he without my authority sought its return. All the newspapers agreed to this except two or three, who of course made the most, not only of the dispatch itself, but of the attempt to recall it, entirely misinterpreting my motives.

I am glad to say, however, that no harm has come from this publication for it would seem as if the result of the letter to Senator Sherman, which I subjoin, and the arguments which were used in the extracts enclosed, were conclusive; and whatever had previously been determined upon, it is now certain that the invitation to Canada to join the Union will not at present be pressed.

The following correspondence sufficiently explains the matter, and I submit will relieve me from any charge of disloyalty, especially taken in connection with the arguments which with all the force at my command, I had the good fortune to be able to present, not only to Mr. Sherman and his associates, but to the American public at large arguments that I maintain place my loyalty to a distinctive Canadian nationality beyond all possible question.

The following letters speak for themselves:

COPY OF LETTER WRITTEN TO SENATOR SHERMAN.

NEW BRIGHTON, STATEN ISLAND,
Sunday, Sept. 30, 1888.

MY DEAR SENATOR: May I beg as an especial favor that you will read the enclosed interview with me. It appears in The New York Sun of to-day and has been prepared with great care, really as much for your eye as for that of the public.

From most undoubted sources I learn that you have determined upon immediately introducing a resolution making it the duty of the President to open negotiations with Great Britain for the admission of Canada into the Union. It is a bold and masterful policy from a United States point of view, but I am thoroughly convinced that it would fail, and you cannot afford that catastrophe.

It would fail because the people of Canada would not accept it. The proposition would be strongly opposed, and not a few would bitterly resent it.

My dear senator, this is a most grave matter, and you need to have the best information; you must not accept as absolute fact the assertions of well-intended Americans, who have little or no knowledge of the real condition of sentiment below the surface. Men who have been born in Canada, who have grown up in the atmosphere of loyalty to the British Crown, and who know the hearts that beat responsive to the strains of "God Save the Queen," are not changed in the twinkling of an eye, to be what they consider to be renegades, by the invitation of even this great country, or by the temptation to be rid of their national debt which you propose to assume.

I beg of you to consider well before your invitation is given and rejected. Consider and get fuller information as to the real sentiment of Canada before you act. Again let me ask you to read aloud, or have some one read to you, the words I have tried to utter into your ear in the within extract.

No one can know better than I do the sentiment of my own people. Of course I may be mistaken, but I submit that what I have urged in this article must be met by equally good authority before you are betrayed into an action that may be fatal to your desire and the desire of all who hope for the closest relations between the two countries.

Your interest and devotion to this matter of the union of the two countries has raised you in the past ninety days above all men, and to make a mistake now is not for a moment to be contemplated. If, after reading the enclosed, you would like to see me, I will gladly go to Washington, or I will write you further or get you fuller information.

Most respectfully yours,
(Signed) ERASTUS WIMAN.

COPY OF A LETTER FROM SENATOR SHERMAN TO ERASTUS WIMAN.

COMMITTEE OF FOREIGN RELATIONS,
U. S. SENATE, WASHINGTON,
Oct. 3, 1888.

MY DEAR SIR: Your note of the 30th is received. Your opinions are certainly entitled to great weight, and will receive full consideration. My own opinion has been for many years that political union between the United States and Canada was inevitable, and that statesmen and patriots ought to look to bringing this about peacefully, upon terms of perfect equality and so as to promote the interests of both countries.

As to Commercial Union, I see no practical way to bring it about. We will have ample time to think of all this, as the subject matter will not again be brought up in the Senate until the next session.

Very truly yours,
JOHN SHERMAN.

I submit the foregoing explanation because of the torrent of abuse to which I have been subjected in the last few days by a certain portion of the press of Canada, who take their greatest delight in misrepresentation and misjudgment.

ERASTUS WIMAN.

THE TEXAS FIEND.

MYSTERIOUS MURDERS RECALLED BY LONDON'S HORROR.

A Series of Brutal Crimes in the Capital of the Lone Star State—Eight Women Slain.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—The horrible Whitechapel murders at which all London stands aghast are not without a parallel in the fiendishness of their execution nor the mystery that surrounds them. On the night of Dec. 31, 1884, in the western residence portion of the city of Ausin, Tex., a mulatto woman was murdered and her body fearfully mutilated, after which it was dragged to the rear of the premises where she was employed as cook, marking the earth with a gory trail. A fellow-servant who occupied with her the little room where the crime was committed, was terribly mangled by the same unknown fiend and lay for weeks at the point of death. No light was ever thrown on the murder. A few weeks went by and another colored servant girl was butchered in her bed in the same barbarous way, and that, too, was a mystery. A little while afterwards and a third victim was added to the list.

These assassinations occurring in the capital of a great State, in a city that had ever been orderly and free from such outrages, generally excited the people. The police force was increased, many "specials" appointed, extra vigilance taken by the citizens, rewards offered, in short nothing that reason could suggest was left undone. But the community was still to be shocked by a series of similar horrors. It was early in 1885 when the fourth colored woman, also a domestic, met the same dreadful fate. By this time a feeling of panic began to prevail among this class, and it was well nigh impossible to get a negro woman to stay in service, if required to occupy an apartment alone or one detached from the house of her employers. Most of the murders had taken place in small outhouses, adjacent to the main dwellings. A good many arrests were made, but in no instance was there sufficient proof to hold the persons arrested.

Next came a double murder; two women of the same unlucky race as the others were killed with the same sickening savagery. Horror settled over the town. Complaint was loud and bitter against the local police. Their incompetency to deal with the horrid condition that seemed to hang over the city like a pall, caused the importation of skilled detectives from a distance. They came but did no better. Not an assassin was taken. These murders had without exception taken place on the brightest of moonlight nights, and some of them at an early hour. Yet such was the quickness with which the ruffians did their awful work that they never failed to escape.

Theories were many; some said it was the doings of a maniac, others that it was a band of outlaws who had a hiding place in some cave or cliff along the Colorado River, near the town, probably a gang of escaped convicts who had sworn enmity to mankind. But why were servant girls alone butchered—and all of them colored? No one could answer. There was absolutely no clue to the demon or demons who did the satanic work.

Six black women had now been slain. Nearly all had been mutilated after death. A good many days went by, and the Austinians began to hope that the epoch of terror was over. It was soon to end, but before the last bloody chapter was closed the culminating horror came. Again there was a ghastly double murder, but this time the female victims were white. Two married women, a Mrs. Phillips and a Mrs. Hancock, met death in its most horrible form, and with them as with the others to this day there is no satisfactory explanation of the crime. The women last named were killed in different parts of the town at about the same hour. The husband of each was arrested and tried for the murder. A great many believed that Hancock and Phillips were the slayers of their wives. The evidence was slight and purely circumstantial against Phillips, and there was scarcely any against the other man. The trials occupied a long time, and failed to solve the mystery. There are many who will always think, and with great reason, that the white women were struck down by the monsters who had slain all the others.

With the killing of Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Hancock the series of brutal tragedies ended. Money and the best detective talent that could be had failed to bring the perpetrators to justice, and though now the usual quiet and good order reigns in the pretty and prosperous capital of the Lone Star State, it will be many a day ere its people forget the blackest epoch in their history.

Wheat on the Jump.

CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—The feeling developed in wheat in this market was greatly excited again yesterday, more so than on any previous day, being the outcome of wild speculation. Some of the oldest operators described the opening as, with the exception of war times, without a parallel. Possibly never in the history of the trade did prices fluctuate so wildly. Almost the whole range of the day's market, which was seven cents, was covered within 6 minutes from the opening. This will illustrate the condition of the market. Prices ran up and down a cent at a jump with no trades at intervening figures. When operators wanted to buy there was but little wheat to be had, and when they wanted to sell there was but little demand to take the wheat. Yesterday's business shows a marked falling off as compared with the preceding day, and the trading is principally in the way of evening up and settling up trades. Operators do not care to sell on such a market, as it is too easily controlled, and at the same time many operators would not risk buying at the prices ruling. Many merchants are advising their customers not to make new trades in wheat, for the present at least, and there is rapid settling up or balancing up of trades. The market closed 3½c. higher for October, ½ higher for December, 3c. higher for May than closing figures of Tuesday.

Arrangements to Smuggle Chinamen.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—Custom House records show 69,626 certificates of return have been issued to Chinese since 1882. There are now 30,778 certificates outstanding. It is reported that the Chinese six companies are preparing to import Chinese via Canada, and then smuggle them over the Pacific steamers from British Columbia.

$25,000 Deposited to Arrange a Fight.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Richard K. Fox has cabled to Christopher Clarke, of the Police Gazette, that he has deposited $25,000 in London and would deposit the same amount here to cover the challenge of the unknown to fight Jake Kilrain for £10,000. Fox says a syndicate is backing the unknown, and all parties mean business.

Jacksonville's Death Roll.

JACKSONVILLE, Oct. 3.—There were 73 new cases (32 white and 41 colored) and 6 deaths during the twenty-four hours ending at 6 p.m. to-day.

FLASHED UNDER THE OCEAN.

An Advance in Grand Trunks—Sir John Rose's Will.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—Grand Trunks have all advanced, partly consequent on favorable reports of Sir Henry Tyler's doings in Canada. The Grand Trunk Railway Company's half-yearly meeting is called to the 30th, when resolutions will be submitted to authorize the company to acquire first mortgage bonds of the Toledo road by exchanging therefor a portion of the perpetual 4 per cent. consolidated debenture stock now held by the company; also to ratify traffic contracts with the United States and Canadian railways and the Beauharnois Junction railway.

Probate was granted on the will of Sir John Rose. The estate in the United Kingdom is valued at £363,493. The Marchioness of Tweeddale receives the household goods, and the residue of the property is left in trust to his five children.

A FRIGHTFUL EXPOSE OF JOBBERY.

$3,000,000 of Uncle Sam's Money Completely Wasted.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—Lieut. Townsend yesterday pursued his investigation into the Hennepin canal frauds, with the result of discovering more frauds. It appears that the entire 5000 feet last completed will have to be all done over before it is perfect, and even then competent engineers hold that the entire plan is faulty and that the tunnel, if finished up to contract, will not last. One engineer who was employed on the work and was discharged because he insisted on having perfect work done, says that if the tunnel was finished as per contract it would only last a short period.

The aqueduct was blasted several miles through solid rock, then an arch was built of bricks, leaving the bottom of bare blasted rock. The engineer claims that this rock is such composition that contact with air or water would cause them to crumble. The entire sum, nearly $3,000,000, expended by Government, has been wasted. Congressional investigation will take up this charge also. It was stated at the War Department that no action on the aqueduct matter will be taken until the Congressional investigation is finished.

THE R. A. V. R.

An Application for Permission to Cross the C. P. R. Tracks.

OTTAWA, Oct. 3.—The Manitoba Government applied to the Railway Committee of the Privy Council for the approval of the plans of the Red River Valley Railway to cross the Canadian Pacific Railway tracks at two points in the neighborhood of Winnipeg. After two hours' argument the hearing was adjourned until further information, especially on the subject of tracklaying, could be obtained. Counsel for the Canadian Pacific Railway opposed the application on the ground that the Manitoba Government had no right to make it in accordance with section 306 of the Railway Act of 1888, which provides that the Dominion Parliament is the only power which can create a railway company, having power to construct a line intended to connect with or cross the railways, including the Canadian Pacific Railway, mentioned in the said section.

No Clue to the Whitechapel Mystery.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—No further arrests have been made in connection with the Whitechapel murders, and the police have discovered no clues to throw any light on the mystery.

Mr. Forbes, the noted war correspondent, writes to The Daily News that he is convinced that the Whitechapel assassin got disease from one of his victims, lost his situation and is suffering from specific madness. He suggests that the murderer is a medical student.

There is now in the London hospital, with a serious cut on her arm, a woman who has solemnly declared she received the injury while protecting her throat from an attempt made to cut it by a man who, having engaged her in conversation and struck an immoral bargain with her, tripped her up, then threw her heavily on the pavement, and attacked her, knife in hand, with murderous intent.

Charged With False Pretences.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—On Monday night Robert Henry Douglas, formerly employed at the M. C. R. shop, St. Thomas, was arrested on a warrant charging that on the 13th day of April, 1888, by false pretences and fraud he induced Robert Baird to become joint maker with himself and Mary Douglass to a note for $33, payable in three months to Alex. Fraser, and that he converted the said note into valuable security, and obtained the money with intent to defraud. Douglass represented to Baird that he wanted the money to purchase a cow. It is stated that he has also let in Messrs. R. Alfred, Geo. Upper and R. Ray for various amounts. He will be tried next Tuesday.

The Kaiser Cheered at Vienna.

VIENNA, Oct. 3.—Emperor William arrived here this morning and was met at the depot by Emperor Francis Joseph, the royal Princes and numerous dignitaries. The Emperors left the station arm in arm followed by the other visitors and those who had received them and was driven to the Hofburg. A large crowd had gathered and cheered enthusiastically.

The Rhone Freshet.

GENEVA, Oct. 4.—The River Rhone has overflowed its banks and railway traffic between Geneva and Lyons has been stopped in consequence, the tracks being submerged for miles. The town of Payerne is inundated and several persons have been drowned at Seysel, France. The dykes at Payerne are broken and the plains are one vast lake.

Detected Making False Returns.

OTTAWA, Oct. 3.—An officer of the port of Montreal has been detected making false returns of the weight of cigars imported into Canada by a prominent Montreal firm, and it is alleged he did so in collusion with the importer.

Election Appeals.

OTTAWA, Oct. 3.—The Haldimand election appeal occupied the attention of the Supreme Court all afternoon. During the trial of the petition before Judge Street at Cayuga, a scrutiny of the ballots was had and Dr. Montague (Con.) was declared elected by a majority of ten votes. The appellant contends that eighteen of the ballots counted for Dr. Montague were wrongly accepted because of the fact that there was writing upon them. The disputed ballot papers were not found in the record sent to Ottawa. Judgment was reserved.

In the Muskinonge election case, the Court dismissed the appeal of Mr. Caron by consent. This gives the seat to Mr. Coulombe (Con.), the sitting member.

The East Simcoe appeal was allowed with out costs, giving Mr. Cook (Lib.) his seat.

The Liberal Candidate for Shelburne.

HALIFAX, Oct. 3.—Hon. Thos. Johnson M.P.P., having declined the Liberal nomination to oppose General Laurie in Shelburne County for the Commons, F. T. Congdon, of the Halifax law firm of Russell & Congdon, has consented to run. Russell & Congdon acted as counsel for the petitioner in the recent election trial which resulted in Gen. Laurie being unseated.

East Northumberland Election Voided.

BRIGHTON, Oct. 3.—Judge Burton this morning declared the East Northumberland election void, and Edward Cochrane (Con.), the sitting member, unseated.

Wentworth Assizes.

HAMILTON, Oct. 3.—At the assizes to-day the jury in the case of Stephens v Stephens, a Cobourg slander case, returned a verdict of $1,500 for the plaintiff.

Charles Edwards was sentenced to the penitentiary for ten years for firing the barns of an Ancaster farmer.

Walker v. Dundas Cotton Mill Company was an action brought by Catharine Walker under the Compensation for Injuries Act for injuries to her head and brain sustained by falling through a hole in the floor where the flooring had been torn up. The case was settled out of court, the plaintiff receiving $550.

Distress in the Saguenay District.

QUEBEC, Oct. 3.—News from Moisie, 200 miles east of Saguenay, is of the most appalling description. The whole population of the district is on the brink of starvation. The fisheries this season have signally failed; the crops, of no great account at any time, have also turned out badly. The few provisions in the place are high in price, and the unfortunate inhabitants do not know which way to turn for food and clothing.

Blew Out the Gas.

WOODSTOCK, Oct. 4.—Thomas Creath and D. H. Fox registered at the Commercial Hotel and took a room for the night. About 6 o'clock in the morning a strong smell of gas was felt coming from their room. The door was burst open and both were found almost suffocated, Fox lying on the floor. They were restored with difficulty.

The Tobique Murder Trial.

ANDOVER, N.B., Oct. 3.—The jury, after being out since noon yesterday, came into court about 10 this morning with a verdict of manslaughter against Phillipine and Trafton, who were charged with the murder of Mrs. Howes. They added to it a strong recommendation to mercy.

Flour for Destitute Indians.

MONTREAL, Oct. 3.—A small quantity of flour has been shipped north by the Government to Peace River and Athabasca, in charge of the Hudson Bay Company, to be applied to the relief of destitution among the Indians of those districts during the coming winter should the necessity arise.

Sharp rain or snow are reported in the northern parishes, and the country between Murray Bay and Baie St. Paul is covered with it.

Among the cases to be called at the approaching term of the Court of Queen's Bench at Quebec, standing over from last term, are those of D. Creighton, of The Toronto Empire, for criminal libel, and Herbert Carbray, for electoral corruption, and it is also said the Trudel perjury case will again be brought up. A decision is also anticipated in the Salvation Army case.

FIFTH PAPER.

OLD EDINBURGH.

Were we scientists we might give an elaborate description of the geological formation of the rocks and hills that form one of the most picturesque sites for a city in the world. However, we were not there when the natural elements were "getting in" their work, and as our knowledge of geology is not first-class, we will pass over the prehistoric age and take a look at Edinburgh as she is now.

Emerging from the station, you go out into Princes street, and here a unique panorama unfolds itself. To the right rises in majestic form the great rock on which Edinburgh Castle firmly rests. Imagination can easily picture what a strong fortress it must have been prior to the introduction of the death-dealing shells and dynamite of modern warfare. Northward from this rocky ledge stretches a lovely park—on grounds rescued from a loch on which—in the ages gone by—were held many regal tournaments. Away to the southeast Arthur's Seat and Salisbury Crag sit calmly enshrined in the romantic Holyrood Plains. And north of these is Calton Hill, bedecked with monuments. The northern portion of this grand scene is fittingly filled up by the ornate edifices of the New Town.

Proceeding along the well-paved, wide and elegant Princes street, we have on the right the West Princes Street Gardens, with their pretty walks, grass plots, shrubs and flowers. Near the street are statues of two celebrated doctors—

LIVINGSTON AND SIR J. Y. SIMPSON.

However, the centre of attraction is the exquisite monument to Sir Walter Scott. It is modelled after Melrose Abbey, and looks like a grand cathedral spire. There are four artistic basement arches, and gallery after gallery of pinnacles soars up in succession until two hundred feet high. A very graceful statue of Sir Walter sits under the dome. The other adornings are thirty two statuettes of the most prominent characters in his novels and poems, also the likenesses of sixteen of the most famous Scottish poets keep their great peer company. From the highest gallery a magnificent view of the city can be obtained.

Near by a mound stretches across the old North Loch Valley, and on it are two very interesting buildings—the Royal Institution and the Art Gallery. The former resembles the old temples often seen in pictures. It is surrounded by columns which hold up an ornamental entablature, and on the end facing Princes street is a colossal sitting statue of Her Majesty the Queen. In the interior there is a school of design, a gallery of sculpture, and an antiquarian museum. The Art Gallery is somewhat cross-shaped, and contains the handiwork of the old and new masters—a fine collection of water-colors, statues, &c.

Further east is the substantial Waverley Bridge, leading to the old part of the city and the post office, the formal opening of which was one of the last public acts of the lamented Prince Consort. On the north side there are handsome shops, substantial insurance buildings, and fine club rooms. Opposite the Waverley Bridge there is a well designed bronze

EQUESTRIAN STATUE OF WELLINGTON.

The artist's name was Steell, so at the dedication ceremony it was christened a thing of three metals—"In bronze, by Steell, to the Iron Duke."

Princes street divides the city into two parts. All north is modern—new streets, handsome churches, Prince Consort's memorial, crescents, parks—in brief everything found in one of our own bustling, busy cities. However, it is in the south or old part that the greatest interest centres. Here have been enacted the chivalric and tragic scenes recorded in many a page of Scotland's history. The novelists have clothed it with the gilded drapery of romance, and poets have rung out its praises in their sweetest songs.

The site of the Old City is peculiar. It begins away down at Holyrood, and gradually rises until the summit of Castle Rock is reached. The tiers of buildings along the north slope of this ledge present a striking appearance from the New Town. The Bank of Scotland forms a conspicuous feature in this romantic view. It has a grand central dome, and is embellished in Grecian style. James' Court with its nine story rear looks over the mound. This was in past ages an aristocratic quarter. Here were the abodes of judges, peers, and learned divines. Boswell, Johnston and Hume were amongst the frequenters. Near by the Free Church of fame put on considerable of the Scottish baronial ornature. Immediately to the west we have the Free Church College, combining the Tudor and Gothic features of architecture. We retrace our steps to the historic old Palace and Abbey of Holyrood.

CHILDREN'S CORNER.

The old country cities have very interesting places called museums, and a great deal of money is spent in gathering curiosities for these. They are divided into different departments. First sculptures. These are generally beautiful figures of man and horses chiselled out of marble by men who lived hundreds and hundreds of years ago. They were brought from the ancient cities you read of in history—Babylon, Athens, &c. Second, pottery of all kinds. You would wonder at the size and shapes of many of the old jugs. There is a great variety of drinking cups, made of bronze, gold and silver. There is no end to the different styles of knives, spoons, scissors, etc. Third, all manner of war implements—bows and arrows, spears, swords, guns and cannons. Clothes made of thin iron bands and chains. Fourth. Coins that were long ago used as money. Written manuscripts and old books showing the early stages of printing. Fifth. Great collections of paintings and designs.

A Dream of fair women.

Tennyson in his exquisite poem, dreams of a long procession of lovely women of ages past. This is all very well, but the laureate would have done the world a greater service if he had only told the women of the present how they could improve their health and enhance their charms. This he might easily have done by recommending the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Health is the best friend of beauty, and the innumerable ills to which women are peculiarly subject, its worst enemies. Long experience has proved that the health of womankind and the "Favorite Prescription" walk hand in hand, and are inseparable. It is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrapper, and faithfully carried out for many years. a

"Late last fall I was laid up in bed three days with a severe attack of diarrhœa and vomiting. Nothing benefited me until my neighbor, Mrs Dunning, recommended Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and brought me half a bottle which she had in her house. In three hours the vomiting was stopped, and I was able to sit up by night. I would not now think of using any other medicine." Columbus Hopkins, Hamilton, Ont. 2dw40

CLAIMS ABOUT ROYALTY.

What Labouchere knows Concerning the Crowned Heads of Europe.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—There is a strong suspicion at Belgrade that if King Milan can get rid of Queen Natalie, he will marry his friend, Mme. Christics, who could easily procure a divorce from her accommodating husband, who is His Majesty's private secretary. Mme. Christics, who is a Greek, is very handsome and very clever, and a few weeks ago she left Belgrade for Constantinople, carrying off with her the superb diamonds and other crown jewels which the King recently gave her. The idea that Mme. Christics intends to become Queen of Servia has not tended to improve King Milan's chance of obtaining a divorce, and it is probable that a simple separation will be the end of his dispute with Queen Natalie.

Emperor Frederick undoubtedly kept a daily journal, and it is now in the possession of his widow. But I fancy that while a few published extracts are authentic, many others have been interpolated, and that there has been extensive garbling, so the diary may be regarded as not altogether genuine. It is inconceivable that the emperor could cause a diary to be printed and privately circulated containing so many extracts calculated to seriously prejudice the cause of German unity, and altogether damaging to German interests. Prince Bismarck is thoroughly justified in prosecuting the persons responsible for the publication, for they have certainly been guilty of treason to the state, as nothing but mischief could result from the premature appearance of a portion of the late emperor's diary. It is still worse to publish extracts cooked up with additions and suppressions, the former being of the most objectionable kind.

Paragraphs have appeared in numerous papers announcing the approaching betrothal of the Czarewitch to one of the daughters of the Prince of Wales. There is not the slightest truth in these statements, which are palpably preposterous inasmuch as the laws of the Greek church positively prohibit the marriage of cousins, and the eldest son is the very last person in the world who could afford to ignore such a rule. The Czarewitch will almost certainly marry one of the beautiful and talented daughters of Prince Nicholas of Montenegro.

A marriage has been arranged between Prince George, the second son of the King of the Hellenes, and the Princess Marguerite of Orleans, the youngest daughter of the Duc d'Chartres. Prince George, who was born July, 1869, is an officer in the Danish navy, and his future wife, who is six months his senior, will have a fortune of $4,000 a year. Princess Maria, the eldest daughter of the Duc d'Chartres, is married to Prince Waldemar of Denmark, and uncle of Prince George, so that this is another match which will create some complicated relationships.

The King of the Netherlands is dying. He has been in a precarious state for several months, and now his appetite has failed and with the loss of his appetite has come and entire prostration of strength, and, in fact, a complete break-up of his constitution. He is wheeled about from room to room in a chair and is even unable to sign his name. During the last three weeks all state business has been transacted by Queen Emma. King William is aware that his recovery is impossible and that he is in great and immediate danger, but he does not wish his condition to be made public.

A History of the Andrews Railroad Raid Into Georgia in 1862.

The Most Heroic and Tragic Episode of the Civil War.

Embracing a Full and Accurate Account of the Secret Journey to the Heart of the Confederacy, the Capture of a Railway Train in a Confederate Camp, the Terrible Chase That Followed, and the Subsequent Fortunes of the Leader and His Party.

The expedition, in the daring of its inception, had the wildness of a romance; while in the gigantic and overwhelming results it sought and was likely to obtain it was absolutely sublime.—JUDGE ADVOCATE GENERAL HOLT'S OFFICIAL REPORT.

It was all the deepest laid scheme, and on the grandest scale, that ever emanated from the brains of any number of Yankees combined.—THE SOUTHERN CONFEDERACY (ATLANTA, GA.), APRIL 18, 1863.

Despite its tragic termination, it shows what a handful of brave men could undertake in America.—COMTE DE PARIS' HISTORY OF THE CIVIL WAR IN AMERICA, vol. 2, p. 157.

By WILLIAM PITTENGER,
A MEMBER OF THE EXPEDITION.

(Copyrighted, 1887, by War Publishing Co., N. Y., and published by arrangement with them.)

INTRODUCTION.

The following narrative is no "war romance" or "story founded on fact," but a genuine history, authenticated in every part, of real events far stranger and more thrilling than any fiction. The facts were investigated at the time by the order of Edwin M. Stanton, secretary of war, and as a result the official war records, now being published by government, contain full proof of every material allegation. In the first series of that work, tenth volume, part first, and beginning on page 630, will be found the official reports of Judge Advocate General Holt, Maj. Gen. Buell and Col. Lee, of Atlanta; together with statements by surviving members of the expedition and by Confederate Gens. E. Kirby Smith, Braxton Bragg, the Confederate secretary of war, Gen. Randolph, and the president, Jefferson Davis, with many others. I have used also my own recollections and phonographic notes and dates, jotted at the very time of the events, and am thus able to make a more life like picture than would otherwise be possible.

I have only taken the liberty of passing more hastily over those events and explanations which, while necessary for a full understanding of the whole, are more in the ordinary line of military experience, in order that more space be given to those elements of tragedy and thrilling adventure in which this raid stands separate and unrivaled among all the many heroic deeds of the terrible struggle for maintaining the American Union. Not a single fictitious incident or an embellishment of fancy has been introduced. Wherever conjectures as to unknown motives or incidents have been hazarded they are clearly distinguished as such.

CHAPTER I.

THE ANDREWS RAID REACHES THE HEART OF THE CONFEDERACY.

At Nashville, in March, 1862, while Gen. D. C. Buell commanded the Army of the Ohio, a spy in his employ, J. J. Andrews, proposed to him to take eight men and destroy some of the principal bridges far to the south, on one or more important Confederate railway lines. Buell consented and gave the men; but though the daring spy took his men to Atlanta, Ga., the enterprise failed from the absence of a Confederate railroad engineer whose help had been promised. The men, with Andrews, succeeded in reaching the Union lines again in safety, at Murfreesboro and Shelbyville.

These points were then under the command of Gen. O. M. Mitchel, the celebrated astronomer, who had been detached with 10,000 men from the army of Buell for the purpose of guarding Nashville on that side, and of inflicting any injury in his power upon the enemy. The report of Andrews, who brought full information of the condition of the enemy south and east of Mitchel, probably confirmed the daring schemes he was already entertaining, and between them they arranged for the boldest push of the war. What they meant to do may best be inferred from what they actually did. Mitchel moved his whole division to Shelbyville, Tenn., and prepared to move rapidly and secretly upon the line of the enemy's communications directly southward. To Andrews he gave authority to take from twenty-four to thirty volunteers—probably a man from each company of the 2d, 21st and 33d Ohio regiments. The twenty-three of these who reported were dressed in ordinary suits in place of their uniforms, supplied with side arms only and with an abundance of Confederate money, and met their leader in a lonely wooded spot at night near the Union picket line. Here he directed them to break into small squads, and getting into the rough and unguarded country in the Cumberland range of mountains, proceed by unfrequented routes across the mountains to different stations on railroads far within the Confederate lines, where no guards were placed and where travel was as yet free and unrestricted by passports or other dangerous formalities. Then it would be easy to reach any part of the south. If questioned while on the way they were to state that they were from Fleming county, Ky., on their way south to escape "Yankee" tyranny and to join the Southern army.

Fleming county was the home of Andrews, and there is a thread of tender and pitiful romance connecting it with his name which the writer learned on the spot from parties concerned many years after. Andrews loved, wooed and won a Kentucky lady of that vicinity—Miss Elizabeth J. Layton—who, like himself, was an ardent Unionist. She was described to me by neighbors as not strikingly beautiful, but attractive and estimable. Before their marriage the war broke out, and he entered soon afterward on his perilous business as a spy for the Federal army. To the southerners he represented himself as their friend, and carried over the lines from the Union side articles such as quinine—of great value to them—thus driving a very profitable trade and furnishing them information of priceless value. It was this acquaintance with the south which alone rendered possible the daring expeditions he meditated.

MISS LAYTON

But the dangerous business in which he was engaged was a great source of grief and apprehension to his promised bride; and through her persuasions he was induced to pledge her that when he succeeded in one more enterprise he would retire from the deadly dangers which are the daily company of a spy; and with that understanding their wedding day had been fixed for some date near the middle of June, 1862. The expedition which was to be his last was this raid upon which we were now engaged.

LIFE ASSURANCE COMP'Y OF CANADA.

HEAD OFFICE, MONTREAL.

Both in Magnitude and Profitableness, the Business for 1887 has been almost everything that could be desired.

The life policies now in force are 7,128 for $10,873,777.69, on 6741 lives. We have moreover $3,207,600 00 insured under 1,840 accident policies, so that the total current contracts of the Company are 8,969 for $14,081,377.69.

The income for the year shows the very large increase of $122,331.23 over the figures of 1886, the total being $495,831.54. The revenue is now half a million dollars per annum, or as mentioned in the report, over $1,600 for every working day in the year, and even this he believed was but a mere introduction to what it will be in a few years hence. The gains from time to time are well illustrated by the following table:—

Period	Gain in income.	Gain in assets.	Gain in assurances.
1872 to 1876, four years	$ 54,611 21	$169,432 69	$1,149,743 00
1876 to 1880, four years	38,580 67	195,188 29	1,167,398 14
1880 to 1884, four years	136 976 94	363,254 31	2,992,924 90
1884 to 1887, three years	217,451 89	475,977 94	4,029,373 66
Total in 1887	$495 831 54	$1,750,004 46	$10,873,777 69

It is very pleasing to notice that the gains for the last three years only are 60 per cent. more than those of the preceding four years.

A Strange Find.

The navvies on the G.T.R. double track, at Belleville, the other day unearthed several bones, supposed to be, says the Ontario, those of a tribe of Indians who inhabited this section years ago. The main line of the road is being lowered on the grade two feet and a half, and under this the men found rails spiked to ties which were found to be in a perfect state of preservation.

Ritchie the Horse Thief.

A telegram received this morning states that on Wednesday Mr. W. Bunton arrested Ritchie the thief who stole the horse and buggy of Mr. M. Mansfield, reeve of Galway, at Rockwood, a village in Wellington county, about forty miles west of Toronto. Chief Rossel left by the noon train to-day to bring Ritchie back to town. He will return with his prisoner to-night. Ritchie will be here in ample time to stand his trial at the fall assizes, on Oct. 10th.

Ladies' laced boots, 90 cents, sold usually at other places for $1.75, and our men's long boots for $1.75, unsurpassed for value in the Dominion, every pair warranted. But call and see Kidd's, the boot man, and he will show you why he smiles. Still there is more to follow. dw

Crossley and Hunter.

The evangelists, Messrs. Crossley and Hunter, have just closed a very successful campaign in Oakville. During their four weeks' services some 347 have been forward as seekers for salvation, and there are besides large numbers who have risen for prayers. The evangelists go from Oakville to Windsor for a few days, thence to Winnipeg, after which the order of their work is likely to be Peterborough, Kingston, Brampton and Exeter.

Belleville's Way of Collecting Taxes.

The change inaugurated by Belleville for the payment of taxes, the Ontario says, has so far proved a boon to the city finances. This year a discount of three per cent. was allowed on all taxes paid in by the first of October, with the result that up to Wednesday $30,000—or nearly one half of all the collectable taxes in the city—had been paid over to the treasurer. At the same time last year, without a discount, only $2,000 had been paid in. Under the new plan the city saves a large item of interest on borrowed money, and the ratepayers save three per cent. on their taxes.

New Confectionery Business.

Mr. Thomas Hooper, jr., has made all arrangements and will in a few days open out a new confectionery and pastry cook shop and oyster parlors at 327 George street, opposite the market square. The shop has been specially refitted for the business and a splendid new oven added. The second story contains a finely fitted dinning hall for giving oyster and other suppers to private parties. Mr. Hooper is well known in town, and is well acquainted with the business, and will, no doubt, receive a liberal share of the public patronage.

A Row at a Dance.

A night or two ago at a dance, John Prim overheard another young man making game of his (Prim's) sister's feet. John couldn't stand this, and the result was a fight. After he had soundly thrashed the defamer of his sister, he gave the latter a chance to explain. He said he only referred to the clumsiness of her feet when dancing, and that it was very evident that she had not bought her shoes at the store of gough bros., the wonderful cheap men, 375 george street. Here both rich and poor will find a magnificent stock of most excellent boots and shoes, bought at 40 cents on the dollar and sold at the lowest prices ever heard of in the town or in Canada. Do not waste your money by paying two prices for boots and shoes, but come at once to the store of gough bros., and buy the best goods for the least money. Don't delay; come at once.

Repairs Badly Needed.

The attention of the EXAMINER was to-day called to the disreputable state of the road leading from Hunter street along the raceway in front of the Dickson mills. The roadbed is soft and muddy, and full of miniature sink-holes. It is badly in need of repairs, and unless these are soon made a cessation of traffic to the mills is threatened. Farmers in particular who have to draw heavy loads of wheat to the flour mill and elevator grumble continuously, and declare that if the road is not put in better shape they will not deliver any more grain. As the fall grain trade has just begun the objections taken by the farmers become significant. The mill-owners would, of course, suffer seriously in an event of this kind, and one of them to-day asked the EXAMINER to stir up the council to have the street repaired. The road has not been touched for a long time, and it is about time the street inspector gave it a little attention.

Literary Society Reorganized.

The Literary and Debating Society in connection with St. Peter's Cathedral was reorganised for the season at the Murray street school last night, the following officers being elected:

PATRON—His Lordship Bishop Dowling.
HONORARY PRESIDENT—Mr. J. W. Fitzgerald.
PRESIDENT—Dr. Brennan.
VICE-PRESIDENTS—Messrs. Jno. O'Meara and J. J. Sheehy.
TREASURER—Mr. Jno. McIlmoyle.
SECRETARY—Mr. M Hackett.
COMMITTEE—Messrs. Chas. Leonard, Gus. Gough, C. Rosch, R. Henry and C. J. Phelan.

It was decided to hold an open debate two weeks hence, on the evening of the 17th inst., upon the question: "Resolved, that capital punishment should be abolished." Mr. J. J. Sheehy was appointed to take the affirmative and Mr. J. McIlmoyle the negative.

An Improved Farm Fence.

Mr. T. E. Fitzgerald, of Smith, has purchased, for the township of Smith, the interest in Russel's Improved Farm Fence, including the selling of the right to erect such fences in that township. This fence has great advantages over any other rail fence; it takes only half the timber; takes but half the space on the ground; will not blow over any easier than a barn, and stock cannot rub it down; there are no posts to decay. A common old rail fence, with a couple of stakes to each length, and one pound of wire, makes as good a fence as any farmer needs. This fence, where introduced and tried, gives every satisfaction. Mr. Fitzgerald is prepared to dispose of farm rights to erect this fence and to give the few instructions needed for its construction. Farmers are requested to examine the fences where erected in this township, and it is certain that they will at once see and admit that for cheapness, durability, economy of ground and material, it cannot be surpassed. Timber is growing scarcer every year, and farmers must look to building the kind of fence that will require the least material.

An Aged Clergyman Dead.

The subject of the following sketch will doubtless be remembered by many old residents in Peterborough. The Hamilton Times of the 20th Sept. says:—"Yesterday there died, at 22 Sheaffe street, one of the most venerable clergymen of this city—the Rev. Henry Lanton, who has sustained a supernannated relation to the Methodist church for the past twenty-three years. He first came to Hamilton in 1843, and for two years acted as one of the young clergymen in the circuit, which included MacNab street and the first Methodist churches. He entered the ministry in England in 1837, and immediately came to this country, being stationed at Quebec, where he was ordained for special purposes; and afterwards at Kingston was received into full connection with the conference. He was stationed at Stanstead, Peterborough, Hamilton, Belleville, Prescott, Perth and Bath. In 1863 he visited England, and, returning, spent a year at Vienna, and on account of failing health, was supernannated in 1865, taking up his residence in Hamilton. Mr. Lanton was a devout man, earnest in his work, and endowed with all those peculiar gifts that go to make up a successful pastor.

Agricultural Exhibitions.

A Successful One at Warsaw Tuesday and Wednesday.

This week is prolific of fall fairs throughout the county. Tuesday and Wednesday the Dummer and Douro Agricultural Society held their annual exhibition at Warsaw; to-day the Otonabee township show is being held at Keene; to-day and to-morrow, 4th and 5th, the Smith, Ennismore and Lakefield show takes place at Lakefield and the South Monaghan exhibition at Centerville.

Tuesday and Wednesday of next week the East Peterborough exhibition will be held at Norwood; the Apsley show takes place on the 12th. The Cavan fall fair will be held at Millbrook on the 9th and 10th.

The Warsaw exhibition was an entirely successful one. The little village was crowded, and the day was the biggest one of the year. There were 426 entries, against 319 last year. All the departments were full, and the exhibits were of a first-class quality, roots and vegetables predominating. The prize list will show who had the best articles displayed.

Among the special exhibitors were Mr. J. W. Crosby, Peterborough, Uxbridge organs; Mr. F. T. Lumsden, Warsaw, two Doherty organs; Mr. G. A. Mitchell, Peterborough, Williams' sewing machines; Mr. C. C. McDonald, Peterborough, Chatham fanning mills and agricultural implements; W. D. Stephenson, Norwood, North American washing machine; Doughty Bros., Warsaw, stoves and tinware; Norwood foundry, ploughs.

The trotting race was won by J. H. Brown, with Geo. Ray second.

The Trent Valley Canal.

The Peterborough gentlemen who accompanied the T.V.C. Commission on their tour of inspection as far as Hastings, have returned to town. Upon the arrival of their party at Hastings they were met by a deputation of the village authorities. Remaining over night, they were to have proceeded to-day to Healey's Falls. One of the party informed the EXAMINER that all the members of the Commission, and in particular Dr. Oliver, the secretary, expressed their surprise at the splendid stretch of navigable water through which they passed, which, they said, was better than they had looked for.

Woman's Work.

The annual meeting of the Central Branch of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist church is being held in Toronto this week. Peterborough is represented by Mrs. Dixon and Miss Allen. Some interesting figures were given in the Secretary's report. There are 49 auxiliary branches, an increase during the year of 15; 28 Mission Bands, an increase of 11 branches. The membership is as follows:—Total, 2,415, consisting of 1,502 ordinary members, 84 life members, 829 Mission Band members. The treasurer's report showed a net income from all sources of $6,490.23, an increase of $1,879.69; total expenditure, $228.78.

The "Examiner's" New Serial Story.

In to-day's issue is presented the opening chapters of a splendid serial story, entitled "Daring and Suffering." It is a history of the Andrews railroad raid into Georgia in 1862, embracing a full and accurate account of the journey in disguise to the centre of the Confederacy, the capture of a railway train, the terrible chase by the enemy, with the subsequent history of the leader and his party. It is written by a member of the expedition and will be profusely illustrated. It will be found of thrilling interest from first line to "finis." Now is the time to subscribe to the Daily EXAMINER and secure the opening chapters and completion of this exciting story. Daily EXAMINER, enlarged to 32 columns, $4.00 per year, $1.00 per three months, 35 cents per month, 10 cents per week.

Let Us Hear From You.

Many persons are asking when that mutual fire insurance company, the Midland District Mutual, with headquarters at Peterborough, is to be organized. It was thought that two hundred residents of the county could be found who would put up $50.00 each, making a guarantee fund or capital of $10,000.00, which would place the company on an excellent footing to begin business with. Where is your enterprise, gentlemen? Why do you not go ahead? Peterborough has originated and successfully conducted more than one financial institution, and a mutual fire insurance company, for which there is a place ready, should not be nearly so difficult to institute and carry on with success. Other less important places have such companies doing business and bringing in business to the extent of at least two or three hundred thousand dollars per year. Why not have something like that coming in here?

News Nuggets.

—The annual meeting of the curling club takes place this evening.

—There was a perceptible fall of snow this morning, but not the first of the season—that came on Tuesday morning.

—The busiest men in the town are the stove dealers, and next to them the coal and wood dealers.

—The Methodists of the Foxboro district have decided on holding "four days meetings" in all the charges throughout the district.

—The Rathbun mill, Campbellford, has cut a million feet of lumber and ninety-five thousand railroad ties.

—The various district championship teams of the Canadian Lacrosse Association will meet at Toronto on Monday next to decide the Association intermediate championship.

—Mr. Owens, pump manufacturer, was yesterday rather severely hurt by a couple of beams falling on him. He is around again to-day, though pretty sore.

—At the Belleville Assizes, Henry Robinson, found guilty of criminal assault upon his own daughter, was sentenced to twenty years in the penitentiary.

—It is hoped there will be a large attendance at the meeting of the football club this evening. Already two challenges are in, from Toronto and Upper Canada College, and no time should be lost in beginning practice.

—The Campbellford Herald says:—Last Wednesday evening a large company of persons assembled at "Beaver Hall," the residence of J. W. Dinwoodie, Esq., Campbellford, to witness the marriage of his eldest daughter, Margaret, and Mr. Geo. W. A. Waters, junior partner of the firm of Messrs. Jas Waters & Bro. The bridesmaid was Miss Bella Roddick, of Port Hope, while Mr. D. M. Waters, of Belleville, brother of the bridegroom, was the right hand man.

Personal.

Judge Lazier, of Belleville, who met with an accident, is recovering from its effects, though he was unable to preside at court on Wednesday.

Mr. Herbison, the new secretary of the Y. M.C.A., arrived in town last night. He was met at the station by a deputation from the Association. A formal reception will probably be tendered him shortly.

THE GLORY OF MAN

"Did anyone remark that it was cold"?—Examiner Sept. 29.

Well, yes. Could anyone be found in our entire population who has not made use of the remark during the past few days?

And has there not been uppermost in everyone's mind the imperative necessity for warmer clothing?

Someone has said that the glory of man is in his strength; but if strength is to be maintained at this trying season of the year, warmer and heavier clothing must be worn.

The man who neglects to attend to this duty at once will discover that his glory has departed, as he finds himself ushered into the presence of Dr. Liverpills.

Therefore, before you spend the price of an entire warm winter outfit on medicine, which depletes the strength, obey the voice of common sense—go to T. DOLAN & CO.'S and buy yourself a set of warm flannels, and order a suit of heavy Tweed Clothes.

Better do it at once, too, rather than run the risk of staving it off from day to day, until you get sick.

—AT—

YARNS.

There is nothing more essential to the health of the body in this changeable climate of ours than keeping the feet comfortably clad, so, in order to supply the large demand for good Woolen Yarn and Hosiery, we have paid particular attention to this department. Our Baldwin and Wheeling Yarns are imported direct from Scotland. Baldwin's Yarns are so well known we need not say anything about them, and Scotland is noted the world over for wools; so that we can show you all the best makes in any color at the very lowest prices. The Wheeling Yarn is a heavy make intended for children's and boys' wear very much like our Canadian yarn only much softer and warmer, and it comes at a low price.

HOSIERY.

You should see our Heather Wool Sox for men, knitted by the grandmas of Scotland. They may seem a little high in price, but they are really very cheap as they wear so long. We have Black Cashmere Hose in plain and ribbed in two or three different makes, from the smallest baby's size to the largest ladies, at prices that are right, as we are confident they are not sold cheaper in either city or town in the regular way. We have also a special make of Canadian Hose closely and softly knitted, without a seam. You should ask to be shown these goods when at the Hosiery counter. You will be pleased with them. We need only to speak in a whisper about a bargain we have secured, knowing that it will spread like fire when mentioned. One of our largest hosiery knitting mills, that supplies the wholesale trade only (as they have to sell in large quantities to find market for all they make), after filling all their orders, had a surplus left, which they were anxious to dispose of in order to make room to commence the cotton goods for spring. Our stock not being heavy, we were able to do with them and can now offer you an all wool perfect knitted hose, ladies' size, for 12½ cents a pair. Remember that all through the season we keep our stock well assorted, and no matter what inducements may be offered we never allow ourselves to be undersold.

Canadian and Home-made Yarns always in Stock.

SIR JOHN'S QUEER CALLER.

HE DESIRED TO ASSIST IN PUTTING DOWN THE REBELLION.

A Delegation from St. Catharines and Thorold at the Capital—The Haldimand Election Appeal.

OTTAWA, Oct. 4.—The Workingmen's Conservative Association here will tender a banquet to Hon. J. A. Chapleau.

A deputation from St. Catharines and Thorold waited on the Government to-day and urged that manufacturers be allowed the privilege of leasing the water privileges of the new Welland Canal. It is estimated that nearly 1,000,000 horse power is running to waste between locks 1 and 20. A turning at lock 3 is also asked for. The last request is that the pond at lock 2 be filled in. The ministers promised favorable consideration of the matter.

The Shell River Colonization Company has settled its business with the Department of the Interior, having accepted something over $15,000 scrip in liquidation of the claims.

Sir John and his private secretary leave to-night for Toronto and are not expected to return before Saturday next.

Sir Hector Langevin is going to New York with one of his daughters, who is ill, and will consult physicians there.

Hon. C. H. Tupper has been compelled to cancel his visit to the Lansdown Exhibition, owing to pressure of business.

Mr. R. F. Goulet, President of the Stormont and Valleyfield Cotton Company, was in the city to-day for the purpose of effecting a settlement of some customs difficulty which occurred in the summer of 1887, by which it is claimed the agent of the Company entered for duty certain cotton dyes under the wrong class.

A young man from North Gower tried to interview Sir John to-day. He desired to assist the Premier in "putting down the rebellion."

Hon. Mr. Chapleau has gone to Montreal.

Argument was continued in the Haldimand election appeal in the Supreme Court to-day. Mr. Aylesworth, in behalf of the appellant, spoke for over an hour. Mr McCarthy then entered upon the defence, and was still speaking when the court closed.

The Mining Commission at Madoc.

MADOC, Oct. 4.—The Mining Commission began work in this district on Monday, when several witnesses were examined. Mr. Whitney, superintendent of the Hungerford Marble Company, told about the company's operations at Madoc from which a dark grey marble, equal to any produced in the States of Vermont and New York is taken. The supply is practically unlimited, the vein having been traced two miles and being 900 feet wide. Also the company's quarry at Bridgewater, ten miles from here, from which a valuable white crystaline limestone is taken. Evidence was taken with reference to the mining operations in gold, arsenic, mica and actinolite, all of which are found in the district in paying quantities. There can be no doubt of the wealth of the mineral deposits in the district.

Funeral of Senator Ross.

QUEBEC, Oct 4.—The funeral of the late Senator Ross was attended by an immense number of citizens to-day and representative men generally of all classes. The funeral service was held in the residence of the deceased in St. Foye-road by Rev. W. B. Clarke and Rev. Dr. Mathews. Subsequently the cortege was formed, the chief mourners being his brother and nephew, Frank Ross, sr. and jr., John T. Ross of Quebec and Wm. Ross of London, Eng.

A Strange Discovery.

BELLEVILLE, Oct. 4.—The navvies on the Grand Trunk Railway double track the other day unearthed several bones, supposed to be those of a tribe of Indians who inhabited this section years ago.

The main line of the road is being lowered on the grade two feet and a half, and under this the men found rails spiked to ties which were found to be in a perfect state of preservation.

Youthful Thieves.

MONTREAL, Oct. 4.—Two boys, aged 15 and 18 respectively, were arrested yesterday afternoon. Mr. Stroud, in whose employ they are, has been missing money, and having his suspicions aroused, marked 42 cents and sent a child in to buy some tea. He watched, and found the boys did not put the money in the drawer. So he had them arrested and the marked money was found in their possession.

Highway Robbers in Brockville.

BROCKVILLE, Oct. 4.—A citizen, while on his way home the other evening, was attacked by three men who maltreated him and robbed him of some $7, all the money he had in his possession at the time. He was confined to his bed for some days as a result of the rough handling he received

C. P. R. Earnings.

A Case of Child Desertion.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—A woman named Maggie Smith, claiming to be married, sought and found a home during her trouble in the house of Thos. Holdway. One day last week the woman left the house and has not since returned. She left behind her a three weeks old girl baby.

Lost the Season's Crop.

MT. FOREST, Oct. 4.—Last night about 7.30 o'clock a large bank barn belonging to Mr. Jos. Dawson, a farmer residing about 3 miles out of this place, was consumed together with this year's entire crop. No insurance. The origin of the fire is a mystery.

Developed Into a Thief.

KINGSTON, Oct. 4.—Miss Lacey brought a party of boys from England, and among them was Christopher Ragan. Yesterday he stole a silver watch and ran away. He was sent to the reformatory for five years.

Swallowed Carbolic Acid.

BROCKVILLE, Oct. 4.—A 3-year-old child of Mr. Shearer secured a bottle of carbolic acid and swallowed a mouthful of the liquid. A physician was at once summoned and after considerable work the child's life was saved.

MUCH DISAPPOINTED.

The Persian Minister at Washington Thinks His Reception Rather Tame.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—The Persian Minister was presented to the President to-day. He manifested much disappointment at the plainness of the executive mansion, and thought his reception rather tame as compared with the pomp and grandeur with which representatives of foreign governments are received at the Persian court. When President Cleveland entered the room the Persian prostrated himself before him. Then followed a performance common enough in the Orient, but never before witnessed here. The Minister bumped his head gravely three times against the floor and then, as if satisfied that he had done the proper thing, he straightened himself up and awaited the President's pleasure.

A MYSTERIOUS POISONER.

THE PEOPLE OF GALT EXCITED BY A TERRIBLE TRAGEDY.

One Victim Dead—The Deadly Drug Contained in Confectionery Sent From Toronto Through the Postoffice.

GALT, Oct. 4.—The citizens of Galt are in a fever of excitement to-night over a fiendish attempt at wholesale poisoning which has caused the death of one victim and is likely to result fatally in another instance.

By the last mail last night there arrived at the postoffice here three packages bearing the Toronto postmark. A 6-cent postage stamp was upon each and the packages were addressed to Mrs. John Cherry, Miss May Lowell and Mrs. John Ridley, respectively, the latter lady being the wife of the incumbent of the English Church here.

Mrs. Cherry was the first to get her package from the post office this morning, and upon getting home opened it and found that the pasteboard box inside of the wrapper contained six chocolate drops which she gave to her three children to eat. Shortly afterwards all of them showed signs of sickness and before the doctor arrived were in convulsions. The eldest child, about 6 years old, is getting better, but the youngest one, about 2½ years old, never rallied and died to-night. The other child is in a very critical condition and not likely to recover.

The several doctors in attendance give it as their opinion that the candies contained strychnine.

The news of the shocking affair spread rapidly, thus preventing Miss Lowell and Mrs. Ridley from partaking of any of the contents of their packages, which also contained chocolate candy, but of a somewhat different shape and size and probably impregnated with the same deadly poison.

The different boxes were evidently sent by the same party. The handwriting is poor and the same style on each, but the boxes are of different sizes and coarsely put up, having the appearance of being done up by some person not accustomed to that sort of work. They were certainly not sent out by any business firm to advertise their goods as there are no marks upon them to indicate who the senders were.

The motive that led to the perpetration of such a fiendish act and who the fiend is remains a complete mystery.

TIRED OF LIFE.

A Deliberate Attempt at Suicide in a Montreal Hotel.

MONTREAL, Oct. 4.—A most determined attempt at suicide was made in the Queen's Hotel in Claude-street last night. A middle-aged man named Kavanagh, whose father keeps a grocery store on Chabelles-square, came to the Queen's to board on Friday last. He was rather intemperate. Yesterday he went out for a walk after supper, came in shortly after 9 o'clock and went to bed. Some one passing the door heard a moaning sound inside and knocked. Receiving no answer, they broke open the door. The man was found lying nearly insensible with green froth at his mouth. A glass with green fluid stood on an adjacent chair, while a parcel labelled "Paris green" was found in the room. The police physician was telephoned for and on arrival decided to send the man to Notre Dame Hospital, but it was fully an hour before the ambulance arrived, though in the meantime the man had several times gone into a state of coma and was only got round by the assistance of a constable who studied medicine in his earlier days. The unfortunate man on being spoken to, said that he had deliberately taken poison, as he was afflicted with family troubles. He had no wish to live any longer on this earth and it was a gross piece of injustice on the part of any one to bring him back to life. All he wanted to do was to fall into a peaceful sleep. His father and sister were sent for and said the whole trouble of their relative's affliction was whisky.

CARNOT'S IMMIGRATION DECREE.

Germans Advised by the Berlin Press to Avoid Living in France.

BERLIN, Oct. 4.—The North German Gazette, referring to the French decree regulating immigration, recommends Germans henceforth to avoid living in France. It says: Every German who crosses the French frontier will understand that he has removed from culture to barbarism, and he has no right to complain if he comes into disagreeable contact with national customs and instincts.

The Vossische Zeitung thinks the decree is rather directed against Italians, while admitting that the decree is a sign of weakness in the French Government which gives way to the chauvinism of the masses. It says Germany has no right to complain, as the decree simply enacts what has been a long time in force in Germany.

Impossible of Execution.

PARIS, Oct. 4.—The Temps declares that President Carnot's decree is impossible of execution, and that opposition will be raised to it in the Senate and the Chamber of Deputies. Concerning foreigners who propose to visit Paris at the time of the Exhibition The Temps says they may rest assured that the decree will not be allowed to interfere with French courtesies.

The Liberte says the Ministry hesitates to approve the decree, and that it will be modified before it is presented to the Chambers.

MORE ABOUT ANNEXATION

THE REPUBLICAN PARTY'S MOVE TO THAT END.

Profound Consideration Given by a Committee of the U. S. Senate to a Scheme for the Purchase of the Dominion.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—The Sun's Washington special says: News reached me a few days ago of a move on the part of the Republicans for the peaceful acquisition of Canada. The object was to spike Mr. Cleveland's retaliation message gun, and go him one better. I made an investigation, and learned that some such movement was not only contemplated, but thoroughly discussed, and that the Canadian question has received profound consideration in the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations. The scheme of welding Canada into the Union by assuming her national debt is indorsed by Senator Sherman.

I asked Senator Morgan whether a resolution looking toward Canada's purchase had been introduced into the Committee on Foreign Relations, and he said: "Yes; Mr. Blair, of New Hampshire, put a resolution empowering the President to open negotiations with Great Britain, but no action has been taken upon it. I think the opinion of the committee is that the resolution is premature, and would not be at all likely to excite any favorable consideration on the part of Great Britain or Canada.

Senator Morgan further said: "There is not a member of the Senate of the United States, and, I suppose, not a member of the House of Representatives, who would not be very glad indeed to see Canada included within our borders, but that would have to be under such circumstances and upon such conditions as would be entirely satisfactory to Canada. We would not want any people coming here who were regretful of the step, who were compelled to come, or whose views upon national policy were overruled and broken down by over-government."

"How do you think Great Britain would act in case we made a proposition in the line of Senator Blair's resolution?"

"My general conception of British policy on that subject is this: Judging from the manner in which she has been acting toward Canada recently, I think she regards her as the chief of her colonial possessions, and that the value which attaches to the Dominion is more particularly in connection with her commerce with Australia, India, and Hong Kong. I think Canada's feeling is growing every day in favor of annexation with the United States. No people of our blood and race and our habits of thought upon all of the questions of personal liberty that have been so long existing in the Anglo-Saxon family can live in close proximity to a government like ours as Canada does, for any considerable length of time, without imbibing all of the affection for our institutions that we possess. The constant drift is all in our direction."

[On Aug. 6 Senator Blair introduced a resolution in the United States Senate authorizing the President to open negotiations with Great Britain for acquiring Canada, but making no suggestion as to terms.—Ed.]

Comment in London.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—The news that the United States Senate Foreign Relations Committee is in favor of annexation aroused little comment. It is generally regarded as a political move. The Chronicle says the question must be determined at Ottawa rather than at London.

Light Trading in Wheat at Chicago.

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—Trading in wheat was light yesterday and there was a general disposition to let the market alone, at least for the present. The market is too uncertain and after the occurrence of last month and the situation generally, operators deem it prudent to hold off. Domestic markets were all lower, and the volume of speculative trading generally lighter than for some days past. Corn was quite active and unsettled most of the session though there were periods when the markets ruled comparatively quiet. Oats were easy and provisions strong.

A Canadian Child.

OSWEGO, Oct. 4.—Miss Morley is a Canadian from Kingston who was employed on a Canadian vessel as cook, and the captain of the vessel is the one upon whom she depends for the support of her illegitimate child. Since its birth he has acknowledged and supported it and has paid her expenses, but she is not satisfied with the amount he has contributed and wants him to make it more, which he does not feel called upon to do. The only offence with which he could be charged is bringing paupers to this country and it is upon this ground that the authorities will endeavor to compel him to furnish support for the child.

A Railway Smashup.

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—Inquiry at the general offices of the Chicago and Atlantic Railway Company in regard to the reported accident at Kouts, Ind., elicited the following statement from General Superintendent Thomas: A work train with a gang of Italians on board who were engaged upon repairs on the road stopped at the Kankakee water tank to take water when a fast freight train ran into it, causing a general smashup. Three Italians were seriously, though it is not believed fatally injured, and from 35 to 40 others more or less cut or bruised, but not dangerously.

Otonabee Exhibition

The Usual Annual Success at Keene.

The annual exhibition of the township of Otonabee Agricultural Society was held at Keene on Friday, October 4th. The morning was cold with rain threatening, which no doubt prevented a number from being present who otherwise would have attended the annual township show. It might be well for the directors of the various township societies to consider the advisability of holding these exhibitions earlier in the season, for after the first of October fine weather need hardly be looked for. There is nothing to prevent some of these shows from being held at the time of the Toronto Industrial. Too much time is lost by allowing Toronto the preference of the best season. The entries numbered this year 500, as against 494 for the previous year. The grain was very good, though the quantity was not so large as it should be for such a thriving and prosperous township as Otonabee. Roots were exceedingly good and a fine exhibit was made, and some potatoes grown by Mr. Yourex attracted considerable attention, owing to their enormous size. Sheep and swine were few in number but good in quality. Mr. Redmond, of Otonabee, and Mr. S. Curtis, of Alnwick, were the principal exhibitors in cattle, the former showing twelve thoroughbred Durhams besides several grades, and the latter a herd of thirteen Holsteins. Other local men had some fine animals and their names will be noticed in the prize list. Otonabee showed well in horseflesh and this year was no exception to the general rule. Mr. Mather made a good display of open and covered buggies, etc., and Mr. G. A. Mitchell commanded the attention of the ladies showing the fine sewing that is done by the New Williams Sewing Machine. Mr. Crosby had two very fine organs, a Dominion and an Uxbridge, and made the hall ring with sweet music. The fruit looked very fine and the floral display was good. Previous to the opening of the doors to the general public Dr. Harrison took several views of the exhibit. A number from Peterborough were present, and Mr. Thos. Blezard, M. P. P., and Mr. John Long, M.P., were also on the grounds. The gate receipts amounted to about $36. The following is the prize list:—

Leave hope behind.
All ye who enter here!

So runs the dire warning which Dante read on the portals of the Inferno. So runs the cruel verdict of your friends if you are overtaken by the first symptoms of that terrible disease, consumption. "Leave hope behind! Your days are numbered"!! And the struggle against death is given up in despair. But while there is life, there is hope! Dr Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has cured hundreds of cases worse than yours; and it will cure you, if taken in time. But delay is dangerous. No power can restore a wasted lung; the "Golden Medical Discovery," however can and will arrest the disease. b

DARING AND SUFFERING.

The writer and the men with him, as well as the other squads, directed their course first eastward till well in the mountains, and then southward, meeting with few obstacles except almost impassible ra'n, mud everywhere, and swollen streams, till Chattanooga and other stations west of that point on the railroad were reached, when passage was taken on different trains to Marietta, the second place of rendezvous agreed on by us. Our story of being oppressed Kentuckians gained us ready hospitality.

J. J. ANDREWS.

Two of our number, however, were suspected, and as the readiest way out of their dilemma, joined the Confederate army—which we had all been expressly authorized to do in case of need, and which was the easier now, as the conscription was being relentlessly enforced, and it was assumed that all travelers who could not give a good account of themselves were fleeing from it. At Marietta we spent the night, intending to capture our train in the morning in a camp of the enemy's and making our way northward, burn the bridges, which constituted the object that had brought us more than 300 miles away from the nearest Union forces. But everything had worked well so far, and we were very hopeful.

CHAPTER II.

GEN. MITCHEL MAKES WAR WITH ASTRONOMICAL PRECISION.

The promptness and celerity of the movement by which Gen. Mitchel surprised the enemy in his front and cleared the way for still greater enterprises was hardly, if at all, equaled by anything on the Union side during the whole contest. Pouring rain, flooded creeks and bridges swept away did not delay him a moment beyond his calculations, though they added enormously to the discomforts of the army under his command. Probably his scientific training was to some extent responsible for his appreciation of the value of minutes. Astronomers are accustomed to deal with the thousandth part of a second; and Mitchel, in his backwoods observatory, had invented instruments which made stellar records with more precision than any astronomer who had gone before him, and thus won world wide fame in this department. He carried the same qualities into the army. Leaving Shelbyville for a forced march the morning after the Andrews raid had started on its perilous way, and in exact time to secure the larges results from its co-operation—for its work was also to be done at a fixed period—he reached the vicinity of Huntsville before the enemy had the slightest intimation of his approach; then rousing his men at midnight by the light of the setting moon, he finished his march in the darkness, and came upon the sleeping town in the morning twilight, capturing everything—stores, messages, locomotives, trains and all the supplies of the railroad.

This was a glorious triumph, but it was only the first of the three parts of which Mitchel's plan consisted, and he at once entered on the second. Friday, April 11—the very day on which we had reached Marietta—he arranged all affairs connected with the railroad management on a new basis, and started two trains loaded with troops right into the midst of the enemy's territory. The first went westward to possess all the road in that direction and to open communication with the armies of Buell and Grant, then at Pittsburg landing, which was successfully and promptly accomplished. The other, commanded by Mitchel in person, started directly eastward. How far it should go depended partly on the resistance met, but still more on the news that might be received from the Andrews raiders. The little division of Mitchel presented on that clouded Saturday morning a most active and imposing spectacle to an eye capable of embracing it all. Three different railroad expeditions were rushing forward in rebel territory—for ours was also launched, and the other two, east and west, were in full progress—while his reinforcements and the regiments which had been outmarched were closing up on the central position at Huntsville. When Mitchel halted a short distance from Bridgeport, Ala., and only about thirty miles from Chattanooga, he knew that the greater part of his work was still undone. The whole north was thrilled by his success; he was made a major general and congratulated by the president, and ordered to report directly to Washington; but he knew that the key of the enemy's position, the grand strategical position of the war, at least in the west, was still unwon. And he also knew that whether he could take and hold it depended upon the degree of success with which we met that day in disabling the Georgia State and East Tennessee railroads. Could he capture Chattanooga at this early date, that town, which with its southward connections afterward cost scores of thousands of lives and around which struggled Rosecrans, Thomas, Grant, Sherman, Bragg, Longstreet, Johnston, Hood and their brave armies for two years of deadly conflict? Mitchel saw the value of this point, and before breaking camp at Shelbyville had sent our party to destroy the bridges on this road and the Chickamauga bridge on the East Tennessee road, thus with his own advance from the west cutting off all possible succor and leaving Chattanooga, now denuded of troops, at his mercy. He had now halted until he could hear what he had done.

But one mistake already had been made. We were to strike the bridges on Friday, the very day that Mitchel struck Huntsville. It was now Friday evening and we had done nothing, while Mitchel was within two hours' run of Chattanooga, with the road open before him, abundance of rolling stock, and the enemy in panic in his front. The cause of this delay was that Andrews, reasoning in a way that would have been justified in the case of any other Federal general, was assured that Mitchel would inevitably be delayed more than one day by such torrents of rain as had fallen since we left camp; and that for us to strike too soon would imperil the value of our work and might even aid the enemy's retreat. Mitchel's own advance; for he had sent word to our different squads that the grand attempt would be Saturday, the 12th of April instead of Friday. That would put him in full time for Mitchel's enterprise, but it increased our own difficulties and dangers in a way that will soon be made plain. On our morrow's work, therefore, depended the possession of Chattanooga, and probably the whole after course of the war in the west. This is an inference only; but it rests upon a mass of evidence of which the reader who has not attentively studied the subject can scarcely form an idea.

THE YEOMAN OF THE GUARD.

Successful Production of Gilbert & Sullivan's New Opera.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—The new opera of Messrs. Gilbert & Sullivan was submitted for public approval or disapproval last night, and the one mystery which has been almost as much talked about by one set of people as the Whitechapel mystery has by another, is at length cleared up. Never have these two gentlemen left so many details of a joint production until the eleventh hour as they have in this opera. The title was not decided on until two days ago, radical changes in the musical score and orchestration were made by Sir Arthur Sullivan at the final rehearsal on Tuesday, and the changes in the libretto, still damp from the printing press, were so marked last night as to cause much comment. The orchestration, score and dialogue of the opera, which are now on their way across the sea for production in America, differ in many important respects from the performance conducted by Sir Arthur Sullivan personally at the Savoy theatre last night. All the swell people in London who could get tickets were there to see it. It was a gathering of the most brilliant men and women of the metropolis.

"The Yeoman of the Guard, or The Merry Man and His Maid," as the new opera has been named, does not call for much stage setting. There are only two acts and only one scene, namely, the tower of London, reflected in such a sunlight in the first act and such a moonlight in the other as are seldom seen in London. The representation of the historic old tower is so literally perfect that it was received with uproarious applause from old Londoners. Both as regards music and dialog Messrs. Gilbert & Sullivan have taken a much higher flight in this opera than they have in others. The humorous, burlesque, and satirical features have given way to a classic vein. So far as last night's audience—with a large proportion of critics and educated people—were concerned, this was considered to be a big improvement, and the opera enthusiastically received as a success. Whether it will be so popular with the general public, who go to see Messrs. Gilbert & Sullivan's operas for the sake of the funny satire found in "Pinafore" and "Patience," is a matter of much speculation.

Though the music of the opera as a whole is of dignified and distinguished style, there are three or four taking melodies and two effective duets.

All the principal performers were called before the curtain, and were followed by Messrs. Gilbert, Sullivan and D'Oyly Carte, none of whom would respond to the calls for a speech.

The general verdict was that the opera is a success. Some of the critics say that Gilbert is not historically accurate in his costume of Henry the Eighth's time. It is claimed that his hats and tunics represent court fashions nearly a century apart.

THE TRADES CONGRESS.

A Final Circular Respecting the Meeting of the International Body.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—The British Consul at Chicago, in a carefully prepared report, contrasts the position of workmen in the Western States and in England. Although he admits that the American workingman receives higher pay he comes to the conclusion that he is no better off because of the dearness of the necessaries in America and for other reasons.

Mr. Broadhurst, Secretary of the Trades Parliamentary Committee, has issued a final notice respecting the International Trades Congress in London, beginning on Nov. 6. The last day for presenting delegates' credentials will be Oct. 20. The official language used will be French, but some speeches will be made in English. The chief topics will be the removal of obstacles to the free combination of workmen, and whether advisable or not to advocate State regulation of the hours of labor.

For Legislative Freedom.

DUBLIN, Oct. 4.—Cardinal Moran Archbishop of Sydney, N. S. W., upon the occasion of his presentation of the freedom of the City of Dublin declared that Australia together with Ireland would struggle for legislative freedom.

LIFE ASSURANCE COMP'Y OF CANADA.

HEAD OFFICE, MONTREAL.

Both in Magnitude and Profitableness, the Business for 1887 has been almost everything that could be desired.

The life policies now in force are 7,128 for $10,873,777.69, on 6741 lives. We have moreover $3,207,600 00 insured under 1,840 accident policies, so that the total current contracts of the Company are 8,969 for $14,081,377.69.

The income for the year shows the very large increase of $122,331.23 over the figures of 1886, the total being $495,831.54. The revenue is now half a million dollars per annum, or as mentioned in the report, over $1,600 for every working day in the year, and even this he believed was but a mere introduction to what it will be in a few years hence. The gains from time to time are well illustrated by the following table:—

Period	Gain in income.	Gain in assets.	Gain in assurance.
1872 to 1875, four years	$ 54,611 21	$169,492 80	$1,140,743 00
1876 to 1880, four years	38,560 67	195,188 29	1,167,926 14
1880 to 1884, four years	126,978 84	362,264 31	2,962,284 89
1884 to 1887, three years	217,451 89	475,677 84	4,602,373 65
Total in 1887	$495,831 54	$1,750,604 48	$10,873,777 69

It is very pleasing to notice that the gains for the last three years only are 60 per cent. more than those of the preceding four years.

Severe Sentences.

At Lindsay, on Monday, C. Baldwin was sentenced to six years in the Kingston penitentiary, and Willie, his son, to four years in the same institution, by Justice of the Peace O'Leary. This is the sequel to the burglary of a number of stores at Lindsay last July. Last week, it will be remembered, the police searched Baldwin's house and found a large quantity of the goods concealed. Father and son were arrested and convicted, as above stated.

An Important Contract.

The Central Bridge Works are now busy upon an important contract, that of the steel roof for the new C.R.R. train sheds at Montreal. This roof will be 460 feet in length, 90 feet span, and will require for its construction 240 tons of steel. Mr. Law supplies the steel framework and the company does the sheeting and slating.

A Robust Radish.

Mr. Jas. Sutherland, 88 Albert street, has left at the EXAMINER office, for the delectation of the agricultural editor, who is at present up to his neck in the compilation of Fall Fair literature, a gigantic radish of the red variety, which weighs 4 lbs., 6½ ounces, and measures one foot, eight inches in length. It grew on the double-entry plan—a sort of Siamese-twins ligature connecting the two roots for the length of a foot.

Bridge Building by Electric Light.

Another progressive step has been taken by Mr. W. H. Law, of the Central Bridge Works, by the introduction of the electric light into the works. Yesterday workmen from the Bell electric light company, Toronto, completed the putting in of a 10-light dynamo, each light of 200 candle power. Eight lights will at present be placed in the works leaving a reserve of two for future requirements. An engine specially designed to run the electric dynamo has been put in. It is expected that the connections will be made and the lights in use the early part of next week.

That Troublesome Drain.

It was feared the town would be put to a heavy expense in opening out the Hunter street sewer from the post office to ascertain the cause of the stoppage in the outflow, but this has been obviated. Street Inspector Pope yesterday had an excavation made in the middle of the intersection of George and Hunter streets, and, as he had expected, found a man-hole in the main sewer, from which it was seen that the stoppage was owing to the post office drain being too low. The main sewer is two feet deep but there are ten inches of gravel in the bottom which block up the drain entrance. The Hunter street or post office sewer will have to be raised and made to enter the arch higher up.

The Curling Club.

The annual meeting of the Curling Club was held at the rink last night. Mr. R. S. Davidson, Vice-President, occupied the chair, the President, Judge Weller, being out of town. There were present Mr. C. McGill, Secretary-Treasurer, and Messrs. R. P. Boucher, W. G. Ferguson, Jno. McClelland, D. Belleghem, R. Fair, F. H. Dobbin, Geo. Walker, J. Connal, T. Rutherford and W. Stanger. The club's prospects this season were talked over, and it was decided to make a strong effort to increase the membership, as the rink can accommodate more players than are now members. The statement of the Secretary-Treasurer was read, showing a satisfactory state of the finances, a small balance being on hand from last year. The officers were re-elected as follows:

PRESIDENT—Judge Weller.
VICE-PRESIDENT—R. S. Davidson.
SECRETARY-TREASURER—C. McGill.
COMMITTEE—The above officers and Messrs. W. G. Ferguson and A. Hall.
CHAPLAIN—Rev. P. C. Parker.
REPRESENTATIVE MEMBER—Dr. Boucher.
SKIPS—Messrs. W. G. Ferguson, Dr. Boucher, C. McGill, T. P. Attril, S. Ray, Judge Weller, Geo. Brown, T. Rutherford, A. Hall and H. T. Strickland.
JUNIOR SKIPS—W. F. Hamilton and J. Connal.

It was understood that the managing committee would have power to appoint extra skips if they thought it advisable.

The curlers present talked enthusiastically of what they intended doing at the grand game this year, and from all appearances the club will prosper amazingly well the coming season.

Successful Parlor Concert.

The parlor concert given at the residence of Mr. W. Davidson, Dickson street, last night, by the Mission Band of St. Paul's church, was entirely successful. The spacious and elegantly furnished rooms were thronged with a merry party of representative people from sister churches in town, and gayety and laughter were the order of the evening. In the sitting room chairs were arranged to accommodate a large audience for the hearing of the programme, whilst in the drawing room games of different kinds flourished, the donkey party caused endless amusement for the young people. The attendance was altogether satisfactory, and the proceeds ditto. Visitors went away filled with pleasant recollections of the kind hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Davidson and Miss Davidson, and the enjoyments provided for the occasion. The following programme was rendered under the direction of Mr. J. S. Parker:—

PART I.

Kindergarten—Jeanie Hall, Marion Hall, Katie Ferguson, Aggie Hall, Elsie Cameron, Jeanie Cameron, Percy Jamieson, Hegie Thompson, Nellie Courtney, May Courtney and Ethel Brodigan.
Piano solo.....Miss Crawford

The kindergarten songs and exercises by the children was perhaps the most "taking" feature of the programme. To Miss Dawson and Miss Cameron credit is to be given for their diligent care in training the little ones to such a pitch of excellence.

Ritchie Remanded.

The Alleged Galway Horse Thief in London—He Pleads Not Guilty—Some of the Evidence.

Alexander Ritchie, charged with stealing a horse, buggy and harness, from Mr. M. Mansfield, Reeve of Galway, was brought to town last night by Chief Rossel. The particulars of the theft and the pursuit and capture of Ritchie, are already familiar to readers of the EXAMINER.

This morning he was brought up before P. M. Dumble. Mr. B. E. Wood, C.C.A. conducted the prosecution. Mr. Wm. Banton, of Toronto, to whose detective work the credit of Ritchie's capture is due, told of his connection with the case. About four weeks ago Mr. Mansfield told him of the robbery, and described the supposed thief and the stolen articles. A little later Mr. Banton saw a man answering Ritchie's description on Adelaide street, Toronto. He was taken to the police station, but denied the charge entirely, and he was allowed to go. Banton then came to Peterborough, verified his first impression that the man he saw in Toronto was Ritchie, and began a search for him. He found that Ritchie had brought a horse and buggy answering the description of Mr. Mansfield's to Toronto, and had traded them. They were recovered, and finally he learned that Ritchie was in Rockwood, from where he had written some cousins of his in the city to send on his clothes. Banton went to Rockwood and apprehended Ritchie, and he was brought down here last night, Chief Rossel going to Toronto to meet Mr. Banton and his prisoner.

Ritchie pleaded not guilty, and, after Mr. Banton's evidence was taken, at the request of the prosecution, the case was enlarged for a week, to get the necessary witnesses.

The prisoner maintains a jaunty bearing and does not seem much affected by his situation.

Range and Rifle.

Completion of the Monthly Matches—Mr. F. Hall Takes the Medal.

The series of monthly matches of the Rifle Association were completed at the ranges yesterday, the 200-yard range of the August match and the whole of the September match being shot off.

Mr. F. Hall is the winner this year of the medal presented by the Ontario Association. His remarkably good score in the September match, 86 out of a possible 100, placed him on "top o' the heap." It is the biggest score ever made on the range here, and Mr. Hall is to be complimented on his fine marksmanship.

Messrs. W. A. Bell and W. H. Hill could not shoot yesterday, the latter on account of illness. He stood a fair show of making a large average and perhaps winning the medal but for his untimely illness.

The scores of the June and July monthly matches have already been published. Here are August and September:—

ANNUAL MATCHES.

The annual matches are to be held on Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 9th and 10th. There are seven matches. The maiden match is open to members who have never won a prize at any rifle competition. The Association and county matches are the most important, the two Bankers' cups and the Cox cup being the principal prizes. The other matches are the extra series, volunteers', company match and aggregate match, in the latter of which the Dominion R. A. medal will be given to the resident of the county making the highest aggregate in the Association and county matches. The challenge cup present by Col. H. C. Rogers and a medal presented by Capt. F. Birdsall are prizes in the company match. Matches will commence at 9 a.m. sharp, each day.

An Interesting Entertainment.

The inaugural meeting and opening soiree of the Young Men's Literary Guild of St. Luke's church, Ashburnham was held in the school room, last evening. Owing to the threatening aspect of the weather, there were not as many present as there should have been, but otherwise the meeting was in every way a most successful one. The true social nature of the entertainment was shown by the freedom with which all present moved about the room examining exhibits, and by the peals of mirth and laughter which frequently burst forth, especially in the corner occupied by the electric battery. The slides under the microscope, including a fly's leg, a fly's wing, a human hair, etc., were very much admired, as was also the splendid collection of minerals, etc., kindly exhibited by Mr. Trevor Kincaid. There were some very old and interesting books and papers exhibited, including one of the famous "Breeches" Bibles, so termed on account of that word being erroneously translated in the 7th verse of the 3rd chapter of Genesis, viz., "And they made themselves breeches." The musical programme was taken part in by Mrs. E A. Peck, Miss Tivey, Miss Daisy Morgan, and Messrs. Kingscote, Norton and Walke. Mr. E. B. Bart also gave a reading, and the encores were responded to in each instance. Owing to the indisposition of the Rector, President of the Society, the chair was taken by Mr. Burt, one of the Vice-Presidents. The only incident which at all allayed the uninterrupted pleasure of the evening was the first public announcement of the Rector's forced withdrawal from the Society for the winter, the doctors having ordered him to a warmer climate for the coming months of severe winter. His constant presence and untiring energy will be very much missed by all connected with St. Luke's Church.

The Stock of Tinware, Stoves and Cooking Utensils belonging to the Estate of J. J. Bagnley will be sold by retail on the premises, Hunter street, at 50c. on the Dollar. Sale commences Saturday, the 6th October, and will continue until the whole Stock is disposed of. 3d
